1.—" Every suit shall include..the whole of the claim..cause of action." —(Continued).

(44) Lease for a term-Breach of contract by lessee-Suits for rent.

(a) A lessee, after paying a month's rent, vacated the house and communicated to the plaintiff that he was not liable for further payment. First suit for the second month was decreed. Second suit for rent for the remaining term as damages, was not barred, as the rent for the subsequent period had not accrued due on the date of the first. 70 P.R. 1882.

(45) Lease, suit for registration of—Possession.

First suit by lessee to have a lease registered was decreed. Second suit for possession of the fields leased was not barred. 3 A.W.N. 6.

(46) Lessee resuming possession - Lessee retaining possession.

Where, in one case, a lessee resumes possession of lands on behalf of his landlord and in another case retains portions leased to him, although the lessor's title to recover is the same, the causes of action are distinct. 24 W.R. 212.

(47) Maintenance-Claim for.

A claim for maintenance by a Mahomedan sister against one of her brothers and the sons of another brother, is entirely different from her claim against them for the share of her brother in her deceased sister's estate. Also a decree awarding her own share in her deceased sister's estate does not bar a second suit by her for the share of her brother in the said estate, as the causes of action are entirely distinct. 8 O.C. 65. [F.C.A. No. 19 of 1901, D; 17 W.R. 108, Exp.; 17 W.R. 1 (5) (P.C.), R].

(48) Malabar Uralans - Devasom property.

First suit by the holder of a bond against the executant Uralans and a third Uralan, was decreed. Second suit for declaration against a fourth Uralan for binding the debt on him and on the devasom property, the fourth having objected to the attachment in execution of the first decree was not barred. 16 M. 449. See also 10 C. 924.

(49) Malikhana, suits for.

First suit for 'malikhana' was returned for presentation to the proper Court.

Second suit for the sum, which had accrued after the plaint was presented in the first Court, but before its representation in the Munsiff's Court, not barred. 10 A.W.N. 242.

(50) Mesne-profits, suit for.

(a) The right to possess immoveable property and the right to enjoy profits are two distinct rights.

Suit for possession. Second suit for mesne-profits accrued due before the first, is not barred. 129 P.R. 1889 (11 M. 210, appd; 11 M. 151 and 138 P.R. 1882, diss; 9 C. 283, D). See also L.B.R. (1900), Vol. I, part I, p. 13; 19 C. 615, F.

1.—"Every suit shall include..the whole of the claim..cause of action."
—(Continued).

- (b) First suit for possession of property. Second suit for mesne-profits, not. barred. 8 C. 593=10 C.L.R. 359; 12 C. 482; 17 C. 968; 19 C. 615. (11 M. 151, diss.) Contra, see cases under 'SUITS FOR MESNE-PROFITS' in O. II, r. 2 (1).
- (c) First suit was a summary suit for possession. Second suit for mesne-profits was not barred. 24 A.501.
- (d) First suit for mesne-profits misappropriated by defendant, as agent, was decreed. Second suit for possession of land and for mesne-profits intervening between the two suits, was not barred. 59 P.R. 1883, 509; (24 P.R. 1882, R.). But see 138 P.R. 1882, 599.
- (e) First suit for mesne-profits. Second suit for possession, not barred. 9 C. 283=12 C.L.R. 434; [4 B.L.R. (F B.), 113, commented on]. But see 9 O.C. 322 (19 C. 615; 17 A. 533; 9 O.C. 225 and 3 A. 857, R); see also 138 P.R. 1882; 129 P.R 1889 (11 M. 210, appd; 11 M. 151; 138 P.R. 1882, diss.; 9 C. 283, D). See also 137 P.L.R. 1902.
- (f) First suit for mesne-profits alone, dismissed on a preliminary point. Second suit for mesne-profits and land, not barred. 11 M. 210. See 4 M L.T. 192; 3 C.P.L.R. 3.
- (g) First suit for mosne-profits and possession, possession alone being decreed in appeal. Second suit for mesne-profits from the date of the decree, exclusive of the period the plaintiff was in possession, is not barred. 4 B.L.R. (F.B.), 113=18 W.R. (F.B.), 15. See also 11 M.L.J. 332. K.
- (h) A sale for arrears of rent having been set aside, a first suit was brought for mesne-profits for the time during which the purchaser was in possession. Second suit for rents wrongly collected was not barred. 5 B.L.R. 184=13 W.R. 261; 5 B.L.R. 187 (note)=18 W.R. 205.

- (a) A mother having mortgaged her minor son's property as guardian, a first-suit was brought by the mortgagee against the mother for money-decree only and the decree was not satisfied. A second suit to enforce the lien against the son, after he attained his majority, was not barred, as the son was no party to the first suit and as nothing in that suit would bind him. 41 P.R. 1983.
- (b) A mortgage-deed, having provided for possession in default of interest, a first suit for interest alone was brought and decreed. Second suit for possession, on account of a further default in the payment of interest, was not barred, as a fresh cause of action had arisen from a breach of the contract, subsequent to the first suit. 79 P.R. 1886 (138 P.R. 1882, D.).
- (c) First suit for sale against a managing member of a Hindu family on a mortgage executed by him, was decreed. Second suit for sale on the same mortgage, impleading as defendants all the members, was not barred. (1902) A.W.N. 223-25 A. 163; 21 A. 301; 22 A. 307 and 22: A. 394, R.

PART I.

SUITS IN GENERAL.

Junisdiction of the Courts and Res Judicata.

Courts to try all civil suits unless barred. 9. The Courts shall (subject to the provisions herein contained) have jurisdiction to try all suits of a civil nature excepting suits of which their cognizance is either expressly or impliedly barred.

Explanation.—A suit in which the right to property or to an office is contested is a suit of a civil nature, notwithstanding that such right may depend entirely on the decision of questions as to religious rites or ceremonies.

Stay of suit.

 which the matter in issue in a previously instituted suit between the same parties, or between parties under whom they or any other count in the same title where such suit is pending in the same or any other Court in British India having jurisdiction to grant the relief claimed, or in any Court beyond the limits of British India established or continued by the Governor-General in Council and having like jurisdiction, or before His Majesty in Council.

Explanation.—The pendency of a suit in a foreign Court does not preclude the Courts in British India from trying a suit founded on the same cause of action.

11. No Court shall try any suit or issue in which the matter directly and substantially in issue has been directly and substantially in issue in a former suit between the same parties, or between parties under whom they or any of them claim, litigating under the same title, in a Court competent to try such subsequent suit or the suit in which such issue has been subsequently raised, and has been heard and finally decided by such Court.

Explanation I.—The expression "former suit" shall denote a suit which has been decided prio to the suit in question whether or not it was instituted prior thereto.

Explanation II.—For the purposes of this section, the competence of a Court shall be determined irrespective of any provisions as to a right of appeal from the decision of such Court.

Explanation III.—The matter above referred to must in the former suit have been alleged by one party and either denied or admitted, expressly or impliedly, by the other.

Explanation IV.—Any matter which might and ought to have been made ground of defence or attack in such former suit shall be deemed to have been a matter directly and substantially in issue in such suit.

Explanation V.—Any relief claimed in the plaint, which is not expressly granted by the decree, shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to have been refused.

Explanation VI.—Where persons litigate bona fide in respect of a public right or of a private right claimed in common for themselves and others, all persons interested in such right shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to claim under the persons so litigating.

- 12. Where a plaintiff is precluded by rules from instituting a further suit in respect of any particular cause of action, he shall not be entitled to institute a suit in respect of such cause of action in any Court to which this Code applies.
- 13. A foreign judgment shall be conclusive as to any matter thereby directly

  When foreign adjudicated upon between the same parties or between parties under whom they or any of them claim litigating under the same title except—

  - (a) where it has not been pronounced by a Court of competent jurisdiction;
  - (b) where it has not been given on the merits of the case;
- (c) where it appears on the face of the proceedings to be founded on an incorrect view of international law or a refusal to recognise the law of British India in cases in which such law is applicable;
- $\left(d\right)$  where the proceedings in which the judgment was obtained are opposed to natural justice;
  - (e) where it has been obtained by fraud,
- (t) where it sustains a claim founded on a breach of any law in force in British India.
- Presumption be a certified copy of a foreign judgment, that such judgment was pronounced by a Court of competent jurisdiction, unless the contrary appears on the record; but such presumption may be displaced by proving want of jurisdiction.

Place of Suing

Court in which suits to be instituted.

15. Every suit shall be instituted in the Court of the lowest grade competent to try it.

Suits to be instituted where subject matter situate.

- 16. Subject to the pecuniary or other limitations prescribed by any law, suits—
- (a) for the recovery of immoveable property with or without rent or profits,
- (b) for the partition of immoveable property,
- (c) for foreclosure, sale or redemption in the case of a mortgage of or charge upon immoveable property,
- (d) for the determination of any other right to or interest in immoveable property,
  - (e) for compensation for wrong to immoveable property,
- (f) for the recovery of moveable property actually under distraint or attachment, shall be instituted in the Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the property is situate.

THE FOURTH SCHEDULE.

Enactments Amended.

THE FIFTH SCHEDULE.

Enactments Repealed.

THE CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE, 1908

(ACT V OF 1908)

THE FIRST SCHEDULE.

ORDER I.

PARTIES TO SUITS.

1. All persons may be joined in one suit as plaintiffs 1 in whom O. XI Who may be any right to relief 2 in respect of or arising out of joined as plaintiffs. the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions 3 is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative 4, where, if such persons brought separate suits, any common question of law or fact would arise.

(Notes.)

(Old Act).

The first sentence of S. 26 of Act XIV of 1982 corresponds with this rule:—
"All persons may be joined as plaintiffs in whom the right to any relief claimed is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative, in respect of the same cause of action."

Difference between the old section and this rule.

- (1) After the word "joined," the words "in one suit" are added. This seems to be a mere verbal addition.
- (2) Instead of the phrase "in respect of the same cause of action," the phrase "in respect of or arising out of the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions" is substituted.
- (3) "Where, if such persons brought separate suits, any common question of law or fact would arise" is newly added after the words "in the alternative."

English orders and rules.

This rule corresponds almost exactly with the first portion of O. XVI, r. 1 of the English rules in England.

The present rule is rendered wider than the section of Act XIV of 1882 by the use of the words "in respect of or arising out of the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions" in the place of "in respect of the same cause of action."

The last sentence of S. 26 of Act XIV of 1882.

Vis., "But the defendant, though unsuccessful, shall be entitled to his costs occasioned by so joining any person who is not found entitled to relief, unless the Court in disposing of the costs of the suit otherwise directs" is omitted in the New Act.

(Notes)-(Continued).

The two conditions requisite for the joinder of plaintiffs under this rule are:-

- (1) The right to relief in each plaintiff should be in respect of or should arise out of the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions.
- (2) There should be a common question of fact or law.

1.-" All persons may be joined....as plaintiffs."

A.—GENERAL PRINCIPLE IN JOINDER OF PARTIES.

- (1) The joinder or non-joinder of parties must always depend on some rule of substantive law, and the procedure rule does nothing more than provide, that certain rules and obligations, arising out of such law, can only be enforced or given effect to, in a particular way or under particular limitations. 156 P.R. 1889 (F.B.).
- (2) This order deals only with the joinder of parties and has no reference to the joinder of cause of action. Smurthwaite v. Hannay, (1894) A.O. 494.
- (2a) "Person" includes a body corporate or politic. O. 71, r. 1—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 146.
- (3) Eng. O. 16, r. 1 (= O. I of C.P.C.) came into operation on the 26th October, 1896. Under that rule, separate plaintiffs having separate causes of action may join in one suit, provided that the right to relief, alleged to exist in each plaintiff, arises from the same transaction, or series of transactions and there is a common question of law or fact. 2 Q.B.C.A. pp. 52-54; Bedford v. Ellis, (1901) A.C. 12—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 147.

EXAMPLES.

- (a) Four plaintiffs having become debenture holders in a company on the faith of statement made in a prospectus, which they alleged to be false, were held entitled to claim damages in the same suit on the ground that the right to relief arose out of the same transaction, viz., the issuing of the prospectus. Drincqbier v. Wood, (1899) 1 Ch. 393— Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 147.
- (b) Two Universities brought an action against certain publishers to restrain them from using certain titles to their publications which would induce the belief that such publications were those of the Universities. Held, the suit was rightly brought because the action arose out of the same series of transactions. Universities of Oxford and Cambridge v. Gill, (1899) 1 Ch. 55; Ibid, p. 147.
- (c) Six-market gardeners sued defendant, seeking a declaration, that the defendant was not entitled to exclude them from certain preferential statutory rights as to stands in the market. Held, the joinder was good, as there was a 'series of transactions' and a 'common question of law.' Ellis v. Bedford, (1901) A.C. 12—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 147.

1.—" All persons may be joined....as plaintiffs."—(Continued).

A.—GENERAL PRINCIPLE IN JOINDER OF PARTIES. —(Concluded).

- (d) Plaintiffs, members of Master-builder's Association, sued the officials of various Trades Unions, alleging conspiracy on the part of defendants to do certain overt acts; some committed by some defendants against some plaintiffs, others against all the plaintiffs, while some others by the defendants generally against particular plaintiffs. Held, the joinder good. Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 148 (last case).
  - But, where there are, in effect, two plaintiffs and two causes of action, not arising out of the same transaction, the joinder will be bad. Stroud v. Lawson, (1898) 2 Q.B. 44—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 148. H

B.—PERSONS WHO SHOULD BE PLAINTIFFS MAY BE MADE DEFENDANTS.

(1) Persons jointly interested with plaintiff may be made defendants, though it is not shown that they refused to join as plaintiffs. 29 M. 302; 4 M. L.T. 194. See also 12 W.R. 478=4 B.L.R.A.C. 118; 20 W.R. 138; 15 W.R. 436.

EXAMPLES.

- (a) Three out of four joint lessors may sue for rent, joining the fourth lessor as co-defendant. 87 P.R. 1886 (Civil).
- (b) A suit for ejectment may be brought, though the full proprietary body do not join as plaintiffs—provided that those who do not join, are made defendants. 92 P.R. 1866 (Civil).
  K
- (c) A suit by one of two co-contractors, making the other a co-defendant, ought not to be dismissed because the plaintiff failed to prove that the co-contractor had refused to join as co-plaintiff. 26 C. 409. See also 8 C.W. N. 271; 12 C.L.R. 588; 1 C.W.N. 221; 24 A. 226=22 A.W.N. 31; 26 M. 461, 649=13 M.L J. 322.
- (d) Where some of the partners of a firm refuse to join as plaintiffs in a suit on behalf of the firm, they can properly be made defendants. 2 Ind. Jur. N.S. 203; 10 W.R. 487.
- (e) One or some of several co-sharers can bring a suit with the others as defendants, only when they can show that the latter refused to join as plaintiffs or otherwise acted prejudicially to their interests. 17 C.160 1 C.W.N. 659.

C.—JOINDER OF PLAINTIFFS.

(1) Appeal.

Where a decree is given against two defendants, who had different defences to the suit, and they wish to appeal against the decree on different grounds, they cannot file a single appeal, as it will be bad for misjoinder. 10 M.L.J. 279; 2 Bom. L.R. 967 (P.C.)..

(2) Bonds, suits relating to.

- (a) Three out of five obligees to an indemnity bond cannot bring a suit on it. 5 C. 303.
- (b) Each of the heirs of the obligee of a money-bond cannot separately sue for recovery of his share of the money due on the bond. 7 A. 313=5 A.W. N. 34.

(3) Charter-party.

If the master of a ship signs a charter-party in his own name as a contracting party, and at the same time discloses the name of his principal, he can sue upon the charter-party. But if a master sign a charter-party for the owner as a contracting party, he cannot sue upon it. L.B.R. (Vol. 72 to 92), p. 658.

(4) Contracts, suits relating to.

- (a) In a suit upon a breach of contract, all the parties who are damnified by the breach must join. 2 C.L.J. 496.
- (b) Joint promisees should sue together. If the plaintiffs fail to join other joint promisees also as plaintiffs even after objection, the suits should be dismissed. L.B.R. (1893 to 1900), p. 555; 5 C. 303; 26 C. 409. T
- (c) Where four persons entered into an agreement with one another that the profits derived by each from his ginning factory should be brought to a common fund and divided among all the four in proportion to the number of machines employed and one of them refused to give the others a share in his profits, in a suit by one of the remaining three for his share alone of the profits due from the defaulting party, the other two persons were not necessary parties. 22 B. 861.
- (d) In a suit for specific performance of a single contract, the parties on each side must be marshalled as plaintiffs and defendants. 2 C.W.N. 42.Y
- (e) See, further, under JOINT HINDU FAMILY, (j), (k), (l), infra.

(4-A) Co-owners.

- (a) In a suit for recovery of property all co-owners must join, unless there is any special provision of law to the contrary. 3 M. 234; 10 B. 32; 8 C. 277; 4 C. 961. This is so, even if the sale-deed stands in the name of only one co-owner. 5 Bom. L.R. 577.
- (b) See, also, under CO-SHARERS (c), infra, and under LANDLORD AND TENANT, (d), infra.

(5) Co-parceners.

- (a) A Hindu co-parcener cannot sue to recover joint property lost to the family or for setting aside alienations without necessity either for the whole, or for his share alone, without making the other members parties to the suit. 6 M.L.J. 27; 2 C. 149. See also 12 W.R. 256; 14 W.R. 339; 18 W.R. 48; 20 W.R. 138; 12 W.R. 478=4 B.L.R.A.C. 118; 15 W.R. 436. Also 6 M. 27; 18 M. 33=4 M.L.J. 23; 23 M. 190; 12 B. 158.
- (b) See, further, under PARTNERSHIP, (h), infra.

O. I. r. 1] Act Y of 1908 (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE).

1. - "All persons may be joined....as plaintiffs." - (Continued).

(6) Co-sharers.

- (a) The fact that some of the co-sharers approve of the suit being brought by the other or that he is the manager with the consent of other co-sharers cannot deprive the defendant of his right to insist on all the co-sharers being brought on record. 10 B. 32; 7 B. 217; 21 B. 154; 12 B. 158; 17 M. 122 = 4 M.L.J. 52.
  Y
- (b) A co-sharer, who is manager even with the consent of his co-sharers cannot sue by himself and in his own name to eject a tenant. 21 B. 154. Z
- (c) Co-owners may agree that their property shall be managed and legal proceedings conducted by some or one of their number, but they cannot invest such person or persons with a competency to sue in his own name on their behalf or, if sued, to represent them. 3 M. 234.
- (d) One co-sharer cannot sue to enhance his portion alone of rent even by making the other co-sharers defendants. 2 N.W.P. 438. B
- (e) Where, in a suit to set aside a gift of a certain land to defendant and to recover possession thereof, the plaintiff owned only a portion of the land exclusively and the rest belonged to the plaintiff and other co-sharers, the suit is bad for non-joinder of parties. 8 A.W.N. 156. See contra 5 A. 602=3 A.W.N. 155.
- (f) See, further, under LANDLORD AND TENANT, (h), infra, and under PROPRIETARY BODY, (c), (e), (f), (g), (h), infra.

(7) Deaf and dumb persons.

A deaf and dumb person is not on that account alone to be deemed incompetent to sue or to be sued. 2 N.W.P. 414.

(8) Husband and wife.

- (a) A Hindu woman may at all times sue either alone or jointly with her husband. 1 Hyde 281.
  E
- (b) The husband need not be a party to a suit by a Hindu wife to enforce her rights under a mortgage deed executed to her. 2 C.W.N. 367.
- (c) A wife having an English domicile can sue without her husband as coplaintiff. 15 C. 35.
  G

(9) Joint Hindu family.

- (a) In a suit by the father of a joint Hindu family for money due to the family, his sons, who were taking an active part in family business, should be made parties. 8 A. 864.
  H
- (b) Where a Hindu father, who carried on jointly an ancestral money-lending business has ceased to take an active part in management and the business was in the hands of sons, the father alone could not sue for money lent in his individual capacity without joining his sons as plaintiffs with him, his sons being partners in the ancestral business and he not being the manager or proprietor. 8 A. 264.
- (c) Under Mitakshara Law an infant need not be joined as a co-plaintiff in a suit by the father to recover a trade debt. 26 C. 349=3 C.W.N. 190.J. 3294---6

  - (d) No member of an undivided Hindu family, except the manager of the family, as such, is entitled to bring a suit to establish a right belonging to the family without making the other members of the family parties to the suit. 6 M. 27.
    K
  - (e) But see 18 M. 33=4 M.L.J. 23 and 23 M. 190, where it was held that even a manager cannot sue without joining those interested with him. See also 12 B. 158; 21 B. 154; 3 M. 284.
  - (f) The manager of a joint Hindu family can sue alone for rent under a lease granted by him as such manager; but after his death, his son who has not succeeded his father in the management, cannot sue without joining the other members of the family as parties. 10 B. 141. See P.J. 1876, p. 11 and P.J. 1884, p. 33.
  - (g) The question of the right of a manager to sue in his own name is rather one of authority, if the other co-sharers are adults. 5 Bom. L.R. 618=28 B. 11 (α), 19.
  - (h) A managing member of a family could maintain a suit in his own name for himself and on behalf of the minor members of a family, especially when the defendant had waived the objection of non-joinder, by not raising it. 58 P.R. 1882.
  - (i) Where a Hindu father is sole owner of a mercantile business, his eldest son who is the manager of the business is not entitled to sue in his own name in respect of his dealings in that capacity and such right could not be conferred upon him by his father's consent to the exercise thereof. 1 A.W.N. 23.
  - (j) Though a member of an undivided family, a person can sue alone on a contract entered into with him in his individual capacity and not on behalf of the family. 9 B. 311.
  - (k) A suit by one member of a joint Hindu family, on a mortgage executed to him, may be maintained by him alone, when the contract is not shown to be on behalf of, or for the benefit of, the family. 15 P.R. 1902. R
  - (I) Where a contract is made with one member of a joint family, (e.g., a mortgage executed in favour of one of the members) he can sue upon it without joining the other members, though the contract was entered into for the benefit of the whole family. 9 M.L.J. 103=22 M. 326; 7 C. 739=10 O.L.R. 263; see 20 B. 435. #### (11) Legacy.

K left a certain sum to his widow with the direction that the unexpended balance should go to his heirs after the widow's death. Suit after the widow's death brought by one of three brothers who were the heirs of K to recover a third share of such balance. All the parties claiming to be entitled to any interest in the sum should have been made parties to the suit. (Suit not one "for a distributive share under an intestacy or of a legacy under a will" "within S. 32, Act IX of 1850"). 13 B.L.R. 142=22 W.R. 71.

(12) Mahomedan family.

- (a) Where several members of a Mahomedan family join in one suit for partition, the suit is not bad for misjoinder. 9 M.L.J. 37.
  J.
- (b) The daughters of a Mahomedan widow are not necessary parties to a suit by her against her husband's brother, on behalf of herself and her minor sons, for their share in a debt due to her husband and his two brothers but recovered by one brother alone. 2 B.L.R. Ap. 1.

(13) Malabar tarwad.

A mother and sons, members of a Malabar tarwad, residing together, may maintain a joint suit for maintenance. 9 M.L.J. 153.

(14) Mortgages.

- (a) When the plaintiff has notice of all the parties entitled to redeem, he must join them all with himself, as plaintiffs in a redemption suit. U.B.R. (Vol. 92—96), 586, 581.
- (b) Plaintiff's separated uncle and cousin are not necessary co-plaintiffs where there was no proof that at the time of the mortgage by plaintiff's father, he and his uncles were undivided or that it was executed by plaintiff's father as manager of the family, and the uncle and cousins did not claim any interest in the equity of redemption. 13 B. 51.
- (c) A co-heir of the plaintiff having an interest in the mortgage at the time of suit is a necessary party, but not otherwise. 16 B. 599. . O
- (d) Where mortgage debt has been repaid, any one of several mortgagors or hislegal representatives may sue for redemption and possession of his own share of the estate. 1 Agra 36. But see contra, 21 W.R. 428.

(15) Partnership.

- (a) All partners of a firm should be made parties to a suit on behalf of the firm. 140 P.R. 1889.
- (b) Except possibly in the case of an assignment by the other surviving partner or partners, one only of two or more surviving partners cannot sue for a debt due to the firm. 14 A. 524.
- (c) A firm becomes dissolved when the original partners die, and if somebody comes in their place and carries on the business of the firm, the business, whether carried on under the old name or not, is not that of the old firm but of an entirely new firm; and a suit on behalf of such new firm must be brought in the names of persons, who are at the time of the institution of the suit carrying on its business. 25 W.R. 148. T
- (d) The representative of a deceased partner is not a necessary party to a suit for a debt, by the other partners, though the debt fell due to the partnership, during the lifetime of the deceased. 10 P.R. (1906). See 70 P.R. 1904, contra.
- (e) The representatives of a deceased partner are not necessary parties to an action for damages under a guarantee to the original firm. Cor. 90. Y
- (f) Though probably the representatives of a deceased partner might be joined in a suit by the surviving partner on account of partnership debt yet there is nothing in S. 45 of the Contract Act or S. 26 of Act XIV of 1882 (=O. I, r. 1 of the new Code) to show that they must be joined in the suit. 9 A. 486; 17 B. 6. But, see contra 18 C. 86.
- (g) In a suit to recover a debt due to a trading partnership, it is not necessary to join as plaintiff any representative of the partner, who dies pending suit. 20 A. 365=18 A.W.N. 73; 9 A. 486; 17 B. 6, F. (18 C. 86, dissented from).
- (h) Where a Hindu firm is joint family property, a deceased co-parcener's heirs are not necessary parties to a suit, for the recovery of a debt, falling due to the firm, during the lifetime of such deceased. L.B.R. (Vol. 72—92), p. 651.
- (i) Where some members of a joint family trade, as partners, to the exclusion of other members of the joint family, there, the representatives of a deceased partner are necessary parties to a suit to recover a partnership debt which fell due during the lifetime of the deceased. L.B.R. (Vol. 72 to 92), p. 651.
- (j) The representative of a deceased partner may sue for and recover debts due to the firm, although the firm's assets in the hands of the surviving partner are already sufficient to answer all the claims made on behalf of the deceased partner and although the surviving partner is willing to satisfy such claims and disapproves of, refuse to join in, the suit brought by the representative of the deceased partner. 21 B. 412. #### (16) Proprietary body.

- (a) Where the right to common land is in issue, the whole proprietary body should be parties to the suit. 103 P.R. 1866 (Civil); 39 P.R. 1866 (Civil).
- (b) Some of the proprietary body of a village, may bring a suit against a proprietor, on the allegation that he had set up an exclusive title to certain houses built, on common land, for common purposes, by the whole proprietary body. A majority of the proprietors need not join in such a suit to oust the defendant. 74 P.R. 1888.
- (c) One co-sharer in a house can institute a suit for pre-emption based on vicinage, on the ground that the other co-sharers refused to join.

  42 P.R. 1891.
- (d) Where the alienation of the shamilat land is permanent (i.e.) such as to prevent any part of it from being hereafter divisible among the owners, the minority of village proprietors may sue. But, where the rights of the alienee are subject to future division of the shamilat and the alienation is not permanent, the will of the majority will prevail. 7 P.R. 1885 and 7 P.R. 1885 (note). See also 76 P.R. 1873; 78 P.R. 1877 and 30 P.R. 1879; 54 P.R. 1886, following 7 P.R. 1885.
- (e) All co-sharers must join in an action brought to eject a tenant from a common land. 17 P.R. 1879 (Civil).
- (f) But if it is satisfactorily shown to the Court, that some do not join for some reasonable cause, that the tenant would not be prejudiced, and there would be no miscarriage of justice, then the rest may sue. 1 P.R. 1902 (Rev.).
  G
- (g) One of several proprietors can't sue eo nominee for ejectment of defendant from a plot of common land (abads), even though the defendant's acts interfered with the plaintiff's house and even though the Court impleaded the proprietary body, all of whom demanded possession of the lands, as defendants. If the proprietary body wanted to eject the defendant as a trespasser, a separate suit must be brought. 99 P. R. 1883.
- (h) One or several of many co-sharers can sue to prevent invasion of their common property by a mere trespasser. 105 P.R. 1901; 21 A.W.N. 36.

(17) Religious Endowment.

- (a) A suit to administer the funds of a—is properly brought in the name of the Advocate-General (who should exercise only a general control over such suit). 1 Bom. Ap. 9.
- (b) It is no misjoinder of parties or causes of action, where several archakas of a temple doing duty by turns, having been evicted by the Dharmakarta, bring a suit jointly to recover the share of emoluments due to the office. 10 M,L.J. 415.

C .-- JOINDER OF PLAINTIFFS-(Concluded).

- (c) All the members of the District Committee should join as parties in a suit brought for the dismissal of a Dharmakarta, as the right to appoint or discharge Dharmakartas, belongs to the whole Committee. 2 M. 200.L.
- (d) All the mutwalls should be parties to a suit for the recovery of property belonging to the endowment, such of them as refuse to join as plaintiffs being made defendants. 11 C. 338.
  - See also 8 C. 42 where it was held that all the shabaits should be parties in a suit to set aside alienation of debutter lands by one of them.
- (e) All the Uralars must jointly sue in respect of Devaswam property; but when some of the Uralars refuse to join as plaintiffs after consultation and invitation so to join, the others may bring a suit, impleading the former as defendants. In the absence of such consultation and invitation, a suit by one Uralan without the others as co-plaintiffs will be bad for non-joinder. 14 M. 489; 23 M. 82; 9 M.L.J. 312; 24

  M. 296.
- (f) But, see 26 M. 461 and 26 M. 649 where it was held, on a consideration of Ss. 91 and 85 of the Transfer of Property Act, that one of two co-Uralars may bring a suit to redeem a mortgage without averring or proving that the other Uralan was asked to join as plaintiff in the suit.

(18) Reversioners.

- (a) The non-joinder with plaintiff, of a reversioner of equal grade, in a suit for declaration that an adoption was invalid, was no bar to the suit. 7 M. 401.
- (b) In a suit by the daughter and her minor son against the mother and others to whom the mother had alienated portions of the estate for a declaration that the alienations will not bind them and will only be good during the lifetime of the mother, the minor son is entitled to join as co-plaintiff. 10 M. 1.

(19) Succession certificate.

One representative may sue if he has a succession certificate.

In a suit by the representative of a deceased mortgagee, who had obtained a certificate under Act VII of 1889, the other heirs of the deceased need not be impleaded as plaintiffs. 99 P.R. 1898.

(20) Specific performance, suit for .-

See under CONTRACTS, (d), supra.

(21) Torts.

- (a) One member of a joint undivided Hindu family can sue alone to obtain compensation for loss to himself personally caused by wrongful destruction of property in which he had a definite share. 9 W.R. 279.
- (b) If relief is claimed as damages in tort, the suit may be maintained by any of the person injured, even though the tort is a damage done to land owned by plaintiff and others jointly. 2 C.L.J. 496.

2.-" In whom any right to relief."

A.—PERSONS HAVING RIGHT TO RELIEF.

(1) Adopted son and daughter.

A suit by an alleged adopted son and the daughter, claiming a declaration of ownership of their father's estate, is not bad for misjoinder, though no alternate relief is claimed for the daughter in the plaint. 5 Bom.L.R. 708=28 B. 94.

(2) Agents.

- (1) Suit should be brought by agents not in their names but in their principals' names.
- (2) A suit should be brought by or against the person in whom the legal right of suit is vested and not by or against agents in their own names. 3 N.W.P. 175; 4 N.W.P. 59 and 68; 15 W.R. 534; 2 A. 690; 20 P.R. 1892; 2 N.W.P. 415; 1 Agra 215; 1 N.W.P. 277.

EXAMPLES.

- (a) An attorney, suing, should bring the suit in the name of the principal and not in his own name. 1 N.W.P. (Ed. 873), 277; 2 N.W.P. 60.
- (b) A gumastah has no right, under S. 32 of Act VIII of 1859 (Bengal) to bring a suit in his own name. He can sue only in the name of his employer. 9 C. 450=12 C.L.R. 55.
- (c) A gumastah cannot sue iu his own name on behalf of a firm. The proper course is to bring the members of the firm on the record. 2 Agra 101; 20 P.R. 1882.
- (d) The manager of a firm ought not to sue in his own name, on a contract with a previous manager for the firm. 9 W.R. 254.
- (e) Although Act X of 1859 (Bengal) allows suits to be instituted in their name by their authorised agents, the latter ought not to sue in their own names; but the names of their principals ought to appear on the record as plaintiffs. 4 N.W.P. 59; 11 W.R. 43.
- (f) The recognised agent of an official assignee of an Insolvent Court cannot sue in his own name; but the official assignee ought to be brought on the record as plaintiff. 2 N.W.P. 179.
- (g) A corporate body, (e,q., the E.I.Ry. Co.) cannot be sued in its corporate capacity through an agent. 15 W.R. 534; nor can a gumastah of a firm be sued in respect of a debt due from the firm even though he might have contracted it with authority. 2 Agra Mis., 4.
- ·(h) Nor can an agent (karindah) be sued in lieu of the proprietor. 3 Agra 127.F
- (i) Nor is it necessary that the agent should be a party along with the principal when the suit is based upon acts done by agent. 3 Agra 131. G
- (j) The secretary of a club cannot be sued in lieu of the members of the club. 20 A. 497=18 A.W.N. 138.
- .(1) The Karayma Samudayam of a Malabar devasom whose status is only that of an agent, cannot sue on behalf of the devasom. The Uralars are the proper persons to sue. 2 M. 167; 3 M. 270; 4 M. 141.

(3) Benamidars.

- (I) Suit relating to land.
  - (A) A benamidar has no right to land and consequently he is not entitled to maintain a suit for declaration of title to land or for ejectment. 16 C. 364; 30 C. 265 (272, 273) = 7 C.W.N. 229.
    J
    - His position is not improved either by a disclaimer of the real owner or by the fact that the real owner is a party to the suit or by the fact that the real owner is made a co-plaintiff. (Ibid).

EXAMPLES.

- (1) Suit by a benamidar for a declaration of his right by purchase to, and for possession of, immoveable property, where the evidence discloses that he is a benamidar for one of the defendants and has no right to the property and where the defendant disclaims any title to the property.

  16 C. 364.
- (2) Suit by a benamidar-purchaser in execution of a decree for possession of the land sold, where the real purchaser is not joined as a plaintiff. 11 B.L.R. 56=19 W.R. 484.
- (3) So, also, a suit by a benami private purchaser for possession of the property, where the real purchaser is not a plaintiff. 11 B.L.R. 60 (note) = 10 W.R. 469; 10 W.R. 220; 20 W.R. 72.
- (4) A mere benamidar, having neither title to, nor possession of, the property cannot maintain a suit for ejectment. 25 C. 98=3 C.W.N. 20; 18 M. 469.
- (5) Nor can he sue for recovery of possession of the property sold. 25 C. 874 = 3 C.W.N. 12.
- (6) A benami-mortgagee cannot successfully bring a suit for redemption in his own name. The suit ought to be dismissed in such a case. 15 M. 54.P
- (7) The real owner cannot successfully bring a suit for possession after an unsuccessful suit by the benamidar for possession of the same land.

  15 M. 267. Cf. 10 C. 697.
- N.B.—This case has been decided on the principle that the suit by the real owner binds the benamidar in a subsequent suit.
- (B) But see 18 A. 69, which holds that a benamidar, suing for the recovery of immoveable property on title, can sue in his own name and when such a suit is instituted, it must be held to have been instituted with the consent and approval of the real owner. 18 A. 69 (16 C. 364, diss.; 10 W.R. 469 and 10 W.R. 220, dist.; 6 M.I.A. 53, expld.; 18 W.R. 454; 10 C. 697 and 15 M. 267, R).

EXAMPLES.

- (1) A benamidar-mortgagee is competent to sue in his own name for sale on the mortgage. 21 A. 380. (The above cases and 22 B. 672 and 820, R.), contra. 12 C.W.N. 409.
- (2) A benaniidar-execution purchaser can sue for damages for loss of crops caused by the defendant's obstructing him in cultivating the land.

- (5) A benamidar's application for execution is a good one and saves limitation.
  10 O.C. 263.
- (C) Where, however, a benamidar brings a suit in his own name, the Court ought to direct that the real owners should be made parties and not to dismiss the suit. 5 C.L.B. 102 and 10 C. 697.
- (D) (a) Where a benamidar-mortgagee brings a suit to enforce the mortgage bond but it is found that the real mortgagee made over the debt to the benamidar prior to the suit though he executed the formal deed of assignment subsequent to the suit, the benamidar can maintain the suit. 24 C. 34. Cf. 15 M. 54.
  - (b) So, also, can a foreclosure suit be brought by the benamidar-mortgagee even though the real mortgagee is not made a party. Such a suit ought not to be dismissed because the beneficial owner is not made a party. 24 O. 644. Cf. 15 M. 54.
    Z
- (E) When a suit is instituted by a benamidar, the presumption is that it has been so instituted with the full authority of the real owner. Therefore, a decision against the benamidar will be binding on the real owner. 10 C. 697; 30 C. 265 (272); 15 M. 267.

(II) Suits for money.

A distinction seems to have been drawn between suits by benamidars upon bonds and those for recovery of land upon title. In the former cases he is entitled to sue in his own name, though the real owner is not a party to the suit. 6 M.I.A. 53 (72); 3 W.R. 159; 16 C. 364 (367). B.

EXAMPLES.

- (1) The payee and holder of a pro-note can sue upon it, even though a third person is really interested in it. 21 M. 30, also 8 M.L.J. 302. G.
- (2) The payee of a pro-note, though only a benamidar, is the only person who can sue on the pro-note. 18 M.L.J. 186; 15 M.L.J. 249=28 M. 205. D.
- (3) In a suit on a pro-note by the payee, though only a benamidar, it has been held that even the defence of payment to the real owner does not avail. 16 M.L.J. 308=30 M. 88.

(III) Test.

Whether a benamidar can sue or not is determined not by the nature of the property which is the subject-matter of the suit (i.e. real property or money) but by the fact that the legal right to sue vests in him. For example it may be shown that the facts of the case are such, as may entitle him to sue as an agent of an undisclosed principal, or as would constitute him a trustee for the real owner. The mere fact that the purchase of a land is in the name of a certain person does not make the legal estate vest in him. 17 M.L.J. 174=30 M. 245; 8 W.R. 159.F

(IV) A suit can proceed in the name of the benamidar, if the defendant does not object to it in the form. 3 W.R. 159; 24 C. 34.

O. I, r. 1] Act Y of 1908 (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE).

A.—PERSONS HAVING RIGHT TO RELIEF—(Concluded).

(4) Bonds.

Where a bond in favour of A is sued on by B after the former's death, the latter must either entitle himself as the personal representative of the former or make his personal representative a party to the suit. 1 M.H.C.R. 452.

(5) Claimant, and assignee of a share from the claimant, may join.

- (a) In a suit for possession of an estate, the claimant and an assignee of an half share in the estate from the claimant, may join together as plaintiffs, and there is no misjoinder. 2 O.C. 149; 3 O.C. 215.
- (b) Some plaintiffs as heirs of the owner of property, and the rest as assignees of a portion of the rights of the other plaintiffs, may join in bringing a suit for possession of the properties of the deceased owner. 3 O.C. 176.J.

(5a) Melyaramdar and Kudiyaramdars.

A suit brought by the Melvaramdar and Kudivaramdars jointly against certain persons who were alleged to have wrongfully evicted plaintiffs from certain lands is not bad for misjoinder. 19 M. 335.

(6) Minor-Manager-Entitled to sue.

The trusts of manager and guardian are vested in different persons. The manager can bring a suit for the minor with the sanction of the Court of Wards.

16 W.R. 231.

(7) Parties owning parts of property.

Certain Jats sued for a declaration of their ownership of property, and subsequently certain butchers were allowed to be joined as co-plaintiffs on their own application, on the allegation that they were owners of part of the property. It was held that the suit was not bad for misjoinder. 4 P.L.R. 87=38 P.R. 1908.

(8) Specific performance of a contract of sale.

A suit for—against the purchaser, with the receiver who had executed the contract of sale, as co-plaintiff, was admitted, as the receiver had obtained leave to sue. 6 B.L.R. 486.

(9) Widow of testator and Receiver.

Suit by widow and executrix of testator who was a member of a firm up to his death for profits due from the firm prior to as well as subsequent to his death. Testator's estate had proved insolvent and a receiver appointed by Court. Receiver was added as co-plaintiff. The suit is not bad for misjoinder on that account as the receiver is entitled to sue for everything due to the testator's estate and not only for dues up to his death as contended by defendants; and the executrix is added as plaintiff only for greater safety. 9 B. 536.

2.-"In whom any right to relief."-(Concluded).

B.—PERSONS HAVING NO RIGHT TO RELIEF.

(1) Parties having no rights to relief.

In a suit by widows, for possession of property, given as gift to their deceased husbands, their children should not come in as plaintiffs, as they had no right to possession of inherited property during the lifetime of their mothers under Burmese law. 14 Bur. L.B. 30.

(2) Suit by mother and guardian of minors for partition—Conveyance by plaintiff to a third party—Third party cannot be a co-plaintiff.

In a suit by the mother and guardian of two minors to obtain partition of joint family property the Court did not allow a third party who was made co-plaintiff by virtue of an alleged conveyance from the plaintiff to remain on record as co-plaintiff on the ground that the mother and guardian could not give him a right of suit against the other members of the family, and that the proprietary interests of the minors might ultimately be prejudiced. 21 W.R. 190. See 16 B. 608.

(3) Raja of Kota-Political Agent-Superintendent of Raj.

The Political Agent and Superintendent of the Raj is not entitled to sue for property belonging to the Raj. If the Raja was the proprietor, he should be plaintiff or if his right and interest had passed to Government, Government should be plaintiff. 2 A. 690.

(4) Suit to recover possession under Specific Relief Act, S. 9.

Where, under a contract between A and B, an exclusive occupation of immoveable property is given to A, he is the proper plaintiff in a suit for possession under S. 9, Specific Relief Act. If B desires to sue immediately on the possessory right, he should sue in A's name, though, for an injury to the reversion, B may properly sue in his own name. 5 B. 208.

3 .- "In respect of or arising out of the same act, or .. or transactions."

A.-CAUSE OF ACTION.

- (a) The expression 'cause of action' in S. 26 (=O. I, r. 1 of the new Code) should be interpreted in its limited sense, so as to include the facts constituting the infringement of the right, but not necessarily also those constituting the right itself. 3 O.C. 176; 22 C. 883. But see 6 M. 239.
- (b) The term "——," as used in the expugned clause of S. 31 of Act XIV of 1882, means every fact which it would be necessary for the plaintiff to prove, if traversed, in order to support his right to the judgment of the Court. It does not comprise every piece of evidence which is necessary to prove each fact, but every fact which is necessary to be proved. 18 A. 131=16 A.W.N. 2.
- (c) The words "in respect of the same cause of action" in S. 26, C.P.C., mean, "the facts which constituted the infringement of the right of the several plaintiffs being the same." 10 C.W.N. 508=38 C. 367. Y

3.—"In respect of or arising out of the same act, or..or transactions."
—(Continued).

B.—NO MISJOINDER OF CAUSES OF ACTION.

- (a) There is no misjoinder of plaintiffs, or causes of action, if two sets of plaintiffs jointly claim relief against the same defendant, although the claim of one is not the same as that of the other, provided all plaintiffs claim under a common title in respect of the same matter. 1 A.L.J.

- (b) Where a minor represented by the Court of Wards and the grantee of certain mining rights in the zemindari from the Court of Wards acting on behalf of the minor, sued jointly to set aside a mining lease by the minor's father, the interests of the two plaintiffs were not inconsistent with each other and the suit was not therefore bad for misjoinder.
  13 M. 197.
- (c) In a suit by two plaintiffs for the value of personal property plundered, o which one plaintiff owned certain articles and the other, certain others, if the cause, time, place, and parties charged be the same in both the instances, the fact, that both plaintiffs have not a joint interest in the whole of the property plundered by the defendants is insufficienty to put them out of Court. W.R. (1864), 81.
- (d) Two estates belonged to two persons each of them owning one-half of each estate. Both the owners granted a putni lease to defendants. Subsequently there was a break up in the ownership in both estates; which break up the defendant had recognised at the time; and a person entitled to one estate sued the defendants for rent of his estate. It was held that the owners of the other estate need not be joined as parties. 9 C.W.N. 656.
- (e) Where one plaintiff owned one-third of an estate and the other three plaintiffs jointly owned another third, a suit by all the four against one who was in possession under a deed of gift for possession and for cancellation of the gift is not bad for misjoinder. 4 A. 261.
- (f) In a suit for possession of property brought by four plaintiffs jointly, it was alleged that plaintiff No. 4 had purchased a 10 As. share. The Court decided that there was no misjoinder of "causes of action." 10 C.W.N. 508=33 C, 267.
- (g) A mortgagor's representatives and the transferee of a portion of th mortgaged property by the original mortgagor, can sue together to redeem the mortgage, as there is no misjoinder of "causes of action." 9 P.W.R. 1908.

C.—MISJOINDER OF CAUSES OF ACTION.

- (a) In the matter of an assault which took place at one and the same time 1st defendant attacked 1st plaintiff and 2nd defendant attacked 2nd plaintiff and a suit was brought for damages. It was held that there was misjoinder of plaintiffs. 26 B. 259=3 Bom. L.R. 878.
- (b) A suit to recover possession as cultivators, by two plaintiffs whose holdings, though originally one, have for a long time been separated and held separately, is bad for misjoinder. 2 N.W.P. 306.

3.-"In respect of or arising out of the same act, or..or transactions."

—(Concluded).

C.—MISJOINDER OF CAUSES OF ACTION—(Concluded).

- (c) Where the defendant promised to pay each of the two plaintiffs a monthly allowance of certain sum, a joint suit by them for the amount due to both is bad for misjoinder. 4 A.W.N. 46.
- (d) Several creditors, to each of whom separate debts are owing by the same debtor, cannot sue jointly for the avoidance of a fraudulent deed of gift by the debtor, the cause of action for each creditor being separate. 18 A, 432=16 A.W.N. 139.
- (e) Where the sons objected to the attachment of property in execution of a decree against the father as the property had been previously partitioned and held in separate shares, a joint suit by them for a declaration that their shares were not liable to attachment is bad for misjoinder of causes of action. 13 A.W.N. 150.
- (f) Three plaintiffs brought a joint suit for possession of immoveable property, two of them claiming half the property by inheritance and the third claiming the other half by purchase from the two former. The suit is bad for misjoinder of causes of action. 18 A. 181=16 A.W.N. 33. See also W.B. (1864), 81; 2 W.R. 219; N.W.P.H.C. (1868), 242; 15 I.A. 156; 16 A. 165; 6 B. 266; 8 M. 361; 4 A. 261; 18 A. 219=16 A. W.N. 33; see also A.W.N. (1896), page 2.
- (g) A suit, by six plaintiffs jointly, for damages for libel, against defendants, is bad for misjoinder of plaintiffs and "causes of action." 11 C.W.N. 680=34 C. 662.
- (h) A pre-emption suit by two plaintiffs, each entitled to claim, but having no joint right to claim pre-emption, is bad for misjoinder of plaintiffs. 29 P.R. 1894; 3 P.R. 1881.

D.—WHEN CAUSES OF ACTION CAN BE JOINED.

- (a) A Muhammadan widow and her daughter sued the other heirs of the Muhammadan for their share of the property, the widow alleging that certain conveyance by her were invalid, and the daughter alleging the same, and in addition alleging that the widow had no power to alienate her own share. It was held that, in the circumstances, the two causes of action might properly be brought in the same suit. 3 Bom. L.R. 658.
- (b) A creditor can, in the same suit, sue for himself to have an assignment deed executed by the debtor declared void as against him, and on behalf of all the creditors, including himself; to have the assignment deed declared voidable at the option of creditors. 4 Bom. L.R. 180=26 B. 577.

4.—" Is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative."

(General).

The words "in the alternative" apply to cases in which there is a doubt as to who is the person entitled to sue upon the cause of action, e.g., that of a sale to an agent in which there may arise a difficulty whether the principal or the agent should sue, or to cases where parties have different and conflicting interests in the same subject matter, and an act is committed which gives the same cause of action to either party according to the eventual determination of the Court as to which of the two is entitled to recover. 6 M. 289. But see 22 C. 833.

(1) Joint or alternative relief.

A plaint will not be bad, because it prays for a decree in favour of all plaintiffs on certain allegations, or in the alternative, in favour of one of them, if other allegations should be proved. 28 M. 500.

(2) Plaintiffs in a suit to eject trespasser.

When the whole title to an estate is vested in one or both of two persons, they may join in a suit to eject a trespasser. S.C. 219.

(3) Suit by trustees and worshippers.

In a suit against third parties acting to the injury of a temple, the trustees and certain others, who were called additional trustees, were plaintiffs. The others were allowed to stand as plaintiffs, as persons interested in the temple as worshippers, though not as additional trustees.

(4) Suit by widow and her adopted son jointly.

The widow and the adopted son of a deceased person can sue jointly to set aside an attachment of property belonging to the deceased in execution of a decree against another, as the widow admitted the adoption and their claims were in no way antagonistic. 16 B. 119. R

But see 6 M. 239 where it was held that a suit brought by the widow and her adopted son jointly, claiming in the alternative either to recover the whole family estate for the latter if the adoption was valid or one-half of the estate for the former if the adoption was invalid, was bad for misjoinder.

(5) Suit by daughter and daughter's sons together with their patnidar jointly.

Where the daughter and daughter's sons of a deceased person together with their putnidar sued jointly for possession of certain property as belonging either to the daughter or the daughter's sons, the suit was not bad for misjoinder as they all claimed the same relief, viz., possession and they did not advance any antagonistic claim. 22 C. 833.

2. Where it appears to the Court that any joinder of O.XV

Power of Court to order separate suit, the Court may put the plaintiffs to their election or order separate trials or make such other order as may be expedient.

(Notes).

(1) This is intended to provide for any embarrassment or delay in trial which might ensue by a joinder of plaintiffs as per rule 1.

^{&#}x27;(N.B.)—This rule is new.

English rules and orders.

- (2) The corresponding portion of the English rule is the proviso in O.XVI, r. 1 which runs thus:—
- "Provided that, if, upon the application of any defendant, it shall appear that such joinder may delay or embarrass the trial of the action, the Cour or a Judge may order separate trials or make such other order as may be expedient."
- (3) It would appear that under the English rule the Court can order separate triats, etc., only on the application of the defendant, while, under this rule, that portion of the English rule is omitted and the Court may make such order of its own motion.
- (4) This provision is rendered necessary by the wider liberties given in respect of joinder of plaintiffs by the substitution of the words "in respect o ..transactions" for the words "in respect of the same cause of action."
- (5) If the Court thinks that the joinder of separate actions will embarrass or delay the trial, it may order separate trials, or, it would seem, may confine or exclude causes of action, or may put the plaintiffs to their election, asking for a stay in the meantime. Sandes v. Wilsmith, (1893) 1 Q.B. 771; Hannay v. Smurthwaite, (1893) 2 Q.B. 414; Sadler v. G.W.R. Co., (1895) 2 Q.B. 688; Oxford and Cambridge v. Gill, (1899) 1 Oh. 55; Bedford v. Ellis, (1901) A.C.M. 12 and 13—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 148.
- O. XVI, r. 1.

  3. All persons may be joined as defendants 1 against whom any Who may be joined in respect of or arising out of the ed as defendants. same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions 3 is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative 4, where, if separate suits were brought against such persons, any common question of law or fact would arise 5.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

First sentence of S. 28 of Act XIV of 1882.

"All persons may be joined as defendants against whom the right to any relief is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative, in respect of the same matter."

Difference between the old section and this rule.

- (1) Instead of the phrase "in respect of the same matter" is substituted the phrase "in respect of or arising out of the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions."
- (2) "Where, if separate suits were brought against such persons, any common question of law or fact would arise" is newly added after the words "in the alternative."

The two conditions requisite under this rule for joinder of defendants are :—

- (1) The right to rollef against each defendant should be in respect of or should arise out of the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions.
- (2) There should be common question of law or fact.

English rules and orders.

This rule and the next correspond with O. XVI, r. 4 of the English rules.

(General).

Discretion of plaintiff in joining defendants.

A plaintiff is not bound to sue every possible adverse claimant in one suit. At his own risk, he can choose to leave the question that may arise between himself and a third party, to a future settlement. 27 B. 31=5 Bom. L.R. 754.

EXAMPLE.

In a suit for recovery of immoveable property against the first defendant and his mortgagee, the auction purchaser of the property in execution of a decree against the first defendant is not a necessary party. He may later on bring a separate suit against him. 27 B. 31=5 Bom. L.R. 754.

I -" All persons may be joined as defendants."

General principles.

- (a) If the plaintiff has a cause of action against A and B for one tort, and if he has quite a separate cause of action against B for another tort, a suit cannot be brought claiming damages in respect of both torts against A and B. Per Romer, L.J., in Frankenburg v. Great Horseless Car Company, 1 Q.B. 504; cf. Kent Coal, etc., Company v. Martin, 16 Times Report 486 (C.J.); Pope v. Hawtrey, 85 L.T. 263—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 153.
- (b) Where, in an action brought against two separate tort-feasors, neither of whom has any control over the other, the cause of action is several and not joint, the joinder of the defendants would be bad. Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 153.
  X.
- (c) Where there are two separate and distinct causes of action against two separate and distinct defendants, the joint result of the separate acts of the defendants being damage to the plaintiff, the latter cannot maintain one action against both. Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 153.
- (d) But, although the remedies against the several defendants may be different where the cause of action is the same against all, the joinder of defendants will be proper. Drinegbier v. Wood, (1899) 1 Ch. 398—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 154.
- (e) Where two defendants, one, the owner of a vehicle in which the plaintiff was driving and was injured and the other, the owner of another vehicle who had also a share in causing the plaintiff's injuries, were sued jointly for damages, held, the joinder of defendants was not improper, because they were sued jointly for joint negligence, although separate negligence was proved against each. Bullock v. London G. Omnibus Coy., (1907) 1 K.B. 264 (C.A.)—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 154.
- (f) Where all the defendants were charged with conspiracy and certain of them also with negligence and breach of duty, the joinder was held. proper. Kent Coal, etc., Coy v. Martin, 16 Times Rep. 486 (C.A.)— Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 154.
  B
- (g) Where, in a suit against ten defendants for conspiracy to boycott plaintiff, and for damages, and the judgment apportioned the damages, the joinder was held proper, since the conspiracy was the one substantial cause of action. O'Keefe v. Walsh, (1903) 2 I.R. 681 (C.A.)—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 154.

(1) Contract.

- (a) All the three parties to the contract are necessary parties to a suit by one of them for his share of the profits under the contract. 14 C. 791. D
- (b) In a suit for specific performance of a single contract, the parties on each side must be marshalled as plaintiffs and defendants. 2 C.W.N. 42. E

(2) Deaf and dumb person.

A——is not, on that account alone, to be deemed incompetent to sue or to be used. 2 N.W.P. 414.

(3) Decree-holder, judgment-debtor, auction-purchaser.

- (a) In a suit by trustees for benefit of creditors to set aside attachment by an execution creditor, all the creditors are not necessary parties. 3 Agra 104.
- (b) A grantee or vendee of defendant during the pendency of a suit need not be made a party to the suit. 11 B. 64. See 7 W.R. 225.
  H
- (c) In execution of a decree by the joint decree-holders, one of the joint decree-holders purchased the judgment debtor's property, in Court auction with Court's permission. He got a sale certificate in his name and took possession of the property. Subsequently, he was dispossessed by the judgment-debtor, who sued him for recovery of possession. It was held that the other joint decree-holders were not necessary parties to the suit. 8 M.L.J. 3.
- '(d) The judgment-debtor is a necessary party to a suit under S. 283 of the old Code. 21 A.W.N.14.
- (e) The execution-creditor is a proper party to a suit under S. 246, C.P.C., 1859

  (=S. 283 of Act XIV of 1882) by the owner against the purchaser of property wrongfully attached to restore all parties to the position which they occupied prior to such attachment and sale. 5 Bom. H.C.R.O.C. 83.
- ·(f) In an appeal by the judgment-debtor against an order refusing to set aside an execution sale under S. 312, C.P.C., the auction purchaser is a necessary party. 188 P.R. 1882.
- (g) In a suit by attaching creditor dissatisfied with share of sale proceeds allotted to him under S. 270, Act VIII of 1859 (=S. 73 of the present Code) against the other attaching creditors, all who have shared in the distribution are bound to be made defendants. 23 W.R. 434.
- (h) An auction-purchaser of property sold in execution of an ex parte decree is not a necessary party to an application by the judgment-debtor to set aside the decree as he is not an "opposite party" within the meaning of O. IX, r. 14=S. 109, old Code. 26 C. 267=3 C.W.N. 261.

(4) Government.

A .- WHEN GOVERNMENT A NECESSARY PARTY.

- (a) Where an act of state is questioned, directly or indirectly. 11 M.I.A. 517
   =10 W.R. (P.C.) 25.
- (b) Where a purchaser sues his vendor to compel mutation of names, the Collector is a necessary party. 3 M. 134; 15 M. 350.

- (c) Where the public revenue is affected, in a suit by a shareholder for partition of joint estate. 22 W.R. 245.
- (d) In a suit for recovery of possession of land thrown up by a navigable river, which the plaintiff alleged to be an accretion to his estate but the defendant claimed as holding under a settlement with the Government.
- (e) In a suit by a person claiming certain lands resumed by Government and settled with another party. 13 B.L.R. (F.B.), 118=21 W.R. 327. See also 22 W.R. 52. But see 2 C.L.R. 467, infra.
- (f) Where the nature of the tenure of ghatwali land is in dispute. 6 Bom. H.C.R.A.C. 265.
- (g) In a suit to set aside a revenue sale, held under the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, the Secretary of State is a necessary party. 8 C.W.N. 657 = 31 C. 159.

B.-WHEN GOVERNMENT NOT A NECESSARY PARTY.

- (1) In a suit to redeem a mortgage of ghatwali land, where, under the terms of the mortgage-deed, the mortgagor gave in a razinama to Government giving up all claim to the land. 6 Bom. H.C.R.A.C. 265.
- (2) In a suit by a shareholder of a joint estate to establish a right to partition, where the public revenue is not affected. 22 W.R. 245.
- (3) In a suit to set aside a sale for arrears of revenue; though, on the application of Government, they are entitled to be made a party. 9 C. 271=11 C.L.R.466, See also 25 C. 838=25 I.A. 151=2 C.W.N. 513.X
- (4) Where a piece of land was first settled by Government with one party and then with another, in a suit by the former against the latter for possession of land. 2 C.L.R. 467. But see 13 B.L.R. 118=21 W.R. 327, supra
- (5) In a suit by one of the shareholders of an estate adjoining a chur land resumed by Government for possession as against another shareholder of the estate with whom the Government made a permanent settlement and for declaration of his right to participate in the settlement. 8 B.L.R. 524; 17 W.R. 145.

- (7) In a suit by an owner of land against one who claims to use such land as public road. 15 C. 460.
- (8) In a suit against a Municipal Council for a declaration of the plaintiff's title to a certain structure within the limits of the Municipality. 15 M. 292.

(5) Husband and wife.

- (1) Husband is not a necessary co-defendant in a suit against a woman, married before 1865, in respect of her separate property. 10 C.L.B. 586. D
- (2) Wife was made party to the suit, on the ground that a building on the estate was erected by her husband with money forming her separate estate. Cor. 41.

(6) Landlord and tenant.

A .- EJECTMENT SUITS.

- (1) A plaintiff with a legal title to the land can sue for ejectment the person in actual possession without making the person, under whom the latter claims to hold, a party to the suit though such person, if added, will be a proper party. 21 B. 229.
- (2) Suit by a landlord against his tenant under a registered lease.
  - In a _____, the person from whom plaintiff holds the land, persons claiming to hold it from a third party and such third party should not be brought on record. 20 M. 375.
- (3) The auction-purchaser of the raiyat's right and interest in the tenure, sold in execution of a decree obtained by the talukdar for rent, is a necessary party in a later suit by the talukdar for arrear of rent and ejectment against the same raiyat. 10 W.R. 494; reversing 10 W.R. 304.

B .- SUITS FOR RENT.

- (a) In a suit for rent against a tenant by a landlord persons preferring opposing claims to plaintiff ought not to be joined as parties unless the opponent's position would be compromised by a decree in favour of plaintiff, e.g., when the opponent claims to be in actual possession by receipt of rents. 19 W.R. 248.
- (b) Nor should he be added where such addition would change the scope and character of the suit. 20 W.R. 383; 24 W.R. 357; 4 C.L.R. 168. Or make it other than a bona fide suit for rent. 21 W.R. 88; 22 W.R. 526; 16 W.R. 132; 23 W.R. 168.
- (c) Where the defendant in a suit for rent denied plaintiff's title and set up title in a third party, the third party might be added as an intervenor to try the question, who was the beneficial owner and entitled to the rent. 22 W.R. 440.
- (d) But see 8 C. 238=10 C.L.R. 581, where it was held that the third party ought not to be made a party, so as to convert a suit for arrears of rent into one for determination of title. See 19 W.R. 248 and the other decisions thereunder.
- (d1) But see 24 W.R. 261, where it was held that an intervenor has no right to be made defendant or to introduce into the suit a new issue as to title. See also 24 W.R. 101, where it was held that the party added cannot raise an issue so as to change the scope and nature of the suit, but he is competent to raise all questions whether of title or otherwise which bear upon the issue, is the plaintiff entitled to recover the rent claimed?
- (e) It is wrong to introduce in a suit for rent an intervenor who alleges that plaintiff is his benamidar, as the question of benami is quite foreign to the suit. 24 W.R. 349.
- (f) But see 5 C.L.R. 179, where a person alleging to be a purchaser from the beneficial owner of property was allowed to intervene in a suit by one who denied title from the ostensible purchaser against talukdars for rent on the ground that the question of benami was properly raised in the suit and ought to have been tried.

- (g) An intervenor, who claims to have acquired a share of the property for which rent is claimed, may be made a defendant at the discretion of the Court. The Court is bound to determine any question of title arising between parties for the purposes of the suit. 24 W.R. 350. P
- (h) In a suit for rent, where the defendant alleged that a third person had a joint interest with plaintiff in the property, and where the plaintiff disputed this and objected, it was improper to add such person as co-plaintiff and if added at all it should be as defendant. 7 C. 148.0
- (a) In a suit by a landlord against his tenants for rent, where they pleaded that they had paid the rent to a co-sharer of the plaintiff, and the co-sharer alleged that he was entitled to rent as a co-sharer, as well as an agent of the plaintiff, the Court was justified in making him a party to the suit under S. 148 of the N.W.P. Rent Act though it was not competent to pass a decree against him. 9 A. 394.
- (j) Where, in a suit for arrears of rent by the zemindar, the defendant pleaded that the rent was payable to another person as Mokuraridar, such third person was properly made a defendant to the suit. 8 B.L.R. 180=16 W.R. 235. See also 8 B.L.R. 184=13 W.R. 362 and 25 W.R. 29.
- (k) Receipts for rent were granted separately by the landlord's Tahsildar to the tenants of a holding. The Tahsildar cannot be added as a defendant in the landlord's suit for rent, brought jointly against the tenants. 10 C.W.N. 216.
- .(1) Where some of the defendants had taken a lease in the name of a third person and the other defendants were sureties for the third person, in a suit for arrears of rent, the sureties could not be sued as such under Act X of 1859 (Bengal). 2 B.L.R.A.C. 287 == 11 W.R. 120.
- (m) To a suit by purchaser, for rent accruing between the date of his purchase and the date of the transfer, the pre-emptor is a necessary party. 1 Agra Rev. 30.
- (n) Though the lambardar is ordinarily the proper party to be sued for rent of pattidari estate, under S. 7 of Act XIV of 1863, the several pattidars can be sued for their respective shares of rent instead of recovering it through the lambardar. 2 Agra Pt. II, 165.
  W
- (o) In a private partition between co-sharers, certain specific lands were allotted to one co-sharer in severalty, the rest remaining undivided. In a subsequent partition by the Collector under Bengal Act VIII of 1876, the same lands were allotted to plaintiffs. In a suit for rent against the tenants, the patnidar of the co-sharer to whom the lands were allotted in private partition were properly made parties. 20 C. 285. See also 28 W.R. 227; 4 C. 350 and 12 C. 555.
- (v) Parties, not registered in the zemindari serishta, are not entitled to intervene in a suit against the registered tenants. 24 W.R. 151.

- (k) A creditor who purchases under an execution against the general assets of a testator's estate, takes subject to a mortgage created in pursuance of a power contained in the will; and the purchaser is rightly made a party in a suit to foreclose. 3 B.L.R.O.C. 7=11 W.R.O.O.21.
- (1) All prior and puisne mortgagees of whose mortgages the plaintiff has notice should be made parties to a suit by a mortgagee on his mortgage. 9 A. 125: 13 A. 315; see 10 B. 224; 9 A. 125: 10 A. 520.
  N
- (m) A subsequent incumbrancer is a necessary party to a suit by a prior incumbrancer on his mortgage. 13 A. 432; 6 B. 11 and 10 B. 88.
- (n) Where the patnidars were also second mortgages, they were entitled as second mortgages to be made parties to a suit on the first mortgage to have an opportunity of redeeming the prior mortgage. 21 C. 116; 5 C. 265=4 C.L.R. 358; 5 C. 269; 6 C. 317.
- (o) In a suit by a mortgagee against two out of his three mortgagers, where incumbrance had been created subsequent to the mortgage sued on, itwas necessary to bring the third mortgager as well as the subsequent incumbrancers to the record under S. 85, T.P.A. 15 M. 487.
- (p) Where the subsequent mortgage is executed only after the filing of the suit on a prior mortgage, the subsequent mortgagee need not be made a party under S. 85, T.P.A. 21 A. 149.
- (q) In a suit by a puisne mortgagee on his mortgage, a prior mortgagee is not a necessary party unless the puisne mortgagee offer to redeem his mortgage. 1 C.W.N. 453.
- (r) See, contra, 22 B. 701, where it was held that a prior mortgagee should be made a party to a suit by the puisue mortgagee for foreclosure.
- (s) In a suit by a second mortgagee (admittedly overpaid) to compel the first mortgagees to convey to him the mortgaged premises, the heir or legal representative of the deceased mortgagor is a necessary party. 5 B.O.C. 76.
- (t) A prior mortgagee, under a mortgage executed by the minor's father, is not affected by the subsequent mortgage by the minor's guardian and the only person affected is the owner of the equity of redemption the minor—He is a necessary party to a suit by the subsequent mortgage to redeem the prior mortgage. 23 B. 287.
- (u) In a suit to determine the rights of mortgagee's inter se, the representatives of mortgagors are necessary parties. 15 C. 35.
- (v) In a suit for possession as mortgagee against a third party where the mortgagee's title is denied, the mortgagor must be made a defendant to show the extent of the rights and interests of the mortgagor in the property sued for. 2 N.W.P. 72. Compare 2 B.L.R. A.C. 207=11 W.R. 80.
- (w) Mortgage by the lambardar for himself and as agent for the other sharers. In a suit for possession by the mortgagee they should have been made parties as well as the lambardar. 2 Agra, Pt. II, 207.

- (x) The representatives of the mortgagor are not necessary parties to a suit for recovery of property from the mortgagee of the administrator of a deceased person, who had entered into a contract with plaintiff that the property should be the absolute property of plaintiff after his death if plaintiff should carry on a litigation concerning it at his own expense. 8 Bom. H.C.R. O.C. 1.
- (y) In a suit by a sub-mortgagee, to recover his debt by sale of the rights mortgaged to him, the original mortgagor is not a necessary party. A.W.N. (1905), 76=2 A.L.J. 434=27 A. 511.
  A. W.N. (1905), 76=2 A.L.J. 434=27 A. 511.
- (z) In a suit by a sub-mortgagee for sale of mortgaged property, both the original mortgagors and the mortgagees should be impleaded as parties, and opportunities should be given them to safeguard their interests. 5 A.L.J. 402.

- (aa) In a suit by a mortgagee for possession of the mortgaged property, the mortgagor's sons are not necessary parties, even though they constitute a joint family, when the property was not the ancestral property of the family. 1 A.L.J. 367.
- (bb) In a suit for possession under a mortgage, where the managing member is made a party, another member of the family is not a necessary party. 4 C.W.N. 297.
- (cc) In a mortgagee's suit for sale of family property mortgaged by father, the sons need not necessarily be made parties. 1 O.C. 53.
- '(dd) The undivided sons of a Hindu father should be made parties to a suit on a mortgage of ancestral property executed by the father alone. A decree against the father alone cannot affect the son's right in the property. 17 A. 537; 27 C. 724=4 C.W.N. 701; see also 22 A. 394 and 408
- (ee) In a suit for foreclosure, on a mortgage of joint family property by the father alone, the sons also should be made parties and an opportunity should also be given them to redeem it. A.W.N. (1908), 106.
- (f) To a suit for hhas possession of an undefined area of the mortgage land by one mortgagee, his fellow mortgagees are necessary parties. 25 W.R. 39.
- (yg) Where two brothers had separated themselves from a third, the latter was not a necessary party to a suit by the other two jointly for a declaration of their rights to 2/3 of a mortgage debt which belonged to their father before his death. 21 M. 373 (383)=8 M.L.J. 189.

(9) Negotiable Instruments.

- (a) In a suit on a pro-note against the representatives of a deceased, a bona fide purchaser for value of a portion of the assets of the deceased, is not a proper party. But, a person is in possession of the assets of the deceased as an executor de son tor:, is a proper party. 6 M.L.J. 186. J
- .(b) The payee of a bill of exchange should not join the drawer and the firm on which the bill was drawn as defendants in the same suit where the firm dishonoured the bill on presentation. 3 B. 182.

(10) Official Assignee.

- (a) The defendant having been adjudicated an insolvent under the Insolvent Act (11 and 12 Vic., C. 21), the Official Assignee was placed upon the record as a defendant and judgment entered against him for the sum claimed to be paid out of the insolvent's estate. The Official Assignee is not a proper party, there being nothing in the Insolvent Act which enables a suit of this kind to be continued against the Official Assignee. 18 C. 43
- (b) The Official Assignee is not a necessary party to a suit by the heirs of a deceased person for recovery of property acquired by the deceased after the vesting order was made on a petition of insolvency presented by him. The Official Assignee should, however, be given notice in case of a decree in plaintiff's favour. 16 B. 452.
- (c) The Official Assignee is not a necessary party to any suit to recover a money debt from a person who is either an insolvent on the date of institution of suit or becomes insolvent pending the suit. 22 C. 259. See also 1 B.H.C. 251; 1 P.C. 48.

(11) Partition.

- (a) A partition suit cannot be properly dealt with, unless all who are admittedly shareholders in the joint property are before the Court. 12 W.R. 256. See also 14 W.R. 339; 18 W.R. 48; 20 W.R. 138; 2 C. 149; 16 B. 608.
- (b) A suit for a partition of a portion of a joint estate is maintainable, when such portion is the only property held jointly by the plaintiff and the defendants. 1 C.L.J. 40.
- (c) In a suit by one member of a joint family for a share of the joint family property, all the members of the family are necessary parties. 2 C. 149; see also 12 W.R. 256; 14 W.R. 339; 18 W.R. 48; 20 W.R. 138.
- (d) In a suit for partition between sons of different wives of a deceased person, the wives if alive are necessary parties to the suit as they are entitled to share with their sons. 4 C. 756=4 C.L.R. 161.
- (e) In a suit for partition by the son against the father and elder brother, a banker from whom the father had borrowed money hypothecating ancestral property is a proper and even a necessary party. 1 A.W.N. 36.
- (f) A purchaser or mortgagee of a co-parcener's share in the joint property is a proper, and even necessary, party to a suit for partition. 16 B. 608. T
- (g) The plaintiff obtained a mokurari lease of a small portion of land of a joint zemindari from the owner of a 12 annas share. The owner of 4 annas share granted a patni of his share in the whole property to defendants. In a suit by plaintiff for partition of the small portion of land, for the defendants, the zemindars were necessary parties and in their absence the suit would not lie. 7 C. 577 = 9 C.L.R. 170.

(12) Partnership.

- (a) An individual partner may sue for a winding up and for an account; but to such a suit all the members of the firm are necessary parties. 65 P.R. 1884 (Civil).
- (b) If there has been no adjustment of accounts between the partners of a defunct firm, in a suit by one or more members against another member for contribution to recover money paid in liquidation of a debt due by the firm, all the partners are necessary parties. 18 W.R. 408.W
- (c) In a contract by a partner on behalf of the partnership, the promisee can sue any or all of the joint promisors; and the non-joinder of a copromisor is no ground of defence to such a suit. 37 P.R. 1902.
- (d) Where a partnership which originally consisted of the defendant and another was dissolved, but the defendant continued to carry on the business and also continued his dealings with plaintiff, a suit for money on account of dealings against the defendant alone is not had for nonjoinder of the later partner.
  - It is not incumbent on a person dealing with partners to make them all defendants in a suit. 21 M. 256.
- (e) Where a suit was instituted against three persons as members of a firm and it happened that only one of them was a member with two persons other than those sued, it was not incumbent upon the plaintiff to sue all the partners in the firm and the plaintiff was entitled to proceed against the person who was a member alone. 4 C.W.N. 369; 6 B. 700; 21 M. 256.
- (f) In a suit brought upon a contract made by a firm the plaintiff may select as defendants those partners of the firm against whom he wishes to proceed, allowing his right of suit against those whom he does not make defendants to be barred. 6 B. 700. See also 21 M. 256.
- (g) Where the plaintiff, as heir of his mother, sued a firm in which be was himself a partner, there was no objection to the frame of the suit on the ground of the plaintiff being also a defendant, as he was made a defendant in a totally different capacity. 10 B. 358.
- (h) Where in the absence of a representative of a deceased partner, the surviving partners adjusted partnership accounts and agreed to hand over a portion of the partnership property to one of the partners on a compromise, in a suit by the partner for dissolution of partnership on the basis of the compromise, the representative of the deceased partner was a necessary party. 1 Bom. Ap. 51.
- (i)•To a suit for an account of dealings and transactions of a deceased partner in a Hindu family bank and for a dissolution of the partnership, the heir or legal representative of the deceased partner is a necessary party. 3 M.I.A. 175.
- ' (j) The purchaser of the interest of one partner is properly joined as a defendant in a suit in respect of the partnership. 4 A. 487.

(k) The fact that surviving partners are made parties to an administration suit of the estate of a deceased partner does not alone enable the Court to direct such surviving partners to render an account of the partnership estate. Surviving partners should not be made co-defendants with the executors merely by reason of their partnership. They can be made co-defendants where the relation between executors or administrators and the surviving partners is such as to present a substantial impediment to the prosecution by the former of the rights of the partners interested in the estate against the latter. Bourke O.C. 350.

(18) Pre-emption.

- (a) In a pre-emption suit the vendor is usually joined as a matter of convenience.

  There is no legal necessity for such a joinder, and a suit cannot fail for such a non-joinder. 80 P.R. 1888; 134 P.R. 1889.
- (b) During pendency of a pre-emption suit against the vendor and the vendee, three others who had obtained a decree of pre-emption against the same parties in respect of the same sale, were also added as defendants. It was held that under S. 372, C.P.C., the vendor's interest devolved on the three decree holders, pending this suit, and that they were rightly joined as defendants. 29 P.R. 1887.

(14) Proprietary body.

- (a) In a suit relating to an abadi of a village, (which was a shamilat) by one of three tarafs of the village, against the second taraf and one patti of the third taraf, all the tarafs are necessary parties; and so, the proprietors of the remaining pattis of the third taraf ought to be joined as defendants. 92 P.R. 1881.
- (b) Plaintiffs, being sharers in a village, can bring a suit against all the other sharers for settlement of accounts; and such a suit will not be bad for misjoinder of parties. 1 O.C. 215.
- (c) In a suit to restrain the proprietors of one patti from closing a pathway over the shamilat of the village, it was not necessary to implead the other proprietors of the village, as the act complained of, was one of obstruction by a section of the proprietary body. 41 P.R. 1888.
- (d) Where there is no dispute as to the land being shamilat, it is not necessary to make all the co-sharers, parties to the suit. 108 P.R. 1889.

(15) Tort.

In an action for a wrong, independent of a contract, joinder of all the wrongdoers is not essential. 72 P.R. 1867 (Civil).

(16) Trespasser.

- (a) There was no misjoinder of parties or causes of action in a suit to eject defendants as trespassers, brought by the reversioner, on the death of the widow, on the allegation that he had a right to possession vested in him on the death of the widow, though various defendants raised different defences in the suit. 24 P.R. 1899.
- (b) A person who has trespassed cannot plead as a defence, that some one else has trespassed with him, and that, therefore, he alone cannot be sued. 2 Bom.L.R. 283.

(17) Trustee.

- (a) The eldest son of the deceased eldest son of a trustee is a necessary party to a suit for the removal of the trustee and for appointment of another in his place, where the trustee contended that the succession to the office was by the rule of primogeniture. 4 C.W.N. 462.
- (b) In a suit for removal of trustee under S. 539 of Act XIV of 1882 (=Ss. 92 and 93 of the present Code), the alienees from the trustee are not necessary defendants.
   20 A. 46. See 15 C. 329=15 I.A. 1; 15 B. 612.
- (c) Where an application is made, to set aside a consent decree in a suit to setaside a trust deed in which though added as a party, the trustee did not appear and the suit was subsequently withdrawn as against him, the trustee was entitled to appear in the application and be heard on the motion as a necessary party. 27 C. 428—4 C.W.N. 169.

(18) Miscellaneous.

- (a) In a suit by the assignee of a debt against the debtors, if the defendants dispute plaintiff's title itself, then, in order to have this satisfactorily tried and decided, the assignors should also be added as defendants.
   23 P.R. 1903 = 4 P.L.R. 77.
- (b) In a suit against a minor for rent, all the executors under the will of the minor's father, are necessary parties, subject to the proviso in S. 438, C.P.C. of 1882. C.L.J. 484.
- (c) Plaintiff sued to establish his right to a goat sacrificed on the fourth day of each month on an alleged custom by which each of five families took certain goats in each month; the other families are necessary parties to such a suit. 17 C. 906. See also 12 W.R. 256.
- (d) All persons who are parties to the fraud can be impleaded as defendants in a suit for cancellation of a bond as forgery, though their names do not appear on the bond as obligors. 8 A.W.N. 206.
- (e) Intervenor irregularly admitted by himself on special appeal by the intervenor, held he was not entitled to be treated as a party added under S. 73, Act VIII of 1859. 17 W.R. 176; 17 W.R. 219; 24 W.R. 261.W
- (f) In a suit for damages for malicious prosecution instituted by the first defendant and sanctioned by the second defendant, a Subordinate Judge, the Court doubted whether the two defendants could properly be joined in one suit. 10 Bom. H.C.R. 182.
- '(g) The Nawab Nazim is a necessary party to a suit by a claimant against the Government and the grantee to recover property which the Commissioners appointed under the Nawab Nazim's Debt Act had certified to be nizamut property but which had been conveyed by the Nawab to his son before the passing of the Act. 9 C. 704=12 C.L.R. 595=10 'T.A. 39.
- (h) In a suit for possession under Specific Relief Act, S. 9, when the defendants claimed to be in possession under a third party whom they set up as the real owner, such third party is not a necessary party to the suit as he had no physical possession. If he desires to maintain the expulsion as an act done on his behalf, he may claim to be admitted as defendant. 5 B. 208.

- (i) To a suit to compel registration of a document under S. 77 of the Registration Act, 1877, after denial of execution, the Registrar is not a necessary party. 5 C. 445=5 C.L.R. 172. See also 8 B. 269.
- (1) The reversioner is not a proper co-defendant in a suit to recover possession of property held by a widow. 15 W.R. 6.
- (k) In a suit by three or four joint shebaits to set aside an alienation of debutter lands by the fourth, the latter is a necessary party, the general rule being that all the parties interested in the subject-matter of a suit should be joined in it. 8 C. 42.
- (1) Where a minor is interested in contesting the execution and validity of a will by her father she should not be joined as co-plaintiff with the executor of the will but might be made a defendant. 2 Bom. H.C.R. 327, 2nd Edn., 310.

2.- "Against whom any right to relief."

A.—PARTIES AGAINST WHOM RELIEF CAN BE CLAIMED.

- (a) A person getting renewal of pro-note unauthorisedly, is a trustee for the rightful owner; and in a suit by the rightful owner to recover the sum due under the renewed note, the debtor, the person who caused the renewal, and the person in whose name the renewal stood, all could be joined as defendants. 29 M. 87.
  E.
- (b) Persons who alleged that the plaintiff's vendors were not entitled to the full share of the property as they themselves had purchased a portion thereof were proper parties, under S. 73, C.P.C. of 1859 to a suit for possession and registration of names as proprietors. 16 W.R. 19.
- (c) In a suit by a mortgagee for possession, the subsequent mortgagees and purchasers who opposed him in obtaining possession were rightly joined as defendants. 22 W R. 532.
- (d) Trustees for benefit of creditors are rightly added as defendants to a suit, by a creditor of an insolvent, against the insolvent for his debt, where they refused to register his claim. 8 A. 799=1 A.W.N. 78. H.
- (e) In a suit against a party, holding under a lessee, for declaration that certain pattas, alleged to have been granted to the lessee by a zemindar, are forgeries, all the parties interested in, and holding under, the pattas are necessary parties, the principle being that all persons who are interested in the question must be made parties to a suit in a Court of equity. 12 W.R. 247.
- (f) Where the purchaser from an auction purchaser in execution of a decree against the mortgagor sued the usufructuary mortgagee for possession of property alleging that the mortgage debt had been satisfied out of the usufruct, the heirs of the mortgagor were necessary parties to the suit, as they were interested in the account which must be taken in the suit and they should be bound by it. 6 N.W.P. 208.

2.- "Against whom any right to relief." - (Continued).

A.—PARTIES AGAINST WHOM RELIEF CAN BE CLAIMED.—(Concluded).

- (g) A suit is not bad for misjoinder of parties, where there is really one cause of action against some defendants and the relief claimed against the other defendants is only ancillary to the main relief. 29 M. 29. K
- (h) In a suit for specific performance of an agreement for partition entered into by the plaintiff and the 1st defendant, the 1st defendant's son may be impleaded as a defendant under S. 28, C.P.C., though specific performance cannot be claimed against him. 4 M.L.J. 288.
- (i) In a suit for specific performance of an agreement by the members of a joint family for partition, a minor member of the family is a proper party though he was not a party to the arrangement. 19 M. 211=4 M.L.J. 288.
- (i) See, further, cases under "AGENTS" under O. I, r. 1, supra.

B.—PARTIES AGAINST WHOM THERE COULD BE NO RELIEF.

- (a) Where a principal is sued for the acts of the agent, the agent is not a necessary party to the suit. 3 Agra 131.
- (b) The obligee of a money-bond is not liable to be made a defendant in a suit by his assignee to enforce payment of the bond. 1 M.H.C.R. 140. 0
- (c) In a suit on a simple money bond, persons endeavouring to obtain transfer of property from defendant should not be made to defendant, as that bond did not create any charge on the lands. 9 W.R. (P.C.), 9=11 M.I.A. 468.
- (d) Where plaintiff lent some money to defendant on a bond for carrying on a suit against a co-sharer for his share of the property, but, after the loan, the defendant colluded with the co-sharer and got much less than he claimed, allowed the property to be in possession of that co-sharer, in a suit for recovery of the amount so lent, the co-sharer should not be added as a party defendant on the ground of collusion with defendant. 5 N.W.P. 25.
- (e) Strangers to a contract cannot be made parties to a suit for specific performance of the contract, and a plaintiff cannot, therefore, in the same suit, pray for specific performance as against one defendant and for a declaration that he is not entitled to a charge on the property agreed to be sold as against another defendant. 5 B. 177.
- (f) The above rule is, however, applicable only to cases where, from the plaintiff's case, it appears that the stranger has a distinct interest from that of the other parties to the contract. 10 C. 1061. See also 18 M. 415=5 M.L.J. 164 and 19 M. 211=4 M.L.J. 288.
- (g) Where a Hindu minor, represented by his mother and guardian ad litem, was sued for specific performance of a contract for sale of his land entered into by his guardian, a subsequent purchaser of the same property from the guardian is a proper party. 18 M. 415=5 M.L.J. 164. See also 22 B. 46.

2.- "Against whom any right to relief."-(Concluded).

B.—PARTIES AGAINST WHOM THERE COULD BE NO RELIEF.—(Concluded).

- (h) In a suit for foreclosure, a plaintiff is entitled to exempt a portion of the property, the title to which was in dispute, or in doubt, and is also entitled not to implead the alleged owners in the suit. 2 A.L.J. 680= A.W.N. (1905), 244=28 A. 174.
- (i) In a suit by an auction-purchaser against the decree-holder for purchase money, on the ground that the judgment-debtor had no title to the property sold, the judgment-debtor was not a necessary party. 10 C.W.N. 274.
- (1) A suit to set aside a lease against the assignee of the lessee is not bad for non-joinder of certain persons in whose favour the assignee had executed a declaration of trust, as the interests of the assignee are not hostile to the persons entitled under the declaration. 18 M. 197. W

3.-" In respect of or arising out of the same act..or transactions."

A.-GENERAL.

- (a) The words "in respect of the same matter" are wider in scope than the words "same cause of action" in S. 26, C.P.C., and indicate, that claims to relief might be joined in one suit against several defendants, whether they constituted separate causes of action or not, so long as they are in respect of the same matter. 18 M L.J. 288=31 M. 252. X
- (b) 'Matter,' in S. 28, C.P.C., means the subject-matter of the suit. In a suit on a pro-note, a person who subsequently became surety for the payment of the note, was rightly joined as a defendant. 3 L.B.R. 191.

B.—NO MISJOINDER OF DEFENDANTS OR CAUSES OF ACTION.

- (a) In the matter of an assault which took place at one and the same time, 1st defendant attacked 1st plaintiff and 2nd defendant attacked 2nd plaintiff and a suit was brought for damages. It was held that there was no misjoinder of defendants, as it was found that the defendants were acting in concert. 26 B. 259=3 Bom. L.B. 878.
- (b) In a suit to cancel bonds executed in favour of separate defendants, in respect of the same matter, though the causes of action against separate defendants are different—plaintiff is entitled to sue all together.
  5 P.R. 1896.
- (c) Two persons had two decrees, respectively, against the same person, and both attached the same property. A third party put in a claim against one of these attachments, and the claim was dismissed. He brought a suit to set aside both the attachments, and for a declaration of his rights, as against both the decree-holders. It was held that the suit was not bad for misjoinder of parties, or causes of action. 10 M.L.J. 234.B
- (d) In a partition suit, the plaintiff can implead all the members of the joint family, and also those who were in possession of portions of family property—for, the main 'cause of action' against all defendants is, that they were in possession of plaintiff's share of joint property, and refused to give them up. 10 O.C. 32.

3.—"In respect of or arising out of the same act..or transactions." -- (Continued).

- (e) In a suit for partition, one of the defendants died, and his widow was impleaded, on the ground that she had taken possession of her husband's estate, out of which, possession of \(\frac{1}{3}\), was claimed by the plaintiff. It was held that there was no misjoinder of parties or causes of action. 79 P.R. 1899.
- (f) In a suit for possession, different transferees, under different deeds of different times, may be joined as defendants, the plaintiff having only one cause of action against them. 4 A.L.J. 121=A.W.N. (1907), 36=29 A. 267. See, contra, 16 A. 279=14 A.W.N. 82. See also 7 M.H. C.R. 290; 2 N.W.P.H.C. 221; 3 N.W.P.H.C. 86; 5 A. 163; 7 B. 289; 14 C. 435; 14 C. 681.
- (g) In a suit to set aside sales under S. 283, C.P.C., the cause of action being the alleged wrongful attachment, the different purchasers of the attached property at different sales, may be joined as defendants in the same suit. 13 M.L.J. 479=27 M.-94.
- (h) In a suit by A against B and 30 others, for possession of property, alleging that B and himself are reversionary heirs to the widow, who, in her life time, transferred the whole of the said property to B, and that B had alienated portions of property to other defendants, it was held that there was no misjoinder of defendants. 13 C.P.L.R. 9; A.W.N. (1908), 235=5 A.L.J. 647=4 M.L.T. 392. See, contra, 16 A. 279=14 A.W.N. 82. See also 7 M.H.C.R. 290; 2 N.W.P.H.C. 221; 3 N.W.P. H.C. 86; A. 163; 7 B. 289; 14 C. 435; 14 C. 681.
- (4) In a suit for possession against some 15 defendants, it was alleged that plaintiffs and defendants became jointly entitled to the property, on the death of a woman, and that some of the defendants claimed different titles for portions of the land; it was held that there was no misjoinder of defendants or causes of action. 6 O.C. 379.
- (j) In a suit by a ward, against the guardian and others, for recovery of property, sold to the others by the guardian, it was held, that there was no misjoinder of parties, or causes of action. 3 M.L.T. 286=18 M.L.J. 265.
- (k) In a suit against trustees for the appointment of a fresh trustee, and to recover trust properties, a third party, the widow and heir of a trustee, who was alleged to have some trust property with her, was also made a defendant, 4 L.B.R. 193.
- (1) In a suit for account against A and B as agents, the plaintiff may ask for account as against A from 1265 to 1283 and as against B from 1281 to 1283. There is no misjoinder. 7 C. 654; 9 C.L.R. 265.
  K
- (m) Though a Revenue Court had, under Act X of 1859, no jurisdiction to take cognizance of a suit against the sureties of a lessee, a suit brought jointly against the lessees and their sureties was not bad for misjoinder. 5 N.W.P. 222.

B.—NO MISJOINDER OF DEFENDANTS OR CAUSES OF ACTION.—(Concluded).

- (n) Where the owner of property sold on two separate occasions under a mortgage decree, claims contribution proportionately against the owners of the other parts included in the mortgage, he can implead them all as defendants in one suit, separate suits against each and for each sale being unnecessary. 12 A. 110=10 A.W.N. 31. See also N.W.P.H.C. (1873), 215; 3 M.H.C.R. 187; 10 W.R. 10; W.R. (1864), 303. But see 1 A. 455.
- (o) Where a plaintiff purchased a portion of the inheritance of a deceased Mahomedan from two of his heirs by two separate sale deeds of different dates, and sued for recovery of the shares of his vendors impleading another heir of the deceased and certain transferees from hun, who kept him out of possession, as defendants, there was no misjoinder of parties or causes of action. 24 A. 358=1902 A.W.N. 85. See also 11 A. 33.

C,—CASES OF MISJOINDER OF DEFENDANTS AND CAUSES OF ACTION.

- (a) The right to relief against an agent, for an alleged breach of contract, and that against a partner of the same firm, to have accounts taken and partnership wound up, cannot be said to be in respect 'of the same matter.' 27 M. 80.
- (b) A suit, by the reversioners against all the alienees, and the widow, for a declaration, that the alienations by her, of her husband's estate, to different alienees, on different dates, would not be binding on the reversion, after the widow's death, is bad for misjoinder of causes of action. 1 P.R. (1905)=83 P.L.R. 1905.
- (c) Seventeen of the village proprietors sued 36 persons, co-sharers and non-proprietors, for certain declarations and removal of buildings erected separately and independently by each defendant. It was held that the suit was bad for misjoinder. 127 P.R. 1892.
- (d) Where the plaintiff, vendee, sued for completion of a sale deed which the registering officer refused to register and for cancellation of a mortgage executed by the vendor in favour of a third person, impleading both the vendor and the third person (mortgagee) as defendants, the suit was bad for misjoinder. 7 N.W.P. 103.
- (e) A suit by the vendee against the vendor and persons in possession of the property under him by subsequent sale and letting, is bad for misjoinder of parties and causes of action, the cause of action against each defendant being separate. 5 A. 163=2 A.W.N. 202.
- But see 11 A. 33=8 A.W.N. 263, where the above decision was distinguished and it was held that inasmuch as the title of one defendant was derived from the other, there were not two causes of action but one, viz., the infringement of the plaintiff's right by the 1st defendant and the suit was not therefore bad for misjoinder.

C.-CASES OF MISJOINDER OF DEFENDANTS AND CAUSES OF ACTION—(Concluded)

- (f) In a suit for share of an estate by inheritance against a person in wrongful possession of the estate and several other persons to whom he had alienated portions of the estate, the "matter" of the various claims of the plaintiffs against the several defendants was not the "same" as used in S. 28, Act XIV of 1882 ("in respect of the same matter") and the causes of action against the several defendants were distinct under the second clause of S. 31 of that Act. The suit was therefore rightly dismissed. 1 A.W.N. 172.
- (g) Where a purchaser at a revenue sale brought a suit for possession against several persons claiming portions of the land under different titles, the suit was bad for misjoinder, unless the plaintiff was able to show that those persons acted in concert or under some common title.
- (h) Where the plaintiffs, alleging that certain of their lands had been incorrectly recorded in some settlement papers as belonging to the defendants, sued for the correction of the settlement record and for maintenance of possession, and it appeared that the lands were not recorded as jointly belonging to the defendants, the plaintiffs had no such common cause of action in the matter of the suit against the defendants as would justify their being sued together in one suit.
  5 N.W.P.H.C. 72.
  W
- (i) Where two co-sharers sold their shares separately to the same person, a suit by a third co-sharer to enforce his right of pre-emption against the vendee and the vendors jointly is bad for misjoinder of defendants and causes of action. 6 A. 106 = 3 A.W.N. 229.
- (j) A suit to enforce right of pre-emption in which the purchasers of different shares of the same mauza and their vendors were made defendants, is bad for misjoinder of parties and causes of action. 5 A. 163=1 A.W. N. 171.
- (k) Where, in a suit for pre-emption, in respect of three separate shares, the plaintiff impleaded the several vendors who were different persons and had no community of interest in the subject-matter of the suit, there was misjoinder of parties. 7 N.W.P. 188.
- (1) A single suit for rent against the holders of separate tenures is bad for misjoinder of parties and the mere fact of non-registration as separate tenants will be no answer to the objection if, in fact, they have been dealt with as holders of separate tenures. 22 W.B. 334.

4.—"Is alleged to exist whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative."

(a) A plaintiff can sue two sets of defendants to recover from either the one or the other set a sum of money for rent of his godown. 9 Bom. L.R. 482=31 B. 516.

4.—"Is alleged to exist whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative."—(Concluded).

- (b) In a suit to recover money lent by the plaintiff's agent, the latter was also made a defendant, and relief was prayed for, against him in the alternative, if the borrower-defendant did not pay. It was held that there was no misjoinder, the matter in the suit being the same. 16 M.L.J. 39=29 M. 50.
- (c) In a suit for profits by a sharer against another co-sharer, who has mortgaged his share to a third party, and when both the mortgagor and the mortgagee are in possession, both may, at the option of the plaintiff, be impleaded as defendants. 9 O.C. 142.
- (d) In a suit for partition by patnidars against dar-patnidars under his copatnidars, the co-patnidars must be made parties; but a dar-patnidar is not a necessary party, if his patnidar is made a party. 9 C.L.J.
- (e) In a suit, by an assignce of a co-sharer of arrears of profit due by lambardar, to recover the arrears due, the assignor, the heirs of the lambardar on date of assignment and the present lambardar were rightly impleaded as defendants. A.W.N. (1905), 100.

5.-" Where if separate suits..any common question of law or fact would arise."

General.

The principle of joinder of defendants cannot apply to separate causes of action against separate defendants quite unconnected and not involving any common question of law or fact; and in such a case they cannot safely be joined in one action. 9 Bom. L.R. 482=31 B. 516.

Court may give judgment for or 4. Judgment may be given without any O. XVI, against one or more amendment— 1 and 4 of joint parties.

- (a) for such one or more of the plaintiffs as may be found to be entitled to relief, for such relief as he or they may be entitled to 1:
- (b) against such one or more of the defendants as may be found to be liable, according to their respective liabilities 2.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

Clause (a) of this rule corresponds with the second sentence in S. 26 of Act XIV of 1882, and clause (b) with the second sentence in S. 28 of Act XIV of 1882.

(English Rule).

Clauses (a) and (b) of this rule corresponds with the latter portion of Order XVI, r. 4 of the English rules.

For English cases, see under O. I, r 3, supra.

1.-" For such relief as he or they may be entitled to."

(1) Judgment for one of the plaintiffs.

Where in a suit brought by four members of an undivided Hindu family against the widow of a 5th, to recover the property of the deceased by right of survivorship, the plaint contained the further allegation that the 4th plaintiff was the adopted son of the deceased and the widow pleaded division and also denied the adoption, the Court on finding the adoption proved may pass a decree in favour of the adopted son alone, even in the absence of a prayer in favour of the adopted son in the plaint and even without trying the other issues. 28 M. 500.

2.- "Clause b-against such one or more of the defendants..."

(1) Suit against several defendants—Some not liable—Procedure.

Where a plaintiff brought a suit against eleven persons but on the allegation in the plaint only two were liable, the Court should give judgment against such one or other of the defendants as it found liable according to their respective liabilities without amendment or allow the plaintiff to amend, but should not dismiss the suit in toto. 15 A.W.N. 28. I

(2) Judgment against an exonerated defendant on appeal.

In a suit against two defendants, there was a decree exonerating one of them and there was no appeal against that defendant's exoneration. In the other defendant's appeal, the exonerated defendant was also made a party but it was held that he could not be made liable. 27 A. 23. J

O. XVI, r. 5. Defendant need not be interested in all the relief claimed.

5. It shall not be necessary that every defendant shall be interested as to all the relief claimed in any suit against him 1.

(Notes).

N.B .- This rule is new.

(English Rule).

It corresponds with the first portion of O. XVI, r. 5 of the English rules, the words "or as to every cause of action included" in the English rules having been omitted.

1 .- "It shall not be necessary . . against him."

(General).

- (1) The general principle governing the joinder of defendants is that there must be a cause of action in which all defendants are more or less interested, although the relief asked against them may vary. 9 Bom. L.R. 482—31 Bom. 516.
- (2) A suit is not bad for misjoinder of parties, where there is really one cause of action against some defendants and the relief claimed against the other defendants is only ancillary to the main relief. 29 M. 29.
- (3) In a suit for specific performance of an agreement for partition entered into by the plaintiff and the 1st defendant, the 1st defendant's son may be impleaded as a defendant under S. 28, C.P.C. (=0. I, r. 3) though specific performance cannot be claimed against him. 4 M.L.J. 288. M
- (4) In a suit for accounts against A and B as agents, the plaintiff may ask for accounts as against A from 1265 to 1283 and as against B from 1281 to 1283. There is no misjoinder. 7 C. 654; 9 C.L.R. 265.

6. The plaintiff may, at his option 1, join as parties to the O. XVI, r. 6 same suit all or any of the persons severally, or jointly and severally, liable on any one contract, including parties to bills of exchange, hundis and promissory notes 2.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

Section 29 of Act XIV of 1882 same as above.

(English Rule).

This rule corresponds with O. XVI, r. 6 of the English rules.

(General).

- (a) Wherever more than one person is liable to contribute to the plaintiff's demands, they should all be made parties to the suit. Devaynes v. Robinson, 24 Beav. 99 (Note)—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 155. 0
- (b) In an action by a cestui que trust against a sole surviving trustee for an account and asking for a declaration that he had committed breaches of trust, the representatives of a deceased trustee were not necessary, parties. In re Harrison, (1891) 2 Ch. 349—Annual Practice, 1908. Vol. I, p. 155.
  - If the defendant required them, he could get them added under Eng. O. XVI, r. 11 (=O. I, r. 10 (2) of the C.P.C). McChean v. Gyles, (1902) 1 Ch. 915—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 156.
- (c) If the defendant thinks the suit is defective, he must apply under O. I, r. 13, infra. cf. Wilson v. Rhodes, 8 C.D. 777; Rergmaun v. Macmillan, 17 C.D. 428; Re Bowden, 45 C.D. 444; Lloyd v. Dimmack, 7 C.D. 398—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 156.

I.-" At his option."

Defendants in a suit on contract made by a firm.

A plaintiff in a suit brought upon a contract made by a firm may select as defendants those partners against whom he wishes to proceed, under S. 48, Contract Act. 3 P.L.R. 25.

2.—"Including parties to bills of exchange,..promissory note."

(1) Adding of drawer and firm on which bill was drawn, as parties.

The payee of a bill of exchange should not join the drawer and the firm on which the bill was drawn, as defendants in the same suit where the firm dishonoured the bill on presentation. 3 B. 182.

(2) Hundi-Endorser-Suit against-Drawer and acceptor.

The purchaser of a hundi, on its being dishonoured, is at liberty to sue his endorser alone, and it is not absolutely necessary to implead the acceptor and drawer in the same suit. If he does so he does not lose his right of suing them, within the period of limitation. 3 Agra 268. U

O. XVI, r.7. The Where the plaintiff is in doubt 1 as to the person from whom when plaintiff in the is entitled to obtain redress, he may join two or more defendants in order that the question as to which of the defendants is liable, and to what extent, may be determined as between all parties 2.

(Notes).

N.B .- This rule is new.

(English Rule).

This rule corresponds with O. XVI, r. 7 of the English rules.

(General).

- (a) Alternative relief of different kinds, either in tort or on contract, may be given against alternative defendants. Honduras, etc., Company v. Lefevre, 2 Ex. D. 307; Massey v. Haynes, 21 Q.B.D. 334—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 156.
- (b) A plaintiff, however, cannot bring separate causes of action against different persons in one action. Thompson v. London City Co., (1899) 1 Q.B. 884---Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 156.
- (c) Where there is one contract and one breach, and the question is which of two persons caused the breach, the joinder of both persons as defendants may be allowed. (Ibid).

1.- "Where the plaintiff is in doubt."

- (1) A person who had obtained a transfer of a pro-note for and on behalf of a firm brought a suit on it joining the firm also as plaintiffs. In spite of the objection of the defendant it was held that the suit was rightly instituted, as it was doubtful in whom the right to sue vested. 9 P.R. 1906=19 P.L.R. 1906.
- (2) A plaintiff can sue two sets of defendants to recover from either the one or the other set a sum of money for rent of godown. 9 Bom. L.R. 482 = 31 B. 516.

2.- "May be determined as between all parties."

(a) Where the action is in the alternative, e.g., against principal and agent, and judgment is signed against one, plaintiff cannot proceed against the other. Morel v. Westmoreland, (1904) A.C. 11, cf. French v. Howie, (1905) 2 K.B. 580; (1906) 2 K.B. 674, C.A.—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 156.

One person may sue or defend on behalf of all in same interest.

8. (1) Where there are numerous persons 1 having the same interest 2 in one suit, one or more of such persons may, with the permission of the Court 3, sue or be sued, or may defend, in such suit, on behalf of or for the benefit of all persons so interested.

But the Court shall in such case give, at the plaintiff's expense, notice of the institution of the suit to all such persons either by personal service or, where from the number of persons or any other cause such service is not reasonably practicable, by public advertisement, as the Court in each case may direct.

(2) Any person on whose behalf or for whose benefit a suit is instituted or defended under sub-rule (1) may apply to the Court to be made a party to such suit.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

S. 30 of Act XIV of 1882 same as cl. 1 above; but the word "persons" is used for "parties" and the words "or for the benefit of are added after the words "on behalf of."

Fourth clause in S. 32 of Act XIV of 1882 same as cl. 2 above; but the words "or for whose benefit" are added after "on whose behalf."

(English Rule).

This rule corresponds with O. XVI, r. 9 of the English rules.

(General).

- Where there is a common interest and a common grievance, a representative suit is in order, if the relief sought is in its nature beneficial to all whom the plaintiff proposed to represent. - (2) Where a person sues on behalf of himself and others, he may omit such as are not in the same interest and make them defendants. Fraser v. Cooper, 21 C.D. 718—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. 1, p. 160.

1.-" Numerous persons."

A.—GENERAL PRINCIPLES.

(1) Scope of the section.

(a) All persons interested, however numerous they may be, should be made parties. This is the rule of law to which S. 80, C.P.C., is an exception under particular circumstances. 5 Bom. L.R. 937 = 28 B. 209.

EXAMPLES.

(b) Trust for a specific purpose—Extent of trusts—Suits decide.

Where a trust had been created for specific purposes, there could be no decision as to the extent of the trusts nor as to whether the surplus profits would belong to the trustee, in a suit in which all the parties interested were not before the Court. 15 C. 329=15 I.A. 1.

1.—"Numerous persons."—(Continued).

- (d) This rule was not intended to allow individuals to sue on behalf of the general public, but to enable some of a class having special interests to represent the rest of the class. 9 M. 463.
- (e) This rule applies only to cases in which many persons are jointly interested in obtaining relief and not to a case in which individual right has been violated. 7 A. 178=4 A.W.N. 324.\

EXAMPLES.

- (1) Every Mahomedan, who is entitled to use a mosque for purposes of devotion, is entitled to sue any one, who interferes with the exercise of that right. 7 A. 178=4 A.W.N. 324; see also 5 A. 497; 8 B. 432; 5 A.W.N. 219; 20 C. 810; 23 M. 99 and 11 C. 337. Contra, 8 C. 32 where it was held that certain Mussulmans were not entitled to sue for a declaration that certain property was waqf and that certain mortgages executed by the existing mutwalli were void and for the appointment of another mutwalli, on the ground of their being followers of the Moslem religion, without complying with the provisions of this rule. See also 9 C. 606.
- (ii) Individual tax-payers can bring a suit against a Municipality for an injunction to restrain misapplication of tunds. 22 B. 646.
- (iii) The plaintiffs as worshippers at a Dharmasala had the locus standi to challenge the alienations of certain property attached to the Dharmasala, not as self-constituted representatives of the body of worshippers (who should have got permission under S. 30, C.P.C.) but as persons themselves interested in the preservation of the property. 66 P.R. 1892.
- (f) This rule contemplates a case in which there are numerous parties having the same interest in a suit who are all before the Court and are all anxious to have the matter disposed of, but, in order to save trouble and expense, are desirous that one or more of such parties shall, with the permission of the Court, sue or defend on behalf of all in the same interest. 5 A. 602=8 A.W.N. 155.

EXAMPLES.

- (i) This rule does not apply to a suit in which the plaintiffs claim to restrain the defendants from violating the common interests they all have in a land. 18 B. 699 (701).
  M
- (ii) Suit for the removal of masonry structures raised by one member of a community of Hindu priests upon a certain platform, on which every member of the community had individual right to perform religious rites. This rule is an enabling one allowing some persons interested to sue on behalf of all and did not debar the plaintiffs from suing in their own right. 24 C. 385.

- (g) This rule is intended to prevent the record from being unnecessarily encumbered by many names. It embodies a rule of convenience based on reason and good policy, but it is not intended to take away any rights. 24 C. 385.
- (h) The effect of the rule is that, unless permission is granted by the Court, a suit by one will have no binding effect upon the persons whom he chooses to represent. 24 C. 385; 23 M. 28 (32).
- (i) This section is based on the general rule of English Courts of Equity, which refuses ordinarily to adjudicate on any matter, to bind any man's interest, or to make any declaration of any man's right in his absence.
  5 A. 602 (607) = 3 A.W.N. 155. See also 8 A.W.N. 156.
- (j) Convenience requires that in suits where there is community of interest amongst a large number of persons, a few should be allowed to represent the whole; and if the whole body be represented in the suit, then it is proper that the whole body should be bound by the decree; though some members of the body are not parties named in the record. 3 M.H.C.R. 226.
- (h) It may be consistent with general principles that certain judicial proceedings taken by or against a select number as representing a large class, may, if fairly and honestly conducted, bind or benefit the whole class. 7 B. 323 (328).

EXAMPLE.

(i) The fact that the plaintiffs sued on behalf of a sabha with the permission of the Court under this rule did not deprive one of them of the right to challenge an alleged compromise to which one of many plaintiffs would ordinarily be entitled. 23 M, 101=9 M.L.J. 350.

(1) Requirements of the rule.

- (i) This rule is permissive and in on way prohibitive in its terms. It deals with procedure only and does not affect substantive rights. The omission to state in the plaint, that the suit is instituted on behalf of other persons similarly interested, cannot therefore be a fatal objection. 23 M. 28.
- (ii) This rule is regulative not constitutive. There must be right to sue before it can be applied. 7 B. 323 (328).

(m) Plaintiffs and the numerous persons wishing to sue.

The first para of S. 30, C.P.C., should be read as implying that the plaintiff wishes to sue on behalf of other persons similarly interested in suing, they also wishing the same. 31 C. 889 at 845; 5 (A. 602 (606) = 3 A.W.N. 155.

(n) Appellate Court's powers.

Where the procedure prescribed in this rule is not followed in a suit, the appellate Court should not dismiss the suit on that ground but should remand it for the procedure provided by the rule. 5 A. 602=8 A.W.N. 155.

1.-"Numerous persons."-(Concluded).

A.—GENERAL PRINCIPLES—(Concluded).

(o) Inapplicability of rule.

- (i) In a suit against trustees of a Chinese temple instituted by some members of a section of the Chinese community in Calcutta after obtaining sanction under S. 539 of the C.P.C. of 1882, it was held that, inasmuch as the infringement of plaintiff's private right to worship in the temple was alleged, they need not bring the suit under S. 30 of the Code of 1882 (=O. I, r. 8 of the present Code). 9 C.W.N. 594.
- (ii) The plaintiffs, some Muhammadans of Multan, sued for a declaration that a certain property was wakf and inalienable. It was held that the plaintiffs, as members of the Muhammadan community were competent to institute the suit and that Ss. 30 and 539 of the C.P.C. did not apply to the case. 78 P.L.R. 1908.

B.—MISCELLANEOUS.

(1) Malabar tarwad, suit against.

To obtain a decree binding on a Malabar tarwad, the procedure laid down in this rule should be followed if the members are numerous. 5 M. 201; 8 M. 484. See also 10 M. 322.

(2) Numerous persons -Suit to remove Mohunt.

The "numerous persons" mentioned in the rule mean persons capable of being ascertained; and so, where two plaintiffs brought a suit, on behalf of themselves and 42 others, to declare certain alienations made by the Mohunt invalid and to remove the Mohunt and it appeared that the whole Hindu community, which is incapable of ascertainment was interested in the suit, this rule was held inapplicable, S. 92 of C.P.C. being applicable. 20 C. 397.

2 .- " Having the same interest."

- (1) Plaintiffs, who were members of the satchasi community in their village, were held entitled to bring a suit, under S. 30, C.P.C., 1882 (=O.I, r. 8 of the present Code), on their own behalf and on behalf of their community, for a declaration of their right in the management of the worship of their goddess. 10 C.W.N. 867=33 C. 905.
- (2) In a suit by some Kattalikars on behalf of themselves and other Kattalikars for the exclusive right to perform a certain festival, it was held the plaintiffs had the 'same interest' in the suit as the other Kattalikars and that therefore they could sue. 15 M.L.J. 458.
- (3) In a suit to have property declared wakf, the plaintiff alone was not interested in the subject-matter of the suit. She could, therefore, sue on behalf of all interested only after having first obtained leave of the Court and otherwise complied with the provisions of this rule 11 C.
- (4) Where certain fishermen sued on behalf of themselves and other fishermen of their village for a declaration of their exclusive right to fish in a creek, the procedure laid down in this rule was directed to be followed. 12 B. 221.

0. I, r. 8]

2.- "Having the same interest."-(Concluded).

- (5) Under this rule, some of the raiyats of the village for themselves and for others, could sue the proprietor of it, for a declaration of their general rights and for an injunction restraining him from interfering with their rights. 19 B. 391.
- (6) Where 13 persons were permitted to sue on behalf of themselves and 195 others for a declaration of their rights as priests in a certain temple, held that the suit wat rightly constituted under this rule, the cause of action being the same to all persons interested. 15 B. 309.
- (7) Where one co-sharer sued some other co-sharers for restoration to status quo, a common land, without making certain other co-sharers parties to the suit, though those co-sharers might have a "joint" interest in the subject-matter of the suit, there was nothing to show that they had "the same interest in the suit," i.e., that they were "so interested" in like manner as plaintiff was, and it was quite possible that they were indifferent to the suit, and consequently this rule was held not applicable. 5 A. 602 = 3 A.W.N. 155.

3 .- " In one suit, . . with the permission of the Court."

GENERAL PRINCIPLES.

- Leave must be obtained before the suit is brought and cannot be given subsequently. 21 C. 181 note. See also 9 C. 606.
  - But see 21 B. 784, 22 A. 269=20 A.W.N. 69 and 23 M. 28, where it was held that the permission might be granted subsequent to the filing of the suit.
- (2) This rule does not require an express permission to be recorded by the Court but if such permission can be well gathered from the proceedings of the Court in which the suit was instituted, the appellate Court can infer such permission. 21 C. 180. See contra dictum of Stuart, C.J. in 5 A. 602.

EXAMPLES.

- (a) In a suit by certain Tenjalai Brahmins for declaration about the mode of electing Dhurmakartus of a certain pagoda, an order for proclamation inviting "all persons interested to come in and be made parties or see that others by whom they are content to be represented are made parties," is not an order under this rule giving the plaintiff permission to sue on behalf of other persons interested. 14 M. 57.
- (b) The Mahant of an akhara can bring a suit for pre-emption, on behalf of the akhara, after obtaining permission under S. 30, C.P.C. 4 A.L.J. 541=A.W.N. (1907), 239.
- (c) With respect to a shrine of a Muhammadan saint, plaintiffs sued on behalf of themselves and for the Dafali class generally for certain declarations. After the institution of the suit plaintiffs applied under S. 30, C.P.O., for permission to sue on behalf of certain other Dafalis. It was held that plaintiffs were not competent to sue for any Dafalis but themselves that they could have sued on behalf of the Dafali class generally obtaining permission of the Court under S. 30, C.P.C. 3 O.C. 351. N.

3.—"In one suit, .. with the permission of the Court."—(Concluded).

GENERAL PRINCIPLES—(Concluded).

- (d) The Mahomedan Association of Meerut has per se no status in law to institute a suit in its own name by its Secretary in respect of "wakf" property. If its members had empowered one of their number to act for them according to this rule, permission to sue would be granted 6 A. 284=4 A.W.N. 76.
- (3) The omission to apply for leave under this rule is not by itself ground for dismissing the suit. When the objection is taken, the plaint should be amended and the requisite leave obtained. 23 M. 28.
- (4) See also dictum of Stuart, C J., in 5 A. 602. But see 8 C. 32 (41) where the suit was dismissed for not obtaining leave to sue.
- (5) When the appellant fails to apply within the prescribed time to bring upon record the representatives of one of the respondents selected for the service of notice under S. 30, C.P.C., the right to appeal does not survive against the remaining respondents and the appeal must abate under S. 368, C.P.C. 2 P.L.R. 160.
- O.XVI, r. 11.

  9. No suit shall be defeated by reason of the misjoinder or Misjoinder and non-joinder of parties 1, and the Court may in every suit deal with the matter in controversy so far as regards the rights and interests of the parties actually before it 2

(Notes).

(Old Act).

S. 31 of Act XIV of 1882, same as above; but the words "or non-joinder" are added after the word "misjoinder" and the second clause of S. 31, viz., "nothing in this section shall be deemed to enable plaintiffs to join in respect of distinct causes of action" has been omitted.

Difference between the old section and this rule.

- The protection given in cases of misjoinder of parties was extended to cases of non-joinder also.
- (2) Owing to the alterations made in O. I, r. I of this Code regarding the joinder of plaintiffs, the 2nd clause of S. 31 of Act XIV of 1882 has been omitted.

(English Orders and Rules).

- This rule corresponds with the first portion of O. XVI, r. 11 of the English rules.
- Even when the English rules did not contain the word "non-joinder," the principle of the rule was held to apply to cases of non-joinder also.
- The rule as to parties is for the purpose of justice and the Court has ample powers under rule 10 (2) to add parties whenever they ought to have been made parties or whenever without them the Court could not deal with the matter in controversy so far as regards the rights and interests of the parties actually before it. 21 M. 378=8 M.L.J. 139. See also 1 Agra 147, a decision under S. 73 of Act VIII of 1859 (=0. X, r. 10 (2) of the present Code).

(General).

(a) Misjoinder or non-joinder is no defence. Abouloff v. Oppenheimer, 30 W.R.
 p. 430.—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I. p. 165.

1.-" No suit....defeated....misjoinder or non-joinder."

N.B.—Under the old Codes, Act XIV of 1882 and its predecessors, misjoinder or non-joinder of parties were fatal to the suit. The following are cases of such suits having failed by reason of non-joinder or misjoinder of parties. Such cases are no longer law, by reason of the enactment of O. I, r. 9, as also by reason of the enactment of O. I, r. 10 (2) and also O. I, rs. 1 to 4, whereby the Court has ample powers to strike out or add parties to the suit:—188 P.R. 1882 (Civil); U.B. R. Vol. I (1892—1896), 581; 23 M. 239; 20 P.L.R. 1907; 69 P.R. 1906 = 118 P.L.R. 1906; 18 A. 109; 13 A. 432; 17 A. 537; 175 P.R. 1882 (Civil); 1 P.L.R. 4; 3 A.W.N. 230, but see 17 A. 274=15 A.W.N. 76; 6 A. 106=3 A.W.N. 229; 18 P.R. 1867; 110 P.R. 1876; 9 M.L.J. 312; 12 P.R. 1905=78 P.L.R. 1905; 56 P.R. 1901; 86 P.R. 1891; 10 C.W.N. 981.

Misjoinder or non-joinder, when not fatal.

- N.B.—The following cases of misjoinder or non-joinder were, even under the Codes of 1882 and 1859, not treated as bad on account of such misjoinder or non-joinder. They would, therefore, serve as illustrations of O. I, r. 9 of the present Code:—
- (1) Where the defendant was in possession of certain property as the result of a compromise with his brother's widow, a suit for possession against him by another brother should not be dismissed on the ground that the widow was not added as a party. 2 A.W.N. 80.
- (2) Where, in a suit by one member of a joint Hindu family against several other members of the same family for a declaration, one of the members of that family was not added as a party, the non-joinder of that member is not a fatal defect. 11 A.W.N. 175.
- (3) A suit for recovery of property from several persons holding under different sale deeds of different dates from different persons, though bad for misjoinder of parties and causes of action, ought not to be dismissed but should be treated as a mere irregularity under S. 578 of C.P.C. of 1882. 2 A.L.J. 91.
- (4) In a suit by a Hindu husband for a tort to himself and his wife, it was held that the non-joinder of the wife was an omission cured by S. 350of Act VIII of 1859, C.P.C. 3 P.R. 1869 (Civil).
- (5) Where two sets of plaintiffs having distinct causes of action sue together, then under S. 31, C.P.C., it is misjoinder. But even in such a case the Court should return the plaint for amendment so that any one set might elect to proceed with the suit. 38 P.R. 1903.
- (6) Three plaintiffs brought a joint suit for possession of immoveable property, two of them claiming half the property by inheritance and the third claiming the other half by purchase from the two former. The suit was bad for misjoinder of causes of action and should be returned that the plaintiffs might elect which of them should proceed with the suit. 18 A. 181=16 A.W.N. 2.

1.—" No suit....defeated....misjoinder or non-joinder."—(Concluded).

- (7) Where the sons objected to the attachment of property in execution of a decree against their father, as the property had been previously partitioned and held in separate shares, a joint suit by them for a declaration that their shares were not liable to attachment was bad for misjoinder of causes of action
  - The plaintiffs should have been allowed to amend their plaint by striking out the name of one of them. 13 A.W.N. 150.
- (8) Suit by one S and his mother as guardian of his minor brother to recover property. S had no interest and only his mother had interest as heir to her late father. The suit need not be dismissed for formal incorrectness. The name of S should be struck off and the suit allowed to proceed as that of the mother alone. 11 W.R. 507.
- (9) Plaintiffs may bring a joint suit in respect of leases made in their respective names, without even assigning reasons in the plaint, but alleging a trading partnership and joint family subsequently in the suit. And even if it should appear at the trial, that there was a misjoinder of plaintiffs under S. 26, C.P.C. (=O. I, r. 1 of the present Code) the suit need not necessarily be fatal. 67 P.R. 1894.
- (10) Six persons, who were removed from the office of trustees of a temple, cannot jointly sue for a declaration that the proceedings of the District Temple Committee removing them were illegal. Where they sued jointly, the plaint should be returned for amendment, and one of the plaintiffs allowed to use it as his own. 8 M. 361.
- (11) The objection as to the defect of parties was not one affecting the merits of the case so as to be a ground of special appeal. 3 C. 26. But see 6 B.H.C.R. 20.
- (12) The question of misjoinder of parties and causes of action was not a sufficient ground for granting leave to appeal to Her Majesty in Council. Supp. 1 O.C. 18.
- (13) An order rejecting a plaint on the ground of misjoinder of parties or causes of action was open to revision either under cl. (a) or cl. (b) of S. 70 of the Punjab Court's Act (XVIII of 1884). 9 P.W.R. 1908.

2.—"The Court may....so far as regards the rights and interests of the parties actually before it."

- (a) Where, even if there were misjoinder of parties a Court proceeds to trial of the suit on merits, without rejecting the plaint or returning it for amendment or amending it, it should dispose of the suit on merits. 9 A. 221.
- (b) A suit by one only of several co-heirs for his share, is a suit, which is open to the objection by the defendant on the ground that one co-heir cannot sue without making the other co-heirs parties and also on the ground that he ought to sue for the whole estate; but which, in default of such objections is maintainable. No. 2 P.R. 1882 (Civil). I
- (c) A party who had a right of pre-emption sued to enforce that right, joining with himself as co-plaintiff one who had no such right. It was held that the 1st plaintiff did not thereby forfeit his right but could maintain the suit. 1 O.C. 308; 83 P.R. 1893.

- .2.—"The Court may....so far as regards the rights and interests of the parties actually before it."—(Concluded).
  - (d) In a suit for land awarded at partition of the whole culturable land of the village, the plaintiff impleaded only 11 defendants and at the instance of the Court the whole proprietary body was brought in as co-defendants. On appeal, the plaintiff appellant again impleaded only the 11 people as respondents. It was held that the appellate Court should either deal with the appeal so far as the impleaded respondents were concerned under S. 31, C.P.C., or to direct under S. 559, C.P.C., that the others also be made respondents. 5 P.R. 1892.
- Suit in name of wrong person as plaintiff 1 or where it is doubtful wrong plaintiff. whether it has been instituted in the name of the right plaintiff 2, the Court may at any stage of the suit, if satisfied that the suit has been instituted through a bona fide mistake 3, and that it is necessary for the determination of the real matter in dispute so to do, order any other person to be substituted or added as plaintiff 3A upon such terms as the Court thinks just.
- (2) The Court may at any stage of the proceedings 5, either O. XVI, r. II

  Court may strike upon or without the application of either party 6, out or add parties. and on such terms as may appear to the Court to be just, order that the name of any party improperly joined, whether as plaintiff or defendant, be struck out 7, and that the name of any person who ought to have been joined, whether as plaintiff or defendant, or whose presence before the Court may be necessary in order to enable the Court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the suit, be added 8.
- (3) No person shall be added as a plaintiff suing without a next O. XVI.7.1 friend or as the next friend of a plaintiff under any disability without his consent 9.
- (4) Where a defendant is added, the plaint shall, unless the O. XVI, r. 3

  Where defendant added, plaint to be amended.

  Court otherwise directs, be amended 10 in such manner as may be necessary, and amended copies of the summons and of the plaint shall be served on the new defendant and, if the Court thinks fit, on the original defendant.
- (5) Subject to the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, O. XVI, r. (XV of 1877), section 22, the proceedings as against any person added as defendant shall be deemed to have begun only on the service of the summons 11.

Order I, Rule 10 (1).

(Notes).

(Old Act).

- S. 27 of Act XIV of 1882, same as sub-rule (1) above; but the words "or persons," "with his or their consent" and "or plaintiffs" are omitted and instead of "so commenced" the word "instituted" is used.
- Though the words "with his or their consent" are omitted in sub-rule 1, sufficient provision, on this point is made in sub-rule 3 of this rule.

(English Orders and Rules).

Sub-rule (1) corresponds with Order XVI, rule 2 of the English Rules o Practice.

General.

- (1) Unless the case falls under S. 27 [= O. I, r. 10 (1)], a person has no right to come in as a substitute for a plaintiff, who has no right to bring the suit, but who brings the suit alleging title. Against such a suit brought by an unauthorised person, the defendant has a right to the dismissal of the suit. 7 O.C. 78.
- (2) Where a suit has been instituted by one, who has no cause of action and the suit is therefore bad and liable to dismissal it is not competent to a Court to make some one a co-plaintiff and import into the suit a cause of action, which should date back from the date on which an unmaintainable plaint was filed. 12 Bom. H.C.R. 17 (22). See also 1 M. 383; 6 C. 827.
- (3) A presentation of a plaint purporting to be in the names of all the partners, but signed and verified only by the managing partner, is not a mere-irregularity which can be cured by adding partnes under S. 27, C.P.C. = O. I, r. 10 (1), which applies only to cases where a wrong plaintiff or a doubtful plaintiff institutes it. 1 Sindh L.R. 191.
- (4) Whether C.P.C. allows a fresh defendant to be substituted for a sole existing defendant against whom it has been found that there is no cause of action—is a question left open. 59 P.W.R. 1908.

1.-" Where a suit ... ... wrong person as plaintiff."

(1) Applicability of sub-rule.

S. 27, C.P.O. = O. I, r. 10 (1) of the present Code applies only where a 'wrong person' is made a plaintiff and not a defendant. 27 M. 315 at 326. P

(2) Meaning of 'wrong person as plaintiff'

The words 'wrong person as plaintiff' does not exclude the case of persons, who may institute the suit without any right to do so. In such a case, if it is done under a bona file belief that he is entitled to do so, the Court has power to substitute the right plaintiff. 30 M. 419=2 M.L.T.

(3) Suit brought by wrong person

Suits brought by parties without any status to sue, should either be righted as soon as objection is taken or dismissed. U.B.R. (Vol. 1892-96), 244.R

2.- "Or where it is doubtful...right plaintiff."

Doubt whether suit was by right plaintiff.

A woman can maintain an action in her own name without even joining her father, though the contract was entered into by the father alone but on her behalf and for her benefit and as, according to the custom of the country, being a woman, she cannot appear in public on such occasions. The Court was of opinion that even if she cannot maintain the suit herself, her father may be added as co-plaintiff under O. I, r. 10, paras (1) and (2). 28 P.L.R. 1905=49 P.R. 1905.

3.-- "If satisfied that the suit....bona fide mistake."

A.—EXISTENCE OF BONA FIDE MISTAKE.

Applicability of sub-rule.

- (a) Where, by a bona fide mistake, whether of law or fact, an action is brought in the name of a wrong plaintiff, S. 27=0. I, r. 10 (1), applies. 10 C.W.N. 662=33 C. 657.
- (b) In a suit commenced through a bona fide mistake, upon the application of a party, he was added as a plaintiff, even at a late stage of the case. 7 O.C. 198.
- (c) In a suit by the managing members of a joint Hindu family firm, for a debt due to the firm, several minor members of the joint family were allowed to be added as plaintiffs under S. 27 as the omission of those names was due to a bona fide mistake in the belief that such addition was not necessary. 149 P.R. 1907.

B.—NON-EXISTENCE OF BONA FIDE MISTAKE.

- (1) In a suit for a share in the family property by the son of a Mahomedan in the life time of his father, who was insane, it was held that the father's name could not be substituted under S. 27, C.P.C.=O. I, r. 10 (1), as the suit could not have been instituted under a bona fide mistake, insanity being not a disqualification to inheritance under the Mahomedan Law. 91 P.R. 1887.
- (2) A plaintiff, after institution of a suit for pre-emption, disclaimed interest in the subject-matter of the suit and applied to Court for substituting her son as plaintiff. It was not shown to the Court that the son consented to the substitution and the Court held that the son could not be substituted and dismissed the suit. 3 O.C. 347.
- (3) In a suit where the plaintiff had no right to sue, the Court allowed on the ground of equity the addition of the children of the plaintiff as plaintiffs, and a consequential amendment in the prayer of the plaint.
  2 L.B.R. 245.
- (4) Where a suit was instituted in the name of a firm by its manager, and on defendant's objection, another partner was made a party to the suit subsequently, the case was one of misdescription and not of non-joinder, and the addition of the partner's name on the record came within the provisions of sub-rule (1) of this rule. 17 B. 413.

Order I, Rule 10 (2).

(Notes).

(Old Act).

The first para of S. 32 of Act XIV of 1882 corresponds with the first portion of this sub-rule, and the second para of S. 32 of the same Act corresponds with the second portion of this sub-rule.

Difference between the old section and this rule.

- (1) In the case of striking out parties under the oid Act it had to be done "on or before the first hearing" and "upon the application of either party." Under this rule, the Court may strike out the name of any party "at any stage of the proceedings," and "upon or without the application of either party."
- (2) In the case of addition of parties, the old Act provided that the Court may "order that any plaintiff be made a defendant or that any defendant be made a plaintiff." This is omitted in this rule.

(English Orders and Rules).

This sub-rule corresponds with the second sentence of O. XVI, r. 11 of the English Rules of Practice.

(General Principles).

- (a) This rule enables a Judge to make such changos, in respect of parties to any suit, as he may think necessary, either by striking out unnecessary parties, or by bringing in necessary parties who ought to have been, but were not, originally added.—McCheane v. Gyles (No. 2), (1902) 1 Ch. p. 917; De Hart v. Stevenson, 1 Q.B.D., p. 814; Dalton v. Guardians of St. Mary Abbotts, 47 L.T. 349; Norris v. Beazley, 2 C.P.D. 80; Pilley v. Robinson, 20 Q.B.D. 155; Barton v. L. and N.W. Ry. Co., 38 C.D. 144; Byrne v. Brown, 22 Q.B.D. p. 667; Montyomery v. Foy, (1895) 2 Q.B. 321—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 164.
- (b) The evidence on the issues raised by the new parties need not be the same; it is sufficient if the main enquiry and the main evidence be the same. Byrne v. Brown, 22 Q.B.D. p. 666—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 164.
- (c) Where a person would be indirectly or commercially affected by a judgment against the defendant and not legally, this sub-rule may not apply, Cf. Morser v. Marsden, (1892) 1 Ch. 487 -- Annual Practice, 1908. Vol. I, p. 164.
  - (d) It is doubtful whether S. 32, C.P.C.=O. I, r. 10 (2) applies to proceedings in execution. The purchaser is a necessary party to an application by the judgment-debtor under S. 311, C.P.C. S.C. 289.
- ·(e) The High Court has power to revise the order passed by the lower Court refusing to join a party as defendant under S. 32, C.P.C.=O. I, r. 10 (2). S.C. 302; 5 O.C 91.
- (f) An order refusing or granting an application to be made a party is not open to revision by the High Court under S. 115 of this Code. 2 A.W.N. .55; 5 A.W.N. 259. So also an order by the appellate Court striking off the name of a defendant made a party under this rule. 2 A.W.N. 53.F.

(General Principles)-(Concluded).

- (g) Where a Court permitted the junior widow to be made a party to the proceedings in execution of a decree obtained by the senior widow against a debtor of her deceased husband, the High Court declined to interfere in revision. 6 M. 227.
- (h) An order rejecting an application to be made a party under S. 32 of C.P.C. of 1882=O. I, r. 10 (2) is not appealable. 12 C.P.L.R. 41.
  H
- (i) Where only one defendant objected to the frame of the suit and the original Court gave a decree overruling the objection of the misjoinder, the defect did not affect the merits of the case and the appellate Court ought not to reverse the decree of the lower Court. 5 A. 163=1 A.W.N. 171.
- (1) Where an order adding a defendant is not appealed against and no objection thereto is taken in memorandum of appeal, an oral objection taken to such order should be disallowed. 20 A. 370=18 A.W.N. 75.
- (k) It is not correct to substitute the assignee of the original plaintiff as the plaintiff on the record, the proper course being to add him as a party plaintiff, if he desires it. Where the substitution is made before judgment in the first Court and is not objected to, and neither party is prejudiced thereby, the error will not be considered in special appeal, 2 C.L.R. 297.
- (1) An appeal hes from the Court's order returning the plaint for amendment, when the Court has struck off a co-defendant's name after the first hearing of the suit which the Court had no power to do under Act XIV of 1882. 71 P.R. 1907—37 P.L.R. 1908.
- (m) Though an order under S. 32, C.P.C., adding a defendant, if passed by an appellate Court is final as an order under S. 588, C.P.C., yet it is capable, under S. 591, C.P.C. (=S. 105 of the present Code), of being questioned as supporting a decree, when the decree is appealed against 83 P.R. 1894.
- (n) This rule is wide enough to meet every case of defect of parties, the power to add parties must be exercised with reference to the interests which those parties have at the time when the addition is being considered. 24 C. 34.
- (e) The object of this rule is to enable the Court to try and determine, once for all, material questious common to the parties and to third parties, and not merely questions between the parties to the suit. 5 M. 52. See also 17 M. 122=4 M.L.J. 52.
- (p) The Court has no power to allow the purchaser of the rights of plaintiff in a suit to be substituted for him on the record. 9 W.R. 309. See also 9 W.R. 487; 12 W.R. 87; 16 W.R. 183.
- (q) It is not correct to substitute the assignee of the original plaintiff as the plaintiff on record, the proper course being to add him as a party plaintiff, if he desires it. 2 C.L.R. 297.

4 .-- "The Court may."

Discretion of Court and its powers.

 This rule is permissive, not imperative. Discretion is vested in a Court to make persons, not before it, parties to a suit. 1 W.R. 228. See also 2 W.R. 158.

4-"The Court may."-(Concluded).

- (2) Nearly at the conclusion of a trial in a mortgage suit, plaintiff applied to add certain persons as defendants. It was held that the Court should have granted it in its discretion, though an opportunity was given the plaintiff at the trial to add parties and he failed to take advantage of it. A.W.N. (1905), 35.
- (3) No person can bring himself or any one else on to the record of the Court unless with the cognisance and by the leave of the Court. 12 A.W.N. 139.
- (4) Where, on the allegation made in the plaint, there appears also another person concerned in it, the Court should forthwith make him a codefendant under S. 32, C.P.C. [= O. I, r. 10 (2)], without raising an issue on the point. 59 P.W.R. 1908.
- (5) The question of limitation cannot arise with respect to the power of the Court to make an order adding a party defendant to a suit. 12 C. 642 (651). See also 24 C. 640; 27 C. 540; 3 C.L.J. 576; 33 C. 613; 10 C.W.N. 551 and 28 B. 11 (20).

See contra 14 A. 524 = 12 A.W.N. 104.

5.- "At any stage of the proceedings."

(1) Parties in the suit.

- (a) In a partition suit, before the decree therein is engrossed on stamp paper, the suit should be considered sub-judice and any addition of new parties is valid and proper. 32 C. 483.
- (b) Where a subordinate Judge permitted the junior widow of a Hindu to be made a party, to the proceedings in execution of the decree obtained by the senior widow against a debtor of her deceased husband, the High Court declined to interfere in revision. 6 M. 227.
- (c) The Court has power to add as fresh parties to the suit persons interested in its subject matter and likely to be affected by the result, even after a decree is passed referring the suit to a Commissioner to take accounts and sell properties. 8 Bom. H.C.R. O.C. 96.
- (d) A person can be added as a party under this rule after a suit has been reinstated on an application under O. IX, r. 13 made by one of the defendants. 20 A. 188 = 18 A.W.N. 12.
  Z
- (e) Under S. 32 of the old Code a Court was not competent to strike out a codefendant's name after the first hearing of the suit. 71 P.R. 1907 = 37 P.L.R. 1908; 18 A. 53=15 A.W.N. 156; see also 20 M. 360 (362). A

(2) Appeal, addition of parties on.

- (a) Ss. 32 and 582 of the old Code gave an appellate Court power to add parties to the appeal persons who were not parties to the original suit. 8 C.W.N. 404.
- (b) The terms of O. I, r. 10 (2) are very wide. An auction purchaser of a property sold in execution, after the institution of an appeal against that decree in the High Court, was allowed to come as a respondent in the appeal, to defend his interests. 2 A.L.J. 516.
- (c) Beneficiaries were joined as co-plaintiffs on appeal, when the plaintiff trustee betrayed trust by surrendering decree. 12 C.W.N. 946; 12 M.L.J. 355.

5.-- "At any stage of the proceedings." - (Concluded).

(d) In a suit for possession of certain immoveable property, which was alleged by the plaintiff to be an impartible raj but which the Court found the plaintiff was entitled to, under an assignment deed executed to plaintiff's predecessor in title, the plaintiff's brother was a necessary party and was added as a party at the time of appeal. 26 A. 528 = (1904)

A.W.N. 119.

(3) Remand, addition of parties after.

- (a) A Court cannot add parties after a case is remanded to itself, under S. 566, C.P.C. of 1882. 20 P.L.R. 1907: 2 O.C. 25.
- (b) Where there was non-joinder in a suit and it was not objected to, at the proper time, and the suit was disposed of on a preliminary point, the defect of non-joinder may be cured when the appellate Court reverses the decision on the preliminary point and remands the case for trial. 5 M.L.J. 95.

(4) Second appeal, substitution of defendant on.

A Court of second appeal cannot substitute one defendant for another in the plaint or record of the original suit, nor one appellant for another in the record of the first appeal. 1 L.B.R. 350.

6.-"Either upon or without,.. of either party."

- (1) A Court may, in the exercise of its discretion, under this rule, add a party to a suit upon his own application. 13 C. 90.
- (2) This rule does not contemplate any application to the Court by the person proposed to be added. 5 C. 882.

7 .- "Whether as plaintiff or defendant, be struck out."

(1) Court's powers in misjoinder.

- (a) In a case of misjoinder of defendants and causes of action, the lower Court should direct the amendment of the plaint by striking out causes of action and defendants and then proceed with the suit, 189 P.R. 1888.K
- (b) A suit for damages for alleged libel by six plaintiffs being bad for misjoinder, the Court can ask the plaintiffs to elect one among themselves to proceed with the suit and amend the plaint by striking off the other plaintiffs, &c. 11 C.W.N. 680=34 C. 662.
- (c) A pre-emption suit by two plaintiffs, each entitled to claim, but having no joint right to claim pre-emption, is bad for misjoinder of plaintiffs and in such a case the Court should order that the name of one of the plaintiffs should be struck off under S. 32, C.P.C. (Act NIV of 1882).
  29 P.R. 1894; 3 P.R. 1881.
- (d) Where a person has once been admitted to the record as the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff that person is a party and any dispute raised unter partes as to the substituted plaintiff's right of representation (not inheritance) so as to have his name struck out comes properly under S. 92, C.P.C. and not under S. 367, C.P.C. 27 B. 162, 183=4 Bom. L.R. 980.

8.—"Or whose presence.....to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions.....be added."

A.-GENERAL.

- (1) To justify the addition of parties under S. 32, C.P.C., they must be persons immediately affected by the demands of the plaintiffs in the action. 118 P.R. 1890.
- (2) The words "questions involved in the suit" in this rule must be taken to mean questions directly arising out of, and incidental to, the original cause of action, in which either as plaintiff or defendant the person to be joined has an identity or community of interest with the original plaintiff or defendant. 2 A. 788 (743).
- (3) This rule, as far as the addition of plaintiffs is concerned, only applies to those cases in which the original party who brought the suit had some title to sue. 6 C. 370; 6 C. 827.
- (4) If a plaintiff at the time of suit has no interest in the subject matter thereof, the joinder of person, as co-plaintiff, who has an interest, cannot alter the plaintiff's position or confer on him any right of suit. 20 B. 337. See also 20 B. 677.
- (5) When the Court finds that the plaintiffs, who, as reversioners, sued to set aside alienations by widow, had no right to sue, but another reversioner not represented in the suit, had such right, it should not adjudicate on the propriety or otherwise of the alienation but should dismiss the suit. 2 Agra 44.
- (6) Only persons, whose claims must necessarily be taken into consideration before deciding on the plaintiff's title, should be joined as defendants in a suit. 9 W.R. 158.
- (7) The object of S. 73 of Act VIII of 1859 was to prevent needless litigation, and there are cases, e.g., when it is necessary to make plaintiff's co-parceners defendants, when the Court should exercise the discretion vested in it by the section, even if the plaintiff omits to ask him to do so. 15 W.R. 432.

B.—COURT'S POWER RE ADDITION OR TRANSPOSITION OF PARTIES.

- (1) The rejection of a plaint, after the first hearing, for non-joinder of certain necessary parties as defendants is illegal, the Court having a discretionary power under this rule to add parties to a suit. 2 A.W.N. 67.
- (2) Where the rights of another person as well as those of the plaintiff have been contested in the lower Court, though the rights of the two are different, the Chief Court will, when no prejudice can occur, join that other person as a party to the suit to prevent further litigation. 11 P.R. 1870 (Civil).
- (3) A Court could, under S. 73, Act VIII of 1859, add parties to a suit, as well as transpose a party from his position as pro forma defendant, and array him amongst the plaintiffs after amendment of plaint. 7 W.R. 39.
  See also 10 M. 44.
  X.

8.—"Or whose presence.....to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions.....be added."—(Continued).

- (4) Where the plaintiff in a partnership suit applied for leave to withdraw the suit or for dismissal of it, two of the defendants who objected to the application, applied that they might be made plaintiffs and that plaintiff be made a defendant. The application was allowed under S. 32 of the old Code. 7 B. 167.
- (5) Where the son of a Hindu widow died after her re-marriage, and she sued as guardian of her daughter by her first husband claiming the estate of her son, she was allowed to join as co-plaintiff in her own right.

  10 W.R. 34.
- (6) Where a Mahomedan lady brought two suits, one to set aside a mortgage of a portion of her father's estate by her husband and the other against one of her brothers for her share of her father's estate, the Court ought not to dismiss the suit on the ground of non-joinder of the other brothers of plaintiff to the latter suit or that the plaintiff should have brought only one suit. It must exercise the powers conferred on it by this rule and add the necessary parties to the suit and cause the plaint to be amended accordingly. 1 A.W.N. 140.
- (7) Where the defendants denied the agency of a certain person with whom the plaintiff entered into the contract sued on and who was alleged by the plaintiff to be their agent, on an application in time by the plaintiff, the alleged agent of the defendants against whom relief was proposed to be prayed for in the alternative could be added as defendants. 8 C. 170.
- (8) Though no relief was asked in the plaint against the mutt, the representative of the mutt was rightly joined as a defendant under this rule in a suit against the sons of the obligor of a bond who described himself as the manager of the mutt in the bond. 13 M. 82 (83).
- (9) Where a certain person had advanced moneys to plaintiff to enable her to carry on the suit and had obtained an assignment of half of her interest but the plaintiff disputed the assignment the assignee was made a defendant on his own application. 3 C.W.N. 754.
- (10) In a suit for specific performance of a contract of sale, a subsequent purchaser may also be joined by Court as a party under S. 32, C.P.C., provided the circumstances mentioned in S. 27 (b), Specific Relief Act, exists. 1 L.B.R. 252.
- (11) In a suit for declaration that certain immoveable property was not liable to attachment and sale in execution of certain decrees obtained by defendants 1 to 4 against defendants 5 to 7, certain other persons who had also attached the property in dispute in execution of decrees obtained by them against defendants 5 to 7 and had successfully resisted the claim preferred by plaintiff, were necessary parties "to enable the Court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the suit" as the plaintiff had a right to relief against them in respect of the matter involved in the suit. 27 C. 493.

- (12) Where, in a suit by one member of a joint Hindu family against several other members of the same family for a declaration, one of the members of that family was not added as a party, the non-joinder of that member is not a fatal defect. The Court should have added him as a party if it was of opinion that his presence was necessary. 11 A.W.N. 175.
- (13) Where the plaintiff sought to establish his right to attach a house in execution of a decree which the defendants impugned as having been obtained by fraud, and the house was previous to the suit mortgaged to a third party and the defendant also entered into a contract of sale with that third party subsequent to the suit, the defendant undertaking to defend the suit, on defendant's failure so to defend, the mortgagee and would-be vendee is entitled to be added as a defendant under this rule. 8 B. 323.
- (14) Where a suit instituted by a guardian for a minor was dismissed for want of a certificate under Act XL of 1858, the minor on coming of age was ordered to be added as plaintiff under S. 73 of Act VIII of 1859 and the suit proceeded with, 12 W.R. 102.
- (15) Where a Hindu widow sued in respect of rights inherited by her from her deceased husbanā, and then adopted a son, under S. 78 of Act VIII of 1859 the adopted son might be made a co-plaintiff. 1 M.H.C.R. 197.
- (16) In a suit under S. 30 of the Land Acquisition Act where there is a dispute as to the apportionment of compensation, it is not ultra vires of the District Judge to add a party to the proceedings before him. 25 A. 133=(1902) A.W.N. 215.
- (17) Where the plaintiff had executed an instrument to a third person giving him the right to recover money from defendants and sued himself ignoring that instrument, the third person in whose favour the instrument is executed is properly made a party and as the plaintiff disputed the validity of the instrument, he should be joined as defendant rather than as plaintiff. 7 Bom. H.C.R.A.C. 10.
- . (18) In a mortgage suit, one of the hairs of a deceased purchaser of the mortgaged property was made a party, and on his objection, the other heirs were also added as parties—especially as the plaintiff had no notice of such heirs at the time of the suit. 12 C.W.N. 911.
- . (19) Where a suit on a mortgage bond was instituted by the benamidar and the real mortgagee had made over the debt prior to the suit but executed the formal deed of assignment subsequent to it, the assignees were rightly added as plaintiffs under this rule. 24 C. 34.
- (20) Where a plaintiff was transported for life, since the institution of suit, his sons might properly be made plaintiffs as they had also a joint interest with the father in ancestral estate. 6 M. 331.
- . (21) The lessors might properly have been made co-plaintiffs and the Court of first instance should, under S. 73 of Act VIII of 1859, make them such.

  22 W.R. 437.

8.—"Or whose presence.....to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions...... be added."—(Continued).

B.—COURT'S POWER RE ADDITION OR TRANSPOSITION OF PARTIES—(Concluded).

- (22) Where, in a suit by the owner of a firm who is also a member of a joint Hindu family, the other members of the family are proved to be partners in the firm, the Court ought to allow the plaintiff to bring them on record and to amend the plaint accordingly. 27 B 157=4 Bom. L.R. 968. See also 17 B. 413.
- (23) In a suit for possession, the assignee pendente lite of the defendant's interest by purchase in a Court sale, should also be made defendant by Court under Ss. 4372 and 32 of the C.P.C. 5 O.C. 91.
- (24) In a suit for possession by the heir, against one who claimed a life estate under a will, the vested remainderman is also entitled to come and defend the suit and the Court should allow it. S.C. 302.
- (25) In a suit against two widows for possession of property on the allegation that plaintiff was the adopted son of the deceased husband, a mortgagee of the property from the widows was allowed to be made a defendant on the ground that otherwise he would be greatly prejudiced. 2 C.P.L.B. 236.
- (26) A benami-holder of a pro-note has a right to sue on the note and in that suit the Court has jurisdiction to add the real creditor as co-plaintiff. 1 O.C. 10.
  U
- (27) Suit on a lost cheque by the endorsees of the cheque against the endorser, for a duplicate of the cheque or for refund of money paid. The plaint should be amended by joining the drawer of the cheque as a defendant in the suit. 2 A. 754.
- (28) Persons interested as worshippers in a public religious institution may be added as parties to a suit instituted by a trustee on behalf of the institution against third parties, if such joinder is considered by the Court as desirable in the interests of the trust. 29 M. 106 (12 M.L.J. 355, F).
- (29) In a suit originally against the owners of a ship, the plaint was allowed to be amended by adding the ship as a party defendant. 12 B. 237. X

C.—CASES WHERE THE COURT HAS NO POWER TO ADD PARTIES.

- Contrary to rule 3, order 2, the Court cannot impose upon the plaintiff persons as defendants who have no community of title with the real defendant to the suit. 18 A. 306 (308).
- (2) In a suit to establish right to the attached property, a third party who merely drew the money deposited in Court by the plaintiff on account of the attached property, should not be joined by Court as a defendant under S. 32, because it was not the attachment, but the withdrawal of part of the money deposited which constituted the cause of action against such third party. L.B.R. (Vol. 1893 to 1900), p. 409.
- (3) The creditor of a defendant should not be added as a party in a suit praying for a decree in terms of an award to which the defendant consents, though the creditor impugns the award as fraudulent and as intended to save the defendant's property from his creditors. 22 B. 727.

8.—"Or whose presence.....to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions......be added."—(Continued).

C-CASES WHERE THE COURT HAS NO POWER TO ADD PARTIES—(Concluded).

- (4) In a suit for damages by the vendee of goods against his vendors on the ground that the goods supplied did not correspond with the sample, the vendor to such vendors should not be added as a defendant as he was not necessary "to enable the Court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the suit."
- (5) A defendant who has assigned all his rights in the subject-matter of the suit, and has no longer any interest in it, has no right to be made a coplaintiff. 20 B. 677.
  C
- (6) The Official Assignee has no legal right under the Insolvent Act to apply to be made a party to the suits against the insolvent pending at the time of a vesting order nor has he the power, after judgment and decree have been pronounced in a suit against the insolvent prior to his vesting order, to get himself made a party to such suit with a view of setting aside the judgment or appealing therefrom. 1 Bom. H.C.R. 251.D.
- (7) The mortgagees of the right, title, and interest of the plaintiff in a suit for partition of joint family property, were not necessary parties "to enable the Court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the suit" words of the section under this rule. 5 C 882.
- (8) In a suit by the mortgagee against the mortgager for possession of the mortgaged property, two persons who alleged that they were the owners of the property and not the mortgagor, and who applied to the Court to be made parties, were not made parties. 5 O.C. 94.
- (9) (In a suit for recovery of property illegally sold in execution of a decree, against the decree-holders and auction-purchaser), it is not competent to the Court, under this rule, to add as defendant a person who claimed the property in suit by a title quite distinct 'rom that under which any of the parties to the suit claimed. 18 A. 306=16 A.W.N. 72.6
- (10) In a suit for rent when a defendant sets up title of a third party such third person ought not to be made a party to the case. 66 P.R. 1886 (Civil).

D.—EFFECT OF COURT ADDING PARTIES.

- (1) A Court acting under S. 32, C.P.C. of ISS2 and adding prior incumbrances as parties, would cure any defect of non-joinder if any by the plaintiff under S. 85 of the Transfer of Property Act. 27 A. 75=1 A.L.J. 476= (1904) A.W.N. 166.
- (2) Where a party is admitted by the original Court and no objection is taken to such admission by the opposite party, the appellate Court ought to decide the issue between such newly added party and the original parties and should not ignore it. 3 A.W.N. 201. See also 20 A. 370=18 A.W.N. 75.
- (8) Where two or more parties have been joined in a suit with rights various in degree and kind, the mere fact of such joinder cannot confer on any of the parties so joined new rights or rights adverse to those of others. 1 N.W. Ed. 1873, 44.

8.—"Or whose presence.....to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions......be added."—(Concluded).

E.—APPELLATE COURT'S POWERS, RE ADDITION OF PARTIES.

- (1) When a person applies to be added as a party appellant, the test is whether he can urge any of the grounds upon which the validity of the original Court's order is called in question. If he cannot, he ought not to be added as an appellant. 5 C.L.J. 434.
- (2) An appellate Court has no power, either of its own motion or on the application of a party, to direct that a party to the suit who has not appealed, be joined as an appellant in an appeal filed by another party in the suit. 118 P.R. 1890.
- (3) An appellate Court before prejudicing a plaintiff, in an appeal by the defendant against a co-plaintiff, should make the first plaintiff a co-respondent. 1876. Select case Part X, No. 55.
- (4) When a Court hearing an appeal, is of opinion that a certain party should have been joined in the suit, the proper course is to remand the case to the lower Court and direct the lower Court to add the party and re-hear the case. 2 L.B.R. 277; 18 A. 332=16 A.W.N. 91.
- (5) Though the provisions of this rule are not applicable to suits under the N.W.P. Rent Act, it is not illegal for a Revenue Court of appeal to direct retrial of a suit by the Court of first instance after making a certain person party to the suit. 2 A. 264.
- (6) Where the appellate Court finds it necessary to have certain persons as parties to the suit, the proper course is for that Court to add them as parties under this rule and not to return the plaint for amendment. 7 M. 428.
- (7) Where a suit was instituted by one partner of a firm and, on defendants taking objection of non-joinder, the plaintiff contented himself with putting in a petition on behalf of the other partners intimating their willingness that the suit should proceed in the sole name of plaintiff without praying for their addition as parties, the High Court, on appeal, refused to add the others as plaintiffs. 1 A. 458.

Order I, Rule 10 (3).

(Notes).

(Old Act).

- Third clause of S. 32 of Act XIV of 1882 which corresponds to sub-rule (3) runs thus:—
- "No person shall be added as a plaintiff, or as the next friend of a plaintiff, without his own consent thereto."

(English Orders and Rules).

This sub-rule corresponds with O. XVI, r. 11 (3) of the English Rules of Practice.

9 .- "No person shall be added .... without his consent."

(1) Person not consenting to be plaintiff-Procedure.

No person can be added as a plaintiff without his previous consent and where he objects the proper course is to make him a defendant. 7 C. 242=9 C.L.R. 13. See 22 W.R. 394, where it was held that under S. 73 of Act VIII of 1859 persons might be made co-plaintiffs without their consent.

(2) Defendants cannot be made plaintiffs against their will

Where certain parties, who intervened in a suit for arrears of rent, were added as defendants in the original Court, the appellate Court cannot make them plaintiffs against their will. No person can be made a plaintiff against his will unless there is such an equity on the part of another as to compel him to be such. 22 W.R. 229.

Order I, Rule 10 (4).

(Notes).

(Old Act).

The first portion of the 5th clause of S. 32 and S. 33 of Act XIV of 1882 which corresponds to sub-rule (4) runs thus:—

- "All parties whose names are so added as defendants shall be served with summons in manner hereinafter mentioned."
- S. 33. "Where a defendant is added, the plaint, if previously filed, shall, unless the Court direct otherwise, be amended in such manner as may be necessary, and an amended copy of the summons shall be served on the new defendant and the original defendant."

Difference between the old Act and the new.

- (1) The first portion of the clause 5 of S. 32 of the old Act is omitted.
- (2) The words "if previously filed" occurring in S. 33 of the old Act after the word "plaint" are also omitted.
- (3) Amended copies of the plaint as well as the summons are required to be served on the defendants.
- (4) While the service of the amended copy of the summons on the original defendant was compulsory under the old Act, under the present rule such service is necessary only if the Court thinks fit."

(English Orders and Rules).

This sub-rule corresponds with O. XVI, r. 11 (4) of the English Rules of Practice.

.10. - "Where a defendant is added, the plaint shall, ...., be amended."

- (1) A Court, considering that the addition of a defendant was necessary, returned the plaint for amendment. As the order was not complied with, it was held that the plaint was rightly rejected. 38 P.R. 1890. U
- (2) Where the plaintiff is allowed to amend the suit by withdrawing it against any particular set of defendants and he chooses not to amend the plaint, the proper course is to reject the plaint and not to dismiss the suit for misjoinder. 14 C. 435.

Order I, Rule 10 (5).

(Notes).

(Old Act).

Latter portion of the 5th clause of S. 32 of Act XIV of 1882. Same as above; only instead of the word "them" the words "any person added as defendant" are substituted.

(English Orders and Rules).

This sub-rule corresponds with O. XVI, r. 11 (4) of the English Rules of Practice.

II.—"Subject to the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act,....begun only on the service of the summons."

(1) Limitation affecting the whole suit.

- (a) If some co-parceners sue for joint property lost to the family and add other co-parceners as parties after the expiry of the period of limitation, the whole suit becomes barred. 6 M.L.J. 27.
  W
- (b) In a suit by one of two brothers of a joint family to recover a debt due to them jointly, the other brother was joined after the expiry of the limitation period. It was held that as the brothers were only jointly entitled to sue, the whole suit was barred from the commencement, 79 P.R. 1906; 7 B. 217. See also 6 C. 815=8 C.L.R. 457; 14 A. 524 =12 A.W.N. 104, 21 B. 580. See contra 3 C. 26 and see 28 B. 11. X
- (c) In a suit by one of several joint contractors, other plaintiffs were added after the lapse of the period of limitation. It was held that the suit should be dismissed against all. 8 P.R. 1886 (Civil).
- (d) In a pre-emption suit all the representatives of the deceased vendee and persons in possession of his estate should be joined. If one of them is impleaded after the expiry of the limitation period, the whole suit must be dismissed. 141 P.R. 1889; 104 P.R. 1882.
- (e) In a suit by a retired partner for account, etc., 11 partners were impleaded as defendants at first and then by an amended plaint 10 others were joined as partners-defendants, after the expiry of the limitation period. It was held that the whole suit must fail for limitation and non-joinder. S.C. 212.
- (f) If on objection, by a defendant, a necessary party without whose presence the suit could not be decided, is added after the expiry of the limitation period, the suit will be barred against all the defendants.
- (y) Where, in a suit for partnership accounts, a necessary party-defendant was added at a time when the suit as against nim was barred, the whole suit was rightly dismissed. 14 C. 791.

- 11.—"Subject to the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act,....begun only on the service of the summons."—(Continued).
- (2) Limitation affecting the added party alone.

General Principle.

- (a) S. 22 of the Limitation Act does not in itself purport to determine directly whether the joinder of parties after the institution of a suit shall in all cases necessarily involve the bar of limitation, if the period prescribed for such a suit has then expired. Such a result must depend upon consideration of the question whether the joinder was necessary to enable the Court to award such relief as may be given in the suit as framed.
- If fresh parties are merely joined for the purpose of sateguarding the rights subsisting as between them and others claiming generally in the same interest, the determination (by application of the provisions of S. 22, Limitation Act) of the date of institution of the suit as regards such freshly joined parties does not ordinarily affect the right of the original plaintiff to continue the suit and S. 22 of the Limitation Act will not therefore apply. 28 B. 11 (17 and 18).
- (b) If fresh parties are merely joined for the purpose of safeguarding the rights subsisting as between them and others claiming generally in the same interest, S. 22 of the Limitation Act does not affect the right of the original plaintiff to continue the suit and the suit will not therefore be barred. 28 B. 11=5 Bom L.R. 618.
- (c) One of several co-promisees sued alone and on the objection of the defendant, others jointly interested in suing were brought on record as defendants after the period of limitation. The 1st defendant now pleaded limitation and it was held that the suit was not barred, inasmuch as one of the co-promisees can bring a suit under the Contract Act. 76 P.L.R. 1905 (F.B).
- (d) In a suit against some of several promisors, the other promisors were also added as defendants after the period of limitation. It was held that as under the Contract Act the plaintiff could sue some or all of the original promisors as he pleases, the suit so far as they were concerned was not barred. 116 P.L.R. 1905.
- (e) In a suit on a mortgage executed to plaintiff, the mere fact of the omission to add a purchaser of a small portion of the mortgaged property as a defendant until after the expiry of the limitation period will not operate as a bar to the suit. 33 C. 1079.
- (f) A mortgagee-plaintiff joined an assignee of a portion of the mortgaged property as defendant after the period of limitation had expired. It was held that the suit was barred so far as this defendant was concerned; but with regard to others plaintiff was entitled to get proportionate part of his claim. 10 C.W.N. 551=3 C.L.J. 576=33 C. 613. I
- (g) Where a new defendant is added at the Court's instance after the period of limitation for the suit, S. 22 of the Limitation Act applies and bars plaintiff's remedy as against the added defendant. 35 C. 519=11 C.W.N. 350=5 C.L.J. 242=2 M.L.T. 187 (F.B.).

11.—"Subject to the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act,....begun only on the service of the summons."—(Continued).

- (h) Where, in a suit for possession of immoveable property, some only o several persons in joint possession were originally made defendants while the others were joined after the expiry of the period of limitation, the suit would not fail as against all the defendants, but the plaintiff would be given a decree for joint possession with the defendants who were joined after the period of limitation. 17 A.W.N. 36. K
- (a) In a suit for ejectment of trespassers by one co-sharer, where a question of non joinder, though raised in the written statements, was not pressed, and the Court, of its own motion, added a necessary party after the expiry of the period of limitation, S. 22 of the Limitation Act will be no bar to the suit. 26 A. 528=(1904) A.W.N. 119. See also 28 B. 11=5 Bom.L.R. 618.

(3) Minors, Limitation against.

- (a) Under S. 22 and S. 9 of the Limitation Act limitation would run even against minors, who are added as parties after the expiry of the period of limitation. 58 P.R. 1882 (Civil).
- (b) In a suit on a mortgage executed to plaintiff, the mere fact of the joinder of a minor grandson as co-plaintiff after the expiry of the time for bringing the suit was not fatal to the suit. 33 C. 1079.

(4) Limitation in appeal.

- (a) As for adding respondents in appeal, by its own motion or by the party's motion, the power of Court under S. 559, C.P.C., is not controlled by anything in the Limitation Act. 33 C 329.
- (b) Though the appellate Court is competent to make one a party to the appeal, it is not competent to pass a decree against the party so added where the addition was after the period of limitation for preferring an appeal had expired. 2 A. 487.

(5) Limitation does not affect an assignee of a defendant pendente lite.

A pre-emption suit is not barred by limitation by reason of the assignee of the vendee-defendant, pendente lite, having been joined as a co-defendant after the period of limitation had expired. 42 P.W.R. 1907=3 P.L.R. 1908.

(6) Limitation against new party added by Court.

- (a) S. 22 of the Limitation Act applies even where a Court of its own motion adds a party to a suit. 25 P.R. 1903.
- (b) Where a party is joined in a suit by Court of its own motion, the party can raise a plea of limitation in defence. 8 Bom. L.R. 942.
- (c) Limitation Act, S. 22, does not apply when the Court, of its own motion, orders that a defendant be made a plaintiff, under this rule. 17 M. 12

  = 8 M.L.J. 177; 6 C. 815 and 7 B. 219, D.

(7) Limitation under S. 27, C.P.C. (Act XIV of 1882).

Where persons are added or substituted as plaintiffs under S. 27 of the C.P.C., the period of limitation counts from the date when the suit was originally instituted. 149 P.R. 1907; 14 C. 400. But see 21 B. 580 where the ruling in 14 C. 400 was doubted.

  - 11.—"Subject to the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act,....begun only on the service of the summons."—(Concluded).
- (8) Effect on limitation of an objection to non-joinder taken late.

On an objection taken by a defendant not at the first hearing but six months after, the plaintiff applied for and got the names of fresh parties added after the expiry of the period of limitation. It was held that the suit was not barred by limitation. 5 A.L.J. 554.

act for such other in any proceeding.

Where some of several co-sharers sued for their share of rent and the other co-sharers applied to be made co-plaintiffs but the application was refused by the Court of first instance and, on appeal, the appellate Court allowed the application and made them co-plaintiffs, but dismissed the suit on the ground that, on the date of their admission as parties their right was time-barred, held, that the co-sharers should be regarded as having been made parties when their application was made and that the plaintiffs should not suffer for the delay of the Court. 17 B. 29.

I, r. 39. Conduct of suit.

11. The Court may give the conduct of the suit to such person as it deems proper.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

The last clause of S. 32 of Act XIV of 1882. Same as above; instead of the word "plaintiff" the word "person" is used.

(English Orders and Rules).

This rule corresponds to the second portion of O. XVI, r. 39 of the English rules.

Appearance of one of several plaintiffs one of them may be authorized by any other of them to appear, plead or act for such other in any proceeding; and in like manner, where there are more defendants than one, any one or more of them may be authorized by any other of them to appear, plead or

(2) The authority shall be in writing signed by the party giving it and shall be filed in Court.

(Old Act).

S. 35 of Act XIV of 1882. Same as above; but the words "under this Code" appearing after the first "proceeding" and the word "such" appearing before the second "proceeding" in the old Act, are omitted.

Objections as to non-joinder or misjoinder of parties shall be taken at the earliest possible opportunity 1 and, in all cases where issues are settled, at or before such settlement 2, unless the ground of objection has subsequently arisen, and any such objection not so taken shall be deemed to have been waived 3.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

S. 34 of Act XIV of 1882 --

"All objections for want of parties, or for joinder of parties who have no interest in the suit, or for misjoinder as co-plaintiff or co-defendants, shall be taken at the earliest possible opportunity, and in all cases before the first hearing; and any such objection not so taken shall be deemed to have been waived by the defendant.

Difference between the old Act and the new.

- (1) Instead of "for want of parties....co-defendants" in the old Act, the words "on the ground of non-joinder or misjoinder of parties" are substituted.
- (2) Instead of the words "before the first hearing," in the old Act, "where issues are settled, at or before such settlement, unless the ground of objection has subsequently arisen " is substituted.
- (3) The words "by the defendant" in the concluding portion of the section in the old Act are omitted.

(General).

An objection as to non-joinder is governed by S. 34.

- (1) An objection by a defendant that one of several co-promisees cannot sue aloue to enforce payment of a debt due to them jointly is one falling within and governed by S. 34, C.P.C. (=0. I, r. 13 of the present Code). 156 P.R. 1889 (F.B.).
- (2) This rule limits the time within which a defendant may object for want of parties, but it does not so limit the right of plaintiff to add parties.

1.-" All objections..opportunity."

Joinder of co-parceners.

In a suit by the manager, the right to insist on the other co-parceners bein joined is for the benefit of the defendant to insure himself against further litigation and so the objection should be taken at the earliest possible opportunity or it would be deemed to have been waived.

5 Bom. L.R. 618=28 B. 11 at 19.

2.-" And in all cases..subsequently arisen."

Where objection arises after the settlement of issues.

Where the ground of objection arises after the settlement of issues, e.g., where subsequent to such settlement, a co-parcener or remainderman or reversioner is born or a woman who is a party is married to a man not a party, it is enough if the objection is taken at the earliest opportunity after it came into existence. 5 B. 609.

3.-" And any such objection not so taken. waived."

(A) Objection as to parties not raised—Court's powers.

- (1) Where an objection as to want of parties was not raised by the defendants, it must be deemed to have been waived, but the Court could add any one as a party if it thought it necessary. 3 A.L.J.474=A.W.N. (1906), 199; 69 P.R. 1903; 64 P.R. 1881 (Civil); 104 P.R. 1882 (Civil). B
- (2) An objection as to a non-joinder of parties taken by the defeudant not at the first hearing but six months afterwards should be disregarded by the Court. 5 A.L.J. 554.

(B) Plea of misjoinder or non-joinder when to be raised.

- A plea of misjoinder of parties, not raised in the lower Court, will not be allowed to be raised in first or second appeal.

- (2) Where an objection as to misjoinder of plaintiffs is not taken in the Court of first instance, the appellate Court ought not to allow the objection.

  16 B. 119.
- (3) In a joint suit for pre-emption by numerous occupancy tenants and others, objection to misjoinder and non-joinder was taken on appeal. It was held that the objection could not be taken at that stage and that the tenants though they did not represent the whole body of tenants, can sue jointly. 19 P.R. 1898.
- (4) Where one member alone of an undivided Hindu family brought a suit in respect of a family business without joining the other partners as parties, plaintiff was not allowed on appeal to amend the plaint by bringing his partners on to the record. 18 M. 33.
- (5) The non-joinder in a suit on a mortgage of persons interested in the mortgaged property within the meaning of S. 85, T.P. Act and of whose interest the plaintiff has notice is a fatal defect in the suit. The Court will give effect to the objection of non-joinder and dismiss the suit, even though such objection be raised for the first time in appeal. 18 A. 109. See 13 A. 432 and 17 A. 537.

ORDER II.

FRAME OF SUIT.

1. Every suit shall, as far as practicable, be framed so as to afford ground for final decision upon the subjects, in dispute 1 and to prevent further litigation concerning them.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

This rule corresponds to S. 42 of Act XIV of 1882.

(1) General.

The rule contains provisions of a directory nature regarding the framing of a suit with a view to secure finality of decision. 27 C. 724, 761.

(2) Scope of rr. 1 and 2.

Sections 42 and 43 of the old Code (= O. II, rr. 1 and 2 of the present Code) are not exhaustive of the law of 'Res_udicata.' 26 M. 760.

.( 3 Object of r. 1.

The object is to require the plaintiff to bring his whole case relating to the right involved in the suit and not to require him to unite all causes of action against a defendant in respect of the object-matter or corpus.

1.- "Subjects in dispute."

The phrase—denotes the jural relation between the parties, for deciding which the suit is brought. 26 M. 760.

- 2. (1) Every suit shall include the whole of the claim which suit to include the plaintiff is entitled to make in respect of the whole claim. cause of action 1; but a plaintiff may relinquish any portion of his claim in order to bring the suit within the jurisdiction of any Court 2.
- (2) Where a plaintiff omits to sue in respect of, or intentionally Relinquishment of part of claim. relinquishes, any portion of his claim, he shall not afterwards sue in respect of the portion so omitted or relinquished 3.
- (3) A person entitled to more than one relief in respect of the Omission to sue for same cause of action may sue for all or any of one of several reliefs. such reliefs 4; but if he omits, except with the leave of the Court, to sue for all such reliefs, he shall not afterwards sue for any relief so omitted 5.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule an obligation and a collateral security for its performance and successive claims arising under the same obligation shall be deemed respectively to constitute but one cause of action.

Illustration.

A lets a house to B at a yearly rent of Rs. 1,200. The rent for the whole of the years 1905, 1906 and 1907 is due and unpaid. A sues B in 1908 only for the rent due for 1906. A shall not afterwards sue B for the rent due for 1905 or 1907.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

This rule corresponds to S. 43 of the old Code and S. 7 of Act VIII of 1859.

Difference between the old section and this rule.

For the word "remedy" in para 3 of the old section, the word "relief" is inserted and the words "obtained before the first hearing" have been omitted in this rule. Para 4 of the old section is denoted as "Explanation" in the new rule and the words "and successive claims arising under the same obligation" have been newly added.

(General).

- (1) The rule is founded on the maxim that a person ought not to be twice troubled for the same cause. 19 A. 383; 7 B. 134, 136; 19 A. 98, 99; 27 B. 379, 382.
- (2) Where a Court refuses to adjudicate on the subject-matter in dispute and dismisses the suit for defect in its frame, S. 43 of the old Code (=O. II, r. 2 of the new Code) cannot bar a subsequent suit founded on the same cause of action. The object of the final clauses of S. 43 of the old Code (=O. II, r. 2) is to prevent further litigation regarding the subject-matter in dispute and there can be no previous litigation concerning the subject-matter in dispute within the meaning of S. 42 (=O. II, r. 1 of the new Code), when a Court has refused to decide on the subject-matter. Consequently, a plaintiff, whose suit has been thus dismissed, can commence proceedings de novo, without any express permission. 66 P.R. 1884.
- (3) First suit for declaration of right to share in offerings, was dismissed, as the plaintiff had not claimed consequential relief. Second suit claiming consequential relief was not barred, assuming the cause of action in the two suits to be identical. (Ibid).
- (4) Object of the rule.
  - The——is to benefit a defendant, by preventing others from harassing him by numerous suits, and the rule must be expressly pleaded before judgment, if the defendant wants to take advantage of it. 37 P.R. 1885. P
- (5) Application of the rule to S. 373 of the old Code (=0. XXIII, r. 1 of the present Code).
  - (a) The rule does not apply to a case, where a previous suit is withdrawn with liberty to bring a fresh suit, in which the portion omitted in the first is also added. 17 A. 53.
  - (b) When a suit is dismissed or withdrawn under circumstances which do not preclude the plaintiff from bringing a fresh suit, the rule does not apply. 14-C.P.L.R. 104; 1 A. 324; 7 B. 182; 10 M. 60; 17 A. 53; 7 A. 624, R.

  - (a) The rule is not applicable to proceedings in execution of decrees. 19 A. 98
    =13 A.W.N. 57 (N.W.P.H.C. Rep. 95; 18 C. 515, cited).
  - (b) Where a decree grants different reliefs such as, possession of land and mesne profits, 1t 1s competent to the decree-holder to execute the decree by successive and separate applications in respect of each relief. (Edye, C.J., Tyrrel, Blair and Burkitt, JJ.). (Ibid).
- (7) Application of rule to S. 525 of the old Code (=cl. 20 of schedule II of the present Code).

The rule can have no application to an application under S. 525 of the old Code. 4 N.L.R. 14; 22 M. 24, diss; 18 B. 587, F.

(8) Application for leave to sue in forma pauperis,

(9) Matters outside the Province of O. II, r. 2.

S. 43 of Act XIV of 1882=0. II, r. 2 of the present Code has nothing to do with the evidence that may be necessary or may be produced to support or defend a cause of action or with the plaintiff's desire to bring more suits than one or with the devolution of title, where the cause of action relates to land or other kind of property. 16 A. 165 =

(11) Court taking plea suo motu.

A Court is not bound to take up proprio motu, the question involved in the rule, unless the defendant urges it. 37 P.R. 1885.

(12) Decision on one construction—Acquiescence—Different construction.

Where a case is decided on one view of a document, which view is acquiesced in by a party, he cannot succeed on a different construction subsequently. 30 C.D. 57.

(14) Onus of proof.

The onus of proving that a former cause of action sued on in a previous suit, is identical with the cause of action in a subsequent suit, lies on the defendant. 20 C. 716.

(15) Question of title under colour of rent suit.

Deciding a——is a proceeding opposed to the principle laid down in Act VIII of 1859, S. 7 (=O. II, r. 2 of the present Code). 19 W.R. 91; 16 W.R. 235=8 B.L.R. 180.

(17) Splitting of claims—Splitting of remedies.

S. 43 of the old Code (=0. II, r. 2 of the present Code) is directed against two evils, viz., the splitting of claims and the splitting of remedies.
 2 Bom. L.R. 864=25 B. 161.

(18) Transfer of Property Act, S. 85.

(a)—declares a suit on a mortgage liable to dismissal if a person known to have an interest in the mortgaged property is not added as a party. But neither that section nor S. 48 of the old Code (=0. II, r. 2 of the present Code) is a bar to a subsequent suit against the omitted party for adjustment of their respective rights. 5 C.W.N. 423. (General)-(Concluded).

(18-A) Transfer of Property Act, S. 90.

There is nothing to prevent a mortgagee relinquishing his claim against a portion of the mortgaged property, and, if the sale of the remaining portion proves insufficient to satisfy the mortgage-debt, obtaining a decree under S. 90 of the Transfer of Property Act against the unhypothecated property of the mortgagor. 25 A. 79.

As to the application of this rule to suits under——see S. 7 (2) (a) of that Regulation.

(20) Yested right-Course of procedure.

There is no vested interest in any course of procedure and the circumstance that the provisions of O. II. r. 2 were not enacted in the Civil Justice Regulation, does not imply any intention, on the part of the Legislature, that those provisions should not take effect at once upon the introduction of the Civil Procedure Code, which contains them. ## (1) Object of sub-r. 1.

The——is to provide against splitting a cause of action and not to unite distinct causes of action. 2 W.R. Act X, 31.

(2) Application of the rule.

The——is by seeing whether the cause of action in the second suit is the same as that in the first. The second is barred regarding any portion omitted in the first, if there is the same cause of action and not otherwise. 8 B.H.C. (A.C.), 205. See also 15 C.B. (N.S.), 99; 18 I.A. 158 and 19 C. 123.

(3) Relief-Cause of action.

Relief is not synonymous with cause of action, that term including all therelief covered by the facts on the strength of which a plaintiff comes into Court. 5 A. 345.

I .- " Every suit shall include .. the whole of the claim .. cause of action."

GENERAL.

(1) Inclusion of whole claim in one suit.

For cases_under—see p. 263, (Lawyer's Companion, Civ. Pro. Code, Vol. I), and the cases noted therein.

(2) Cause of action.

For meaning and construction of the term—see pages 268, 426, 427, supra. (L.C., Civ. Pro. Code, Vol. I).

(3) Cause of action—English decisions.

(a) The expression "cause of action" has the same meaning as is attributed to it in the English decisions. 16 A. 165; 18 A. 181; 25 A. 48; 6 C.W.N. 585; 22 C. 840; B.L.R (F.B.), 990; 12 M. 136.

I.—"Every suit shall include .. the whole of the claim .... cause of action. —(Continued).

GENERAL—(Concluded).

- (b) The phrase....has reference entirely to the grounds set forth in the plaint and has no relation whatever to the defence. It is not something independent of the defendant, but has reference to the defendant against whom relief is claimed. 25 M. 736=12 M.L.J. 103 (L.R. 8 C.P. 107; L.R. 15 I.A. 66, L.R. 15 I.A. 156, Ref.).
- (4) Distinct cause of action-Separate suit.

The rule contemplates a separate suit with reference to each distinct cause of action, subject to the provisions of O. II, rules 3 to 6. 23 C. 821, p. 825.

- (5) Splitting cause of action.
  - All the grounds must be included in one suit. A second suit on a different ground omitted in the first cannot stand, as it is splitting the cause of action. 12 W.R. 336=3 B.L.R. (A.C.), 421; 20 W.R. 482.
- (6) True test.

The——is to see whether there is a splitting of the cause of action. 10 B.L.R. (P.C.), 1=14 M.I.A. 176, 187.

(7) Joining different causes of action-Necessity.

There is no provision of law which makes it obligatory on the plaintiff to include different causes of action in one suit. 9 B.H.C. 257; 3 N.W.P. 20; 23 P.R. 1894. See also 1 A.L.J. 498 = 1904 A.W.N. 191 = 27 A. 142. S

(8) Different and distinct transactions.

The more fact that the defendant's title rests on—does not imply different causes of action warranting separate suits. 20 W.R. 103.

(9) Four corners of plaint-Cause of action.

A second suit by the same plaintiff will not be barred, unless the same cause of action is found within the four corners of the plaint in the first suit. 8 C. 819 (8 C. 825; 12 C. 291; 8 C. 819, F).

(10) Plaint, disclosing no cause of action - Second suit.

If it has been held in the first suit that the plaint has disclosed no cause of action, the second suit will not be barred. 17 W.R. 380.

(11) Principle.

All remedies by suit on all the securities a creditor may hold need not be enforced together. 2 N.W.P. 29.

- (12) Rights arising out of the same cause of action—Rights under same or similar titles—Distinction.
  - All rights arising under the same cause of action must be sued for together.

    All rights under the same or similar titles cannot be sued for together, as the right to sue in such cases may arise under different dates or under different causes of action. 5 W.R. (P.C.), 182; 20 W.R. 450.X
- (13) Remedy only barred-Right not barred.

Although a party may be barred from suing in respect of the same cause of action, it is only the remedy of suing, which is barred. The right, whatever it might be, to which a party is ontitled, still subsists.

- (14) Premature suit is not within the purview of the rule.
  - A——. When the cause of action arises, a second suit may be brought for the whole claim arising out of it. 35 P.R. 1893.
    Z

1.—"Every suit shall include...the who'e of the claim....cause of action."
—(Continued).

A.—CLAIMS ARISING OUT OF SAME CAUSE OF ACTION.

(1) Accounts, suits for.

A person, who has a right of action against another for money payable on account stated, is not entitled to sue for one portion of the money payable on the stated account and then bring another action in respect of the balance. He must include the whole amount in one suit.

1 C.L.J. 364=32 C. 654.

(2) Alienations by co-proprietor.

- (a) Where distinct parcels of land belonging to a Hindu in an ancestral estate are alienated by his co-proprietor, there is only one single cause of action against the co-proprietor and all the aliences may be included in one suit. 5 B.H.C. (A.C.), 30.
- (b) In the above case, the correct procedure is to institute a separate suit against the co-proprietor and also separate actions against the alienees and cause the proceedings in the latter to be stayed till the former suit is determined. 5 B.H.C. (A.C.), 30.

· (3) Assault—Actual loss and injury to feelings—District Court and Small Cause Court.

A claim for damages out of assault made up partly of actual pecuniary loss and partly of general damages for injury to feelings, should be heard in the District Court. The Small Cause Court has jurisdiction only in respect to the actual loss, and the claim cannot be split up by suing for:part in Small Cause Court and for the other part in the District Court. 53 P.R. 1868 (Civil),103.

· (4) Award directing title-deeds and money—Separate suits not maintainable.

An award directed the respondent to pay title-deeds and money to the appellants. First suit was for money. The second suit was for delivery of title-deeds. The second was barred. 1 A.W.N. 72.

(5) Bond payable by instalments—Same cause of action.

First suit to recover money due for an instalment only, although by that time two instalments had accrued due. Second suit to recover the second instalment was barred. 8 Bom. LR. 547.

· (6) Contract—Breaches of terms.

- (a) Failure to accept and pay for goods purchased under one contract must be construed as one cause of action and the whole claim must be included in one suit. 19 C. 372 (View of Wilson, J, in 12 C. 339, approved). G
- (b) A contract for the sale and purchase of goods is a claim arising out of one cause of action and a purchaser who refuses to take delivery and does not pay for goods delivered, must be sued by the vendor in a single suit. 19 C. 372. See also 19 Q.B.D. 32.
- (c) A claim for price of goods is different from a claim for non-acceptance of goods and separate suits can be brought. (Per Garth, C.J.). 12 C. 389.I

—(Continued).

(7) Covenants, breaches of, in one contract—Separate suits.

Where there are several breaches of terms under one contract, all the covenants to be performed are to be treated as joint and marged into one by the contract, and the breach of all the covenants enforceable before that time, deemed as one breach. 28 P.R. 1907 = 98 P.L.R. 1908. (8 C.P. 107; 22 Q.B.D. 128; 15 I.A. 156; 22 C 833; 16 A. 165; 25 A. 48; 6 C.W.N. 585; 17 P.R. 1897; 123 P.R. 1881; 129 P.R. 1889; 21 B. 267; 18 M. 257; 11 M. 210; 24 M. 431; 27 M. 116; 12 C. 339; 19 C. 372; 12 A. 203; 15 I.A. 66; 5 B. 181; 7 Q.B.D. 493, R.

EXAMPLES.

- (1) Where principal and interest are both due under a mortgage bond, there can only be one suit for both. This cannot be overridden by an agreement between the debtor and the creditor that separate suits might be brought. 28 P.R. 1907.
- (2) Quaerc.—Whether the rule prohibits the bringing of soparate suits in respect of two separate and distinct breaches of the same contract? A.W.N. (1908), 199; 12 C. 339 and 19 C. 372, R.

(8) Co-sharers, suits between.

Three brothers had each one-third share in an estate. First suit was brought by one of the brothers for one-third share, although one of them was dead at the date of suit and the defendant brother in possession of the whole estate. Second suit for one-half of the one-third share belonging to the deceased brother, was barred; as the cause of action in the two suits was identical, viz., the defendant's refusal to acknowledge the plaintiff's right to enter, not on one-third but on a half of the estate.

(9) Damages, suits for.

- (a) A person is bound to claim in a single suit all the damages flowing from a breach. (Per Muthusami Iyer, J. in 2 M.L.J. 190). Child v. Stenning, T.R. 11 Ch. D. 82, followed. See also 15 Q.B.D. 559; 11 App. Cas. 127; 14 Q.B.D. 141.
- (b) A servant, engaged for a particular term on a monthly salary and dismissed by his master before the term without just cause, must sue at once for damages for breach of contract. He cannot sue month by month as each month's wages fall due. 36 P.R. 1868 (Civil), 103.
- (c) A suit having been brought for Rs. 400 damages for wrongful dismissal, a decree for Rs. 75 per mensem, was given, up to the filing of the plaint, the Judge intimating that for damages accruing after the filing of the plaint, further suits month by month might be brought. Two suits were subsequently brought for the two months succeeding the first suit. The decrees in both these two suits were set aside on the ground that after the first suit, no further suits could lie. 6 C.L.R. 91. P

- (d) A lessee, evicted once and for all by the Malguzar, who has a paramount title to that of the lessor, can bring only one suit for damages for the breach of the covenant for quiet enjoyment. The case of an eviction by a person with paramount title differs from other breaches of covenants for quiet enjoyment, upon which damages may be recovered from time to time as they accrue. 3 N.L.R. 80.
- (e) First suit for specific performance was decreed. Second suit for damages arising out of the vendor's breach of contract was barred. 15 W.R. 48.R.
- (f) Defamation by several persons—Same cause of action.
  - First suit for damages against one, out of several persons who joined in defaming plaintiff's character, was decreed. Second suit against another of the wrong-doers barred, the causes of action in both the suits being identical and satisfaction having been obtained in one of them. 4 N.W.P. 142. See also 4 App. Cas. 504. As to the splitting of the cause of action in the case of a libel, see 25 Q.B.D. 1.
- (g) First suit for value of cattle, wrongfully taken. Second suit for damages caused by the wrongful act barred. 4 W.R. (S.C.C. Ref.), 20; 18 W.R. 337. See also 15 Q.B.D. 549.

(10) Declaratory suits.

- (a) First suit for a declaration that a certain property was not hable to attachment and sale in execution of a decree, was dismissed on the ground, that the plaintiff was able to seek further relief than a mere declaration, as the property was sold and consequently the declaration could not be granted. Second suit for the value of property as compensation for illegal attachment, was barred, as the cause of action was the same and as the claim for the value of property must have been included in the previous suit. 5 O.C. 304.
- (b) Where the first suit was for a——, a second suit for partition of the same land was barred, the claim and the remedy having had reference to the cause of action litigated in the prior suit. 10 M. 847.
- (c) First suit for declaration of right and partition of property purchased in the joint names of the pacties. Second suit for partition of other property, which was also purchased in the joint names of the parties was barred, the cause of action in both the suits being identical. 5 A.L.J. 278.
- (d) First suit for a declaration, that lands recorded as the property of the defendant, really belonged to the plaintiff. Second suit for the lands, having no separate number but included with the river-bid as the property of the defendant, was barred, as the claim for them must have been included in the previous suit. 90 P.R. 1877 (Civil), 102. X
- (e) The defendant's predecessor in title, having obtained a decree for possession of a village under S. 108, cl. 10 of the Oudh Rent Act, the plaintiff first brought a suit for declaration of his right before a Givil Court, amending the prayer so as to read that a decree for possession may be passed. The first suit having been dismissed for non-cognisance by a Civil Court, a second suit for a declaration of right was barred, the cause of action in both the suits being identical. 8 O.C. 389. (15 C. 422=15 I.A. 66 (P.C.); 16 C. 98=15 I.A. 156 (P.C.); L.R. 14 B.D. 141, R.).

(11) Defendant's allegation of different titles.

The defendant's allegation of different titles in herself to different portions of the property would not split the plaintiff's cause of action into different and distinct causes of action. So also, the fact that the plaintiff's judgment-debtors held, under different titles, portions of the property, would not split the plaintiff's cause of action into different causes of action. 16 A. 165 = 14 A.W.N. 65.

EXAMPLE.

The holder of a money-decree attached the judgment-debtors' mortgagee-interest in a mortgage and also a house belonging to them. An objection to the attachment was made and an order under S. 280, Act XIV of 1882, was passed releasing the attachment. The plaintiff brought two suits, one in respect of the mortgagee-interest and the other in respect of the kouse. The latter suit was barred, the only cause of action being the order made under S. 280, C.P.C. (Ibid).

(12) Deposit of rent by tenant—Suit for balance—Second suit for rent due from date of deposit to date of first suit.

A deposit was made in Court by a tenant and on receiving the notice of deposit, the landlord withdrew the money under protest. First suit for the balance due was decreed. Second suit for the rent due from date of deposit to the date of the first suit was barred, as the plaintiff ought to have claimed all arrears of rent at the date of the first suit. Deposit is equivalent to part-payment and notice of deposit does not give a fresh and independent cause of action in respect of the balance then due. 1 C.L.J. 114.

(13) Estates in different districts—Same cause of action.

- (a) The plaintiff claimed two estates of her deceased husband, from which she alloged she was dispossessed by the defendants, the estates being situated in different districts. First suit for the estate in one of the districts was decreed. Second suit for the estate in the other district, with reference to which a different act of dispossession was alleged, was barred, as the cause of action was the same and also as the plaintiff could have brought one suit under S. 12 of the old Code of 1859. 2W.R. 149. But see 3 M.H.O. 376, where this principle was not followed. See also U.B.R. Vol. II. (1897-1901), p. 222.
- (b) First suit for immoveable property situated within the jurisdiction of one Court. Second suit for other immoveable property situated within the jurisdiction of another Court was barred, as the plaintiff ought to have included the second claim in the first suit. 'U.B.R. Vol. II (1897-1901), p. 222; 11 B.H.C. 117; 6 B. 26; 7 B. 182, 272; 3 M.H.C. 376; 2 W.R. 149; 3 W.R. 25; 14 W.R. 253, R.

—(Continued).

(13-a) Heir, suit by.

First suit by father, second suit by his heir for different property, which might be included in the first, is barred. 3 W.R. 25. But see (1902) A.W.N 170=24 A. 553.

(14) Interest-Suit for principal and interest.

A usufructuary mortgagee, not having obtained possession, brought first a suit for unpaid interest due and got a decree. Second suit for principal and residue of interest up to date of suit was barred. 12 A. 208 = 10 A.W.N. 87.

(15) Land, suit for.

A—must include the whole case of the plaintiff; and a second suit for the same cause of action cannot be maintained on the ground that the Collector's order sought to be set aside is of a different date and description from that sought to be set aside in the first. 2 Agra 305. G

(16) Land and trees.

First suit for land alone, alleging claim to certain trees in the plaint, dismissed on the ground of the land belonging to defendant's tenure. Second suit for declaration of title to and possession of the trees, was barred, the claim arising out of the same cause of action. 20 C. 322.

(17) Maintenance, suits for.

First suit by a widow for maintenance. Second suit for the same to be charged on land was barred. 11 M. 127; 12 M. 285. See also 5 M. 47.

(18) Mesne profits, suits re.

- (a) Unless the decree declares mesne-profits to be payable, the executing

  Court cannot decide the amount of mesne-profits; and nother mesneprofits before nor after the institution of the suit or after the date of the decree, can be given by such Court. But where the decree in a first suit declares mesne-profits, the further mesne-profits from the date of the decree to the date of possession, can only be decided by the executing Court and not by a regular suit.
- (b) Where the decree is silent as to mesne-profits, a second suit for mesne-profits, can be brought, although they were not claimed in the first suit. 44 P.R. (1869), 352.
- (c) The cause of action in a claim to recover possession of immoveable property is identical with the cause of action in a claim for the mesne-profits of that property. Recovering possession and mesne-profits constitutes the whole of the claim which a plaintiff is entitled to make in respect of the cause of action. 3 L.B.R. 56.
- (d) Every suit for mesne-profits must include the whole of the claim arising out of the cause of action. 21 W.R. 223; 25 W.R. 113.
- (c) First suit for mesne-profits compromised. Subsequent suit for mesneprofits for the period preceding the date of the former suit is barred. 22 W.R. 424.

I.—"Every suit shall include.. the whole of the claim..cause of action."
—(Continued).

- (f) In the former case, the two suits are really suits for damages and all the claims must be included in one suit. 22 W.R. 424.
- (g) First suit for land alone. Second suit for mesne-profits received prior to the date of the first, is barred. 11 M. 151. See 9 O.C. 224; (19 C. 615, not F; 11 M. 151 and 17 A. 533, R), see also 3 A. 660; 17 A. 533=15 A.W.N. 121, 1 A.W.N. 41; 1 A.W.N. 58; 2 A.W.N. 8; 3 L.B.R. 56; U.B.R. (1906), Civ. Pro. 50; U.B.R. - (h) First suit for possession and mesne-profits. Second suit for mesne-profits, from the date of the decree up to the date of obtaining possession, is barred, as this question must have been disposed of by the Court executing the decree in the first suit. 72 P.R. #### (19) Mortgages, suits re.

- (a) First suit by mortgager for redemption, in which he has alleged that the mortgagee has been overpaid. Second suit for such over-payment is barred. 6 B.H.C. (A.C.), 97.
- (b) Accounts having been settled, the mortgagor agreed to pay a portion of the sum due on a certain day, failing which he would execute a mortgage of some properties to the mortgagee. First suit, after default was made, for the portion was decreed. Second suit for the balance by sale of the properties was barred. 2 Bom. L.R. 864 = 25 B. 161.
- (c) Where a mortgage is simple and usufructuary, the mortgage must bring all the properties to sale and cannot split the mortgage, by only applying for sale of the hypothecated items. 16 M. 335=3 M.L.J. 141. U
- (d) First suit for sale of hypothecated property only, was decreed. Property other than those hypothecated were attached in execution. The defendant having objected to the attachment, a second suit for declaration that all the property of the mortgagor was liable for the decree, was barred. 2 A.W.N. 160.
- (e) First suit between agriculturist mortgager and mortgagee for account. Second suit for possession on payment of money declared to be due is barred. 7 B. 377. But see 20 B. 474.
- (f) First suit for redemption—Second suit for surplus collections by mortgaged made during the mortgage, was barred, the right to claim the surplus profits being synchronous with the right to claim possession of the mortgaged property. 5 A.L.J. 192; 26 B. 661; 31 B. 527; 34 C. 228; 4 A.L.J. 763; 6 B.H.C.R. 97 (99); 8 C. 598; 19 C. 615, It; see also 9 Bom. (20) Mutation order—Right to an orchard and for voidance of the mutation order.

On the death of a person, the name of his mistress was recorded in respect of an orchard. First suit for voidance of the mutation order was dismissed on the ground that the plaintiff should have sued to establish his right to the orchard also. Second suit for voidance of the mutation order and to establish the right to the orchard was barred. 1 A.W.N. 93.

(21) Partition, suits re.

- (a) A ——cannot be brought unless the whole estate is brought into division.
  U.B.R. (1897-1901), Vol. II, p. 229; 12 C. 567; 14 C. 122;
  7 B. 272, R.
- (b) First suit for possession of a moiety of a house, of which the plaintiffs were dispossessed by the defendants, was dismissed. Second suit for a declaration of title to possession of the same house by partition, was barred. (1903) A.W.N. 97; 25 B. 189, R.

(22) Price of goods sold—Suit by vendor.

A vendor must sue for the price of all goods sold till the date of the plaint.

(Obiter, 27 M. 116).

(23) Promissory note-Instalments.

Where two or more instalments of a promissory note payable by instalments are due, the holder must sue for all the instalments in one action. 12 B.L.R. 37=20 W.R. 358. See also 7 W.R. 309.

(24) Promissory note for part of medical-fees-Suit for balance.

A Vakil, having agreed to pay a medical man Rs. 100 per day, executed a pro-note for part of the fees, agreeing to set off the balance, against his fee for conducting a case of the medical man in a Civil Court. First suit by the medical man on the pro-note was decreed. Second suit for the balance was barred, as the plaintiff ought to have sued for it in the first suit, the cause of action being the breach of the agreement to pay Rs. 100 per day. 4 A.L.J. 85 = A.W.N. (1907), 41 = 29 A. 256.

(25) Property dispossessed in three villages.

The plaintiffs, having been dispossessed of the rights held by their father in three villages, brought first a suit to recover property in one village alone. Second suit to recover possession in the two other villages, was barred. 9 P.R. (1881), 596.

(26) Property inherited from different persons—Same cause of action.

The owner of an one-third share died, leaving her husband and a son. The son died subsequently, leaving his wife, who sold away the one-third share. First suit by the owner's husband for portion of the property as heir to his wife, was decreed. Second suit for the remaining portion as heir to his son barred, as the real cause of action was the taking possession of the one-third share by the purchaser, although the persons from whom the plaintiff derived his title died on two different dates. 7 A.W.N. 108; see also 4 A. 171=1 A.W.N. 174-211.

(27) Proprietary right - Suit to establish - Suit for right of occupancy.

A plaintiff, against whom a notice of ejectment was issued by the defendant who was the recorded proprietor, first brought a suit to establish his proprietary right, which was rejected. A second suit by him to establish his right of occupancy in the same land, was barred. 5 P.R. 1884 (Revenue).

(28) Rent, suits re.

- (a) First suit for rent for only the Bengalı year 1281, while the rents for 1281, 1282 and 1283 were due. Second suit for rent for the years 1282, 1283 and 1284 was barred under S. 43 of Act X of 1877 = O. 11, r. 2 of the present Code. 6 C. 791 = 8 C.L.R. 297, (2 W.R. Act X 31; 17 W.R. 380; 24 W.R. 326, all overruled by S. 43 of Act X of 1877.) See also 12 C. 50, where 6 C. 791 and 5 A. 405 are cited and appl.; 8 B. 164; 2 C.L.J. 490 [11 M.I.A. 551, F; 12 C. 50; 12 C. 482 and 12 M.I.A. 244, appl]. See also 27 M. 116.
- (b) First suit for arrears of rent from one field, when the arrears of rent from another field also had accrued due. Second suit for arrears from the other field, was barred. 8 C.P.L.B. 9.
- (c) First suit by sharer against lambardar in respect of the profits of his share for fasli 1285, profits for fasli 1287 also being due. Second suit for 1287 fasli was barrell. 3 A.W.N. 142.
- (d) Rent for successive years constitutes one whole claim in respect of the cause of action. 2 C.L.J. 490.

(29) Simultaneous suits for balance of account.

- (a) Where, after settling accounts, the defendants ordered their agents to pay plaintiff a certain sum and promised to pay the balance afterwards, the plaintiff had one cause of action. 9 M. 279. But see 14 A.W.N. 65. (1 A. 650, R.); 76 P.R. 1890 [1 A. 650 and W.N. 1888, p. 147, F; 9 M. 279, not preferred].
- (b) Two suits, having been instituted simultaneously, and one of the suits having been determined, the other suit not barred, assuming that the claims in the two suits arose out of the same cause of action and should have been included in one suit. 14 A.W.N. 65 (1 A. 650, R). But see 9 M. 279.

(30) Specific performance of contract.

First suit for possession, according to the terms of the contract, was dismissed on the ground that the vendee failed to perform his part of the contract.

Second suit for specific performance of the contract to sell was barred.

8 Born. L.R. 299; 6 C.W.N. 17; 24 M. 491; 28 I.A. 221 (P.C.).

(31) Suit on improperly stamped instrument—Suit on account-book.

Accounts having been settled, the defendant gave to the plaintiff an instrument, by which he agreed to pay to the plaintiff the debt in four annual instalments. The plaintiff wrote in his account-book also about the defendant's liability to pay in instalments. The instrument having been found to be a promissory note and improperly stamped, the plaintiff withdrew his suit with liberty to bring a fresh one. A suit was then brought on the basis of the account-book for two instalments. A second suit on the account-book for the third instalment was barred, as the agreement by the debtor to pay the money in instalments could be proved only by the promissory note and not by the account-book. 3.717 = 1.4.8.8.8.47.8

(32) Trees and fruits.

First suit for possession of land and trees, the wrongful taking of fruits also being mentioned. Second suit for the value of the fruits on trees was barred, as the taking of fruits, which was the cause of action, was identical in both suits and also the value of the fruits must have been claimed as mesne profits in the first suit. 3 A. 543=1 A.W.N. 33. P

(33) Trustees, failing to ask for account—Suit by Advocate-General.

Certain trustees failed to ask for an account in a suit brought by them. The Advocate-General was held barred under this rule from suing for an account, as he represented the same interests as the trustees did. 18 B. 551.

(34) Withdrawal without permission.

Where a suit is withdrawn without permission of the Court, a second suit founded on the same cause of action will be barred. 5 A.L.J. 278. R

B.—CLAIMS ARISING OUT OF DIFFERENT CAUSES OF ACTION.

(1) The true test.

- (a)—is to see whether the claim in the second suit is founded on a cause of action distinct from that in the first suit. 8 W.R. (P.C.), 3=11 M.I.A. 551; 15 W.R. 408; 3 N.W.P. 27.
- (b)—is to see whether a plaintiff in the second suit could have included his cause of action in the first suit. 8 B.H.C. (A.C.), 64; 12 B.H.C. 148; 28 M. 608.

EXAMPLES.

- (1) Where the first suit is for actual division, a second suit for division of property not capable of division at the time of the first, is not barred. (Ibid).
- (2) First suit for partition of property. Second suit for partition of mortgaged property, not redeemed at the date of the first, not barred. (Ibid). Y
- (3) An application to a Court to file a private award, in terms of which a decree was passed, did not bar a second suit for possession of moveable and immoveable property under that award. 65 P.R. 1902.

1.—"Every suit shall include.. the whole of the claim.. cause of action."
—(Continued).

B.—CLAIMS ARISING OUT OF DIFFERENT CAUSES OF ACTION.—(Concluded).

- (4) First suit for abatement of rent in respect of a pathi. Second suit for refund of the excess paid by the plaintiff before the first suit, was not barred, notwithstanding he might have included this claim in the first. 5 C. 24.
- (5) A widow suing for the allowance provided for in a will in lieu of her share in ancestral property can bring a second suit for her share of inheritance, in spite of S. 172 of the Indian Succession Act. 12 C. 60.

(2) Object and issues.

In considering whether there is any splitting of the cause of action, it is necessary to look at the object with which the suits are brought and the issues arising in them. 24 P.R. 1882.

C.—SPECIAL CASES.

(1) Account stated.

An account stated, respecting a debt, constitutes a new and distinct cause of action, the consideration being the ascertaining of the previously uncertain state of the transaction between the parties. 6 Born. L.R. 454 = 28 B. 447.

(2) Account, suit for balance on.

First suit was for recovery of receipt, deposited as security for advance of money. Second suit for balance due on the whole account between them was not barred. 1 N.W.P. 70.

(3) Administrator's refusal to pay interest—Suit for share in the inheritance.

The cause of action, which arises against an administrator, who fails to administer the estate and render accounts, differs from the cause of action against a truspasser or a person, who wrongfully withholds possession of property to which the plaintiff is entitled. 2 O.C. 17. C

EXAMPLE.

First suit was for recovery of a certain sum on the allegation, that the plaintiff as her to the estate of a certain person, was entitled to receive his share from the defendant, who collected some amount under the Succession Certificate Act. 'The defendant refused to pay the plaintiff's claim but did not deny the plaintiff's title to a share in the estate. Second suit by the plaintiff for a share in the inheritance against the same defendant was not barred. (Ibid).

(4) Alienations.

A person claiming by inheritance a piece of land and trees can maintain two separate suits against the defendant, the causes of action being the unlawful alienations made by the latter of the respective properties.

9 B-11.C. 257.

(5) Alienations by widow—Separate deeds to different persons—Different causes of action.

In the case of alienations made by Hindu widows by separate deeds in favour of different persons, the reversioner can bring separate suits, the causes of action being different. 9 O.C. 826.

—(Continued).

- .(6) Alienations by widow—Suit for declaration by reversioner—Suit for possession.
  - (a) First suit by reversioner for declaratory decree in respect of alienations by the widow. Second suit, after death of the widow, for possession of certain houses not included in the first, was not barred, as the right to possession of the houses could not accrue during the lifetime of the widow. 91 P.R. 1898.
  - (b) First suit was decreed in favour of the reversioner, for one-half of the property, the property being in the possession of a person, who was not a party to the suit. Second suit against the person in possession was not barred. 58 P.R. 1896.
- ·(7) ——Right of pre-emption.

(8) Bodily injury-Injury to cab-Collision.

The plantiff sustained bodily injury and his cab also was damaged by the defendant's servant's wrongful act. First suit for damage to the cab was paid by the defendant. Second suit for bodily injury was not barred. 14 Q.B.D. 141; 11 App. Cas. 144.

- (9) Bonds, suits on.
  - (a) Where two or more bonds appear to have been passed in respect of one claim, it is not incumbent on a plaintiff to sue upon all the bonds in an action.
     7 B. 134.
  - (b) There is nothing in S. 43 of the old Code=0. II, r. 2 of the present Code, justifying a Court to go behind the bonds to consider the circumstances out of which they sprung, although those circumstances by themselves might at that time have constituted a cause of action. (Ibid).
  - (c) Where property is mortgaged by the same defendant on the same day by means of two separate bonds, two separate suits can lie, as the failure to pay the money secured by each bond, constitutes a separate cause of action. 4 C.L.R. 164. See 8 C. 785.
  - (d) Where parties, for some reason or other, agree to execute two distinct instruments, there is not a single cause of action, because the loan was received at the same time and as part of one transaction. 24 M. 96=10 M.L.J. 383.
  - (e) First suit on bond for whole claim, the decree obtained being partly infructuous for want of jurisdiction. Second suit for the infructuous part against a third party deriving title from borrower subsequent to the date of the bond, was not barred. 22 W.R. 308.
- .(10) Buddhist Law-Divorce-Suit for partition-Principle.
  - (a) A suit for divorce and for partition of property do not constitute a single cause of action. Partition of property is not an essential feature of a divorce. The termination of the marriage status in itself is a sufficient cause of action and till that cause is settled, the grounds for partition do not arise. L.B.R. (1900), Vol. I, Part I, p. 7. U.B.R. 97, p. 1, Diss.

(b) When under Buddhist Law, a suit has been brought for divorce without partition of property, a subsequent suit for partition of the joint property is maintainable. Chan Toon's Leading cases, Vol. II, p. 31; U.B. Rulings (1897-1901), p. 28; U.B. Rulings (1902), Buddhist Law, Divorce, p. 6. 22 M. 24.

(11) Cancellation of documents.

- (a) A suit to cancel a document on the ground that it had not been executed,

  18 not the same as a suit to obtain a declaration that it had been executed only for a nominal purpose. 13 M. 44.
- (b) Where, after settling accounts, the plaintiff and the defendant outered into a partnership and afterwards a release was exterted from the plaintiff, a second suit by the plaintiff to wind up the partnership was not barred by a previous suit for cancellation of the release and for recovery of amount due. 6 M. 49.
- (12) Gertificate of sale—Suit for exclusive possession of lands—Suit to recover share in other lands jointly held.
  - (a) First suit by purchaser at a Court sale, to recover exclusive possession of certain lands of the judgment-debtors, was decreed. Second suit to recover by partition the share of the judgment-debtors in other lands jointly held by them with their co-parceners was not barred, although he based his claim, in both the suits, on the self same certificate of sale. (Per Chandavarkar and Aston, JJ. 5 Bom. L.R. 233=27 B. 379.
  - (b) The plaintiff has relied on the title as evidenced by the certificate of sale in both the suits. He may be entitled to more than one remedy in respect of the same cause of action and he may sue for all or any of his remedies, but if he omits without the leave of the Court, he cannot afterwards sue for the remedy he emits. The second suit is, therefore, barred. Per Crows, J. (dissenting). (Ibid.)

(18) Civil Procedure Code, 1882, S. 283.

- (a) A person sold some property and mortgaged others to the same person. Subsequently, the holder of a bond, executed by his father, got a decrea and attached these properties. First suit by the purchaser and mortgagee for a declaration that the property sold was not liable for the bond holder's decree. Second suit for declaration that the mortgaged property was not liable, was not barred. 6 A.W.N. 113. U
- (b) Subsequent suit for possession was not barred. 29 P.R. 1891.

(14) ----, S. 295.

First suit for money wrougly received by defendant, by following property sold under the defendant's decree. Second suit for refund of the moneys received by defendant, which should have been paid to the plaintiff was not barred on the ground that the nature of the suits and the causes of action were different. 10 A.W.N. 21.

(15) Claims that could not be joined—Zemindar's hagg-i-chaharram, (i.e.), one-fourth of the price paid for house.

A zemindar's lessee sold a house and the land on which it stood. First suit for cancelment of the sale and for rent, was decreed. Second suit for one-fourth of the price paid by the vendee for the house was not barred, as his cause of action did not occur at the date of the first and also because looking at S. 44 (a)=0. II, 1. 3, sub-rule (1), he could not have joined his present claim with the former. 7 A.W.N. 77.

(16) Compromise-Second suit on the deed of compromise.

First suit for a share in a certain village was compromised, the defendant agreeing to give plaintiff a share in another village also. Second suit for recovering the share in the other village, based on the deed of compromise, was not barred, as the plaintiff had a right of action arising out of the deed of compromise, independent of any right expressly reserved. A.W.N. (1905), 128 = 2 A.L.J. 680.

(17) Co-owners.

- (a) Where two persons jointly own houses in two different districts, a first suit for partition of all the houses in one district, on the ground of exclusion from enjoyment of one of the houses, does not bar a second suit for partition of all the houses in the other district, as there is no splitting of claim. 162 P.R. (1884), 596; (9 P.R. 1881, D.).
- (b) A mere co-owner of several properties need not sue his co-sharers, for a division of all their joint properties in one suit, if he wants a division of only one or some of them. 7 M.L.J. 73.
- (c) See U and Y, at p. 273, L.C., C.P. Code, Vol. I.

(18) Co-sharers.

First suit by a purchaser against some co-sharers, one of them having been omitted to be joined as a party. Second suit against the co-sharer whose name was thus omitted was not barred. (Per Bashyam Iyengar and Moore, JJ. 13 M.L.J. 83; 12 M.L.J. 103, appd.)

B.

(19) Damages, suits for.

- (a) First suit for refund of excess of rent, pending against defendant. Second suit for damages for excess received subsequent to the institution of the first, is not barred. 1 B.L.R. (F.B.), 97=10 W.R. (F.B.), 41. C
- (b) First suit for damages for wrongful dispossession of land. Second suit against the same defendant for wrongfully removing standing trees and logs, not barred. 22 M. 197.
- (c) First suit for possession of land and damages, was dismissed, on the ground that no dispossession had taken place, the plaintiff having been referred to a Small Cause Court for damages. Second suit for possession and mesne-profits of other lands, the land mentioned in the first suit also being included, was decreed. Subsequent to this suit, the plaintiff brought his suit for damages in the Small Cause Court. Held that the suit was not barred. 16 C. 545.

- (d) A person having been killed in a railway accident, first suit was brought against the Railway Company for damages and decreed. Second suit for damages suffered by the personal estate and effects of the deceased, was not barred. 1 Q.B.D. 599.
- (c) First suit for possession of land from which the plaintiff was evicted and for damages for cutting and removing trees. Second suit for damages for cutting of trees and removal of tumber, subsequent to the institution of the first, was not barred. 8 M.L.J. 278.

(20) Declaration of lien by mortgagee.

First suit for—over mortgaged properties. Second suit for declaration of lien against mortgager's attaching creditors, over surplus-money in Collector's hands, realised before the institution of the first, by a sale of the properties for arrears of Government revenue, free from incumbrances, not barred. 6 C. 142=7 C.L.R. 396.

(21) Declaration of right to share-Appropriation.

First suit for declaration of right to share in bond-debts due to the joint estate. Second suit by same plaintiff for moneys realized upon the same debts and appropriated to themselves by the defendants, not barred, a fresh cause of action having arisen from the date of appropriation. 18 W.R. 202.

(22) Suit for declaration of right to an estate—Suit for possession by transferees.

- (a) A zemindar, having made a gift of an estate, the done's name was recorded in the Revenue register, after his death, in spite of the objections of his illegitimate son. First suit by the illegitimate son for declaration of his right to the estate, was decreed. The dones and the illegitimate son, both having sold the estate, the transferees of the illegitimate son sued for the possession of the moiety transferred. Their suit was not barred, although in the first suit by the illegitimate son, he omitted to ask for possession. 5 A. 345-3 A.W.N. 81 (2 A. 356; 8 C. 483, F).
- (b) The suit is barred by reason of such omission. (Stuart, C.J., dissenting, 2 A. 956, D.) (Ibid). K

(23) Declaration of right to possession—Suit for possession.

For a case converse to the above, see 2 A.L.J. 342.

(24) Declaration of right to redeem and damages.

- (a) A claim for—cannot both be brought in one suit. 4 N.W.P. 70.
- (b) Quarre.—Whether a claim for declaration of right to damages is one that is maintainable? (Ibid).
  N
- (c) If a Court could declare the plaintiff's right to damages, a suit brought to obtain those damages was barred. (Ibid).
- (d) A suit by a Mahomedan widow for a declaration of her right to possess her deceased husband's estate for life is distinct from the cause of action in a suit by her for dower. 21 C. 157 = 20 I.A. 155 (12 I.A. 119, F.); 11 O.O. 69 (21 C. 157; 20 A. 81, D.).

(24-a) Declaration of title and confirmation of possession—Suit for possession.

- (a) First suit for declaration of title and confirmation of possession. Second suit for possession not barred, as plaintiff was not in possession at the date of the first suit. 8 C. 819=10 C.L.R. 537 (11 M.I.A. 551, Disc);
  8 C 825 (note)=11 C.L.R. 183; 12 C 291 (8 C. 819, F); 7 C.P.L.R. 63 (8 C. 819; 14 A. 512; 4 A. 261, F.).
- (b) First suit for declaration of title to land, was dismissed, the plaintiff not being in possession at the time of suit. Second suit for possession was not barred. 14 A. 512=12 A.W.N. 80 (8 C. 819, F.)
- (c) The mere fact, that a person suing for a declaration of title, was in a position to sue for possession also, is no bar to a second suit for possession. 1 A. 252. See also 4 A. 261.
  S.

(25) Declaratory decree-Consequential relief.

- (a) First suit for declaratory decree without consequential relief. Second suit for amount due under adjustment of accounts, not barred. 8 C. 488 = 11 C.L.R. 57 (1 A. 252, F.).
- (b) First suit for a declaratory decree without prayer for consequential relief. Second suit to set aside sale and recover possession would not be barred, notwithstanding S. 42, Specific Relief Act. L.B.R. (1893— 1900), p. 410.

(26) Decree-holder getting formal possession-Receipt of rent by judgment-debtor.

The decree-holder who gets formal possession completely satisfies the order of the Court. There is a new cause of action, if the judgment-debtor persists in receiving rents from tenants, even after such possession.

1 A.L.J. 20.

(27) Different deeds regarding different properties—Right to sue for possession under each deed.

After settling accounts, the defendants sold to the plaintiff two different properties under two separate sale-deeds. Separate suits for possession can be brought on each sale-deed, as the transaction between the parties resulted in two separate sales of distinct properties, giving rise to distinct causes of action. 110 P.R. 1883. (9 P.R. 1881, D.).

(28) Different trespasses -- Same plot of land.

Two distinct trespasses committed at different times on different parts of the same land, cannot be regarded as one cause of action. A suit on one trespass cannot bar a suit on another, unless the previous suit is so framed as to make it necessary to claim the whole land in that suit.

10 M.L.J. 129.

(29) Dispossession - Separate suits.

Two houses, purchased under the same sale-deed, having been dispossessed by the defendant's ancestor, on different occasions, a first suit for possession of one house was decreed. Second suit for possession of the other is not barred, although the plaintiff's title is the same sale-deed, because the ouster from the two houses on different occasions, gives rise to different causes of action. 6 A. 616=1 A.W.N. 185 (13 W.R. 196; 20 W.R. 103, R.)

(30) Dispossession-Suit for value of produce-Suit for land.

First suit by a landlord for value of produce, of which he was dispossessed.

Second suit for the land on which the produce stood, was not barred, as the two suits were based on different causes of action. 78 P.R. 1902.

(31) Ejectment.

An occupancy tenant having mortgaged his tenancy, a zemundar got him ejected under S. 36 of the Rent Act for arrears of rent. The Revenue Courts having declined to eject the mortgages of the tenancy who was in possession, a second suit brought by the zemundar for redemption of the mortgage was not barred. 7 A.W.N. 283.

(32) Ejectment, suit for, based on an unregistered lease-Suit based on title.

First suit for ejectment based on a lease for a term of years, which was unregistered. Second suit based on title was no bar. 18 M.L. J. 475. B.

(33) Enhancement of rent, suit for.

The dismissal of a—does not bar a suit for rent at the rate originally fixed.

(34) Execution-purchaser, suit against.

First suit against execution-purchaser to set aside Court sale. Second suit for possession not barred, the plaintiff not being aware at the date of the first that the execution-purchaser was in possession. 14 M. 23=1 M.L.J. 28.

(35) General account, suit on.

The defendant became personally responsible to the plaintiff for a certain amount and as part of the same transaction gave a sub-mortgage to him of certain shops over which he had a mortgage.

The plaintiff debited a certain sum in the general account in the name of the defendant. First suit, on the general account was decreed. Second suit to enforce the rights under the sub-mortgage was not barred, as the cause of action in the first was the adjusted account, while in the second it was the mortgage. 6 Bom. L.R. 454 = 28 B. 447.

(36) Government sanction.

First suit for share of property. Second suit for property, not included in the first, for want of Government sanction, is not barred, notwithstanding the party omitted to apply for the sanction before the previous suit.

5 M.H.C. 419.

(37) Ground of title common-Different defendants-Different lands.

(a) First suit by plaintiffs as the daughters of the last male-holder to recover certain lands was decreed. Second suit to recover certain other lands which had belonged to their father was not barred. Although the ground of title was the same and the cause of action also arose at the same time, the properties in the suit were different and the persons who severally withheld the same were also different. 12 M.L.J. 108=25 M. 736.

- (b) A cause of action against one person is not a part of the cause of action against another, if it is not a joint one against both. 25 M. 736=12 M.L.J. 108 (1 Agra H.C. Part III, 109; 14 M.I.A. 176, 14 M.I.A. 187, F.).
- (c) Where a widow alienates properties, a plaintiff may bring a single suit against the several defendants to set aside the alienations or different suits against each defendant, the ground of title being the same, but the persons infringing the plaintiff's right being different. (Ibid). I
- (d) The omission to include an alience in a prior suit does not bar a subsequent suit against him. (Ibid).

(38) Hindu father and sons, suits against.

First suit on mortgage against father and sons, the decree being personal and providing for payment of the debt in instalments within a certain time. Second suit against other sons, not born at the date of the first decree, and their nephews for the unpaid instalments, to be paid out of the family property, was not barred. 17 M. 122=4 M.L.J. 52. (5 M. 232, 7 M. 328; 16 M. 99, F.). See also 2 Agra 323.

(39) Hypothecated property—Obligor—Jurisdiction—Different Courts.

The obligor of a bond was residing within the jurisdiction of one Court, while the property was within the jurisdiction of another. First suit against the obligor personally, for principal and interest and also for the sale of the property, was dismissed, the interest claimed personally being decreed. Second suit for principal, in the Court within whose jurisdiction the property was situate, by sale of the mortgaged land, was not barred. 16 M. 481.

(40) Incumbrances, annulment of, purchaser—Second suit by lessee.

First suit by purchaser at a Rovenue sale to annul incumbrances against a certain co-sharer was decreed. Subsequently the purchaser leased the property to the plaintiff. Second suit by the lessee or the plaintiff to annul incumbrances against the remaining co-sharers, was not barred. 8 C.W.N. 54.

(41) Injunction to restrain defendants from removing shells—Conversion—Suit for their value.

First suit for an injunction to restrain defendants from removing shells stored on a certain land, was dismissed on the ground that injunction could not be granted. Second suit for the value of the shells subsequently converted by the defendants, was not barred. 12 M.L.J. 406 = 25 M. 669.

(42) Interest, stipulation to pay-Default-Principle.

(a) The stipulation in bonds, by which the principal sum is to be paid with interest in default of the payment of interest at the fixed time, is inserted for the exclusive benefit of the plaintiff. 2 M.L.J. 295=18 M. 257.

- (b) The mere fact that a person states in his plaint that he chooses to sue only for interest, while he is entitled to sue for both principal and interest, default having been made by the debtor, does not preclude him from suing afterwards for the principal as well as the interest that accrues since the date of the first. (Ibid).
- (c) The provision in a bond being that if interest is not paid at the fixed time, principal and interest must be paid at once, a first suit for interest alone, omitting to sue for principal, does not bar a second suit for principal and interest subsequently accrued. (Ibid).
- (d) In the above case, although the creditor's election not to seek a decree for the full amount, so stated in the first suit was not communicated to the defendants before the first, the second suit was not barred. (Ibid).
  R
- (e) A bond provided that, in default of payment of principal in one year, interest must be paid every mouth, failing which principal and interest were both payable. First suit for interest due up to date was decreed. Second suit for principal and interest and for lien on the mortgage property was not barred, as the distinct agreement to pay interest month by month, in default of payment, constituted a distinct cause of action. 123 P.R. 1881 (15 P.R. 1866, R.).
- (f) A covenant to pay interest each year, not being confined to the fixed period of the mortgage is distinct from and independent of a claim for mortgage-amount, the performance of which is secured in a different manner. The cause of action in these two are entirely distinct. 21 B. 267.
- (g) First suit to recover arrears of interest due on a mortgage-bond without suing for principal. Second suit for principal and interest by sale of mortgaged property, not barred. (Ibid)
- (h) The provision in a bond, being the re-payment of loan with interest by a stated time, failing which the loan might be added to a mortgage-debt for a term of years and repaid at the end of the term with the mortgage-debt, a first suit was decreed for interest accrued at the date of the suit. Second suit for further interest since the date of the first suit, was not barred, although principal and interest were both due at the date of the first suit because according to the condition in the bond, the plaintiff must be taken to have elected to add the principal to the mortgage-debt, in which case he forfeited nothing by merely suing for arrears as they became due. 7 B. 446.
- (i) Interest, suit for-Suit for principal and interest barred. 70 P.R. 1889. W

(43) Karnavan-Anandravan.

A Karnavan of a Malabar tarwad is not barred from bringing successive suits for land in the possession of an Anandravan. 5 M. 1.

(44) Lease for a term-Breach of contract by lessee-Suits for rent.

(a) A lessee, after paying a month's rent, vacated the house and communicated to the plaintiff that he was not liable for further payment. First suit for the second month was decreed. Second suit for rent for the remaining term as damages, was not barred, as the rent for the subsequent period had not accrued due on the date of the first. 70 P.R. 1882.

(45) Lease, suit for registration of—Possession.

First suit by lessee to have a lease registered was decreed. Second suit for possession of the fields leased was not barred. 3 A.W.N. 6.

(46) Lessee resuming possession - Lessee retaining possession.

Where, in one case, a lessee resumes possession of lands on behalf of his landlord and in another case retains portions leased to him, although the lessor's title to recover is the same, the causes of action are distinct. 24 W.R. 212.

(47) Maintenance-Claim for.

A claim for maintenance by a Mahomedan sister against one of her brothers and the sons of another brother, is entirely different from her claim against them for the share of her brother in her deceased sister's estate. Also a decree awarding her own share in her deceased sister's estate does not bar a second suit by her for the share of her brother in the said estate, as the causes of action are entirely distinct. 8 O.C. 65. [F.C.A. No. 19 of 1901, D; 17 W.R. 108, Exp.; 17 W.R. 1 (5) (P.C.), R].

(48) Malabar Uralans-Devasom property.

First suit by the holder of a bond against the executant Uralans and a third Uralan, was decreed. Second suit for declaration against a fourth Uralan for binding the debt on him and on the devasom property, the fourth having objected to the attachment in execution of the first decree was not barred. 16 M. 449. See also 10 C. 924.

(49) Malikhana, suits for.

First suit for 'malikhana' was returned for presentation to the proper Court.

Second suit for the sum, which had accrued after the plaint was presented in the first Court, but before its representation in the Munsiff's Court, not barred. 10 A.W.N. 243.

- (f) First suit for mesne-profits alone, dismissed on a preliminary point. Second suit for mesne-profits and land, not barred. 11 M. 210. See 4 M L.T. 192; 3 C.P.L.R. 3.
- (g) First suit for masne-profits and possession, possession alone being decreed in appeal. Second suit for mesne-profits from the date of the decree, exclusive of the period the plaintiff was in possession, is not barred. 4 B.L.R. (F.B.), 113=13 W.R. (F.B.), 15. See also 11 M.L.J. 332. K
- (h) A sale for arrears of rent having been set aside, a first suit was brought for mesne-profits for the time during which the purchaser was in possession. Second suit for rents wrongly collected was not barred. 5 B.L.R. 184=13 W.R. 261; 5 B.L.R. 187 (note)=13 W.R. 205.

- (a) A mother having mortgaged her minor son's property as guardian, a first suit was brought by the mortgagee against the mother for moneydecree only and the decree was not satisfied. A second suit to enforce the lien against the son, after he attained his majority, was not barred, as the son was no party to the first suit and as nothing in that suit would bind him. 41 P.R. 1883.
- (b) A mortgage-deed, having provided for possession in default of interest, a first suit for interest alone was brought and decreed. Second suit for possession, on account of a further default in the payment of interest, was not burred, as a fresh cause of action had arisen from a breach of the contract, subsequent to the first suit. 79 P.R. 1886 (138 P.R. 1882, D.).
- (c) First suit for sale against a managing member of a Hindu family on a mortgage executed by him, was decreed. Second suit for sale on the same mortgage, impleading as defendants all the members, was not barred. (1902) A.W.N. 223-25 A. 163; 21 A. 301; 22 A. 307 and 22 A. 394, R.

- (d) Deed of gift by widow and her late husband's mother with the nearest reversioner's consent—First suit, after widow's death, by presumable reversioner to set aside the deed and for possession—Second suit by the same person to set aside a mortgage by the widow and mother, of portion of property, the subject-matter of the first, in which the mortgage was mentioned, not barred. 10 B.L.R. (P.C.), 1; 14 M.I.A. 176, 187.P
- (e) It is not competent to a holder of two mortgages on the same property from the same person to maintain a suit on the latter only for sale of the properties subject to the prior mortgage. 7 B.L.R. 811 [25 M. 108 at p. 116; 13 A. 432; 25 B. 161=2 B.L.R. 864; 29 I.A. 118 (116), R.]. Q
- (f) First suit by usufructuary mortgagee for recovery of mortgage money by sale, was dismissed. Second suit for possession of the mortgaged property was not barred, the causes of action being distinct and different. 13 M.L.J. 439=27 M. 102. See also 15 M.L.J. 374 and 28 M. 406.
- (g) First suit by usufructuary mortgagee for recovery of money by sale of the mortgaged property. Second suit to recover possession was not barred, the right claimed in the two suits being entirely different. 15 M.L.J. 374.
- (h) When parties choose to agree that there should be two instruments and two obligations, the Court cannot say that there is only one obligation. 24 M. 96. See also 7 Bom. L.R. 811.
- (i) First suit for ejectment by a mortgagor's vendee against purchaser under the mortgage-decree, for a declaration not to bind the sale on him, was dismissed. Second suit for redemption not barred. 20 M. 82=6 M.L.J. 229; 6 M.L.J. 51, exp.
- (j) First suit for redemption, dismissed. Second suit by same person for ejectment, was not barred, as the causes of action were essentially distinct. 13 B. 326 (11 B.H.C. 224, F.).
- (&) First suit for redemption was dismissed on the ground, that the mortgage sued on, had not been proved. Second suit for redeeming a portion of the land which formed part of the subject-matter of the first, on the footing that the defendants pleaded a mortgage in respect of that portion in the said suit, was not barred. 26 M. 760 (21 M. 91; 22 M. 259, disc; 25 B. 189, disc.).
- (1) First suit against other parties for the other portions of the property. Second suit for a declaration that property in defendant's possession is subject to the mortgagee's lien, on the ground that such property was part of the property mortgaged was not barred, although the claim was not included in the first suit. 14 B.L.R. 418=15 W.R. 486.
- (m) N, a mortgagee in possession of five-eighths share of land-security for Rs. 400 debt, hypothecated his rights to M. K afterwards purchased two-eighths share from the mortgagor and he obtained decree and possession of the same on payment of Rs. 400 into Court. Pending the suit, N assigned his mortgage rights to M. M was aware of the suit and K was aware of the assignment, when he paid money into Court. K afterwards purchased three-eighths share from the mortgagor and he brought a second suit against N and M for recovering possession of the same. The plea that K might have recovered five-eighths in the first suit against N was bad and S. 43=0. II, r. 2 of the present Code was no bar. 9 M. 92.

- (n) First suit for arrears of interest under the mortgage-bond, was withdrawn with liberty to bring a fresh suit for principal and interest due. Second suit for such principal and interest, was not barred. 10 M. 160.Z
- (o) First suit by a usufructuary mortgagee to recover the amount with interest by sale of the mortgaged house, was dismissed as against the purchasers of the house, as premature. Second suit for sale of the dwelling house was not barred, because the purchasers having pleaded that the suit was premature in the former suit, could not now plead that the plaintiff's claim ought to have been included in the former suit. (1904)

  A.W.N. 236 = 1 A.L.J. 649 = 27 A. 254.
- (p) First suit by mortgagee for money was decreed. The money decree having been assigned, the assignee brought a second suit to establish a lien over the mortgaged-properties sold to the defendant, subsequent to the money decree. Held that the second suit was not barred. 142 P.R. 1882; 113 P.R. 1880, cited.
- (q) Two persons, each holding a mortgage over the same property from the same person brought suits for sale on the same day and in execution each purchased it at the sale under his decree. Neither of these made the other a party. The representatives of one of the decree-holders got possession as against the representatives of the other. A suit brought by the latter for possession of a moiety of the property or in the alternative for redemption of the other mortgage was not barred. 17 A.W.N. 94.

(52) Partition, suits relating to.

- (a) A tenant-in-common, who obtains a decree for partition of some of the items of property is not precluded from bringing a fresh suit for partition of the remaining items, as the causes of action are not the same. 8 M.L.J. 92.
- (b) The right of a tenant-in-common to have each field separately divided between himself and his co-tenants is one thing, and his right to claim a partition of all the fields held by them as tenants-in-common is another. (Per Shepard, J.) (Ibid.)
- (c) The claim to partition confined to the particular parcels of land is different from a general and complete partition of the entire property held by the plaintiff and the defendant. (Per Subramania Iyer, J.) (Ibid.) G

- (d) First suit by members of a joint family for partition. Second suit for other properties held by family members and strangers, not barred. B. 597.
- (e) First suit by a joint family member for a share of a particular portion of the family property, leaving the rest undivided. Second suit by him to have the whole property divided, not barred. 8 B.H.C. (A.C.) 205. I

(53)—suits for, in Revenue and Civil Courts.

- (a) First suit in a Civil Court for possession of a share in certain houses, only the sites of which were partitioned in a Revenue Court, was defeated on the ground that the supposed partition of the same by a Court of Revenue never could have taken place. Second suit for partition of the same was not barred. (1904) A.W.N. 89=26 A. 50=1 A.L.J. 228.
- (b) A suit by the Zamorin of Calicut for partition of parcels of land as belonging equally to two stanams does not bar a suit by him for a partition of moiety of property belonging in equal undivided shares to his stanam and that of the defendant. 21 M. 153.

(54) Partners, suits by.

First suit by partners, an amin having adjusted accounts. Second suit for the amount due under the adjusted account was not barred. 22 C. 692.L

(55) Penalty for insufficient stamping.

First suit was brought on an instrument, for which the plaintiff had to pay stamp duty and penalty, the defendant being bound by law to stamp the document. Second suit to recover the amount paid for penalty, was not barred, although the amount was not included as costs in the former suit. 6 A. 70=3 A.W.N. 211.

(56) Permanent interest-Leasehold interest-Injury.

An injury done at the same time to a plaintiff's permanent as well as temporary interest in an estate, gives rise to two causes of action and two suits for redress can be brought. 20 C. 716.

(57) Possession, suits relating to.

Property, which the plaintiff claims by right of succession, being in the hands of various persons separately and some of these having mortgaged the same, the plaintiff could sue each party in possession of the portion claimed, and the mortgagees from him. 21 A.W.N. 115.

(58) Pre-emption, right of.

See E, at p. 259, L C., C.P. Code, Vol. I.

(59) Premature suit—Dismissal—Second suit.

First suit dismissed as premature. A second suit may be brought for the whole claim arising out of the cause of action and it need not be for the same claim or the same remedies as was sued for in the first plaint.

(60) Purchase at different times.

A suit for share of joint family property standing in the name of one of the members cannot bar a subsequent suit for other property purchased in another member's name at another time. 20 W.R. (P.C.), 450.

(61) Real property—Personal property.

A person claiming under a will, both real and personal property, can maintain a first suit against the defendant for wrongful dispossession of the real property, and a second suit for his share in the personal property. 8 M. 520; 12 I.A. 116 (11 M.I.A. 551, R.)

(62) Revenue and Civil Courts.

- (a) Where a person had two separate rights of action, one on the contract to pay rent and the other on a mortgage-security for the same, the mere fact that he obtained a decree for rent in the Revenue Court did not bar his remedy in the Civil Court on the mortgage-security. 9 A. 23 = 6 A.W.N. 279 (15 B.L.R. 408, R).
- (b) A contract to pay rent for the leased land and also security in Rs. 3,000 by mortgage of landed property were both given by a lessee. First suit was decreed in Revenue Court for arrears of rent and partial satisfaction was obtained. Second suit to recover the balance due by enforcement of the mortgage-security was not barred, there being two causes of action, one on the mortgage-security and the other on the contract to pay rent. (Ibid.)
- (c) Land was leased to a person by a usufructuary mortgage and the same land was hypothecated by the lessee as security for payment of rent. First suit, by mortgagee for arrears of rent in Revenue Court, was decreed. Second suit in a Civil Court to recover the amount of the decree by sale of the land claimed under hypothecation, was not barred.

  4 A. 180 = 2 A.W.N. 47. See also 4 A. 318 = 2 A.W.N. 46.

(63) Reversioners.

- (a) Two sisters took possession of the share of a deceased sister and mortgaged it including their own joint property to a certain person. First suit against sisters and the mortgagee by plaintiff, as reversioners, for possession of one-third share, praying that as regards the remaining two-thirds their rights should not be affected, was decreed. Second suit for possession of the remaining two-thirds, against the sisters alone, was not barred. 87 P.R. 1903. (14 M.I.A. 187; 6 C. 142; 21 M. 153; 149 P.R. 1890 24 P.R. 1899 24 C. 831, R).
- (b) First suit by reversioners to contest daughter's succession was compromised. Second suit by the same persons to set aside alienation by daughters was not barred, as the causes of action are entirely distinct. 47 P.R. 1894.
- (c) A conditional mortgagee from a widow, having obtained possession under his decree, a reversioner sued to recover from him certain resumed revenue-free grants on the ground that they were not included in the mortgage or in the decree for possession. The only issue being, whether the land was included in the mortgage, the Court decided itin plaintiff's favour, although the suit was dismissed in appeal. A second suit for setting aside the mortgage as not binding upon the reversioner was not barred, as the object in it was to question the validity of the sale, while the object in the first was to show that the property claimed therein was not included in the mortgage. 24 P.R.

(1882), 598.

(64) Simultaneous suits-Principle.

Even supposing there was no necessity for bringing two suits, yet, if both had been instituted simultaneously, one could not be said to have priority over the other in point of time and there could be no question of relinquishment or a subsequent suit for the portion relinquished. 76.

P.R. 1890 (1 A. 650 and W.N. 1888, p. 147, F. in preference to 9 M. 279).

(65) Specific performance—Co-defendants—Specific Relief Act (I of 1877), S. 27.

- (a) First suit for specific performance of a contract of sale against defendants.
   Nos. 3 to 7, was decreed. Second suit for possession against them and the principal defendants, who were removed from the former suit at the request of the plaintiff, was not barred, as the claim against both the sets of defendants did not arise out of the same cause of action. 6 C.W.N. 314.
  - (b) In the former case, it was not necessary, under S. 27 of the Specific Relief Act, to bring the previous suit against both the sets of defendants. (Ibid).
  - (c) Where the right to a conveyance arises coincidently with the right to possession, a first suit for conveyance and then a second suit for possession, cannot be brought. But where the right to possession arises only on the execution of the conveyance, a fresh suit for possession is not barred. 12 M.L.J. 71. See also 18 B. 537; 22 M. 24.B
  - (d) First suit for specific performance of a contract of sale, specified in an arbitration award. Second suit for possession on the basis of a sale-deed executed by Court, owing to the failure of the defendants to obey the terms of the award, was not barred. 4 N.L.R. 14; 22 M. 24, diss; 18 B. 537, F. See also 6 C.W.N. 314.
  - (e) First suit for specific performance of a contract of sale, and to compel the defendant to execute a sale-deed. The Court executed a deed of sale in plaintiff's favour under S. 262, C.P.C. (Act XIV of 1882), on failure of the defendant to do so. Second suit on the strength of the Court's sale-deed, to recover possession, was not barred. 18 B. 597. But see 22 M. 24, where this case is distinguished.
  - (f) In the above case, the cause of action is not the alleged breach of contract, but it is a new and distinct one arising from the deed of sale, which the defendant had contracted to pass. (Ibid).
  - (g) First suit for specific performance failed. Second suit for the return of the consideration money was not barred. 27 M. 380; 6 M. 760, R. But see 8 M.L.J. 61.

C.—SPECIAL CASES—(Concluded).

(h) First suit against father and son for specific performance of a contract, the decree awarding only the value of the father's share, the son's share not being bound. Second suit for recovering balance of consideration, was not barred, as the cause of action arose, only when it was determined in the first suit that the son's share was not bound.

(66) Trees and fruits of trees.

First suit for damages for alleged misappropriation of the finits on trees, was dismissed, the defendants denying the plaintiff's title to the trees. Second suit for possession of trees including those to which the former suit related, was not barred, as S. 43 of Act XIV of 1882=0. II, r. 2 of the present Code does not apply to such a suit. 14 A.W.N. 61 (12 W.R. 290, R).

D.-MISCELLANEOUS CASES.

- (1) First suit by plaintiff or his ancestor as next reversioner to set aside alienations by a widow. Second suit by same plaintiff on the ground that the widow being a step-mother was not the heir and that the plaintiff was entitled to possession was not barred. 18 M.L.J. 58. I
- (2) First suit based on a deed of gift for one-third share in the property, was dismissed. One of the defendants in the suit stated in his written statement that the other defendant was solely entitled to the property. Second suit by plaintiff for a half share in the inheritance, in view of this relinquishment was not barred. 9 O.C. 235 (7 N.W.P.H.C. Rep. 60 and 11 B.H.C. Rep. 224, R).

2.- "But a plaintiff....bring the suit....any Court."

(1) Abandonment to bring within the jurisdiction.

A portion of a claim abandoned to bring it within the jurisdiction of a Court, may be revived within the Court, having jurisdiction over the entire claim, when the suit is transferred to such other Court.

(2) Suit for rent-Jurisdiction.

- (a) Two separate suits for rents due for two successive years under the same lease on the same day exceeded the pecuniary limits of a Court of Small Causes. The suit for first year, was dismissed on the ground that the claim must have been included in the suit for second year. 8 M. 147.
- (b) As the parties had no intention of abandoning either claim, the proper course was to allow them to withdraw both suits and file a fresh suit in a competent Court. 8 M. 147.

Order II, Rule 2 (2).

(General).

(1) Scope of the sub-rule.

What is contemplated in this sub-rule is a second suit advancing a claim supplementary to the first and in respect of "the portion omitted or relinquished in the first suit." 35 P.R. 1898.

General-(Concluded)

(2) "To sue," meaning of.

"To sue," in this rule, means to make a legal claim or to take legal proceedings against any person it does not necessarily mean to file a suit by means of a plaint such as is referred to in the Code. Taking any legal proceedings in matters of any kind would be 'to sue.' 7 Bom. L.R. 138.

· (3) Application to file arbitration award.

The privilege given to a plaintiff to abandon the excess of a claim applies also to a case where the party comes in with an application to cause an arbitration award to be filed. 20 W.R. 56.

(4) Fraud-Second suit not barred.

If there is fraud, the second suit will not be barred. 1 A. 543.

(5) Burden of proof.

The——lies on the defendant who objects to the plaintiff suing for portion of claim omitted in a former suit. 19 W.R. 429.

· (6) Former recovery-Later action-Bar.

If a plaintiff has had no opportunity in the former suit of recovering what he seeks to recover in the second, a second suit is not barred by the former recovery. 14 Q.B.D. 148; 15 Q.B.D. 549, p. 556.

(7) Madras Rent Recovery Act VIII of 1865, S. 18.

First suit for recovering arrears of rent for two years, rent for the third year also being due but omitted. Attachment of land by landlord subsequent to the first by summary process under the Rent Recovery Act.

The landlord is not precluded from pursuing his remedies under the Rent Recovery Act and a suit by the tenants to set aside the attachment as illegal cannot stand, 21 M, 236.

3.—"Where a plaintiff....relinquishes....shall not afterwards sue.... relinquished."

(1) "Omit to sue"—Meaning of.

The words, "omit to sue," refer to an omission, which might have been avoided and not to an omission to claim that which a party could not know he was entitled to. 15 M. 296 (297).

. (2) Omission to sue--Effect of want of knowledge.

- (a) The plaintiff, not being aware of his right when he sued before, it could not be regarded as a portion of his claim and he would not be precluded, by having omitted it, from bringing it forward in a subsequent suit. 15 C 800=15 I.A. 106 (P.C.).
- (b) First suit for partition of family property. Second suit to recover share of other family debts collected by defendant, which were not within the knowledge of the plaintiff at the date of the first, not barred. 15 M. 296: 1 A. 543.
- (c) First suit on hypothecation-bond, the plaintiff not knowing that portion of hypothecated property had been acquired, under the Land Acquisition Act, by a Railway Company and the money lodged in the Treasury. Second suit to recover the sum in the Treasury, was not barred, the plaintiff not having known, at the date of the first suit, of the acquisition by the Company. 6 M. 344.

(3) Omission to sue—Effect of knowledge.

- (a) If a plaintiff can be fixed with knowledge, at the time of the first suit, of the circumstances, which made it probable that he had another claim out of the same cause of action and which should put him on enquiry to flud out its details, a subsequent suit for the whole or any portion of such a claim would be barred. 17 P.R. 1897.
- (b) A mortgagee, who fails to implead certain persons in a first suit, is not precluded from bringing a second suit, if it is shown that he had no notice of the existence of such persons when he brought the first suit.

(4) Accidental or involuntary omissions.

- (a) S. 43 of Act XIV of 1882=O. II, r. 2 of the present Code includes accidental or involuntary omissions as well as acts of deliberate relinquishment and cannot be controlled by any considerations of the motives of the party to whom it is applied. 2 C.L.J. 490; 11 M.I.A. 551, F.
- (b) This section applies, whether the omission to sue is the result of knowledge and intention or-not. 3 B.L.R. (A.C.), 265; 12 W.R. 79; 3 N.W.P. 27. But see 15 M. 296, supra.
  But see 15 M. 296, supra.

(5) Omission by mistake.

- (a) First suit for Government paper and other property. Second suit for a piece of Government paper, omitted in the first, was barred. 8 W.R. (P.C.) 3; 11 M.I.A. 551, Marsh, 286=2 Hay, 190. But see 10 P.R. 1869 (Civil), 103.
- (b) First suit was brought jointly with another under a mistake of fact, that the latter also was entitled to a share. Second suit for the portion omitted on account of such mistake, was not barred, the omission having arisen on account of the mistake in question. 10 P.R. 1869 (Civil), 103.

(6) Omission by negligence.

A plaintiff omitting, by negligence or other cause, a portion of his claim which sought to charge land or, having preferred it, is content to accept an imperfect adjudication or one, which awards him a portion of the relief claimed, cannot bring forward, in a second suit, matter which might have been disposed of in the first suit. 2 N.W.P. 29.

(7) Effect of relinquishment.

Relinquishment of a portion of the claim does not cause dismissal of the suit in which the portion is relinquished, but bars a second suit for the relinquished portion, and a person will gain nothing by stating that he will sue again for the relinquished portion. 2 N.W.P. 90.

(8) Suit for partition—One out of a number of villages.

A——of one, out of a number of villages left by an ancestor, cannot be dismissed. Such a suit might operate as a bar to any future claim by plaintiff for partition of the remaining villages. 1 Agra Rep. (A.C.),

(9) Part of claim included in former suit—Dismissal—Second suit.

A claim for portion of land included in a former suit which was dismissed does not bar a second suit for the same portion. 19 C. 159=18 I.A. 165 (P.C.).

(10) Abandoning a ground of claim.

---which is in question and proper for consideration and decision in a suit cannot be a cause for a fresh suit in respect of the same subject-matter.

(10-A) Omission to sue for difference of value.

First suit for rent to be paid in Company's rupees, the plaintiff being entitled to be paid in Azeemabad rupees, which were more valuable than the former. Second suit for recovering the difference of value, was barred, the omission to sue for such difference being held to be an abandonment of claim. 5 W.R Act X, 90.

(11) Accretion to land.

First suit for a certain specified quantity of land as being within specified boundaries. On measurement, it was found that there was more land within those boundaries than the plaintiff claimed. First suit was decreed for what the plaintiff claimed, the excess portion being deducted. Second suit for land which had accreted to the excess portion which was not decreed in the former suit, was not barred.

9 B L.R. 150=16 W.R. (P.C.), 5=5 W.R. 211.

(12) Anticipation of claim.

A second suit would not be barred, if, at the time of the previous suit, the necessity for making the present claim could not have been anticipated. 10 M.L.J. 204.

(12-A) Damages.

First suit for damages. Second suit for portion already accrued at the date of the first was barred. 9 C. 148=12 C.L.R. 34; 12 C. 482 (6 C. 791, F).

(13) Defendant claiming set-off, cannot split.

(a) A defendant, who sets up a claim by way of set-off, cannot split it; and while enforcing a portion of it under S. 111 of the old Code=O. VIII, r. 6 of the new Code, he cannot bring a suit to enforce the remainder. 1 C.L.J. 364=32 C. 654.

EXAMPLE.

(b) First suit for money due on account against a defendant, who pleaded setoff only in respect to a portion due to him, omitting the remainder. Second suit by defendant for the remainder was barred, inasmuch as he was in the position of a plaintiff, in the previous suit, so far as his claim to set-off was concerned. (Ibid.)

(14) Exclusion of lands by survey award.

First suit by plaintiff to set aside sale of land, the plaintiff specifying that he excludes certain lands on the ground that they have been joined to the adjacent taluq by a survey award.

Second suit for the excluded portion not barred. W.R. (1864), 134.

(15) Guardian omitting claim-Minor's suit.

A minor cannot sue for portion of claim omitted by his guardian in a previous suit, unless the conduct of the guardian is shown to be unreasonable or improper. 22 M. 309; 76 P.R. 1893.

(16) Misappropriation by joint family manager.

- (a) A suit for—must be for all moneys misappropriated by him. 3 B.L.R. (A C.), 265; 12 W.R. 79.
- (b) Whether the omission is by mistake or not, a second suit cannot lie for the portion omitted. (Ibid).

(17) Misappropriation by agent.

The acts of—having occurred before the plaintiff called on him to account, all the claims against him for all moneys misappropriated must be included in one suit. 23 W.R. 418.

(18) Mortgages.

- (a) A suit for redemption of land includes improvements and accretions made to the land in the hands of mortgagee. 10 B.H.C. 369.
- (b) An omission to adjudicate upon part of a claim does not preclude the mortgagor from bringing a second suit in respect of the part. 10 B.H.C. 369.
- (c) First suit to redeem a Kanom, which was not proved, dismissed. The plaintiff knew at the time of the first suit that the defendants had admitted that they were Kanomdars in various documents. Second suit, based on the admissions, barred, as the plaintiff could have based his claim, in the alternative, on the admissions instead of confining himself to the mortgage which he failed to prove, 22 M. 259. W

(19) Shamilat land.

First suit by plaintiff's ancestors against the defendant's ancestors for possession of half a share in a certain patti was compromised. Second suit by plaintiffs for half of the shamilat land, that had fallen to the share of their'patti, was not barred as the plaintiff's ancestors were under no obligation to sue for a share in the shamilat in addition to their claim for possession as khewatdars of part of the holding. 113 P.R. 1900 (52 P.R. 1866; 10 P.R. 1894; 42 P.R. 1897; 115 P.R. 1894; 65 P.R. 1889, F).

(20) Suit on false claim—Second suit on true claim.

- (a) It is not the law, that, if a plaintiff sued for property on a false claim, when in reality he has, in fact and law, a true claim and cause of action for the same property, of which he is aware, he must be taken in law to have abandoned or relinquished his true claim and cause of action. 13 M.L.J. 448 (22 M. 259 treated as overruled by the Full Bench decision in 26 M. 104). But see case noted infra.
- (b) A person must be taken to have relinquished or abandoned his claim on the real cause of action, if he brings a first suit on a claim known to him to be false. 6 M.L.J. 51, cf. 20 M. 83=6 M.L.J. 229, where this is explained.

EXAMPLE.

First suit in ejectment as a trespasser, dismissed on the ground that the defendant had a charge on the lands in dispute. Second suit for redemption on payment of the charge barred, as the plaintiff was fully aware of the charge at the time of the first. (Ibid).

140 Act Y of 1908 (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE). [O. II, r. 2 (2) & (3)

3.—"Where a plaintiff..relinquishes..shall not afterwards suc.. relinquished."—(Concluded).

(21) Suit for demurrage.

In a suit for demurrage the plaintiff must sue for the whole of the demurrage due.

A second suit cannot be brought for the portion omitted in the first. 14 W.R. 258.

(22) Suit for possession—Suit for declaration of title.

First suit for possession, was dismissed, the plaintiff not having asked for declaration of his title. Second suit for declaration of title was barred, as the plaintiff omitted to sue for it in the first suit. 5 O.C. 178. G

(23) Withdrawal of suit—Institution of fresh suit including portion omitted in the first.

First suit was permitted to be withdrawn with a view to bringing a fresh suit.

Second suit which should include a portion omitted in the first, was not barred. 1 A. 324; 7 A. 624; 10 M. 160, cf. 7 B. 182.

(24) Withdrawal of suit with liberty to bring a fresh suit on conditions—Conditions, non-fulfilment of—effect of.

A plaintiff, who is permitted to withdraw on conditions, which he does not fulfil, must be taken to have withdrawn his suit without the permission of the Court and he cannot bring a fresh suit for the same matter..

2 C.L.J. 480=10 C.W.N. 8.

(25) Withdrawal without permission.

Where property consisted of debts and lands, a first suit for partition of debts only, which was withdrawn without the Court's permission, precludes a second suit for partition of the whole. 7 B. 182. See also 2 C.L.J. 480=10 C.W.N. 8.

Order II, Rule 2 (3).

4.-"A person entitled .. reliefs."

(1) Application of sub-rule 3 in O. II, r. 2.

The rule has no application to the case of a person, who, being entitled to one remedy only, sues by mistake, not for that remedy, but for another remedy to which he is not entitled. 47 P.R. 1884. See also view of Elsmie, J., in 66 P.R. 1884. But see 10 O.C. 44.

(2) The object of the sub-rule (3).

——is to provide against the splitting of remedies. 6 M. 159.

(3) Principle.

A person must be entitled to more than one remedy at the date of the first suit and he must omit to sue for such remedies. If he is not entitled to more than one remedy at the date of the first suit, even if he omits in it to sue for that to which he is entitled, a second suit is not barred with reference to the remedy he omits. 3 A. 857; 1 A.W.N. 100.

But see 10 O.C. 44.

4.-" A person entitled .. reliefs."-(Concluded).

(4) Mortgagee, not entitled to two remedies at the date of the first suit—Secondanot barred.

In respect of the mortgagor's breach to pay interest at the time fixed, a suit for foreclosure and a suit to enforce hen against mortgaged property are the two remedies of the mortgagee. First suit for foreclosure, omitting the second remedy, was dismissed on the ground that the plaintiff was not entitled to it, until the expiration of the mortgage-term. Second suit for second remedy is not barred, as, at the time of the first suit, the mortgagee was not a person entitled to more than one remedy, being entitled only to the second remedy and not to the first. (Ibid.) J.

(5) Suit for partition.

First suit by one out of four brothers in a joint family for partition of one-fourth share, was decreed. The share of the brother who was not joined as a party and whose whereabouts were unknown, was reserved in the joint possession of the parties. Second suit by the same plaintiff, for one-third in the one-fourth of the unknown brother, was not barred, as this was not a claim which the plaintiffs were entitled to make in respect of their cause of action in the first suit, as the proceedings then contemplated that the unknown brother would return and take his share. 127 P.R. 1890.

(6) A person entitled to more than one relief.

First suit for possession of the entire grain, was dismissed on the ground that the plaintiff was not entitled to more than a half share of the grain. Second suit to recover the revenue due to the plaintiff, on the ground that defendant took possession of his half share without paying revenue, was not barred, because this was a claim to which the plaintiff was not entitled under the terms of the agreement, when the former suit was instituted. 168 P.R. 1882 (90 P.R. 1881, R.).

(7) Compensation to Hindu widow under Land Acquisition Act—Reversioner suing for wrong remedy by mistake.

First suit by reversioner, to restrain a widow from making any alienation of the compensation-money awarded for a house taken under the Land Acquisition Act, was dismissed; the Court stating nevertheless that a suit for apportionment of the compensation might be brought by the plaintiff. Second suit for apportionment of the compensation was not barred. 47 P.R. 1881; 35 P.R. 1885 (47 P.R. 1884, F.).

(8) Suit for wrong remedy—Suit for right remedy.

A person suing by mistake for the wrong remedy cannot afterwards bring a second suit for the right remedy. 10 O.C. 44 (5 O.C. 173; 8 O.C. 389; 24 M. 491, F.); (3 A. 857 14 B. 81; 8 C. 819, R). But sce 3 A. 857.

5.- "But if he omits.....so omitted."

(1) Leave to omit to sue for a remedy-First hearing.

Where a deed of immoveable property contains a personal covenant to pay and the plaintiff's counsel applies, directly the case is called on for hearing, for leave to reserve his remedies under the mortgage, taking only a money-decree, the application to reserve [remedies contemplated by S. 43 para of the old Code=O. II, r. 2 (3) of the present Code, was held not to be too late. 5 B. 463.

5.—"But if he omits..so omitted."—(Continued).

. (2) Splitting of remedies-Effect.

- (a) A lets a land to B for five years, on condition that if B fails to pay rent every year, the lease should be void. B fails to pay rent for second year. A has now two remedies, viz., (1) to sue for rent, (2) to sue for possession. If he sues for rent only, and does not reserve his right to sue for possession with the leave of the Court, he cannot afterwards sue for possession. 6 M. 159.
- (b) First suit for specific performance of an agreement, was decreed. Second suit for possession of the land was barred, for the plaintiff was entitled at the time of the first suit to ask for possession. 22 M. 24.
  - But if the remedy in respect of which the subsequent suit was brought, did not exist at the date of the first suit, the second suit would not be barred. 3 A. 857.
- (c) An occupancy tenant, having mortgaged her holding with possession, a first suit was brought against her and the mortgagee, for cancellation of the mortgage and decreed. Second suit to recover possession of the holding was barred under S. 43, cl. 3 of Act XIV of 1882=0. II, r. 2 (iii). 47 P.R. 1886 (24 P.R. of 1882; 138 P.R. 1882; 59 P.R. 1883, cited).
- (d) First suit against mortgagor's representatives, for possession of the mortgaged land of which the plaintiff was dispossessed, was dismissed on the ground that possession could not be claimed without establishing the debt. Second suit for the amount found to be due, to be decreed against the mortgaged land was barred, as the plaintiff omitted without the leave of the Court to sue for this remedy in the first suit. 90 P.R. (1881), 597.
- (e) First suit for a declaratory decree to build a drain on a piece of land.

  Second suit for damages caused by the defendants' refusal to allow the plaintiff to build the drain, was barred, inasmuch as there was only one act and one cause of action giving rise to more than one relief, which the plaintiff ought to have claimed in the first suit. 5 P.W.R. 1907 = 28 P.L.R. 1907.
- (f) First suit by the Malguzar to set aside a deed of gift by an absolute occupancy tenant and also to recover possession in exercise of his right of pre-emption. The decree, not having awarded him possession, a second suit for possession was barred as the relief asked for could and should have been secured in the first suit. 3 C.P.L.R. 28.
- (g) A Hindu widow, having leased certain land, a first suit was brought by her husband's heir against herself and the lessee for possession of half the land leased and possession was given. Second suit, by the same person to set aside the lease in respect of the moiety decreed and for mesneprofits, was barred, as, at the time of the first suit, the plaintiff was aware of the lease and sought no relief in respect of it. 3 A.W.N. 198.W
- (h) First suit for specific performance of a contract of sale, failed. Second suit for part of the price, consideration, paid as deposit was barred, as the plaintiff ought to have sought for this relief in the previous suit. 8 M.L.J. 61. But see 14 A.W.N. 157.

5. - "But if he omits. so omitted." - (Concluded).

- (i) First suit for injunction restraining the wrongful act of the defendant. Second suit for damages for the same, was barred, as the plaintiff could not sue twice for different remedies and different claims arising out of the same cause of action. 190 P.R. 1888.
- (j) First suit for mesne-profits alone, though the plaintiff had a cause of action to sue for possession and mesne-profits. Second suit for possession was barred, as the plaintiff did not obtain permission from Court to bring a subsequent suit for possession. 138 P.R. (1882), 599; 9 O.C. 322. But see 9 C. 288 = 12 C.L.R. 434.

EXCEPTION.

(1) --- in the case of mortgage suits.

The exception to this sub-rule is provided for in Order XXXIV, rule 14, sub-rule (1), which corresponds to S. 99 of the Transfer of Property Act (IV of 1882).

(2) Transfer of Property Act, S. 99.

- (a) The effect of S. 99 of the Transfer of Property Act is to allow the mortgagee to split his remedies but it does not allow him to split his claim.
   25 B. 161; 30 B. 156.
- (b) A mortgagee who had brought the mortgaged property to sale in execution of a simple money decree held by him against the mortgager, which sale was set aside, could bring a suit for sale on his mortgage notwithstanding this rule. (1904) A.W.N. 2=26 A. 223: 16 A. 415; 25 B. 161, R.

(3) Execution proceedings.

- (a) The rule does not apply to proceedings in execution of decrees.
  - If a decree gives reliefs of a different character, such as a decree for possession and a decree for costs, there is nothing in the rule which prevents separate and successive applications for execution as regards each of them. 18 C. 515. But see 12 A. 392.
- (b) Where a mortgagee obtains a decree for sale of the mortgaged property in terms of S. 88 of the Transfer of Property Act, and the property is sold, but the net proceeds are insufficient to pay the mortgage-debt, he may subsequently apply for a decree for the balance under S. 90 of the Transfer of Property Act, notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, although a claim to such relief has not been included in his suit. 14 A. 513; 20 A. 386.

6.-"Explanation-'For the purpose of this rule,' etc."

(1) Bond Immoveable property as collateral security.

The obligee of a bond for payment of money, had also immoveable property hypothecated as collateral security. First suit was decreed for payment of the amount of the bond debt. Second suit to enforce the lien on the mortgaged property was barred. 2 A. 838.

(2) Separate suits by obligee of bond, having mortgaged property as collateral security:

First suit, by obligated a bond, for money, claiming enforcement of the mortgage granted to him as collateral security was decreed. At the time of the first suit, a third person was in possession of the property having 6.-"Explanation-'For the purpose of this rule,' etc."-(Concluded).

purchased the same in execution of a money-decree against the obligor. Second suit by obligee—against the purchaser, for declaration that the property was liable to be sold under his decree was not barred. 2 A.W.N. 7=4 A. 257.

- (3) Mortgage-Money decree-Transfer of Property Act, not in force.
  - A plaintiff, who omits to obtain a mortgage decree, and merely claims a money decree on a mortgage-bond, cannot enforce his mortgage-lien on the property, after it has been sold to a third party.
  - Rulings in suits in provinces where the Transfer of Property Act in force, held to be inapplicable. L.B.R. (1893-1900), p. 14. Ruling in Civil Second appeal No. 19 of 1892, F.
- 3. (1) Save as otherwise provided, a plaintiff may unite in the Joinder of causes same suit several causes of action 1 against the same defendant, or the same defendants jointly; and any plaintiffs having causes of action in which they are jointly interested against the same defendant or the same defendants jointly may unite such causes of action in the same suit.
- (2) Where causes of action are united, the jurisdiction of the Court as regards the suit shall depend 2 on the amount or value of the aggregate subject-matters at the date of instituting the suit.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

- O. II, r. 3, sub-rules 1 and 2 correspond to the 1st and 3rd paragraphs respectively of S. 45 of Act XIV of 1882.
- Sub-rule i:—For the words "subject to the rules contained in chapter II and in S. 44," in S. 45 (Act XIV of 1882), the words, "save as otherwise provided," are substituted in sub-rule (i).
- Sub-rule ii:—The words, "whether or not an order has been made under the second paragraph of this section," in the last para of S. 45, Act XIV of 1882, are omitted. Such an omission was due to the splitting up of the provisions of the old Code into two Rules, viz., rr. 3 and 6.

(General).

Scope and applicability of the rule.

- (1) The rule applies only to cases where there are either only one plaintiff, one defendant and severa causes of action or where the plaintiffs or defendants, though consisting of two or more individuals, may be considered as one with reference to all the causes of action. 6 A. 106; 2 C.L.J. 602.
- (2) S. 45 of Act XIV of 1882=(O. 2, r. 3 of the present Code), is meant to apply to eases, in which questions arise as to the joinder or severance of several causes of action against the same defendant. 8 B. 616.
- 13) The plaintiff may, in one action, join not several actions, but several causes of action. 26 C.D. p. 39. (=Ann. Pr., 1908, p. 224).

General-(Concluded).

- (4) But the joinder in one suit of different causes of action against different individuals separately is not permissible under the law. 5 A. 163; 2 B.L.R. 53; 11 W.R. 397; 8 W.R. 64; 2 Ind. Jur. N.S. 245; 1 N.W. 75; 2 N.W. 153; 8 W.R. 364; 10 W.R. 187; 8 W.R. 461.
- (5) There is no authority expressed in, or to be implied from, the provisions of the Code, which would warrant the joinder in one suit of different and distinct causes of action under circumstances not mentioned in sub-rule (1). 2 C.L.J. 602; 23 C. 826.
- (6) This rule does not apply to suits for rent. 3 A.I.J. 610 = A.W.N. (1906), 253 = 29 A. 18.
- (7) The power given by the rule does not extend to an order for dismissal. Such an order would not be one for the separate disposal of the several causes of action; it would be an order preventing the disposal of them in the suit before Court. 8 B. 616; 20 M. 360; 9 C.W.N. 498; 2 A.L.J. 91; 14 A. 531; 12 A.W.N. 154.
- (8) The rule does not preclude the plaintiff from bringing a single suit, merely because some of the defendants were not interested in the subject-matter of the suit, when the cause of action to claim the relief sought in respect of two bonds was a single one. 5 P.R. 1896.

1. - "A plaintiff may unite.... several causes of action."

Causes of action—Definition and meaning.

- (1) The—means causes of action, which are distinct, upon the face of the facts as stated in the plaint itself or as proved at the hearing; if, upon the facts stated in the plaint, the causes of action stated therein cannot be joined together, then there would be misjoinder. They would not constitute different causes of action simply because they would be such according to the facts alleged by the defendant and not according to the facts alleged in the plaint. 7 Bom. L.R. 925.
  - (a) The words—comprise every fact which is material to be proved to enable the plaintiff to succeed. Cooke v. Gill, 8 C.P. p. 116 (An. Pr., 1908, p. 224).
  - (b) Every fact, which it would be necessary for the plaintiff to prove, if traversed, in order to support his right to the judgment of the Court.
    18 A. 131 [W.R. (1864), 81; 2 W.R. 219; 3 Agra 242; 8 C.P. 107; Read v. Brown, 22 Q.B.D. 128 (131); An. Pr., 1908, p. 224; 16 C. 98; 15 I.A. 156; 16 A. 165; 6 B. 266; 8 M. 361; 4 A. 261, refd. to).
  - (c) These facts must be so connected that, as regards evidence, etc., they can be "conveniently disposed of together," or any of them may be excluded. An. Pr., 1908, p. 224.
- (2) (a) If the various subjects as to which relief is sought are such as, if fit for discussion, can be properly dealt with in one suit, then they constitute one cause of action. L.R. 12 Eq. 547; L.R. 19 Eq. 56.
  - (b) It is a good test to ask whether the causes of action are such that, if separate actions were brought in respect of them, an order to consolidate would be made. Sandes v. Wildmith, (1893) 1 Q.B. p. 774, (An. Pr., p. 224).

I.-" A plaintiff may unite .. several causes of action." - (Continued).

- (3) It is not the title but the infringement of it that constitutes cause of action.
  13 W.R. 196; 91 P.R. 1898.
- (4) The cause of action arises on each definite and separate act, in defeasance of plaintiffs' rights, by alienation to each alienee or group of alienees and it is in reference to that act that the plaintiffs can claim relief. Each specific act of alienation does not give him a cause of action against the alienation for a several declaration of his right against them all. 1 P.R. 1905=83 P.L.R. 1905. (7 M.H.C. 290; 11 M. 106; 12 M. 234; 15 M. 19; 24 C. 540; 24 C. 831; 14 C. 435; 14 C. 681; 16 A. 279; 149 P.R. 1890; 24 P.R. 1899; 15 I.A. 156; 127 P.R. 1892; 43 P.R. 1897; 126 P.R. 1882; 80 P.R. 1883; 15 B. 289; 25 M. 785; 29 C. 871; 23 B. 266, R.)

2.- "The jurisdiction of the Court, etc."

Court to have jurisdiction over all causes of action.

The right to join, in one suit, two causes of action against a defendant, cannot be exercised unless the Court to which the plaint is presented has jurisdiction over both causes of action. 5 A. 178; 7 M. 171.

O. XVIII,

Only cert'ain claims to be joined for recovery of immoveable property.

- 4. No cause of action shall, unless with the leave of the Court 1, be joined with a suit for the recovery of immoveable property, except—
- (a) claims for mesne-profits or arrears of rent in respect of the property claimed or any part thereof;
- (b) claims for damages for breach of any contract under which the property or any part thereof is held; and
- (c) claims in which the relief sought is based on the same cause of action:

Provided that nothing in this rule shall be deemed to prevent any party in a suit for foreclosure or redemption from asking to be put into possession of the mortgaged property.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

Corresponding section—This rule corresponds to Rule (a) of S. 44 of Act XIV of 1882.

- (i) The words to obtain a declaration of title to immoveable property is omitted in para (1).
- (ii) The words "or any part thereof" in (a) is new.
- (iii) The provision (c) of R (a) of S. 44 is omitted and the omission is supplied by means of the proviso in the new Act.
- (iv) (c) in the rule is new.
- (v) The proviso is also new.

(General).

(1) Scope and applicability of the rule.

- (a) The rule does not forbid the joinder of several causes of action, entitling the plaintiff to the recovery of immoveable property, but a joinder, with such causes of action, of other causes of action of a different character except in the cases therein specified. 5 M. 161.
- (b) The rule only prohibits the joinder, with a suit for recovery of immoveable property, of a cause of action of a different nature. A.W.N. (1906), 54:17 A. 274; 25 A. 229; 23 A.W.N. 19; 5 M. 161.
- (c) There is nothing irregular in seeking to recover moveable and immoveable property in the same suit, if the cause of action is the same in respect of both. 10 M. 375; 14 M.L.J. 8; 31 C. 262=31 I.A. 10=8 C.W.N. 146.
- (d) Joining a claim for grain in a suit to recover possession of a house will be a misapplication, unless leave of the Court is obtained. 8 A. 191; 6 A.W.N. 46.
- (a) A suit for recovery of a mortgage-debt, with an alternative prayer for sale of the mortgaged property, is not a suit for recovery of immoveable property within the meaning of the rule. 14 M. 284.
- (f) The rule merely permits the joinder in one suit of a claim for recovery of immoveable property with one for mesne-profits in regard to the same property. It does not prohibit separate suits in respect of land and mesne-profits, which are distinct claims. 19 C. 615 (8 C. 598=10 C.L.R. 359: 17 C. 968: 12 C. 482, R); 11 M. 151, dissented from.
- (g) The rule is not applicable to a suit unless it is for the recovery of immoveable property. Even in those cases, defect of multifariousness is cured if leave of the Court is obtained previous to the bringing of the suit. 7 C.W.N. 353.
- (h) The rule does not apply to a case where the plaintiff mortgages sues for sale or foreclosure of the mortgaged properties combining in the same suit both the mortgages which he holds over separate properties. 25 A. 229; 1903 A.W.N. 19.
- (a) The words "cause of action" are not used in their ordinary meaning and are simply equivalent to "claim." The obscurity of S. 44 is no reason for disregarding the plain rules given in S. 48 of Act XIV of 1882.

  3 L.B.R. 56.
- (j) There is no bar to separate reliefs, arising from the same cause of action, being claimed in the same suit. 5 P.W.R. 1907=28 P.L.R. 1907 (10 M. 375 and 506; 23 B. 379; 190 P.R. 1898, F); 24 A. 553; 129 P.R. 1889, 78 P.R. 1902 and 87 P.R. 1909, dist.).
- (k) The rule forbids a joinder of declaration of title to immoveable property and a claim to recover damages on account of obstruction, slander and injury to property on a particular occasion. 17 M.L.J. 135 (31 I.A. 10, dist.).

(2) Appeal.

(a) No—lies from an order rejecting an application for leave to join another cause of action with a suit for the recovery of immoveable property But an order rejecting the plaint was a decree and was appealable.

S. A. 191; 6 A.W.N. 46.

(General)—(Concluded).

(b) When there is material error as to misjoinder in the trial of the suit, the duty of the appellate Court is to direct the Court of first instance to amend the plaint. 126 P.R. 1862; 80 P.R. 1883; 189 P.R. 1888. Y

(3) Objection as to misjoinder.

- (a) —should be taken in the Court of first instance and not for the first time on appeal. 5 B. 554; 16 A. 130; 14 A.W.N. 11.
  W
- (b) When objection is disallowed in the Court of first instance and the suit decreed, the proceedings of the lower Court imply and indicate that leave was given to the joinder. 2 A.W.N. 207.

(4) Limitation.

Where leave was not obtained for the institution of a suit for money due on accounts and for land and the suit was dismissed for misjoinder, the time occupied in the previous proceedings should be deducted in computing the period of—for instituting separate suits. 20 M. 48.

(5) Waiver.

The rule was intended for the protection of the defendant. The defendant may, by his conduct, waive the benefit of the rule. S C.L.J. 196.

1.—"Unless with the leave of the Court."

(General).

- (a) Under English rule leave should be obtained before writ is issued. 11 C.D. 905. Pilcher v. Hinds—Annual Practice. 1908, Vol. I, p. 226.

- (b) Leave may be given afterwards if good cause is shown. Musgrave v. Stevens, W.N.,1881, p. 168; Clark v. Wray, I.R. 31 C.D. 68; Wilmott v. Freehold House Jc. Co., 51 L.T. 552—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 227.
- (c) Leave is only required when another cause of action is to be joined. Where the other claims are mere machinery leave is not required. Gladhill v. Hunter, 14 C.D. p. 494—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 227. C
- (d) The law does not require a plaintiff at once to assert all his titles to property; or to be thereafter estopped from advancing them. A plaintiff may, with the leave of the Court, join causes of action; but he is nowhere compelled to do so. 6 A. 358.
- (e) One suit for both moveable and immoveable property without leave of the Court did not contravene the provisions of the rule. 2 A.W.N. 85; 24 A. 358; 11 A. 33, fol.; 10 M. 375 at p. 506, refd. to.
  E.
- (f) Suit for specific performance of an agreement to sell a share may be joined with a suit to recover a sum of money due from defendant on promissory notes. 7 C.L.R. 171; 6 C. 328.
- (g) Defect of misjoinder is cured, if the Court proceeds to the trial of the suit and does not reject the plaint or return it for amendment. 9 A. 221;
   7 A.W.N. 31.
- (h) Leave will be given, where it is sought to recover real and personal estate comprised in the same instrument. Cook v. Enchmarch, 2 C.D. 111— Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 228.

- (b) But as it to enforce a mortgage in which the adverse claims of persons, not privy to the mortgage and setting up a title paramount to that of the mortgagor and mortgagee, are sought to be investigated not maintainable. 3 C.L.J. 205=33 C. 425.
- (c) Joinder of compensation for portions of the land mortgaged which had been taken for public purposes in a suit for redemption of certain property usufructuarily mortgaged to defendant is barred. 1 A.W.N. 41.

E.—Mesne profits.

- (a) Where a plaintiff sued for possession of immoveable property upon a forfeiture and for rent in respect of the said property and got a decree, a subsequent suit for mesne profits is barred.
   17 A. 533 (3 A. 160;
   11 M. 151, refā. to).
- (b) Claims for the recovery of possession of immoveable property and for mesne profits are distinct claims. Joinder in one suit for recovery of immoveable property and mesne profits in regard to the same property is permissible. 19 C. 625.
- (c) Suit by plaintiff for mesne profits with respect to land for which he was then entitled to possession; subsequent suit for possession not maintainable. 9 O.C. 322. (19 C. 615; 17 A. 538; 9 O.C. 225; 3 A. 857, refd. to).
- (d) In a suit on title in which the recovery of immoveable property and mesne profits are claimed, the Court may order separate trials. 14 A. 531; 12 A.W.N. 154; 18 A. 219.

1.-"Unless with the leave of the Court."-(Concluded).

(General) - (Concluded).

F .- Partition.

- (a) Where, in a suit, cause of action arose in the refusal of three male defendants to recognise the right of a widow to succeed to her deceased husband's share in the family property, under a partition, which had not been completed by actual division, at the time of her husband's death, it would be a denial of justice to hold that relief could not be given in respect to moveable and immoveable property. 6 B.L.R. 1.
- (b) Where in a suit for—plaintiff claimed a share for himself and another share as heir of a deceased co-parcener, no misjoinder. 28 C, 785.

G.-Possession.

- (a) The rule refers to a suit formed upon an existing title, in which the plaintiff asks for a declaration of such title or possession. 6 C. 328; 5 C.L.R. 487; 7 C.L.R. 171.
- (b) Leave refused to join, in a suit for possession, claims to one-third share of immoveable property and one-third share of certain ornaments. 3 A.W.N. 37.
- (c) Leave of-Court necessary to join in a suit for possession of land, a claim for an injunction to restrain breach of covenant running with the land. Hambling v. Wallawi, W.N. 89, 133—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 228.X
- (d) An action to establish title and recover rent is not an action for the recovery of land; but if possession is asked for, then it becomes an action for the recovery of land. Gladhill v. Hunter, 14 C.D. 492— Annual Practice, p. 226.
- (e) Not so an action to restrain trespass or entry on certain premises. Spears Jc (Lim) v. Spear, 37 L.J.N.C. 578—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 226.Z

H.-Pre-emption.

- (a) Where a zemindari share and the sir land, held with it, were sold to the same vendee by two separate sale deeds executed on the same day, a suit to pre-empt both the zemindari and the sir land is no misjoinder. 17 A. 274; 15 A. 272.
- (b) Suit for specific performance of contract of sale and for pre-emption. Quaere.—Whether the causes of action could lawfully be combined in one suit. 96 P.R. 1895.

I.-Rent-Suit maintainable.

- (a) A suit for both enhancement of rent and arrears of rent at an enhanced rate. 5 C.W.N. 880.
- (b) A suit for a consolidated amount of rent of an agricultural holding and a right appurtenant to the holding.
  D

J.-Infant.

Suit by an infant, on attaining age, to set aside certain alienations made by his mother and guardian during minority, to recover the properties alienated, and to recover certain monies alleged to have come into the hands of the second defendant; claim with respect to the money bad, though no objection had been taken in the first Court and though a fresh suit on the claim might be barred. 5 M.L.J. 63.

K. - Property belonging to a religious institution.

Suit for possession of some ——which had been mortgaged more than 12 years before institution of suit, together with Rs. 400 on account of its rent, not bad for misjoinder. 35 P.W.R. 1908.

O. X

5. No claim by or against an executor, administrator or heir, as such, shall be joined with claims by or against him personally, unless the last mentioned claims are alleged to arise with reference to the estate in respect of which the plaintiff or defendant sues or is sued as executor, administrator or heir, or are such as he was entitled to, or liable for, jointly with the deceased person whom he represents.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

This rule exactly corresponds to S. 44, Rule B of Act XIV of 1882.

(1) General.

- (a) In suing an executor or administrator it frequently becomes a question whether he should be sued as legal personal representative or personally. Harding v. H, 17 Q.B.D. 446; Prince v. Haworth, (1905) 2 K.B 768—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 229.
- (b) Where the executor or administrator has been dealing with the assets or making contracts in his character of executor or administrator, it becomes a question whether the contracts, being personally entered into by him, he should be sued in his character of legal personal representative or in his personal character being left afterwards to get payment if he could out of the assets in the course of administration. Padwick v. Scott, 2 C.D. 748—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 229.
- (c) Those to whom the rule relates have the common characteristic that they owe their legal condition to the death of another. But there are others of whom this can be predicated, e.g., legatees or next-of-kin and yet they are not named in the rule. But the common characteristics of executors, administrators, and heirs, which is not shared by legatees and next-of-kin is that the former not only acquire a title from the deceased but they may represent him. In this is to be found the clue to the meaning of the rule. 8 Bom. L.R. 734 = 31 B. 105.
- (d) With reference to plea of misjoinder within the terms of the rule, the Court, having proceeded to trial of the suit and not having rejected the plaint or returned it for amendment or amended it, should dispose of it on the merits. 9 A. 221.
- (e) Personal claims against executors which have not any reference to the estate are not within this rule and may be struck out. Whitworth v. Darbishire, 41 W.R. 317—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 229. K

(2) Misjoinder.

- (a) Suit for the declaration that a certain portion of the estate in the hands of the first three defendants had been ancestral property, for an account and administration and for the delivery of jewels and ornaments. The claim relating to the ornaments was personal to the first plaintiff. 6 B. 390.
- (b) Suit comprising a claim for possession in private capacity and a claim for injunction in the capacity of a manager of a temple. 12 A.W.N. 111.M

- (3) Joinder-Yalid.
  - (a) Suit by the assignee of a Mahomedan widow for the recovery of part of the assignor's dower and of part of the assignor's late husband. 18 A. 256=16 A.W.N. 52. But see 6 B. 390.
  - (b) A claim may be made by or against the heir of a deceased Hindu as his representative and again, the same person may claim for his own benefit and in his own personal right property of which the beneficial ownership has devolved on him by inheritance. 8 Bom. L.R. 734 = 31 B. 105. See also 79 P.R. 1899.

O. X♥III, r. 1.

6. Where it appears to the Court that any causes of action

Power of Court to joined in one suit cannot be conveniently tried or order separate trials. disposed of together, the Court may order separate trials 1 or make such other order as may be expedient 2.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

- Corresponding section—This rule corresponds on the whole to second para of S. 45 of Act XIV of 1882.
  - (1) It seems that this rule to a certain extent embodies the provisions in Ss. 46 and 47.
  - (2) The words 'any causes of action joined in one suit' are new.

(General).

- (1) Under this rule the Court or a Judge may take the initiative and may order separate trials. Any defendant may apply, and the Court may confine the action to some of the causes of action or may exclude any cause of action. Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 225.
  - Or may order the pleading to be struck out as embarrassing. United Telephone & Co. v. Tasher, 59 L.T. 852—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 225. Q
- (2) The Court may order the plaintiff or plaintiffs to elect which cause of action shall be proceeded with. Universities of Oxford and Cambridge v. Gill, 1 Ch. 55—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 225.

1.-" Order separate trials."

General.

- As far as practicable, all matters in dispute between the parties should be disposed of in the same suit. 25 C. 371.
- (2) When there is misjoinder, the proper order of the Court should be to reject the plaint. Dismissal of the suit in against law. 14 C. 435. T
- (3) In case of misjoinder, the best course for the Court is to order separate trial in respect of each cause of action. 8 M. 75; 4 W.R. 100; 8 B. 616; 5 Maddock's R. 138; 2 N.W.P. 153; 5 B.H.C. 30; 3 N.W. 86; 20 W.R. 482.
- (4) Separate trial for mesne profits may be ordered in a suit on title in which the recovery of immoveable property and mesne profits are claimed 14 A. 531; 28 C. 826.

O. II, rr. 6 & 7] Act Y of 1908 (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE).

2.- "Make such other order as may be expedient."

(1) Rejection of plaint.

A plaint, against several defendants for separate causes of action in respect of which they are not jointly concerned. B.L.R. Sup. Vol. 731; 2 Ind. Jur. N.S. 216; 8 W.R. 15; 9 W.R. 490; 18 W.R. 464; 8 W.R. 64. W

(2) Consolidation of claims.

Where plaintiffs sued the defendant regarding the same subject matter, the right procedure is to consolidate the suits or to try each case separately.

To try only one case and regard the others as governed by it is against law. 15 W.R. 110; 20 W.R. 482.

(3) Joint suit-Procedure.

- (a) Where a joint suit was brought by two persons for a declaration that their shares in a property attached in execution were not liable to attachment on the ground of a previous partition between them and the judgment-debtor, and no objection was taken to the frame of the suit, it was held that the suit ought not to have been dismissed but that the plaintiffs ought to have been allowed to amend the plaint by striking out the name of one of them. 15 A. 380.
- (b) S. 45 of the old Code (=0.2, rr. 3 and 6) is meant to apply to cases in which questions arise as to the joinder or severance of several causes of action against the same defendant. The Judge can only strike out the name of party upon an application being made. 8 B, 616.
  Z
- (c) If it appears to the Court that the cause of action, alleged against one of the defendants alone, and that alleged against him jointly with other defendants, cannot be conveniently tried together, the Court may, under S. 45 (= O. 2, rr. 3 and 6), order the several causes of action to be tried separately. This power can only be exercised before the first hearing. 20 M. 360 (362).
- (d) Where a suit is so framed as to be bad for misjoinder of causes of action and of plaintiffs, the proper course is to return the plaint in order that the plaintiffs may elect which of them should proceed with the suit. 18 A. 131 (W.R. 1864, p. 81; 2 W.R. 219; N.W.P.H.O. 1868, p. 242; L.R. 8 C.P. 107; L.R. 22 Q.B.D. 128; L.R. 1894, A.C. 494; 15 I.A. 156; 16 A. 165; 6 B. 266; 8 M. 361; 4 A. 261, R.).
- 7. All objections on the ground of misjoinder of causes of Objections as to action shall be taken at the earliest possible misjoinder. opportunity 1 and, in all cases where issues are settled, at or before such settlement, unless the ground of objection has subsequently arisen, and any such objection not so taken shall be deemed to have been waived.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

This rule corresponds to S. 46 of Act XIV of 1882.—The words "on the ground of misjoinder of causes of action," "the earliest opportunity and in all cases before issues are settled" "unless the ground of objection has subsequently arisen" are new.

158 Act Y of 1908 (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE). [O. II, r. 7-O. III, r. 1-

- (1) Scope of the rule.
  - (a) The rule does not cover a case where several distinct causes of action are joined, as against several defendants, but only applies when there are several causes of action against the same defendant or the same defendants jointly. 27 M. 80.
    C
  - (b) Plaintiff, the owner of 23 patents, sued defendant for infringement, all the 23 patents being included in one writ. Held, that the plaintiff was not entitled to unite the 23 patents in one action, but must be limited to selecting a certain number of them, not exceeding three, in the first instance, as being "such of the causes of action as may be conveniently disposed of altogether." Saccharin Corp v. Wild, 1 Ch. 410; Saccharin Corp v. White, 88 L.T. 850—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 229.

I .- " Earliest possible opportunity."

(1) General.

- (1) The words "before the first hearing" in the corresponding section of Act XIV of 1882 (i.e., S. 46) are imperative. 7 A. 79 at p. 100.
- (2) The objection should be taken in the first Court. 5 B. 554; 9 A. 221; 16 A. 130.
- (3) Objection taken only in appeal will not be given effect to unless it is clearly apparent that there was a defect in the trial in consequence of misjoinder. 20 W.R. 240; 11 W.R. 273.
  G.
- (4) If objection is disallowed by lower Court, the High Court in special appeal will not interfere. 20 W.R. 147; 2 N.W.P. 443.
- (5) When there is misjoinder of causes of action and of defendants, but when only one out of several defendants takes the objection, and the first appellate Court dismisses the suit altogether and it is not shown is second appeal that the defect has affected the merits of the case or the jurisdiction of the Court (vide S. 578 of the old Code=S. 99 of the present Code), the High Court may reverse the first appellate Court's decree and remand the appeal for disposal ont he merits. 4 A. 168 (165). But see 6 A. 106.
- (6) If objection as to misjoinder is taken in the written statement, the Court must raise an issue and decide it. 8 W.R. 15; 9 B.L.R. 241.

(2) Function of an appellate Court when misjoinder allowed by lower Court.

It should dispose of the suit in the manner in which the lower Court ought to have disposed of it by returning the plaint for amendment. 6 M. 23

15 A. 380; cf. 4 A. 163 and 6 A. 106, supra. But see 7 A. 860. K.

ORDER III.

RECOGNIZED AGENTS AND PLEADERS.

1. Any appearance 1, application or act 2 in or to any Court, required or authorized by law to be made or done

Appearances, etc., may be in person, by recognized agent or by pleader.

required or authorized by law to be made or doneby a party in such Court, may, except, where otherwise expressly provided by any law for the time being in force, be made or done by the party in person 3, or by his recognized agent 4, or by a pleader duly appointed to act on his behalf 5:

Provided that any such appearance shall, if the Court so directs, be made by the party in person.

O. III, r. 1] Act Y of 1908 (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE).

(Notes).

(Old Act).

This rule corresponds to S. 36 of Act XIV of 1882-

- (1) The words, "by a party to a suit or appeal in such Court" in S. 36 of the old Code have been replaced by the words "to be made or done by a party in such Court,"
- (2) The words in the proviso "If the Court so directs" are placed between "shall" and "be" in the rule, instead of at the end as in the old Act..

1.-" Appearance."

(1) General.

- (1) To appear for a client in Court is to be present and represent him in the various stages of the litigation, at which it is necessary that the client should be present in Court, by himself or by some representative. 6 C. at p. 500.
  L
- (2) The word "appearance" does not mean actual presence before Judge in Court, e.g., of a mookhtear standing behind a pleader. 10 W.R. 355.M

(2) What constitutes appearance.

- (a) The defendant, having once appeared, failing to appear on a subsequent day. 5 I.A. 233 = 2 A. 67; 3 B.L.R. 121; 21 C. 269; but see 23 C. 738.N
- (b) When a pleader appears but has no instructions. 20 W.R. 53.
- (c) When a counsel leaves the Court after application for postponement on his chent's behalf is refused. 23 C. 991; 27 C. 529=4 C.W.N. 287.P
- (d) When a decree is passed on a solehnamah and the defendant afterwards says it is a forgery. 14 W.R. 299.
- (e) Written statement refused and issues framed in the presence of defendant's pleader. 1 B. 217.
- (f) A party present by pleader but no written statement filed. Marsh 32, 7 W.R. 295.
- (g) Party present in Court merely for applying for an adjournment, which is refused. 23 B. 414.
- (h) Vakil present and saying he had no time to prepare. 20 A. 294; 16 B. 23; 26 M. 267; cf. 20 A. 195 and 12 C. 603.

(3) Appearance, held not to be appearance.

- (a) Appearance by a pleader with a vakalatnamah but without any instructions to conduct the client's case. S A. 140; 20 A. 195.
- (b) A pleader appearing for a client but able, if not instructed, to go on with the case.
   12 C. 605; 4 B.H.O. 206; 6 B.L.R. 688; 22 A. 66; 8 B.L.R. 44; 8 O.W.N. 621.
- (c) Appearance by a pleader, appointed not by the party but by a third person. 18 A. 241.
  X
- (d) The mere filing of a vakalat on a previous day for the purpose of objecting to an attachment before judgment. 7 A. 538; 7 W.R. 81; 11 C.L.R. 537.
- (e) Mere appearance on a previous date of hearing, the party being absent at a later hearing. 23 C. 738; 19 A. 355; 20 B. 736; 6 W.R. 86.

1.-" Appearance."-(Concluded).

- (f) The absence of a defendant when he is prevented by the fraud of the plaintiff from appearing on the last day of hearing. 18 W.B. 457.
- (g) The absence of the plaintiff's pleader, when the case was decided. 10 W.R. 345.
- (h) Appearance by pleader merely to ask for an adjournment. 31 C. 159. C
- (i) Where a party appears by a pleader, who is instructed only to apply for an adjournment and whose duty ends when the adjournment is refused, and the party absents himself at later stages of the suit. 28 B. 414; 8 C.W.N. 621.
- (j) Where an appellant is refused postponement and the appeal is disposed of in his absence. 15 W.R. 143.

2 .-- " Act."

- To 'act' for a client in Court is to take, on his behalf, in the Court or in the offices of the Court, the necessary steps that must be taken in the course of litigation in order that his case might be properly laid before the Court. 6 C. at p. 500.
- The mere writing a petition for a party, who presents it in Court, is not acting for him. 9 B.L.R. 18.

3.-"By the party in person."

A person alleged to be a lunatic may appear by a vakil or in person. 7 C. 242 9 C.L.R. 13; (1864) W.R. 268.

4.-" Or by his recognized agent."

- Recognised agent not entitled to sue or to appear in his own name. 13 W.R.
   344; 5 B.L.R. 11.
- (2) An application, under S. 258 of Act XIV of 1882, is not legal, if it is made by the general attorney of a decree-holder, at a time when the decree-holder is resident within the jurisdiction of the Court. 26 A. 19 = 1908 A.W.N. 172; 28 A. 499 (1 A. 510, dist).
- (3) A recognised agent is incompetent to address the High Court as a suitor himself may do. 3 W.R. 18.
- (4) An application to sue in forma pauperis cannot generally be made by a recognised agent. 4 B.H.C. 91.
- (5) The filing of a plaint, not by a recognised agent within the meaning of S. 17 of Act VIII of 1859, is not proper. But the objection on such ground is purely technical. 15 W.R. 245.
- (6) The agent could not be prevented from executing the decree, which he had obtained as agent, if the objection is virtually waived. 12 B. 68.
- (7) A person holding a power of attorney may act on the power or not as he may think proper. 8 C. 317.
- (8) Presentation by agent of a pardahnashin woman is good, S. 8 of the Letters Patent notwithstanding. 24 A. 172; A.W.N. (1901), 213 (22 A. 33, dist.).

4.—"Or by his recognized agent."—(Concluded).

- (9) Filing and verification of a plaint by an agent, when party is residing within the jurisdiction of the Court not proper. 1 Agra 115.
- (10) Neither a pleader nor an agent, holding a power of attorney authorising him to act and appear for a party to a suit, can bring the suit to a close, by offering to be bound by oath of the opposite party in a particular form. 14 B. 455; 75 P.R. 1900; 18 P.R. 1891; 27 C. 229; 72 P.R. 1894, dist.
- (11) A mere power to sue does not authorise an agent to do more than employ a vakıl on the condition of paying him a reasonable remuneration. 10 B. 18.
- (12) A recognised agent is competent to act on his client's behalf in submitting a matter in dispute to arbitration. 64 P.R. 1870; 1 P.R. 1882; 48 P.R. 1882; 170 P.R. 1883.

5.-" By a pleader duly appointed to act on his behalf."

(1) Pleader of Court.

The words—do not simply mean a person duly appointed by the party in suit, but a pleader duly appointed, according to law regarding pleaders in force in the particular Court. 8 B. 105.

(2) Advocate.

He is not entitled to file an application in the Registrar's Office of the High Court. 13 W.R. 60.

- 2. The recognized agents 1 of parties by whom such appearances, applications and acts may be made or done are—
  - (a) persons holding powers-of-attorney, authorizing them to make and do such appearances, applications and acts on behalf of such parties;
  - (b) persons carrying on trade or business for and in the names of parties not resident 2 within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court within which limits the appearance, application or act is made or done, in matters connected with such trade or business only, where no other agent is expressly authorized to make and do such appearances, applications and acts.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

This rule corresponds to S. 37 of Act XIV of 1882-

- (i) The provisions contained in (b) and the last paragraph are omitted.
  - (ii) The words "general" "from parties..is made or done" are omitted in (a)

Objects and Reasons.

"The provisions of the existing Code, which are represented by this clause are in somewhat different terms and are limited to persons holding general power of attorney within certain local limits. The Committee think it necessary to preserve these limitations and have made the subclause general. It follows that the present clause 37 (b) becomes unnecessary. It is included in sub-clause (a)."

The last paragraph of S. 37 has been omitted as no longer necessary."
(See the Statement of Objects and Reasons).

Scope of the rule.

S. 432 of Act XIV of 1882 (= S. 85 of the present Code) does not prevent the institution of a suit by an Independent Prince in his own name and through a recognised agent other than one appointed under this rule. 10 C. 136; 19 A. 510; 17 A.W.N. 135; 165 P.R. 1889.

1.-"Recognised agents."

(1) General.

The manager or agent is one, who has an initiative and independent discretion, albeit possibly subject to principles and general orders prescribed for his guidance.

A mere servant employed to carry out orders to execute a particular commission, or a factor, or a common agent, who is not identified with the firm, for which he acts, is not such an agent. 4 B. 416.

(2) Recognised agents, who are.

- (a) An attorney, having a warrant of attorney of a defendant to receive a declaration or plaint, &c., in any action or suit to be brought for the recovery of certain moneys and to confess the same action or suit or else to suffer or consent to, a judgment or decree in the said action or suit by default or in any other way to pass or be pronounced against the defendant. Bourke Rep. O.C. 244.
- (b) A person holding a general power of attorney from a marwadi who had been absent upwards of four months. 6 B. 100.
- (c) The munim of a firm, which has ceased to carry on business, engaged in collecting the assets of such firm and otherwise winding up its affairs. 9 B.H.O. 427.
- (d) The daughter-in-law of plaintiff who is extremely ill acting as recognised agent without a written authority to present the plaint. 9 P.R. 1878.

(3) Who are not recognized agents.

- (a) A gumasta of a firm, when the business of the firm ceased before the institution of suit. 5 B.L.R. 11; 13 W.R. 344.
  B
- (b) An agent of a party residing within the jurisdiction of the Court. 1 Agra 115.
- (c) The munim of a firm, when the partner is present within the jurisdiction.

  Both of them should join together in presenting a plaint or appointing a pleader. 6 B.H.C. 150.

F

- (d) A mere mukhtar, unless specially authorised. 17 W.R. 389.
- (e) A political agent. 11 B. 53.

1. - "Recognised agents." - (Concluded).

- (f) The donee of a power having mere authority to look after a case, 12 C. 173 at p. 178 or having mere power to sue. 10 B. 18.
- (g) A person holding a general power of attorney at a time when the principal is resident within the jurisdiction. 23 A. 499; 26 A. 19=A.W.N. (1903), 172.
- (h) An agent carrying on business at Lyallpur in the name of the partners of a firm resident in England. 109 P.R. 1907 = [19 C. 678; A.W.N. (1899), 55; A.W.N. (1891), 152, R.].
- (a) Partner under Cl. 1. S. 17 of Act VIII of 1859. 1 Hyde 97, but see contra 7 B.L.R. 58. J
- (j) A Bombay firm simply employed by the owners of a Ship visiting Bombay. 7 B.H.C. 159: 8 B.H.C. 159.

2.-" Not resident."

Meaning of the term.

- (a) The term—covers every absence which may reasonably be supposed to have been within the contemplation of the Legislature in using that term.
  6 B. 100.
- (b) "Reside" is an ambiguous and elastic expression and has to be interpreted with the object and character of the provision in which it occurs. A liberal construction should be placed upon the term "non-resident." 14 M.L.J. 223.
- (c) The term 'Non-resident' signifies a person, who is not, at the time when some act is done by the agent, present within the jurisdiction of the Court. It may include a person temporarily absent. 2 A.L.J. 626 = A.W.N. (1905), 221 = 28 A. 135.
- 3. (1) Processes served on the recognized agent ¹ of a party shall be as effectual as if the same had been served on recognized agent. on the party in person, unless the Court otherwise directs.
- (2) The provisions for the service of process on a party to a suit shall apply to the service of process on his recognized agent.

$(\mathbf{Notes}).$

(Old Act).

This rule corresponds to S. 38 of Act XIV of 1882-

The words "or appeal" are omitted in sub-rule (1).

The words "of this Code" are omitted in sub-rule (2).

1.-"Processes served on recognised agents, etc."

Service of process on recognised agent.

(1) Where one of several representatives of a deceased judgment-creditor applies for the execution of a decree, a general power of attorney is not necessary, but it is sufficient if the applicant is authorised, under S. 115 of Act VIII of 1859, to act for the other representatives. 2 B. 109; 2nd Ed., 103. 1.- "Processes served on recognised agents, etc."-(Concluded).

- (2) Service of notice on the parties and not on their pleaders, is not barred by this rule. W.R. 1864 (Mis.), 21.
- (3) A person holding a power of attorney, even if authorised by the power to appear and defend suits, is at liberty to refuse to accept service of summons. 8 C. 317.
- (4) Service upon an attorney's clerk of an order directed to be served on the attorney is not good. 2 Hyde 117.
  R
- 4. (1) The appointment of a pleader 1 to make or do any appearance, application or act for any person shall be in writing 2, and shall be signed by such person or by his recognized agent or by some other person duly authorized by power-of-attorney to act in this behalf.
- (2) Every such appointment, when accepted by a pleader 3, shall be filed in Court⁴, and shall be considered to be in force until determined with the leave of the Court, by a writing signed by the client or the pleader, as the case may be, and filed in Court, or until the client or the pleader dies or until all proceedings in the suit are ended so far as regards the client.
- (3) No advocate of any High Court established under the-Indian High Courts Act, 1861, (24 and 25 Vict. c 104), or of any Chief Court, and no advocate of any other High Court who is a barrister shall be required to present any document empowering him to act.

(Notes).

(Old Act).

This rule corresponds to S. 39 of Act XIV of 1882-

The words "for any person" "and shall be signed...to act in this behalf" are new in sub-rule (1).

The words "Every," "when accepted by a pleader," "determined," "or the pleader as the case may be," "until the suit is," in sub-r. (2) are new.

The words "under the Indian High Courts Act, 1861," "or of the Chief Court ....Sind" in sub-r. (8) are new.

Objects and Reasons.

- "The Committee are uncertain whether it is necessary to make a reference to the Court of the Judicial Commissioner of Sindh. The point is one for the Government of Bombay."
- "They also suggest, in the alternative, that the privilege now enjoyed by all Advocates, enrolled in Chartered High Courts, shall be extended to those Advocates enrolled in non-Chartered High Courts, who are members of the English or Irish bar or of the Faculty of Advocates in Scotland."—(See the Statement of Objects and Reasons).

4.- "Shall be filed in Court, etc."-(Concluded).

(3) Delegation of authority.

- (a) A pleader may hand over his brief to another. 9 A. 613 (Mis. case No. 1); 9 O.C. 65.
- (b) The applicant's duly appointed pleader could not delegate his authority to the pleader of his co-defendant, when the applicant was not present to accede to such delegation. 20 B. 293

(4) Neglect of pleader.

—should not be visited on an innocent client when it is in the power of the Court to mitigate the result by the exercise of a little indulgence.

11 C.L.R. 11.

(5) Advocate of the High Court.

He can perform, on behalf of a suitor, all the duties that may be performed by a pleader, subject to his exemption in the matter of a vakalatnamah and to any rules, which the High Court may make regarding him. 9 A. 617.

5. Any process served on the pleader of any party or left at the Service of process office or ordinary residence of such pleader, and on pleader. whether the same is for the personal appearance of the party or not, shall be presumed to be duly communicated and made known to the party whom the pleader represents, and, unless the Court otherwise directs, shall be as effectual for all purposes as if the same had been given to or served on the party in person.

(Notes) (Old Act).

This rule corresponds to S. 40 of Act XIV of 1882-

The word "Processes" is changed into "Any process."

The words "relative to a suit or appeal," "in relation to the suit or appeal" are omitted.

(General).

S. 40 of Act XIV of 1882 (=this rule) applies as much to advocates as to any other persons coming within the definition of pleader in S. 2. 7 O.C. 303.

1 .- " Service of process on pleader."

- '(a) Service of summons on a pleader calling on a party to appear and give evidence is good service. 6 B.H.C. 14.

ORDER V.

ISSUE AND SERVICE OF SUMMONS.

Issue of Summons.

1. (1) When a suit has been duly instituted a summons may be issued 1 to the defendant to appear and answer the claim on a day to be therein specified:

Provided that no such summons shall be issued 2 when the defendant has appeared at the presentation of the plaint and admitted the plaintiff's claim.

- (2) A defendant to whom a summons has been issued under sub-rule (1) may appear 3—
  - (a) in person, or
  - (b) by a pleader duly instructed and able to answer all' material questions relating to the suit, or
  - (c) by a pleader accompanied by some person able to answer all such questions.
- (3) Every such summons shall be signed by the Judge or such officer as he appoints, and shall be sealed with the seal of the Court.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule corresponds to S. 64 of Act XIV of 1882-

- (i) For the words "When the plaint has been registered and the copies or concise statements required by S. 58 have been filed" the words "When a suit has been duly instituted" are substituted.
- (ii) "A defendant to whom a summons has been issued under sub-rule (1) may appear" is new.
- (iii) The provisions as to summons, in this rule, have been re-arranged for the sake of greater clearness.

1.-"Summons may be issued."

(1) Issue of summons.

Summons ought not to be ordered to issue after the lapse of the period of limitation. 5 C. 126.

(N.B.)—It is presumed that this decision is no authority at present.

(2) Minor.

The summons must issue whether the defendant is a minor or otherwise.

14 C. 204.

(3) Fresh summons.

(a) LAn application for a fresh summons to appear should be issued on petition showing (1) that a fruitless endeavour has been made on the part of the plaintiff to serve the first summons and (2) that it was not by any default of his that he had failed. 1 Ind. ## PLEADINGS GENERALLY 1.

Pleading.

1. "Pleading" shall mean plaint or written statement.

(Notes).

Old Act.

1.-"Pleadings generally."

GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF THE ORDER.

(1) Construction of Indian pleadings.

- (a) Pleadings in Indian Courts should not be construed with the same strictness as they are in the English Courts. 21 W.R. 59; 6 W.R. (P.C.), 1 = 2.M.I.A. 344; 7 W.R. (P.C.), 8=3 M.I.A. 383; 13 W.R. 248; 6 A 406; 4 A.W.N. 140=6 A. 406.
- (b) The Courts in India are not governed by the technical rules of pleading, which obtain in Courts administering English Law. 7 W.R. 39. T

[But the English rules of pleading are imported in the present Code.]

- (c) The strict rule, that averments not traversed, must be taken to be admitted, is not applicable to Indian Courts. 11 C.W.N. 225=5 C.L.J. 181=34 C. 57. Contra 53 P.W.R. 1907.
- (d) Mofussil pleadings should not be construed strictly. 6 Bom. L.R. 475. Y
- (c) Under the Civil Procedure, parties are not bound so strictly to the pleadings as in any equity suit under the old Procedure. Bourke A.O.C. 48. W
- (f) The actual form of the suit is of little consequence. The substance and merits of the case should be kept in view, and not merely the words in the plaint. 111 P.R. 1900.

(2) Objects of pleading.

The object of every system of pleadings is to fix the parties to certain specific issues to enable them to be prepared to answer the questions raised by those issues. Even though a point is not specifically raised in the pleadings, a decision may be given on the point, if the parties have full notice of that point and, if there is an issue about it. 22 C. 324=22 I.A. 4.

(3) Decree of non-suit.

The Courts in India have no power to make a decree of non-suit. 7 A.W.N. 254=9 All. 690.

2. Every pleading shall contain, and contain only, a state
Pleading to state ment in a concise form of the material facts 1 on which the party pleading relies for his claim or defence, as the case may be, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved2, and shall, when necessary, be divided into paragraphs, numbered consecutively. Dates, sums and numbers shall be expressed in figures.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule is new-It may be compared to S. 114 of Act XIV of 1882-

1,-" Every pleading shall contain...material facts."

(1) Facts and not law.

- (a) Where the words "complained of" were not necessarily actionable and there was no innuendo, the suit should be dismissed. 62 L.T. 121. A
- (b) If a plaintiff's cause of action or his title to sue, depends on a statute, he must plead all the facts necessary to bring him within the statute. 16 C.D. 121; 26 C.D. 778—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I. p. 248.
  B
- (c) The Code of Civil Procedure does not deal with forms of action; it requires a statement of facts in the plaint, and that the plaint should disclose a cause of action. 11 P.R. 1891.
- (d) Neither party should plead to any matter of law set out in his opponent's pleading. (1793) 2 Black H. 182—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. 1, p. 239.

2.- "But not the evidence .. proved."

(1) Accounts.

In every case in which the cause of action is a stated or settled account, the account should be alleged with particulars; but in cases in which a statement of account is relied on, only by way of evidence, or admission of another cause of action, the account should not be alleged in the pleadings. Eng. O. 20, r. 8.

(2) Admissions.

It is wrong to set out in the pleadings admissions made by the opponents. (1878) 7 C.D. 473; (1884) 49 L.T. 772—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 238.

3. The forms in Appendix A when applicable, and where they O. XIX, r. are not applicable forms of the like character, as nearly as may be, shall be used for all pleadings 1.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule is new.

(General Principles).

- There should be no variance between the plaint and the decree. 97 P.R. 1868.
- (1-a) The rule, that the decree should be in accordance with what is alleged, is intended to prevent surprise, and is not applicable to a case in which the defendant's own admission is adopted as the basis of the decision. 11 M. 357.
- (2) The determination in a cause must be founded upon a case, either to be found in the pleadings, or involved in, or consistent with, the case thereby made. 14 C. 801=14 I.A. 168; 2 Ind. Jur. N.S. 87=6 W.R. (P.C.), 57=11 M.I.A. 7; 18 W.R. 274.
- (3) No decree should be given in favour of a party on a point, not raised in the pleadings nor embodied in an issue.
   8 C. 975=11 C.L.R. 399; 12 W.R. 204; 21 W.R. 182; 22 W.R. 216; 13 W.R. 464; 15 W.R. 363; 18 W.R. 384; 23 W.R. 404.
- (3-a) A Court should not base its judgment on facts not found either in the plaint or in the written statement. 36 P.R. 1879; 1 A.W.N. 158; 7 A.W.N. 130=8 A. 234; 2 N.W.P. 182.
- (4) As a general rule the plaintiff is not entitled to reliefs not founded on the pleadings; but where, on the pleadings, issues and evidence, the relief is clear, the general rule does not apply. 6 B.L.R. 288.
  Z
- (5) A plaintiff should not be precluded from basing his claim upon a ground which, though not referred to in the plaint, was, clearly and in express terms, put in issue at the very beginning. 78 P.R. 1904.
- (6) A plaintiff, who claims too much or fails to admit reasonable deductions from his claim, should not be deprived of that to which he is legally entitled. 1904 A.W N. 166=1 A.L.J. 476=27 A. 75; 10 C.W.N. 626=3 A.L.J. 860=3 C.L.J. 481=1 M.L.T. 148=8 B.L.R. 397=16 M.L.J. 269=28 A. 482 (P.C.).
  B.

General Principles-(Concluded).

- (7) A man cannot be deprived of his rights as they exist, merely because he put forward rights that did not exist. 6 B.L.R. 594; 1903 A.W.N. 18 = 25 A. 256.
- (8) The plaintiff cannot prove a different title, from that which he alleged in the plaint. 15 W.R. 84; 12 W.R. 487; 11 W.R. 550; 24 W.R. 444; 25 W.R. 315; 12 W.R. 80. Contra 22 W.R. 391; 10 W.R. 360. D
- (9) Where a plaintiff alleges one cause of action and proves another, his suit must be dismissed. 10 W.R. 242.
- (10) When a plaint is defective, it cannot be supplemented by subsequent statements. 22 A.W.N. 35.
- (11) When a plaintiff asks for one thing, he must not be given a quite different relief, because he proves that he is entitled to it. 3 B.L.R. Ap. 111= 12 W.R. 69; 12 W.R. 248; 15 W.R. O.C. 7; 10 W.R. 243; 20 B. 569, 627; 16 W.R. 311; 19 W.R. 195; 12 W.R. 248, 107.
- (12) A relief can be granted, though upon grounds different from those set up in the plaint. 22 C. 589.
- (13) When a Court sees that a person is entitled to a relief which he asks, although on grounds different from those in the plaint, it should give that relief. 7 A.W.N. 49.
- (14) If the prayer in the plaint does not accurately describe the relief sought, the Court can decree the proper relief. 1904 A.W.N. 174=1 A.L.J. 435=27 A. 97 (F.B.); 2 C.L.J. 178.
- (15) A relief which is not claimed by a person either in the plaint or in the course of trial of his suit, and the granting of which would affirm the very opposite of the plea claimed in the plaint should not be decreed to him. (1877) S.C. Part 10, No. 19.
- (16) A general prayer for relicf on behalf of one plaintiff does not include a relief for other plaintiffs. 8 C.W.N. 408=31 C. 433.
- (17) A general prayer for "any other relief" in the plaint must be taken to mean some relief arising out of the cause of action. 1904 A.W.N. 207 =1 A.L.J. 628 = 27 A. 174.
  M
- (18) The plaintiff is bound by his case set up in the plaint.
  - Where the plaintiff stated in his plaint that a tenancy of the defendant under him arose on a certain date was not allowed to vary this date. 6 O.C. 119.

1.-" No pleading shall,....the same."

(1) Accounts.

- (a) In a suit on accounts stated, which could not be proved, the plaintiff was allowed to recover advances made to the defendant, within three years. 2 A.W.N. 93; Agra F.B. 47; 1 N.W.P. 28. Contra 15 W.R. 24.
- (b) When a settlement of accounts was not proved, the plaintiff was not allowed to prove the original debts. 1 C.W.N. 710.

(2) Acknowledgment of liability.

An—under S. 19, Limitation Act, could not be first taken in second appeal. 6 C.W.N. 218; 9 C.W.N. 56. 1.—"No pleading shall,.....the same."—(Continued).

(3) Adoption.

- (a) Where, in a suit on an—, the parties go on an issue in the lower Courts only on the basis of Hindu Law, they cannot in appeal allege that they are governed by a special custom. 53 P.W.R. 1908.
  R
- (b) A plaintiff, suing to establish his rights as an adopted son and failing therein, cannot claim relief on the ground of being an heir. W.R. (F.B.),
   4. Contra 11 M. 367.

(4) Advancement, presumption of.

Where property is purchased in the name of another and the question of advancement is raised, it ought to be pleaded in the plaint. 5 Bom. L.R. 783=27 B. 103 at p. 112; 5 B.L.R. 991.

(5) Adverse possession.

A plea of——should not be allowed when it is not taken in the pleadings.

3 C.L.J. 316.

(6) Agent.

The plaintiff sued the defendant, who was his agent, for some moneys, which he entrusted to another man whom he appointed as sub-agent, without authority from the plaintiff. When it was proved that the sub-agent was appointed with authority, the defendant could not be made liable, on the ground that he did not appoint a proper person. 5 All. 456-3 A.W.N. 99.

(7) Agreement opposed to public policy.

The plea of an—cannot be for the first time pleaded in second appeal.

25 B. 10 at p. 19.

(8) Alternative cases.

It is open to a defendant to set up alternative defences even in the appellate Court and the plaintiff will not be allowed to object if he is not prejudiced. 8 C.L.J. 289.

(9) Appeal.

- (a) A new case cannot be set up in appeal which is not stated in the original Court. 10 B.L.R. 768; 10 B.L.R. 574; 58 P.W.R. 1908; 10 B.L.R. 126 (P.C.); 2 A.L.J. 485=A.W.N. (1905), 125; A.W.N. (1905), 90; 88 P.R. 1905=179 P.L.R. 1905; 28 M. 413; 3 C.L.J. 560=1 M.L.T. 175 (P.C.).
- (b) An appellant before the Privy Council can succeed on a new case, if the issues are sufficiently wide to cover that case, if the foundation has been laid for it in the Courts below, and if the other party is not taken by surprise. 2 C.L.J. 194=9 C.W.N. 1009=8 O.C. 317=15 M.L.J. 352=27 A. 634 (P.C.).

(10) Appeal ground.

A ground of appeal taken in the lower appellate Court and not argued can be pressed in second appeal. 3 M.L.J. 293.

(11) Appellate Court.

An appellate Court should not raise a new case in appeal, which the parties have not set up in the first Court. 29 B. 1 (P.C.); 9 C.W.N. 460; 89 P.R. 1905 4 M.L.J. 15.

(12) Argument.

In a suit to set aside a mortgage by a widow on the ground that there was no consideration, the plaintiff was not allowed to plead in argument that, even though there was consideration, the mortgage was not valid, as there was no necessity for it. 4 O.C. 347.

(13) Betrothal.

In a suit for enforcing a contract of—, damages cannot be awarded for breach of the contract. 5 N.W. 102.

(14) Bond, suit on.

Plaintiff sued on a bond which recited that the defendant executed it after going through the accounts of the plaintiff. The Court found that the defendant did not execute the bond. The plaintiff was not allowed to recover on an account stated. 32 P.R. 1876.

(15) Breach of trust.

When the plaint states that there was a negligent—, it should not be changed into a fraudulent——. 29 L.R. Ir. 364.

(16) Confirmation of possession.

In a suit for—where it is found that the plaintiff has falsely alleged that he was in possession, no decree for possession could be passed. 31 C. 319 at p. 331.

(17) Contract-Illegal consideration.

Even if the illegality of the consideration is not pleaded by the defendant, the Court must take it into consideration. 1904 A.W.N. 238=1 A.L.J. 632=27 A. 266.

(18) Declaratory suits.

- (a) In a suit for declaration that a property belonged to the judgment-debtor as absolute owner, the plaintiff was not allowed to succeed on the ground that the defendant had an attachable interest in the property. 17 B. 772.
- (b) The plaintiff sued to recover property, on the ground that the property was joint between him and the widow's deceased husband. When this failed, he could not seek to come in as a reversioner. 17 W.R. 98. J
- (c) In a suit for declaration of possession, the Court should not give him any relief, when it is found that the allegation, that the plaintiff was in possession, is false. 4 C. 46.

(19) Deeds.

- (a) In a suit for cancellation of a sale-deed on the ground that there was no consideration, the Court should not decree payment of purchase money. 54 P.R. 1866.
- (b) Suit for cancellation of a deed on the ground of insanity. The insanity not being established, the Court cannot set aside the deed on the ground of the weakness and helplessness of the plaintiff or on the ground of undue influence. 31 I.A. 285=27 A. 1 (P.C.); 10 C.W.N. 570=3 A.L.J. 353=3 C.L.J. 484=8 Bom. Striking out pleadings.

Striking out pleadings.

Striking out pleading which may be unnecessary 3 or scandalous 4 or which may tend to prejudice, embarrass 5 or delay the fair trial of the suit.

0. XIX.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This is new. But may be compared to S. 53 (b) (2) of Act XIV of 1882.

Application to be made by whom.

One or both of the parties may apply to the Court to exercise the power conferred by this rule. They must show that they are prejudiced by the irregularity. See Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, pp. 266, 277. W

2.- "At any stage."

Power when to be exercised.

The power under this rule should be exercised promptly and before the judgment. 62 L.J. Ch. 342—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 266. X

3.-" Unnecessary."

(1) Plaint containing matters already adjudicated upon.

If a plaint not only asks for relief, which a Court can afford, but seeks to open up matters already adjudicated upon, in another suit, the proper course is to amend the suit by striking off such issues, which have already been adjudicated upon. W.R. (F.B.), 41=Marsh 127=1 Ind. Jur. O.S. 44=1 Hay. 269.

(2) Plaint unnecessarily prolix.

A plaint, which is unnecessarily prolix or argumentative or which contains irrelevant matter, ought to be rejected by the Court, or to be returned for amendment. 8 W.R. 295.

(3) Harmful matter to be struck out.

The mere fact that a statement in the pleading is unnecessary will not justify the Court in striking it out. It must be harmful also. $4 L.T. Jo. 45; 57 L.T. 860; 3 R.P.C. 291—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I. p. 267.

4 .-- " Scandalous."

(1) Disrespectful pleadings.

Pleadings disrespectful to the Court are scandalous, and ought to be expunged. 22 M. 155.

(2) Misconduct.

If the statement in the pleadings imputes any —to the other party, it should be struck out, 49 L.T. 772; 55 L.T. 348; (1897) 1 Ch. 35-Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 268.

(3) Irrelevant matter.

Any matter by itself scandalous should be expunged, if they are not relevant. If they are relevant, it should be retained, but unnecessary details should not be given. 12 Sim. 363; L.R. 13 Eq. 443; 8 C.D. 653; 6 Q.B.D. 196; 45 L.J.C.P. 663; 1 Times Rep. 291; 94 L.T. Jo. 12; 27 W.R. 529-Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 268.

(4) Test.

The-to find out whether scandalous matter should be allowed, is to see if it would be admissible in evidence to prove any allegation, which is material for the relief prayed. L.R. 8 Ch. 499; 3 C.D. 376; 24 Q.B. D. 630-Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. 1, p. 268.

5.-" Embarrass."

.(A) Pleading will be embarrassing.

- (a) If the party does not clearly state how much he admits and how much he denies. 4 Times Rep. 574-Annual Practice, 1908, Vol I, p. 268.
- (b)-if the party does not clearly state if he is denying the facts, or is objecting to their validity in law. 4 C.P.D. 25-Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 268.
- (c)-if the defendant pleads jurisdiction generally, and not with reference to particulars. 23 (J.B.I). 388; 8 Times Rep. 58-Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 269.

(B) Pleading will not be embarrassing.

- (a)—if it is merely prolix. 2 Q.B.D. 630—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 269.
- (b) A statement by the other party, that a particular statement is untrue, will not make the pleading embarrassing. 40 L.T. 544-Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I. p. 269.
- (c)—even if it contains any number of inconsistent defences. 33 O.D. 492; 3 Ex. D. 251 (255)—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 269.
- (d)—if the pleading does not contain all the details, which are necessary. 4 Q.B.D. 139; 22 C.D. 481; 26 C.D. 778-Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 269.
- 17. The Court may at any stage of the proceedings 1 allow either party to alter or amend his pleadings in such Amendment manner 2 and on such terms as may be just 3, and pleadings. all such amendments shall be made 4 as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real questions in controversy between the parties.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule corresponds to S. 53 (b) of Act XIV of 1882 but is more general and wide.

Difference between the old and new sections.

- (1) An amendment by the party may be allowed at any time according to the new rule whereas, according to the old section an amendment by the party can be allowed only before the settlement of issues.
- (2) The payment of costs by the party amending to the other party is obligatory in the old section which it is discretionary according to the new rule.
- (3) Again according to the old section making amendments is left to the discretion of the Court whereas according to this rule all amendments which are necessary for the determining the real question at issue should be made.
- (4) There is no provision in the old Code to amend a written statement. According to this rule both the plaint and written statement can be amended.
- (5) The words used in the present rule are "alter or amend" whereas the word "amend" only is used in the old section.
- (6) The new rule is more wide in that it leaves to the Court to decide on what terms the amendments should be allowed. Whereas according to the old rule the Court had power to decide only with regard to what costs the amending party was to pay.

General Principles.

- (1) The general rule is that any amendment allowed must be such as is either raised in the pleadings or is consistent with the case as originally laid, and that the state of facts and the equities raised and the grounds of relief originally alleged and pleaded should not be departed from. 11 M.I.A. 7; 14 C. 801 = 14 I.A. 168; 8 C. 871 (875); 5 A. 456 = 2 I.A. 100 (107); 23 W.R. 208; 10 W.R. 248, 10 B. 461 = 13 I.A. 66.
- (2) Where, by the proposed amendment, no new claim is introduced, nor a claim founded on a new cause of action, and the opposite party is not prejudiced, an amendment of the plaint may be allowed. 9 C.W.N. 421=32 C. 582.
- (3) The object of allowing amendments is to avoid multiplicity of suits. 25 C. 371.
- (4) An amendment, which radically transforms the claim, cannot be made under S. 53, Act XIV of 1882 and certainly not in appeal. L.B.R. (1898-1900), p. 578.
- (5) The direction in S. 53 of the old Act that an amendment should be made before the issues are framed is only directory and not mandatory. An amendment, which does not alter the cause of action, can be made at any time. Even if an amendment is made contrary to the terms of S. 53 of the old Act, if the amendment does not affect the merits of the case and the jurisdiction of the Court, it is only an irregularity which can be cured. 186 P.R. 1882.

General Principles .- (Concluded).

- (6) When parties are ignorant of their rights and of the law, considerable freedom ought to be allowed in the amendment of plaints. U.B.R. 1892-1896, p. 573.
- (7) Amendments should not be allowed if it will affect the rights of third parties. 20 W.R. 17.
- -(8) When a new trial is granted under S. 21 of Act XI of 1865, the plaint can be amended. 110 P.R. 1882.
- (9) The right to amend is discretionary. 27 M. 80.
- (40) The amendment is in the discretion of the Court and not the right of the suitor in all circumstances. 21 B. 570.

- (11) The Court should exercise its discretion and pass an order on the petition for amendment. 1906 A.W.N. 220.
- (12) Where a plaint is returned for amendment and the plaint is accordingly amended, it cannot afterwards be again returned for amendment. 2 A. 671.
- (13) It is not intended by the Legislature that any necessary amendment should take any other form than that of an amendment in writing on the face of the plaint. 14 B. 581.
- (14) An amendment may be made on separate paper. 13 A.W.N. 225.
- (15) Amendments can be made by oral statements of the plaintiff or his agent. 7 P.R. 1896.
- (16) The Court can examine the plaintiff's pleader to see if there are any grounds for amendment. 15 C. 533=15 I.A. 119.
- (17) A plaint may be amonded upon subsequent application, with reference to an objection taken when it was filed. Bourke O.C. 273.
- (18) A defendant is bound by all amendments in pleadings and he is not entitled to any notice of amendments. 3 C.W.N. 375.

1.-"The Court may at any stage....proceedings."

A .- Amendment by original Court.

(1) General principles.

- (a) When the opposite party cannot be recouped by costs, the amendment should not be allowed. 16 Q.B.D. 180; 57 L.J. Ch. 209; 41 C.D. 568; 43 C.D. 187—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I. p. 353.
- (b) Where the defendant sought to amend his statement six months after suit, saying that a local authority and not he, was liable, the period, within which the local authority could have been sued, having expired, the amendment should not be allowed. 16 Q.B.D. 178 (C.A.)—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 353.
- (c) Leave to amend a defence by adding a plea, which was no answer to the action, was refused. 8 Times Rep. 225—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 354.
- (d) Leave to amend by adding unnecessary counterclaim was refused. W.N. (1889), 222—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 354.

(5) After judgment.

Amendment by a Court can be made only before its judgment and not after.

19 B. 303.

N.B.—It should be noted that under the present Code (O.VI, r. 17, supra), the Court may allow amendment at any stage of the proceedings.

1.—"The Court may at any stage....proceedings."—(Concluded).

B.-Amendment by first appellate Court.

(1) General principles.

- (a) An amendment ought not to be permitted on appeal, when it may create a necessity for fresh written statement and for fresh issues. 2 M.L.J. 29; 6 M L.J. 139.
- (b) A plaint cannot be amended in an appellate Court. 1 B.L.R.A.C. 212; 11 W.R. 40; 18 W.R. 424; 56 W.N. 273.

EXAMPLES.

- (a) In a suit for arrears of rent, it having been found that there were other persons who were entitled to the rent, an amendment adding the other parties could not be made in appeal. 8 C. 277.
- (b) Suit for redemption cannot be amended into a suit for setting aside sale when the suit is before the appellate Court. 25 B. 337. But see the following cases.—

(2) Amendment allowed.

- (a) The addition of a prayer ancillary to the principal one does not alter the character of the suit and such an amendment could be made even by the appellate Court. 5 C.W.N. 273.
- (b) An appellate Court is competent, at any stage, to allow objections to be taken to a defect in plaint. 2 B.L.R.A.C. 212=11 W.R. 40.

An——can be supplied by stating it subsequently. 7 A.W.N. 354; 3 Agra 33, 218.

EXAMPLE.

Where the date of the commencement of the kabuliyat is not given, the plaint should be amended. B.L.R. (F.B.), 974=10 W.R. (F.B.), 14.R

(4) Insufficient disclosure of cause of action.

- (a) Where the plaint does not sufficiently disclose the cause of action, and a cause of action exists, the proper course is to amend the plaint. Where, in a particular case, the plaintiff is not allowed to amend, he is at liberty to prove any cause of action, which is not inconsistent with the plaint. 12 W.R. 313.
- (b) If there is not sufficient disclosure of cause of action in the plaint, the plaint should be amended. U.B.R. (1892-1896), p. 251.

EXAMPLES.

- (i) Where in a suit for misappropriated property or for value, the plaint omitted to state that there was a demand and refusal of the property, the plaintiff was allowed to amend the plaint by supplying the omission.
  7 M.H.C. 400.
  II
- (ii) Where the plaintiff, by his right of inheritance, sued for the recovery of a certain sum of money, and the defendant alleged a sale of such right to himself, the plaint was allowed to be amended so as to state that the sale was invalid owing to the fraud of the defendant. 6 B. 309. But see the next case,

B.-Starting or altering cases.-(Concluded).

(iii) Suit for malicious prosecution. Plaintiff sued the first defendant for prosecuting, and second defendant for sanctioning the prosecution. There was no allegation in the plaint that the first defendant prosecuted him maliciously and without any reasonable or probable cause. The plaint could not be amended by inserting such an allegation.
10 B.H.C. 182.

(5) Misstatement of cause of action.

Plaint can be amended if there is a mistake in the statement of the cause of action. 68 P.R. 1886; 7 N.W.P. 354; 11 W.R. 223; 12 W.R. 313; 11 W.R. 223.

(6) Wrong date of cause of action.

- (a) Where a wrong date is given in the plaint, it should be ordered to be amended by giving the right date. 7 N.W.P. 354; 21 A.W.N. 140; 7 M.H.C. 364; but see the following case:—
- (b) In a suit for recovery of debt attached, the debt was wrongly described as due under an agreement of one date instead of another. An amendment correcting the date could not be made. 7 C.W.N. 651=30 C. 699.

(7) Suit on a mortgage.

In a——, the defendant denied the specific mortgage but admitted another mortgage of a different date. The plaint was amended so as to make it a suit upon the admitted mortgage. 17 B. 365; 5 B.L.R. 643; 4 B. 584; see contra, 18 A. 403 and 18 M. 462.

(8) Suit on a sale-deed.

In a suit on the sale-deed it was recited that for a certain portion of the purchase money the defendant would execute a bond. This recital was allowed to be amended into a promise by the defendant to pay the money at a certain place a few days hence. S.C. 120.

C.—Changing character of suit.

(1) General principles.

- (a) Where a suit, if tried as of one character, e.g., a suit for use and occupation, would, if amended into one of another character (e.g.) a suit for rent, involve issues of an entirely different character from those on which the first suit proceeded and would necessitate a new trial of the case upon fresh evidence, an amendment ought not to be allowed. 22 C. 752 (756); 13 B.L.R. 243 = 21 W.R. 208; 11 M.I.A. 7 (20); Marshal 70.C
- (b) An amendment inconsistent with the original claim should not be made, a year after the institution of the suit. 3 C.L.J. 306=10 C.W.N. 738.D
- (c) If a Court allows a plaint to be 'so altered as to convert a suit of one character into a suit of another and inconsistent character, it acts ultra vires. S.C. 92.

D.—Granting of additional relief.

(1) General principles.

- (a) The addition of a prayer ancillary to the principal one does not alter the character of the suit and such an amendment could be made even by the appellate Court. 5 C:W.N. 273.
- (b) When a Court finds that a plaintiff claims only a minor relief, when he is entitled to the major relief, in order to evade Court-fees, it should compel the plaintiff to amend the plaint by including the major relief. 21 T.L.R. 1.

D.—Granting of additional relief.—(Concluded).

(c) The Court can permit such amendment, as may enable it to give relief in respect of the original cause of action. 1 N.W.P. 171, Ed. 1873, 250.T

EXAMPLES.

I .- ADDITIONAL RELIEF ALLOWED.

- (1) In a suit for recovery of money received for plaintiff, the plaint was amended by adding an additional prayer for account. 9 B. 355.
- (2) In a suit upon a will and for administration where the plaintiff's right to ask for administration depended upon the invalidity of an adoption, there being no prayer that the adoption should be declared invalid, such a prayer was allowed to be added. 5 C.W.N. 162.
- (3) In a suit for possession by the mortgagee, the plaint can be amended by the addition of prayer for a money decree, if the possession could not be granted. 131 P.R. 1883.
  W
- (4) In a suit for mutation of names in a Revenue Register, the plaint could be amended by adding a prayer for a declaration of the plaintiff's right. 2 L.B.R. 4; 2 L.B.R. 243.
- (5) In a suit for declaration when the suit was not sustainable for want of prayer for consequential relief, a prayer for injunction could be added even at a late stage. 29 B. 19.
- (6) A plaintiff, who has been ousted after suit brought for declaration of title, should be allowed to amend the plaint by adding a prayer for possession. 2 M. 295.
  Z
- (7) Where a purchaser of a mortgage-bond sued to enforce the bond, but did not pray for sale of the mortgaged property, he was allowed to add a prayer for such relief. 20 C. 805.
- (8) A suit should not be dismissed by the appellate Court on the ground of its asking only for a declaration of title without consequential relief, where this objection is not taken by the defendants, the plaintiffs should be given an opportunity to amend the plaint. 13 B. 548.

II .- ADDITIONAL RELIEF NOT ALLOWED.

- (1) After a suit for declaration that certain alienations by a Hindu widow were invalid was filed, the widow died. An amendment adding a prayer for possession could not be made. 12 M. 136.
- (2) A suit was brought in a Munsiff's Court to declare that a certain land was liable to be sold in execution of a decree for more than Rs. 2,500. It could not be amended by the plaintiff withdrawing his claim to execute the decree against the land for more than Rs. 2,500. 10 M. 152.

E.—Changing relief.

I.—AMENDMENT ALLOWED.

- (1) Where plaintiff sued for redemption of a mortgage, he should not be given possession without his paying the mortgage amount, because the defendant denied the mortgage. 6 B.H.C.A.C. 9.
- (2) The plaintiff the mortgages of the defendant's mortgage interest sued for the sale of such interest. In second appeal the prayer for sale of mortgage interest was amended into a prayer for sale of the mortgage property. 25 A. 46.

E.-Changing relief.-(Concluded).

II.—AMENDMENT NOT ALLOWED.

Where a plaintiff, in a suit for pre-emption, alleged that the property was sold for a less price than what was mentioned in the sale-deed and offered to pre-empt on paying the smaller price, he was not allowed to amend his plaint by offering to pay any sum, the Court may find, the vendor got for the property. 1 A. 591.

F.-Changing ground of relief.

I.-AMENDMENT ALLOWED.

Plaintiff brought a suit for a share in two houses as heir to his wife. The suit was amended into a claim for the whole of the two houses on the ground of his purchase benami in his wife's name. 1907 A.W.N. 203. H

II.-AMENDMENT NOT ALLOWED.

- (1) In a suit to set aside an alienation on the ground that the alienor was an illegitimate son of the plaintiff's grandfather the suit could not be amended to state that the alienation was bad because under the Mitakshaia Law the owner of a share in joint property cannot alienate his share. 6 B.L.R. 555=14 W.R. 386.
- (2) A suit was brought to declare that a certain mortgage decree against the father was not binding on the sous on the ground that the debt was contracted for an immoral purpose. An amendment that the sons were divided from the father when the decree was passed, was not allowed. 12 B. 431.
- (3) Plaintiffs sued a company upon a contract. In order to contend that a certain action of the directors of the company was ultra vires, the plaintiffs sought to amend the plaint by stating that they were also shareholders of the company. The amendment was not allowed. 6 B. 266.
- (4) The plaintiff sued for newly formed land on the ground that the new land was in extension of an old land belonging to her. This claim could not be amended into a claim that the land belonged to her as she was the ower of the bed of the river as zemindar. 22 M. 464=26 I.A. 107.
- (5) Where a plaintiff sued to enforce a right of pre-emption founded on a certain agreement, he could not amend the plaint basing his claim on a custom. 1 A. 563; 1 A. 567, contra 7 A.W.N. 28.
- (6) Suit for rent by one of the co-sharer landlords cannot be amended into one for rent by him on behalf of all the landlords for the whole of the rent. 6 C.W.N. 326.
- (7) In a suit for the recovery of a sum paid to a man, after a compromise by Official Assignee, which payment the Court did not authorize, the plaint alleged that the payment was fraudulently kept from the knowledge of the Official Assignee. When it was proved that Official Assignee knew of the payment, the plaintiff sought, but he was not allowed, to amend his plaint by stating that even if the Official Assignee knew of it, it was not binding on him as it was a fraud upon the Court. 11 B. 620=14 I.A. 11 (P.C.)

O. YI, r. 17] Act Y of 1908 (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE).

G. -Claiming alternative relief.

(1) General principle.

Where the plaintiff has not put forward an alternative case as he might have done, owing to misinformation, ignorance of law or fact, mistake or misconstruction of documents, he might be allowed to amend his plaint. 9 B.H.C.1: contra 7 B. 155.

EXAMPLES.

- (i)-A suit for the recovery of enhanced rent on a kabuliyat can be amended, when the kabuliyat is not proved, into one for the recovery of rent at the old rent even if no alternative case is put forth. 8 C. 926.
- (ii) A suit for possession on the ground of survivorship can be amended by adding an alternative prayer that if the undivided status is not proved, the plaintiff was entitled as a preferential heir. 8 O.C. 266; but see next case.

(2) Suit upon a will.

Where a claim was based on the invalidity of a will, an amendment stating that even if the will was valid it did not dispose of the whole of the property of the testator was not allowed. 7 B. 155.

H.—Raising new issues.

General principle.

The Court is bound to raise new issues if those issues are supported by the facts of the case and does not come upon the parties as a surprise.

2 Hyde, 263.

EXAMPLES.

- (1) The plaintiff sued on a contract to sell indigo seed to the defendants. The contract was not proved but a contract that the plaintiffs should buy as agents for defendants was proved. The suit could be amended by framing an additional issue as to the latter agreement. 6 B.L.R. 273 = 14 W.R. 181.
- (2) Where a suit was instituted under Act V of 1866 on two promissory notes, and when leave to appear was given to the defendant and statements were filed by both parties which disclosed that the consideration of the pro-notes were some items in an account, an additional issue was given as to the amount due in respect of the consideration for the notes, and the plaint also was amended accordingly. 9 B.L.R. 441=18 W.R. 424.

I.-Formal defects.

(1) General principles.

- (a) It is the intention of the Legislature that all matters in dispute between the same parties should be disposed of in the same suit. The proviso to S. 53 of the old Act should not interfere with this principle.
   25 C. 371=2 C.W.N. 18, 201. Cf. O.VI, r. 17 and S. 153 of the new Code which give to Courts wider powers of discretion in matters of amendment.
- (b) A defect on the face of the plaint, which would have rendered it inadmissible, is not a matter of amendment at the final hearing of the suit. 3 M.H.C. 372.

(2) Bona fide mistake.

An amendment should not be allowed save when the plaintiff has an honest case, and by some mistake or misapprehension has failed to put things properly before the Court. 16 W.R. 123; 8 C. 871; but not when the plaintiff is acting mala fide. S.C. 261.

(3) Boundaries.

In a suit for possession if the boundaries of the land sought to be recovered is not described, the plaint should be amended. 21 W.R. 187.

(4) Defective verification.

—must be corrected by an amendment of the plaint. 16 A.W.N. 102=18

A. 396; 57 P.R. 1904; but not want of verification of plaint.

16 A.W.N. 75.

(5) Deficiency in extent.

Where there is a deficiency in extent, the proper course is to amend the plaint. 17 A. 288=15 A.W.N. 80.

(6) Document on which suit is based.

A suit based on accounts, having been registered, was dismissed for failure of the plaintiff to produce, in Court, the original account book, for comparison with the copy extract of account accompanying the plaint. Held, the dismissal was wrong and that the proper procedure was by amendment of the plaint. 22 B. 971; so, also, where the original document, on which the plaint is based, was not produced along with the plaint. 2 B.H.C.R. 369.

(7) Doubtful meaning.

If there is any doubt as to the meaning of the plaint, it should be amended.
42 P.R. 1874.

(8) Error.

A plaint should be amended if it does not contain a specification of the land sued for and if there is error in the description of defendants' residence.

(9) Form.

If the suit is not in proper form, the suit should be amended. 2 Hay. 351. F

(10) Inconsistency.

Where there is absolute inconsistency between a statement in the plaint and a statement made by the plaintiff under examination, on a material point, the plaint should be amended. L.B.R. 1893-1900, p. 337. G

(11) Insufficiency of stamp.

Whenever there is a deficiency of stamp the pleadings should be amended by supplying the deficiency. 6 N.W.P. 189; 15 M. 29; contra 12 A. 129; 18 C. 445; 2 A.L.J. 55=1905 A.W.N. 12=27 A. 411; 128 P.R. 1907=82 P.W.R. 1907.

(12) Language of plaint.

If a plaint is not in the language of the Court, it should be amended. 8 W.R. 495; W.R. (F.B.), 159.

(12-a) Issues, wording of.

The substance, and not the mere wording of the issues, should be regarded. If, by some cause or other, the recorded issues do not enable the Court to try the whole case on the merits, an opportunity should be afforded by amendment, and, if need be, by adjournment, for the decision of the real points in dispute. 6 M.I.A. 393 (411).

O. VI, rr. 17 & 18] Act V of 1908 (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE).

2.-"In such manner."-(Concluded).

I.-Formal defects.-(Concluded).

(13) Misjoinder.

Where a plea of misjoinder was allowed by the lower Court and the suit decided on merits; the lower Court, failing which, the appellate Court, should return the plaint for amendment. 6.M. 239.

(14) Plaint signed by unauthorised person.

——is void ab initio and cannot be amended by the plaintiff signing it.

14 A.W.N. 95.

(15) Prolixity in plaint.

If there is—, it should be amended. See W.R. (F.B.), 41=Marsh 127=1 Ind. Jur. O.S. 44=1 Hay. 209, reported under O. VI, r. 16.

(16) Unsigned plaint.

A plaint, which is not signed by the party, can be amended by getting the signature of the party. 6 M.L.J. 213; contra. 19 A.W.N. 55.

(17) Wrong Act, suit under.

When a suit is brought under a wrong Act, the plaint should be amended.

19 W.B. 61.

(18) Wrong description.

Amendment should be allowed where the defendant is wrongly described.

12 B.L.R. 448.

(N.B.) See 27 M. 80 and 9 A. 188=7 A.W.N. 17, where plaints were not allowed to be amended for formal defects.

J.-Limitation.

General principle.

- (a) An amendment should not be allowed which will have the effect of depriving the defendant of the plea of limitation. 1 N.L.R. 117; 2 N.L.R. 79.
- (b) A plaint barred by time cannot be so amended so as to bring the claim within time. 10 Bom. L.R. 969.
  R
- (c) A Court is not precluded from returning a plaint for amendment, because at the time it is returned for amendment the period of limitation for the suit might have expired. 17 A. 288.

18. If a party who has obtained an order for leave to amend o. XXVIII. does not amend accordingly within the time

Failure to amend lim limited for that purpose by the order 1, or if no time is thereby limited then within fourteen days from the date of the order, he shall not be permitted to amend after the expiration of such limited time as aforesaid or of such fourteen days, as the case may be, unless the time is extended by the Court.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule corresponds to Ss. 53 (b) and 54 (d) of Act XIV of 1882.

Difference between the old and the new Act.

- (a) In the present rule words "or if no time..date of the order" are newly added.
- (b) According to the old section if the amendment is not made within the time allowed, then the plaint should be rejected.

According to this rule the amendment should not be allowed but the suit may go on as it is.

1.-" Within the time...order."

(1) Extension of time.

- (a) The Judge has discretion to extend the time, even after the time originally fixed expires. 9 M.L.J. 348; 16 B. 263; 4 O.C. 108; contra 23 A. 423.
- (b) Where there is a defect in the verification, the plaint should be amended. If the plaint is not amended within the time allowed, then it should be rejected. 57 P.R. 1904.

(2) Unauthorized amendment.

If the party makes—, the other party must apply to have the amendments disallowed with costs. W.N. (1879), 175—Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 354.

(3) Costs.

Costs can be allowed to the defendant if the plaint is rejected. 28 C. 567. W

ORDER VII.

PLAINT.

Particulars to be contained in plaint. The plaint 1 shall contain the following particulars:—

- (a) the name of the Court in which the suit is brought;
- (b) the name 2, description 3 and place of residence 4 of the plaintiff;
- (c) the name⁵, description ⁶ and place of residence ⁷ of the defendant, so far as they can be ascertained;
- (d) where the plaintiff 8 or the defendant is a minor or a person of unsound mind, a statement to that effect;
- (e) the facts constituting the cause of action 9 and when it arose 10;
- (f) the facts showing that the Court has jurisdiction 11;
- (g) the relief which the plaintiff claims 12;
- (h) where the plaintiff has allowed a set-off or relinquished a portion of his claim ¹³, the amount so allowed or relinquished; and
- (i) a statement of the value of the subject-matter of the suit for the purposes of jurisdiction and of Court-fees 14, so far as the case admits.

(General).

A plaintiff cannot take advantage of any ground of exemption from limitation which he has not pleaded in his plaint. 8 C.W.N. 171=31 C. 195; 17 M.L.J. 281; contra 10 Bom. L.R. 346.

1.—"The plaint shall show.....ground upon which exemption.....is claimed."

Appeal.

The Court refused to allow a question of acknowledgment of liability to be raised, for the first time, in appeal. 6 C.W.N. 218; 9 C.W.N. 56.

7. Every plaint shall state specifically the relief which O. XX, r. Relief to be specifically the plaintiff claims either simply or in the fically stated. alternative 1, and it shall not be necessary to ask for general or other relief which may always be given as the Court may think just to the same extent as if it had been asked for 2. And the same rule shall apply to any relief claimed by the defendant in his written statement.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule is new.

(1) General principles.

- (a) As a general rule, the plaintiff is not entitled to reliefs not founded on pleadings; but where, on the pleadings, the issues and the evidence, the relief is clear, the general rule does not apply. 6 Bom. L.R. 288.8
- (b) Reliefs not founded on the pleadings and not prayed for, may be granted, if they touch matters in issue and in evidence. 21 A. 58=2 C.W.N. 681.
- (c) If the prayer of the plaint does not accurately describe the relief sought, that is no reason for refusing to give the plaintiff redress. 1904 A.W. N. 174 (182, 184) = 1 A.L.J. 435 = 27 A. 97 (F.B.), at p. 122.
- (d) A plaintiff need not ask for all the reliefs he is entitled to. 6 Bom. L.R. 475 = 28 B. 567.

1 .- "State specifically the relief .. or in the alternative."

(1) Amendment of plaint.

Omission to claim reliefs in the alternative, can be remedied by subsequent amendment of the plaint, if the reliefs are not inconsistent. 9 B.H.C. 1; 7 B. 155; 5 C. 692=5 C.L.R. 455.

(2) Inconsistent pleas.

- (a) Two—cannot be put forward to get a further measure of relief. 6 Bom.
  L.R. 790: 1904 A.W.N. 83=26 A. 381.
- (b) A party, praying for a relief inconsistent with a previous sale, must pray to set it aside. 25 B. 337 = 27 I.A. 216 = 5 C.W.N. 10 (P.C.).

2.-" ....it shall not be necessary to ask for general....relief....for."

(1) General prayer.

- (a) When the plaint contains a statement of all the material circumstances, but the prayer is inartistically framed, the Court should, if there is a prayer for further relief, give the plaintiff the appropriate relief. 2 C.L.J. 173.
- (b) A—for "any other relief" must be taken to mean some relief arising out of the cause of action set forth in the plaint. 1904 A.W.N. 207 = 1 A.L.J. 628 = 27 A. 174.
- (c) Upon a——, a plaintiff is not entitled to any relief, which is inconsistent with his plaint. 5 B.L.R. 682; 7 W.R. 145.

- 2.-"....it shall not be necessary to ask for general....relief....for."

  -(Continued).
  - (d) A—for relief on behalf of one plaintiff cannot be construed to enable the Court to give relief to the other plaintiffs. 8 C.W.N. 408=31 C. 433.C
  - (e) Even though the relief granted is quite different from that asked for, the decree should not be disturbed in appeal, if substantial justice is done. 7 W.R. 180.

(2) Declaratory relief.

Where the plaintiff claimed a declaratory relief with respect to one half of the suit property, the Court could give, under the general prayer, a declaratory relief for the whole of the property. 26 P.W.R. 1907. E

(3) Surplus relief.

If a plaintiff asks for a relief which the Court cannot give, the prayer for such relief may be treated as a mere surplusage. 10 C. 525.

(4) False allegation.

Where the plaintiff falsely alleges that he is in possession and asks only for a declaration, a relief for possession should not be given him. 31 C. 319 (331); 1903 A.W.N. 64 = 25 A. 337.

(5) Injunction.

The plaintiff sued for an injunction, restraining the defendant from obstructing him from building in a lane, which he claimed as his property. On finding that the lane is not the property of the plaintiff, the Court could not give a relief on the ground of easement. 15 M. 489.

(6) Misrepresentation.

When a party would be entitled to equitable rights, he should not be granted even that, if he misrepresents his case, and does not rely on his equitable rights. 2 C.L.R. 18.

(7) Mortgagee with possession.

In a suit by a——for recovery of property, when the mortgage was found to be invalid, a decree for the return of the mortgage money could not be given, under a prayer for general relief. 7 M.L.J. 50.

(8) Alternative relief.

The plaintiff sued to recover a property, on the ground of partition, and failing to prove the partition, he asked for partition; held the relief was not inconsistent. 19 B. 323.

(9) Suit for sale.

In a—by the puisne mortgagee, a redemption decree in favour of the prior mortgagee can be passed. 28 B. 153 (161).

8. Where the plaintiff seeks relief in respect of several distinct claims or causes of action founded upon separate and distinct grounds, they shall be stated as far as may be separately and distinctly.

Old Act.

- (1) The plaintiff shall endorse on the plaint, or annex there Procedure on admitting plaint. Concise statements.

  To a list of the documents (if any) which he has produced along with it; and, if the plaint is admitted, shall present as many copies on plain paper of the plaint as there are defendants, unless the Court by reason of the length of the plaint or the number of the defendants, or for any other sufficient reason, permits him to present a like number of concise statements of the nature of the claim made, or of the relief claimed in the suit, in which case he shall present such statements
- (2) Where the plaintiff sues, or the defendant or any of the defendants is sued, in a representative capacity, such statements shall show in what capacity the plaintiff or defendant sues or is sued.
- (3) The plaintiff may, by leave of the Court, amend such statements so as to make them correspond with the plaint.
- (4) The chief ministerial officer of the Court shall sign such list and copies or statements if, on examination, he finds them to be correct.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule corresponds to S. 58 of Act XIV of 1882.

Difference between the old and the new Acts.

The words "memorandum" and "be" in the old Act are substituted by the words "list" and "is" in the new Act.

The last para of S. 58 is omitted in the new Act.

- 10. (1) The plaint shall at any stage of the suit be returned to be presented to the Court in which the suit should have been instituted 1.
- (2) On returning a plaint the Judge shall endorse thereon the date of its presentation and return, the name of the party presenting it, and a brief statement of the reasons for returning it.

(Notes).

Old Act.

Sub-rule (1).

This sub-rule corresponds to para 1, S. 57 of Act XIV of 1882.

Difference between the old and the new Acts.

- (1) The words "at any stage" are newly added in the new Act.
- (2) The words "to the proper Court" in the old Act are replaced by the words "to the Court in which the suit should have been instituted."
- (3) The new Act is made more wide by omitting cls. (a), (b), and (c) of the old Act.

Sub-rule (2).

This corresponds to the last para of S. 57 of Act XIV of 1882.

Difference between the old and the new Acts.

The words, "with his own hand" in the old Act, are omitted in the new Act.

General principles.

The words "shall be" are instructions, which the Court is bound to follow and they are, therefore, a restraint upon jurisdiction. 7 A. 230.

1.-" The plaint....at any stage....returned....instituted."

- (1) Plaint may be returned for presentation to proper Court :-
  - (α) after the trial has begun or even after it has concluded 8 B 313; but see

ORDER VIII.

WRITTEN STATEMENT AND SET-OFF.

1. The defendant 1 may, and, if so required by the Court, shall, at or before the first hearing or within such time as the Court may permit 2, present 3 a written statement 4 of his defence.

(Notes)

Old Act.

- S. 110 of Act XIV of 1882 corresponds to this rule.
- S.110—"The parties may, at any time before or at the first hearing of the suit, tender written statements of their respective cases, and the Court shall receive such statements and place them on the record."

Difference between the old and the new Acts.

- (1) For the words "parties," "at any time before or at the first hearing of the suit," "tender," and "of their respective cases" the words "defendant," "at or before the first hearing," "present," and "of his defence" have been substituted respectively in the new Act.
- (2) The words "and the Court shall receive such statements and place them on the record" have not been inserted in the new Act.
- (8) The words "and, if so required by the Court, shall" after the word "may" and the words "or within such time as the Court may permit," after the word "hearing" have been newly inserted in the present Act.

"1.-The defendant."

Verifying and filing of a written statement by a third party.

A third party will not be allowed to verify and file a written statement on behalf of a party in the suit, and a Court has no authority to allow it.

Bourke O.O. 158; 25 W.R. 17.

2 .- "At or before .... as the Court may permit."

A.-Permission of Court.

- (1) Ss. 120 and 122 of the C.P.C. of 1859 do not permit of the admission of the written statements of different parties on various dates except when specially called for by the Court, because the word 'before' did not occur in the Code of 1859. W.R. (1864), p. 44.
- (2) If the defendant neglects to furnish a written statement, he should be first examined by the Court, and then if the Court considers that a written statement should be put in, it should adjourn the case for that purpose at the cost of the defendant. 2 Hyde. 89.

B.—Time for filing written statement.

- (1) Reasonable time should be given to the defendant to file his written statement. 5 W.R. 39.
- (2) Supplemental written statements cannot be filed, after the parties have entered upon the trial of the suit. 4 B. 576.
- (3) Under C.P.C. a plaintiff cannot file a written statement by way of rejoinder, after having seen the written statement of the defendants. 5 W.R. 56. E

3.-"Present."

For the word 'present' the word formerly used in the Code of 1859 was 'tender,' which is commented upon in 10 B.H.C.R. 425.

4.-" A written statement."

A.-Construction of a written statement.

A written statement like any other document must be construed with reference to the entire document, and not merely to parts of it, in order to ascertain what defence it contains. S.C. 264.

B.—Contents of a written statement.

Irrelevant matter.

- (1) Where matters irrelevant and improper were found in the written statement, the Court ordered it to be taken off the file with leave to file a fresh one. 3 B.L.R. Ap. 12.
  H
- (2) The test of 'Relevancy' is not whether it discloses a good defence, but whether the defendant believes it to be material to his case. 10 B.H.C. 425. I
- (3) An offer without prejudice being an irrelevant matter should be omitted from the written statement by the Court. 12 B.L.R. Ap. 19.
- (4) The Court can take a written statement off the file for irrelevancy, until it is 'tendered,' which is, when it is produced at the hearing of the suit. 10 B.H.C. 425.
  K

C.—Court-fee on a written statement.

- (1) A written statement tendered by a party at the proper time, or called for by the Court after the first bearing, is not liable to any Court-tee. 5 B. 400; 12 O.L.R. 867.
- (2) A written statement claiming a set-off, under S. 111, C.P.C., need not bear Court-fee stamps. 13 B. 672; 8 A. 896 and 15 M. 29, dissented from. 2 L.B.R. 186.

4.-" A written statement."-(Continued).

D.-Evidentiary value of a written statement.

General.

- (1) A written statement is not evidence so as to disperse with the defendant's proving the facts stated in it. 12 W.R. 39; 7 W R. 493; 5 W.R 50 (51), 16 W.R. 257.
- (2) Where a party makes a qualified statement, the statement cannot be used against him apart from the qualification. 1 B.L.R A.C. 133=10 W.R. 190, B L.R Sup. Vol. 904=9 W.R. 90 (ver ruling 1 W.R. 24): 9 W.R. 190; 22 W.R. 220; 9 W R. 290: 7 W R. 29.
- (3) Any one of a series of unqualified independent statements in a written statement may be used against the party. 1 B.L.R.A.C. 133 (137). P
- (4) A written statement can only bind the party who makes it and those who are bound by it. 5 W.R. 50.
- (5) An admission in the written statement by one defendant does not bind the others. 5 W.R. 50; 6 A. 395, 7 A. 353; 16 C. 627 (635).
- (6) As against the party affected, his written statement primarily operates by way of admission and not estoppel. 14 B. 78 (82); 13 I.A. 32 (42); 10 C. 196; 11 C. 111.
  S.
- (7) From the non-denial in a written statement of an allegation made in the plaint against a defendant, the plaint allegation should be presumed true. 26 B. 735.
- (S) A written statement could be treated as an acknowledgment for the purposes of limitation. 24 M. 361.
- (9) If a person has notice of a fact contained in a written statement filed in a case, he is fixed with it; and it is immaterial that the written statement was thrown out. 6 Bom. L.R. 284.
- (10) Where a defendant's written statement is referred to as evidence in plaintiff's favour, the Court should take the whole statement as evidence, and attach what value it can to the whole or portions of it. 9 W.R. 290.
- (11) When a defendant admits any one fact in the written statement of the plaintiff and thereby excludes independent evidence of it, he cannot go further, and claim that the whole statement should be read as evidence in his favour. 16 W.R. 257.

EXAMPLES.

- (1) In a suit by plaintiff for possession of a house, purchased from defendant, defendant pleaded that the sale deed was invalid for want of consideration. Held, that though the execution of the deed was admitted, the plaintiff should establish the validity of the deed. 14 B. 516.
- (2) In a suit in ejectment against a tenant holding a jote or an Anubhavam Tenure in Malabar, mere denial of the plaintiff's title, even though it be false, will not entitle a plaintiff landlord to succeed against his tenant. 13 C. 96; 15 M. 128.
  Z
- (3) A denial of the landlord's title in a written statement would not operate as a forfeiture of his tenancy under Bengal Act VIII of 1869. 5 C.W.N. 263 = 28 C. 135.

4.- " A written statement."-(Concluded).

E. Form of a written statement.

General.

- (1) Under S. 123 of the C.P.C. of 1859, a defendant in a written statement should state only the case which he would make good at the trial, and should set out only the bona fide nature of the defence. 1 B. 209; 3 B.L.R. Ap. 12.
- (2) A written statement should not be argumentative. 8 W.R. 296.

EXAMPLE.

A defendant alleging a purchase by him from the plaintiff cannot, at the trial, be allowed to prove a continuous user and possession adverse to plaintiff. 1 B. 209.

EXAMPLE "CONTRA."

A defendant, who in his written statement denied the adoption of the plaintiff, was allowed in appeal to raise the further and inconsistent plea that the adoption, if any, was conditional on the provisions of the will being acquiesced in. 14 M. 172

F.—Objections to a written statement.

Under S. 124 of C.P.C. of 1859 objections cannot be taken when the suit is ripe for hearing. Cor. 39.

G.-Verification of a written statement.

General.

- (1) Verification is intended for the protection of the opposing party. So the opposing party may waive objection to the sufficiency of the verification.

  22 C. 268.
- (2) Verification is necessary, but if admitted without it, the allegation in the statement should be noticed and issues framed accordingly. 18 W.R. 342.
- (3) A written statement not signed or verified, but received and acted upon by Court without being objected to by the plaintiff could not, for the first time, be objected to in appeal. 11 C.W.N. 871.

Verification on behalf of a corporation.

Ss. 115 and 435 of C.P.C. of 1882 enable the principal officer of a corporation to verify pleadings; but he must admit in the pleadings or show by affidavit that he is a principal officer of the corporation and is able to depose to the facts of the case. 22 C. 268.

Notice.

- Where application is made that the pleadings be verified by a third party on behalf of a party in the suit, it is desirable that notice of it should be given to the opposite party, though not absolutely necessary. 1 Ind. Jur. N.S. 39.
- (2) When application is for verification by the constituted attorney of the party, no notice need be given to the other side. 1 Ind. Jur. N.S. 40.

O. XIX, r. 15. 2. The defendant must raise by his pleading all matters which show the suit not to be maintainable, or that the transaction is either void or voidable in point of law, and all such grounds of defence, as if not law, and all such grounds of defence, as if not raised, would be likely to take the opposite party by surprise, or would raise issues of fact not arising out of the plaint, as, for instance, fraud, limitation, release, payment, performance, or facts showing illegality.

General.

It is not often enough for a party to deny an allegation made by plaintiff. He must go further and dispute its validity in law, or set up some affirmative case of his own, in answer to it. In the old technical language, it is not enough if he merely traverses the allegation; he must confess and avoid it by special pleas. A defendant, however, is not bound to admit an allegation, which he seeks thus to avoid, or which he alleges to be bad in law. He may take to all the three courses at once. The same allegation may be traversed in point of fact and objected to as bad in law, and at the same time collateral matter may be pleaded to destroy its effects. Ann. Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 257. M

(1) There are cases in which the Court itself will take notice of the illegality of the contract on which plaintiff is suing, if it appears on the evidence

What question need not be raised in the written statement.

- which he adduces, although the defendant has not pleaded the illegality. Holman v Johnson, Cowp. 341; Windhill Local Board v. Vint, (1890) 45 C.D. 357; Scott v. Brown and Co., (1892) 2 Q.B. 724; Gedge v. Royal Exchange, (1900) 2 Q.B. 214; Conolly v. Consumers' Cordage Co., (1903) 89 L.T. 347.
- (2) A defendant is not precluded from taking benefit of the equities arising in the trial, though he has not raised the equities on the face of the written statement. 7 W.R. 120.
- O. XIX.

  r. 17 and
  Denial to be sufficient for a defendant in his written statement to deny generally the grounds alleged by the plaintiff, but the defendant must deal specifically 1 with each allegation of fact 2 of which he does not admit the truth, except damages 3.

(Notes).

(English Rules and Orders).

This corresponds with Eng. O. 19, r. 17 and O. 21, r. 4.

I .- "Deal specifically."

The words 'deal specifically with each allegation of fact' mean that the party pleading must make it perfectly clear, how much of it he admits and how much of it he denies. If he does this, the Court will not quarrel with the phrase which he uses. He must not deny en bloc everything alleged against him. Ann. Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 261. P

2.-"Each allegation of fact."

The defendant should never traverse matter not alleged against him. He should be content to answer what is laid against him in the plaint, and not trouble about any other matters, which the plaintiff might have, but has not raised. Rassam v. Budge, (1893) 1 Q B. 571.

3.-" Excent damages."

"No denial or defence shall be necessary as to damages claimed, or their amount; but they shall be deemed to be put in issue in all cases, unless expressly admitted." This is Eng. O 21, r. 4. This rule applies to damage of all kinds, whether special or general, and whether the alleged damage is part of the alleged cause of action or not. Wilby v. Elston, (1849) 8 C.B. 142; 18 L.J.C.P. 320; and see also the remarks of Hawkins, J., in Wood v. Earl of Durham, 21 Q.B.D. 508.

4. Where a defendant denies an allegation of fact in the plaint, he must not do so evasively 1, but answer the point of substance 2. Thus, if it is alleged that he received a certain sum of money, it shall not be sufficient to deny that he received that particular amount, but he must deny that he received that sum or any part thereof, or else set out how much he received. And if an allegation is made with divers circumstances, it shall not be sufficient to deny it along with those circumstances 3.

Evasive denial.

(Notes).

(English Rules and Orders).

This corresponds with Eng. O. 19, r. 19.

1.-" Evasively."

A defendant must either admit frankly every allegation of fact made by plain.

tiff, or deny it boldly. Any half-admission or half-denial is evasive.

A defence in these words, "The terms of the arrangement were never definitely agreed upon as alleged," was held evasive. Jessel, M.R., said:

"The defendant is bound to deny that any agreements or any terms of arrangement were ever come to, if that is what he means; if he does not mean that, he should say that there were no terms of arrangement come to, except the following terms, and then state what the terms were." Thorp v. Holdsworth, 3 C.D. 641.

2.--" Point of substance."

A traverse often becomes evasive, if it follows too closely the language of the allegation traversed. Thus, a plaint alleged that the defendant offered the plaintiff a bribe of £500. The defendant pleaded, following the exact words of the plaint, that "the defendant had never offered the plaintiff a bribe of £500", which would have been true, if he had offered £400, or £499, or any other sum. Fry, J., held that the point of substance was that a bribe had been offered, and that that was not fairly or substantially denied. The defendant should have pleaded that he never offered "a bribe of £500, or any other sum." Tildesley v. Harper, 7 C.D. 403.

3.-" Along with those circumstances."

If the plaintifi alleges that he "paid the defendant £500 at 35 Fleet Street on 3rd March, 1904, in the presence of A B," it is an evasive traverse for the defendant to plead. "The plaintiff did not pay the defendant £500 at 35 Fleet Street on March 3, 1904, in the presence of A B." For, he might have paid the defendant £500 on another day, or in another place, or when A B was not present. And these details are only "circumstances"; they are not of the essence of the allegation. The defendant should have answered the 'point of substance,' and pleaded, "The plaintiff never paid the defendant £500, or any other sum." Annual Practice, 1908, Vol. I, p. 262.

.O. XIX.

5. Every allegation of fact in the plaint, if not denied ¹ specifically or by necessary implication, or stated to be not admitted in the pleading of the defendant, shall be taken to be admitted ² except as against a person under disability:

Provided that the Court may in its discretion require any fact so admitted to be proved 3 otherwise than by such admission.

(Notes).

(English Rules and Orders).

This rule is taken from Eng. 0. 19, r. 13, but the rigour of the English rule is modified here by the power given to Courts.

1.-" If not denied."

Denial and admission.

There is no difference in effect between denying and not admitting an allegation (per Grove, J., in 35 L.T. 848). The distinction usually observed is, that a party denies any matter, which, if it had occurred, would have been within his own knowledge, while he refuses to admit matters, which are alleged to have happened behind his back. But whether he denies, or does not admit, he must make it perfectly clear, how much he disputes, and how much he admits. Thorp v. Holdsworth, 3 C. D. 640; Harens v. Gamble, 7 C. D. 877; British Land Association v. Foster, 4 Times Rep. 574; Rutter v. Tregent, 12 C. D. 758.

2.-" Shall be taken to be admitted."

A defendant must be taken to admit all material allegations in the plaint which he does not traverse. 1 B.H.C. 85; 18 W.R. 287.

3.-"Require any fact so admitted, to be proved."

The mere fact that an allegation is not traversed does not relieve the plaintifi from the burden of proving his case. 7 B.H.C.A.C. 186; 17 W.E. 171.X

6. (1) Where in a suit for the recovery of money ¹ the defendant particulars of set off ² against the plaintiff's demand any ascertained sum ³ of money legally recoverable by him from the plaintiff ⁴, not exceeding the pecuniary limits of the jurisdiction of the Court ⁵, and both parties fill the same character as they fill in the plaintiff's suit ⁶, the defendant may, at the first hearing of the suit, but not afterwards unless permitted by the Court ⁷, present a written statement containing the particulars of the debt sought to be set-off ⁸.

- (2) The written statement shall have the same effect as a plaint in a cross-suit 9 so as to enable the Court to pronounce a final judgment in respect both of the original claim and of the set-off: but this shall not affect the lien, upon the amount decreed, of any pleader in respect of the costs payable to him under the decree 10.
- (3) The rules relating to a written statement by a defendant apply to a written statement in answer to a claim of set-off.

Illustrations.

- (a) A bequeaths Rs. 2,000 to B and appoints C his executor and residuary logatee. B dies and D takes out administration to B's effects. C pays Rs. 1,000 as surety for D; then D sues C for the legacy. C cannot set-off the debt of Rs. 1,000 against the legacy, for neither C non D fills the same character with respect to the legacy as they fill with respect to the payment of the Rs. 1,000.
- (b) A dies intestate and in debt to B. C takes out administration to A's effects and B buys part of the effects from C. In a suit for the purchase-money by C against B, the latter cannot set-off the debt against the price, for C fills two different characters, one as the vendor to B, in which he sues B, and the other as representative to A.
- (c) A sues B on a bill of exchange. B alleges that A has wrongfully neglected to insure B's goods and is liable to him in compensation which he claims to set-off. The amount not being ascertained cannot be set-off.
- (d) A sues B on a bill of exchange for Rs. 500. B holds a judgment against A for Rs. 1,000. The two claims being both definite pecuniary demands may be set-off.
- (e) A sues B for compensation on account of trespass. B holds a promissory note for Rs. 1,000 from A and claims to set-off that amount against any sum that A may recover in the suit. B may do so, for, as soon as A recovers, both sums are definite pecuniary demands.
  - (f) A and B sue C for Rs. 1,000. C cannot set-off a debt due to him by A alone.
  - (g) A sues B and C for Rs. 1,000. B cannot set-off a debt due to him alone by A.
- (h) A owes the partnership firm of B and C Rs. 1,000. B dies, leaving C surviving. A sues C for a debt of Rs. 1,500 due in his separate character. C may set-off the debt of Rs. 1,000.

Old Act.

Difference between the old and the new Acts.

(1) For the words "if," "tender," "such set off," and "both on the original and on the cross claim," the words "where," "present," "the written statement," and "in respect both of the original claim and of the set off" respectively have been substituted in the new Act.

- (2) The words "if in such claim of the defendant against the plaintiff," and the whole of second para and the words "in the same suit" have not been inserted in the new Act.
- (3) The words "not exceeding the pecuniary limits of the jurisdiction of the Court," and the whole of sub-rule (3) have been inserted in the new Act.

1.-"In a suit for.....money."

- It was doubted whether a suit for an account can be held to be one for the recovery of money under S. 111, C.P.C. 13 C. 124=13 I.A. 48.

  Y
- (2) A suit for dissolution of partnership, with a prayer for accounts, is a suit for money under S. 111, C.P.C. 10 A. 587; 8 A.W.N. 258.
- (3) A suit for mesne profits or unliquidated damages is not a suit for a 'debt' and no set-off is therefore admissible—the word 'debt' being restricted to an ascertained sum. 5 W.R. 160; 10 W R. 295; 17 W.R. 177; 22 W.R. 1; 22 W.R. 15=13 B.L.R. 440; 3 Agra 48.
- (4) When a right to sue for a personal decree was barred by limitation, a suit brought merely to enforce the mortgage security, is not a suit for the recovery of money, and so a set off cannot be claimed. 8 C.W.N. 174.B
- (5) In a suit by a widow, administering her husband's estate to recover certain moveables against her own son, a set-off of a claim against the deceased father should not be allowed. .14 W.R. 136.

2.-" Claims to set-off."

A.-Costs in the suit where set-off is claimed.

Notwithstanding S. 9 of Act XXVI of 1864, the plaintiff was entitled to his costs, though defendant proved a set-off and reduced the amount claimed by plaintiff for breach of contract. 4 B. 407.

B.-Effect of a set-off.

A set-off claimed in a letter by the defendant to the plaintiff was held not to be an acknowledgment of liability, under S. 19 of the Limitation Act. 60 P.R. 1887.

C.-Jurisdiction of Court to allow set-off.

Under S. 24 of Act X of 1859, Revenue Courts had jurisdiction to allow set-off.

18 W.R. 339.

D.-The right to set-off.

(1) General.

- (a) A plaintiff cannot compel a defendant to set-off. 21 C. 419.
- (b) Neither at common law nor in equity is there any right of set-off between parties mutually indebted, in the absence of an agreement to that effect. 53 P.R. 1898.
- (c) S. 111 of C.P.C. of 1882 does not take away from parties any right to set-off, whether legal or equitable, which they would have had independently of that Code. 11 C. 557; 7 A. 284; 5 A.W.N. 40; 4 B. 407; 47 P. B. 1885 (Civil); 1904 A.W.N. 198=1 A.L.J. 529=27 A. 145; 17 M.L.J. 481.

(2) Equitable set-off.

- (a) A right of set-off exists not only in cases of material debts and credits (legal set-off), but also where cross demands arise out of the same transaction, or are so connected in their nature and circumstance as to make it inequitable that the defendant should be driven to a separate cross-suit (equitable set-off). 2 M.H.C. 296; 4 M.H.C. 120; 16 C. 711; 4 B. 407; 11 C. 557; 7 A. 284; 5 A.W.N. 40; 20 W.R. 410; 15 A. 9; 12 A.W.N. 115.
- (b) If cross-claims are closely connected with each other, they may be set-off against each other. 2 C.L.J. 73=32 C. 576.
- (c) An equitable set-off may be claimed even in an informal manner of damages arising out of the same transaction. 1904 A.W.N. 198 = A.L.J. 529 = 27 A. 145; 19 A.W.N. 148.
- (d) Equitable set-off is in the discretion of Courts. As in legal set-off it cannot be claimed as of right. So, where the Court found that the investigation of the cross-claim would entail great delay, it refused to allow the set-off. 21 B. 126.
- (c) In counter-claims arising out of the same transaction, a set-off of one claim against another should not be allowed, if special damages in addition to general damages could be asked in one claim. 10 W.B. 295.
- (f) In claims of different nature, it is not equitable to allow a set-off. 17 W.R. 177.

SAME TRANSACTION—EXAMPLES.

- (a) In a suit for money due under the terms of an award, the defendant was allowed to set-off half of what he had paid on his own and the plaintiff's behalf to a third party, which, under the terms of the award, should have been paid jointly by both. 7 N.W.P. 157.
- (b) In a suit for money under a contract, the defendant was allowed to set-off the amount of damages proved by him to have sustained by reason of plaintiff's breach of the contract sued on. 4 M.H.C. 120; 4 B. 407; 20 C. 527; 15 A. 9; 12 A.W.N. 115; 47 P.R. 1885 (Civil).
- (c) In a suit by one for contribution for having been obliged to pay the whole decree amount in respect of a suit for arrears of rent of an ijara, held jointly by the plaintiff and defendants, the defendants were allowed to set-off their claim for the share of rents paid by them on behalf of the plaintiff in previous years on account of the same ijara. 11 C. 557. R
- (d) In a suit for damages, damages arising from the same transaction may be set-off. 21 Trav. L.R. 211.
  S.
- (e) In a suit for the purchase money of a mortgage decree sold to the defendant, free of incumbrances, defendant was allowed to set-off the amount he had had to pay to relieve the prior incumbrances. 9 C.W.N. 178. T

(3) Set-off allowed under justice, equity, and good conscience.

In a pre-emption suit, the pre-emptor paid the money in Court under the decree, but attached a part of it on account of the costs in the suit awarded to him. Defendant objected to this, but the Court held that, though there was no specific provision in the C.P.C. applicable to the case, yet under justice, equity, and good conscience, the decree-holder was entitled to an equitable set-off. 3 O.C. 323.

2.- "Claims to set-off."-(Continued).

D.—The right to set-off -(Concluded).

(4) Special cross-claim provided or not by acts.

- (a) Under S. 491 of C.P.C. of 1882 a claim for compensation for arrest before judgment on insufficient ground was allowed as a set-off in the same suit. 18 B. 717.
- (b) The present rule in S. 111, C.P.C., does not affect the special provisions of the Insolvency Act 11 and 12, Vic. ch. 21, S. 39, relating to set-off. 6 C.L.R. 294; 1 M.I.A. 87 and 19 C. 146.
  W
- (c) Where there was mutual debt due between two persons and one of them became insolvent, under Insolvency Act 11 and 12 Vic., ch. 21, a set-off may be claimed by the defendant in a suit brought by the Official Assignee for the debt due to the insolvent. 6 C.L.R. 294.
- (d) In a suit by the usufructuary mortgagee for the mortgage money, a set-off may be claimed for waste committed by the mortgagee in possession under S. 76, T.P.A. 15 M. 290; see contra 2 A. 252.
- (e) Under N.W.P. Tenancy [Act, in a suit for rent no set-off can be allowed except for a sum due to the defendant on an unsatisfied decree under that act or any enactment. '4 A.L.J. 681=A.W.N. (1907), 269.
- (f) S. 140 of the Oudh Rent Act is a bar to a thekadar claiming a set-off in a suitffor arrears of rent. 1 O.C. 100.

E.-What is or is not a set-off.

(1) A set-off and not a payment.

- (a) In a rent suit, a defence of payment for cesses of previous years was held to be not a part payment, but one in the nature of a set-off. 10 C.W.N. 199.
- (b) In a suit for rent, defendant's plea that he, having regard to the lease, was entitled to a certain amount which the plaintiff had received, was held to be a claim of set-off, and not a part payment of the rent to the plaintiff. 19 A.W.N. 148.
- (c) In a suit for wages, defendant claimed the right to deduct sums paid for plaintiff's passage money and house rent. There was no agreement that these should be deducted from plaintiff's wages. The Court held that defendant was not entitled to deduct the amounts, but must plead a set-off under S. 111, C.P.C. U.B.R. (Vol. 1897 to 1901), p. 244. D

(2) Not a plea of set-off.

- (a) There can be only one suit between an agent and his principal for the whole account of the agency. In a suit by the principal, the agent's plea of cross-claims for monies spent by him for his principal, is not a plea of set-off, but of debit and credit, and in such a suit, the whole accounts must be gone into. 2 P.L.R. 138.
- (b) In a suit for money by plaintiff after allowing a certain amount in favour of defendant, it was held that the whole suit was for balance of account, and that the amount allowed in favour of the defendant could not strictly be regarded as a set-off. 13 A. 296; 11 A.W.N. 85.F.
- (c) In ascertaining mesne profits, deductions allowed in the nature of allowances made for costs of cultivation or collection expenses, are not in the nature of a set-off. 25 W.R. 275.

O. VIII, r. 6] Act Y of 1908 (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE).

2.- " Claims to set-off." -- (Continued).

E.-What is or is not a set-off-(Concluded),

- (d) A plea of payment is not a set-off. 4 C.L.R. 296; 12 C.L.R. 539.
- (e) A lambardar who had paid arrears of Government Revenue out of the collections of the subsequent years, without reference to the co-sharers, was entitled, in a suit against him by a co-sharer for his share of the profits for such subsequent years, to claim a deduction on account of such payment. 1 A. 135 (F.B.).

F.-When set-off allowed.

- (a) In a suit for rent, defendant called for an account alleging that under arrangement with plaintiff's ancestors, he paid rent in cash or kind. Held that the accounts should be called for and allowed as set-off. 23 W.B. 20.
- (b) In a suit for rent, liquidated sum due on a bond may be set off. 16 W.R. 225.
- (c) Costs may be set-off against costs. A.W.N. (1906), 198=3 A.L.J. 804=28
  A. 676.
- (d) Costs allowed may be set-off against mortgage amount payable. 4 C. 742; 17 B. 32.
  M
- (c) A debt due from the deceased husband of a widow may be set-off against a debt due to the widow herself. 1 W.R. Mis. 23.
- (f) In a rent suit, a money decree against plaintiff may be set-off. But if the defendant had applied for execution of the decree, then the present rule will cease to apply. 8 C.W.N. 118=30 C. 1066.
- (y) In a suit for wages, the defendant was allowed to set-off under S. 111, C.P.C., the amount claimed as due for goods sold on commission by the plaintiff. 8 A. 396.
- (h) In execution of a decree for mesne profits against a widow, she was allowed to set-off her maintenance and the amount spent for the funerals of her husband. 25 A. 266.
- (i) Some patnidars of a zemindari purchased shares in the same zemindari and thus became part owners. It was held that they can set-off their patni liability against their zemindari right. 20 W.R. 409.
- (j) In a suit for rent of a house, defendant's plea that he had spent the amount in repairs which the plaintiff was bound to but did not execute, was allowed as a set-off under S. 121 of C.P.C. of 1859. 25 P.R. 1876 (Civil).

Set-off allowed by appellate Court.

When a set-off was asserted in a written statement, though no issue was framed upon it, or nothing was decided by the lower Court, and though it was not pressed in appeal, the appellate Court considering it o be material, framed issues, and sent it back for trial to the lower Court. 6 Bom. L.R. 790.

G.-When set-off not allowed.

(a) Where the High Court omitted to award the cost of the first Court, a setoff cannot be allowed on the costs, as it was not actually awarded. W.R. 308.

2.- "Claims to set off." - (Concluded).

G.-When set-off not allowed-(Concluded).

- (b) In a suit for money on dishonoured hunds, unascertained damages with respect to an alleged breach of contract cannot be set-off under S. 121, C.P.C. of 1859. 3 Agra Rep. A.C. 43.
- (c) In a suit on a pro-note given for goods bought, a claim for damages for failure to supply goods of the contract quality and description in different consignments cannot be set-off, under S. 111, C.P.C. 2 L.B.R. 186.
- (d) In a suit for money paid as Government revenue to protect a lease in the nature of a mortgage, a claim for rent cannot be pleaded as a set-off. 1 W.R. 297.
- (e) In a suit for plaintiff's share of the arrears of rent against lessec of a portion of the estate, a set-off under S. 121 of C.P.C. of 1859 of the plaintiff's share of the Government Revenue of the whole estate, was not allowed. 13 B.L.R. 440=22 W.R. 15.

3.-" Any ascertained sum."

- (a) A sum decreed, being an ascertained sum, may be set-off. 10 W.R. 380 = 2 B.L.R.A.C. 84.
- (b) In a suit for arrears of salary, a claim of a certain amount received by plaintiffs on behalf of the defendant in the course of service, not being in the nature of unliquidated damages, was allowed as a set-oft. 3 A.W.N. 5.
- (c) Unascertained sums may be set-off by the consent of parties themselves, when they compromise the suit. 17 W.R. 118=10 B.L.R. 45. B
- (d) A claim for unascertained damages unconnected with the bills of exchange upon which a suit was brought, could not be pleaded as a set-off in the suit. 2 M.H.C. 296.
- (e) In suit for damages on an agreement, a claim of unascertained damages on a previous agreement between the same parties, was not allowed to be set-off. 21 B. 126.
- (f) In a suit for rent, unascertained damages, which the defendant suffers in execution of a decree of the Civil Court, cannot be set-off. 3 Agra Rep. 177.
  E
- (g) In a claim for ront, unascertained mesne profits of previous years could not be pleaded as a set-off. 22 W.R. 1.

4.—" Legally recoverable by him from the plaintiff."

General.

- (a) The words 'legally recoverable' have no reference to a full payment; on the other hand a sum is 'legally recoverable,' though in the result the creditor will have to be satisfied with a dividend. 30 B. 173=7 Bom. L.R. 246.
- (b) If a receiver sues for a debt due to a person, the defendant can claim a set-off which he could have urged against the creditor himself, though under O. VIII, r. 6, a set-off may not be claimed, when it is not "legally recoverable by the defendant from the plaintiff." 17 M.L.J. 481.

4.—"Legally recoverable by him from the plaintiff."—(Coucluded).

EXAMPLES.

- (a) The provisions of S. 111 of Act XIV of 1882 do not apply, where the debt sought to be set-off was barred by limitation before the suit was filed. 53 P.R. 1898; 7 A. 284; 1 W.R. 296.
- (b) In a case of equitable set-off where the transactions were closely connected, a barred debt was allowed to be set-off. 2 C.L.J. 73=32 C. 576.
- (c) In a suit for contribution by a co-sharer who had paid the whole amount of a joint rent decree, the defendants were allowed a set-off of previous payments of similar decrees by them on behalf of plaintiff, though the remedy as regards them might have been barred by limitation.

  12 C.W.N. 60.
- (d) A claim, if it is not barred as res judicata, may be set-off. 8 A. 396.
- (e) A claim based on a decree incapable of being enforced cannot be set-off.

  16 W.R. 308.
- (f) In a suit on an instalment bond given for Nazar or Salami by a tenant contemporaneously with the execution of an unregistered patta and a kabuliat which could not be received in evidence, a set-off by the defendant on the footing of a contract contained in the patta and kabuliat was not allowed. 5 B.L.R. Ap. 1=13 W.R. 307.
- (g) A claim in respect of an infant's debt cannot be set-off. Rawley v. Rawley, 1 Q.B.D. 460.
- (h) In a rent suit, the amount of a new road cess paid by defendant, which plaintiff could not be compelled to pay under the terms of the lease, could not be set-off. 4 C. 576; 11 C.L.R. 140.
- (i) A debt, not due or payable at the time of suit, could not be set-off in a claim for rent. 22 W.R. 1; 6 W.R. Ref. 26.
- (j) In a suit by the Liquidator of a Company the defendant was allowed to set-off his deposit amount in the Company—which amount, though not due at the time when the Company went into liquidation, was due and legally recoverable at the time of the suit. 15 M.L.J. 230 = 28
  M. 240.

Barred amount not allowed as a set-off was taken into account.

Though the profits of a certain year were not allowed as a set-off, under S. 111, C.P.C., as having been barred by limitation, yet, it is not equitable to refuse to take them into account, as the mortgagee was in possession of the property. 6 C.P.L.R. 22.

5.-"Net exceeding...... of the Court."

General.

- (a) To enable a Court to act under S. 111, C.P.C., the amount of set-off pleaded should be within the pecuniary limits of the Court's jurisdiction. 17 P.R. 1890.
- (b) No Court can entertain a set-off, if it would not have had jurisdiction to entertain a suit if one had been brought to recover the money sought to be set-off. 15 A. 404.
  U
- (c) For the purposes of jurisdiction, the value of the suit as instituted by the plaintiff, should alone be taken into consideration, and not the value of the plaintiff's suit plus the value of set-off claimed in it. Where both the value of the suit and the set-off are separately within the powers of the Court, then the Court can adjudicate upon both, under S. 111, C.P.C. 69 P.R. 1889.

5.—"Not exceeding..... of the Court."—(Concluded).

EXAMPLES.

- (a) In a small cause suit in the Presidency Small Cause Courts, defendant was not allowed to set-off a claim exceeding the limits of the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court. 20 C. 527; 3 A.W.N. 5; 3 N.W.P. 114. W
- (b) In the Presidency Small Cause Court, Calcutta, plaintiff claimed damages exceeding the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court, but in order to bring it within jurisdiction, set-off a sum due by him to defendant in a different transaction. Defendant did not agree to its being set-off. Under S. 18, Exp. 1 of Act XV of 1882, it was held that the plaintiff could not set-off the amount and the suit was consequently dismissed. 21 C. 419.
- (c) In a small cause suit before a Subordinate Judge a set-off of an amount exceeding its small cause jurisdiction may be pleaded. 12 B. 31 Y. This was apparently overruled by 14 B. 371.

6.-" Both parties fill....plaintiff's suit."

General.

- (a) A separate debt cannot be set-off against a joint debt or vice versa. 9 B. 373;
   1 Ind. Jur. N.S. 354; Old S.C. 30.
- (b) In a set-off the debts should be mutual, i.e., due from and to the same parties and in the same right. 2 C.L.R. 414.
- (c) A defendant has no right to set-off a debt due to him against the debts due to the plaintiff from the same persons. 23 W.R. 134.
  B.

EXAMPLES.

- (a) Though an assignee of a person blings the suit, defendant's right of set-off against the person is not affected, and he can plead the set-off in the assignee's suit, though the assignment is by a sale, in execution of a decree, against the person. 2 B.L.R.A.C. 84.
- (b) In a suit for rent by plaintiff who took an assignment of the rental claim from the landlord, the defendant-tenants could claim a set-off in respect of money decrees which they held against the landlord, under S. 111, C.P.C. 16 C.P.L.R. 118.
- (c) In a suit by the assignee of the lessor's right against lossee for rent, the latter having previously taken a mortgage of the same property was allowed to set-off the mortgage amount against the lease amount. 17 M.L.J. 87 = 30 M. 235.
- (d) In a suit for money by a Company, a director can set-off a debt due to him by the Company; but, if a liquidator brings a suit against him under S. 214 of the Indian Companies Act, he cannot claim a set-off. 30 B. 178= 7 Bom. L.R. 246.
- (e) In a suit on a bond by the heir of a deceased vakil, the defendant was allowed to plead a set-off of funds collected by the deceased as his vakil. 1 M.L.J. 598=15 M. 29.
- (f) An ism farzi concealment of names fraudulently to defeat a rule of public policy cannot be pleaded by a party to such an act for his own benefit. When a set-off is pleaded the identity of the parties in whole, not only in part, must be shown. The Court is not bound to decide a suit between defendant and a person not a party to the suit under colour of a set-off to a suit brought by a third party. Old S.C. 57.

O. VIII, r. 6] Act Y of 1908 (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE).

6. -" Both parties fill .... plaintiff's suit."-(Concluded).

- (g) The heirs of M appointed one of the heirs A as manager to M's estate to pay off the debts of M. A creditor of M sued the heirs, and, in the execution of the decree got by him, sold Z's share in M's landed estate. Z now sued the other heirs for contribution and they pleaded set-off in respect of Z's share of the liabilities of M's estate, which had been satisfied by A as manager. It was held that the set-off could not be entertained in the suit. 3 A.W.N. 45; 5.A. 299.
- (h) In a rent suit, the claim of the defendant-tenant to set-off costs awarded to him in a previous rent suit brought by the benamidar of the landlord and in which the landlord also was made a pro forma defendant, was not allowed. 11 C.W.N. 215.

7 .- "At the first hearing ... permitted by the Court."

A question of set-off could not, for the first time, be raised in cross-appeal. 13 C. 124=19 I.A. 48.

8 .- " May present a written statement .... set-off."

- (a) If a defendant claimed a set-off, under S. 121 of Act VIII of 1859, he was bound to tender a written statement of his claim. 14 W.R. 473.
- (b) Where no specific sum was claimed as a set-off, and no written statement containing the particulars of the set-off was tendered, under S. 111, C.P.C., the defendant would not be allowed to set-off unascertained sums alloged to have been deposited with the plaintiffs on account of the defendants. 45 P.R. 1899=1 P.L.R. 5.

9.-" Same effect as a plaint in a cross suit."

A.-General.

- (a) When a defendant pleads set-off and an issue is raised on the claim of set-off, he must be considered as plaintiff. 5 B.L.R. 639.
- (b) A claim to a set-off should be considered as a plaint in a cross suit and is therefore governed by O. II, r. 2. 1 C.L.J. 364 = 32 C. 654.
- (c) If, in a suit, plaintiff admits a set-off, but fails to prove his claim, a decree should be given to the defendant of the amount of set-off admitted. 9 C.W.N. 748.
- (d) A defendant may deny plaintiff's claim and also plead a set-off and obtain a decree for it, although no sum may be found to be due to the plaintiff. 6 B.H.C.A.C. 151. See also 5 W.R. 32.

B.-Appeal.

In a cross-claim, an appeal will lie to the same Court as if the sum had been demanded in a separate suit. 3 N.W.P. 114.

C .- Court-fee.

(1) Court-fee on a claim of set-off need not be paid.

(a) A written statement claiming a set-off, under S. 111, C.P.C., need not bear Court-fee stamps. (18 B. 672; 8 A. 396 and 15 M. 29, dissented from); 2 L.B.R. 186.

9.—"Same effect as a plaint in a cross suit."—(Concluded).

C .- Court-fee - (Concluded).

- (b) In a set-off claimed as damages arising out of the same transaction, no ad valorum Court-fee for the unascertained sum need be paid on the written statement. 80 P.W.B. 1908.
- (c) If a receiver sues for a debt due to a person, the defendant can claim a setoff which he could have urged against the creditor himself; and the written statement claiming the set-off need not be stamped as a plaint. 17 M.L.J. 481.
- (2) Court-fee on a claim of set-off must be paid.
  - (a) The Court-fee payable on the claim for set-off was the same as for a plaint in a suit. 8 A. 396; 13 B. 672; 15 M. 29; these cases have been dissented from by Banerji, J., in 8 C.W.N. 174.
  - (b) In a rent suit, a defence of payment for cesses of previous years, was held to be in the nature of a set-off and as such Court-fee should be paid on it. 10 C.W.N. 199.
    W
- (3) Court-fee on the excess claim.

The excess of the set-off, the defendants cannot claim to recover from the plaintiffs, unless they pay Court-fee on it. 7 A. 284; 5 A.W.N. 40. X

D.-Whether excess set-off to be allowed.

Excess set-off should be allowed. Per Oldfield, J.

Excess set-off should not be allowed unless Court-fee is paid. Per Duthoit, J. 7 A. 284; 5 A.W.N. 40.

10.-" But this shall not affect the lien.....decree."

- In a redemption suit, costs were awarded to the plaintiff, who was ordered to pay mortgage money and interest to defendant. The plaintiff was allowed to set-off his costs against the mortgage money, notwithstanding any claim that defendant's attorney might have against the defendant in respect of defendant's costs. 4 C. 742; 4 C.L.R. 122; 15 A. 9; 12 A.W.N. 115.

off shall be presented except by the leave of the Court and upon such terms as the Court thinks fit 1, but the Court may at any time require a written statement 2 or additional written statement from any of the parties and fix a time for presenting the same.

(Notes).

Old Act.

- Except a provided in the last preceding section, no written statement shall be received after the first hearing of the suit.
- Provided that the Court may at any time require a written statement, or additional written statement, from any of the parties, and fix a time for presenting the same.
- Provided also that a written statement, or an additional written statement, may, with the permission of the Court, be received at any time for the purpose of answering written statements so required and presented.

Difference between the old and the new Acts.

- (1) The first part of the new rule corresponds to the first and the third paras of the old section.
- (2) For the words "provided that," the word "but" has been substituted in the new Code.

I.-" No pleading subsequent...as the Court thinks fit."

A .- Additional statement allowed.

- (a) A statement explaining plaint and not putting forth a new case, was allowed to be put in after evidence was taken—as the admission of it did not prejudice the defendant in any way. 22 W.R. 377.
- (b) Additional written statement by the defendant was allowed to be put in, on condition of the whole costs of the other party being paid. 3 B.L.R. Ap. 11.
- (c) Subsequent to the filing of the written statement an application for raising an issue as to jurisdiction was granted on payment of the costs of the adjournment to enable the plaintiff to meet the new issue. Cor. S. C
- (d) Defendants, owing to ignorance of the true state of facts, omitted to include certain items in their counter-claim. They were allowed subsequently to put in a supplemental written statement extending their counterclaim. 24 B. 403.
- (e) It a party becomes aware of a fact after his plaint or written statement was filed, and wants to prove it at the trial, he should file a supplementary written statement before the hearing. 4 B. 576.
- (f) A further written statement allowed by Court to be filed within a certain time, if filed after that date, will not be ordered to be taken off the file, if the other party delays to make an application until the trial. 9 B. 878 (881).

I.-"No pleading subsequent....as the Court thinks fit."—(Concluded).

B.-Additional statement not allowed!

- (a) Under the old C.P.C., a plaintiff cannot file a rejoinder after having seen the written statement of the defendant. 5 W.R. 56.
- (b) Supplemental written statement cannot be filed after the parties have entered upon their case at the hearing. 4 B. 576.

C.-Effect of an improper admission of a written statement.

An appellate Court would not interfere in the case of an improper admission of a written statement, if it did not cause any prejudice to the other party. 22 W.R. 377.

2 .- "But the Court may at any time require a written statement."

A supplemental written statement called for by the Court, which did not add or vary plaintiff's claim, was held to have been rightly admitted... 11 W.R. 71.

Procedure when party fails to present written statement called for by Court. 10. Where any party 1 from whom a written statement is so required fails to present 2 the same within the time fixed by the Court, the Court may pronounce judgment against him, or make such order in relation to the suit as it thinks fit 3.

(Notes).

Old Act.

Difference between the old and the new Acts.

For the words "if," and "pass a decree," the words "where" and "pronounce judgment" respectively have been inserted in the new Act.

1.-" Any party."

A third party will not be allowed to verify and file a written statement on behalf of a party in the suit, and a Court has no authority to allow it. Bourke O.C. 158; 25 W.R. 17.

2.-"Fails to present."

Plaintiffs asked by Court to put in a rejoinder, filed a statement expressing their inability to give further information. This was held to be a sufficient compliance of the order of Court, and so under O. VIII, r. 10, plaintiffs did not 'fail to present' the statement called for. 16 M.L.J. 30.

3.-" May pronounce judgment...as it thinks fit."

- (a) If a Court acting under S. 118, C.P.C., passes a decree against defendant, it is not an ex parte decree to be set aside under S. 108, C.P.C. 4 O.C. 372.
- (b) If the defendant neglects to furnish a written statement, he should be first examined by the Court, and then if the Court considers that a written statement should be put in, it should adjourn the case for that purpose at the cost of the defendant. 2 Hyde 89.
- (c) S. 118, O.P.O., does not justify a Court striking out a defence off the file, for failure of the defendant to present a further written statement called for by Court. 59 P.R. 1892.

ORDER IX.

APPEARANCE OF PARTIES AND CONSEQUENCE OF NON-APPEARANCE.

Parties to appear on day fixed in the summons for the defendant to appear and answer, the parties shall be in attendance at the Court-house in person or by their respective pleaders 1, and the suit shall then be heard unless the hearing is adjourned to a future day fixed by the Court.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule corresponds to S. 96 of Act XIV of 1882.

"The hearing be adjourned" is changed into "The hearing is adjourned."

Objects and Reasons.

- (1) "S. 104 originally formed part of S. 60 of Act VIII of 1859 and in combination with the rest of that section it was appropriate. As a separate section, however, it is misleading and it certainly is not now required in view of the provisions for service on a defendant residing out of British India and for proceeding with a suit ex parte when a defendant does not appear. Its retention would involve a diversity of procedure which the committee think undesirable (see 23 A. 99)."

  (Statement of Objects and Reasons.)
- (2) Chap. VII (Ss. 96-109) of Act XIV of 1882 cannot in view of S. 4, Act No. VI of 1892, be applied to proceedings in executions of decrees. But a Court has power inherent, if not conferred by statute, to dismiss an application for execution when the applicant fails through his own laches to put the Court in a position to proceed with his application. Similarly, a Court has inherent power, if such power is not conferred upon it by statute, to proceed forthwith to decide an application for execution of a decree on the materials before it, when time has been granted to a party to perform any act necessary for the further progress of the application, and that act has not been done. 15 A. 84. # (General).

Meaning.

S. 99-A of Act XIV of 1882 is not very happily expressed but it means that when the plaintiff fails, for a period of one year from the return of the summons unserved, to apply for the issue of fresh summons and, on that application, to satisfy the Court that he has used his best enceavours to discover the residence of the defendant, who has not been served, or that such defendant is avoiding service of process, then, and only then, the Court may creates the sort as against such defendant under that section. 7 Bom. L.R. 928.

1.-" For a period of one year."

What is sufficient time.

- (1) An application for fresh summons is within time, if made within one year from the date of the Nazir's countersignature. 18 B. 500.
- (2) The rule refers to the lacse of a year, not from the filing of the plaint, but from the return of the summons unserved. 7 Bom. L.R. 928. Z
- (3) The plaintiff must apply within one year. 3 Bom. I.R. 462.

2 .- " Fails to apply for issue of fresh summons."

Issue of fresh summons.

A summons ought not to issue after the lapse of the period of limitation prescribed for a suit unless the plaintiff has in the meantime done what he can to present his suit with one or igence. If a defendant is aggreed by an order directly a simmons to issue in such a case, he ought to apply to set aside the order and the summons under it.

(General).

(1) Scope of the rule.

It is not limited in its application to defendants residing within British India.

A.W.N. (1901), 1; 23 A. 99.

(2) First hearing.

As to whether the rule is limited to first hearing or not. See 7 A. 538; 4 C. 318; 11 C.L.R. 537; 4 M.H.C. 56; 8 A. 140; 18 A. 241; 4 Bom. H.C. 206; 20 B. 293; 12 C. 605; 23 C. 738; 15 W.R. 143; U.B.R. Vol. II (1897 to 1901), p. 240.

(3) Costs of postponement.

S. 100 of Act XIV of 1882 only enabled the Court to order a fresh notice to issue and if it thought proper, to order plaintiff to pay the——; but it had no power to reject the plaintiff's application for a fresh notice.
18 B. 9.

(4) Appeal, Review, etc.

- (a) Where a decree had been passed ex parts and the defendant had not adopted the procedure provided by S. 108 of Act XIV of 1882, he can appeal from such decree. 9 M. 445.
- (b) He can also apply under S. 108 to set aside the ex parts decree or for a review. W.R. 213; 20 W.R. 3; 15 W.R. 481.

General-(Concluded).

(c) Where an ex parts decree has been passed against a defendant, it is sufficient, in the first instance, to establish that in the Court, which passed the ex parts decree, the necessary proof of service of summons on the defendant was not given by the plaintiff. It is not incumbent on the appellant to show that the summons was in fact not duly served.

1901 A.W.N. 1; 23 A. 99.

(5) Minor.

It is always desirable that the appointment of a guardian all litem at the instance of the plaintiff should not be made, unless the minor or his friends and relatives, in whose care he may be, failed to move the Court for that purpose within a reasonable time after receiving notice of the institution of the suit. 14 C. 204.

- (b) It is not necessary, before proceeding to determine the suit ex parts, to exhaust all the process prescribed by law for compelling the attendance of the defendant. It is sufficient that due service is proved. 5 C. 353.P
- (c) The defendant was entitled to appear as of right on the adjourned day at the instance of the plaintiff, though he did not appear on the previous day of hearing. 9 Born. L.R. 15.

"Clause (b)."

(1) Discretion of Court.

The Judge has a discretion as to granting second summons. He should refuse to grant when there has been great and unexplained laches on the part of the plaintiff. 15 B.L.R.A. 12.

(2) Court has no power.

To refuse fresh summons even though the defendant was not served owing to plaintiff's neglect to point out the defendant to the serving officer.

18 B. 59.

"Clause (c)."

Duty to adjourn.

The Court is bound to adjourn the hearing to a future day on the ground that sufficient time had not been given to the defendant to appear and asswer to the suit; his appearing ought not to put him in a worse position. 18 W.R. 141.

(Miscellaneous Cases).

- (a) A Judge, instead of striking off a case, because an alleged lunatic does not appear after service of notice, ought in such event to prosecute the inquiry contemplated by Act XXXV of 1858. 2 W.R. Mis. 7.
- (b) It is the duty of the Court to summon the witness named by the defendant, when the defendant was examined as a witness in a suit under Act XVII of 1879 after the case was ordered to proceed ex parts.
  Y
- Procedure where defendant appears on day of adjourned hearing appears and assigns good cause for his previous hearing and assigns good cause for his previous non-appearance 1, he may, upon such terms as the Court directs as to costs or otherwise, be heard in answer 2 to the suit as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his appearance.

Old Act.

This rule exactly corresponds to S. 101 of Act XIV of 1882; but the word "if" is changed into "where."

Appeal.

Defendants, who put in no appearance at the original hearing and who have subsequently been refused leave to appear and defend, are at liberty, where an ex parts decree has been passed against them, to appeal to a higher Court without previously taking any steps to have the ex parts decree set aside under S. 108 of Act X of 1877. 8 C. 272. W

1.-" Assigns good cause for his previous non-appearance."

If, on the adjourned day, the defendant is prevented from appearing for a sufficient cause, he could apply to set aside the ex parts decree.

18 W.R. 400; 4 C. 318; 9 Bom. L.R. 15.

2.-"He may....be heard in answer."

- (1) If he appears, but not heard, the decree passed will only be ex parts. 18 W.R. 400.
- (2) Though the written statement was refused to be received by the Court on the adjourned day, as there was no satisfactory explanation of previous non-appearance, the decree was not ex parte when the issues are framed in the presence of defendant's pleader who was also allowed to cross-examine plaintiff's witnesses. 1 B. 217.
- Procedure where defendant only appears.

  Procedure where defendant only appears.

  Procedure where defendant only appears.

  The Court shall make an order that the suit be dismissed, unless the defendant admits the claim, or part thereof, in which case the Court shall pass a decree against the defendant upon such admission, and, where part only of the claim has been admitted, shall dismiss the suit 2 so far as it relates to the remainder.

(Notes). Old Act.

The rule corresponds to S. 102 of Act XIV of 1882.

Difference between the old and the new Acts.

- (1) The word "if" is changed into "where."
- (2) The words "when the suit is called on for hearing" are new.
- (8) For the words "shall dismiss the suit" the words "shall make an order that the suit be dismissed" are substituted.

(General).

(1) Scope.

- (a) The rule applies to execution proceedings; striking off execution cases in order to lighten, the file was condemned. 3 B.L.R. 17; 18 B. 429; 15 A. 84.
- (b) The rule has reference only to the first hearing of the suit. 4 M.H.C. 56; 2 A. 67.
- (c) Ss. 102 and 103 of Act XIV of 1882 apply to proceeding before the Court, to which a reference is made under S. 18 of Act I of 1894 owing to the operation of S. 617 of Act XIV of 1882. 10 C.W.N. 991.
- (d) The word "plaintiff" must be held to include the plaintiff's heirs and representatives in interest; who cannot claim any better position as regards the maintenance of the second suit than the person through whom they claim. 1884 P.R. 80; 1891 P.R. 117 (15 C. 422, R.)

(2) Appeal.

- (a) An order dismissing a suit or appeal under this rule is a degree appealable.

- (b) The Court, after investigation, passed judgment in the absence of decree-holder. The decree-holder had no right of appeal; but, if aggrieved, might apply for a re-hearing. 12 W.R. 428.
- (c) A plaintiff cannot only appeal but also take advantage of the procedure permitted under r. 8. 8 C. 272.
- (d) An appeal did not lie from a judgment by default for non-appearance before a commissioner. Marsh 189.
- (e) Appeal from decree made under the rule; scope of such appeal—vide 1889 P.R. 32.

(3) Review.

When a suit was dismissed for default, a—could be preferred even without attempting to get it aside. 26 C. 598.

I .- "Plaintiff does not appear."

(1) General.

- (a) The rule deals with the non-appearance of plaintiff and not with the non-appearance of witnesses. 5 N.W.P. 74.
- (b) Dismissal on plaintiff's failure to adduce evidence is a decree passed on the marris and a second suit on the same cause of action barred.

  12 C. 533.

(2) Failure to pay a fee for the appointment of a commissioner.

The doored passed on the plaint ff's.—, though no time is prescribed within which it is to be made, is only exparte. 13 M. 510.

(3) Local investigation.

Plaintiff's failure to appear before the commissioner, should the defendant appear before him, is a proper ground for dismissal. 1 Ind. Jur. O. 53; W.R. (F.B.), 1; Marsh 189.

(4) Adjourned hearing-Default of witnesses.

On the refusal of the Court of the prayer of the plaintiff's pleader for the issue of a warrant for the arrest, he intimated that he had no instructions to appear in the suit. Dismissal held to be proper. 5 C.L.J. 26=34 C. 285.

(5) Pleader applying for an adjournment.

On the day of hearing, an adjournment was prayed for on the ground that the parties and their witnesses had been prevented from being present by the favor epidemic. An adjournment for one hour was granted. The pleader for the plaintiff got up and left the Court. Held to be no appearance. 23 C. 991; I.S.L.B. 224.

2.-" Shall dismiss the suit."

General.

(1) Abandonment of proceedings.

The—under S. 269 of Act VIII of 1859 did not amount to dismissal and was no bar to a fresh suit. 10 W.R. 61.

(2 Remand.

When a case was remanded for re-trial, some date should have been fixed for the re-hearing which would have given the parties opportunity to appear. 14 W.R. 401.

3) Non-attendance.

- (a) The dismissal of a suit for plaintiff's non-attendance is a highly penal matter and the punishment ought not to be inflicted unless after a distinct order to attend and upon proof that plaintiff has deliberately disobeyed the Court's order. 17 W.R. 141.
- (b) The very drastic order provided by the rule cannot properly be passed except when the conditions are such as are contemplated in the rule. 7 Bcm. L.R. 261.

(4) Proper order under the rule.

—is either to decree or dismiss the suit and not "struck off" was, however, held to mean dismiss suit. 10 W.R. 848; 5 A. 1895; 9 A. 155; 10 M. 270.

2.- "Shall dismiss the suit."-(Concluded).

General-(Concluded).

(5) Effect of dismissal.

- (a) The dismissal of an application brought under S. 9C of Act XIV of 1882 precludes the mortgagee from making a fresh application. 1 N.L.R. V
- (b) It does not operate as res judicata.
   10 M. 270; 15 C. 422; 15 I.A. 66; 16
   C. 98; 15 I.A. 156; 28 A. 627; 1888 P.R. 177.

(6) Dismissal-Proper.

Where the respondent appears, but the appellant does not, the Court has no power to decide the appeal on its merits. 7 B.L.R. 933.

(7) Dismissal-Not proper.

When the plaintiff has adduced all evidence on which he intended to rely, but neither he nor his pleader were present on the subsequent hearing. 7 B.L.R. 261.

(8) Construction of the order of dismissal.

In construing an order alleged by one side and denied by the other to be an order under S. 102, the order will be considered as an order under S. 102, if a part from the mere description which the Court gives of its action and apart from the actual facts of the plaintiff's appearance or non-appearance, the real meaning and substance of the Court's action is, that it dismisses the suit on the view, whether right or wrong, that the plaintiff appears and the defendant does not appear. 22 A. 66. Z

9. (1) Where a suit is wholly or partly dismissed under rule 8,

Decree against plaintiff by default fresh suit in respect of the same cause of action 1.

But he may apply for an order to set the dismissal aside, and if he satisfies the Court that there was sufficient cause for his non-appearance when the suit was called on for hearing 2, the Court shall make an order setting aside the dismissal upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

(2) No order shall be made under this rule unless notice of the application has been served on the opposite party.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule corresponds to S. 103 of Act XIV of 1882.

Difference between the new and the old Acts.

- (1) The words "section 102" are changed into "rule 8."
- (2) For the words "and, if it be proved," the words "and if he satisfies the Court" are substituted.

O. IX, r. 9] Act Y of 1908 (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE).

- (3) For the words "that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing", the words "that there was sufficient cause for his non-appearance" are substituted.
- (4) The words "set aside" are changed into "make an order setting aside."
- (5) The sub-rule (2) is made more general. For the words "unless the plaintiff ..application," the words "unless notice..the opposite party" are substituted.

(General).

(1) Scope of the rule.

- (a) The rule applies only to suits dismissed under r. 8 and r. 2, O. XVII, even where the plaintiff was an applicant for insolvency, if his application for same has been dismissed. 27 C. 217.
  A
- (b) The rule does not apply to dismissals under S. 158 of Act XIV of 1882.

   N.W.P. 74, 3 A. 292; 23 C. 991.
- (c) Dismissal of suit for want of prosecution on plaintiff's failure to deposit process-fees, etc., cannot be set aside by an application under this rule. 7 N.W.P. 126.
- (d) S. 9 of the Specific Relief Act does not prohibit a rehearing under this rule. 4 M. 217.
- (e) The rule applies to a reference under S. 30 of the Land Acquisition Act. 11 C.W.N. 430.
- (f) S. 193 of Act II of 1901 makes the provisions of this rule applicable to proceedings under the New Tenancy Act. 2 A.L.J. 118.
- (g) S. 38 of the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act does not prevent a plaintiff from applying under this rule to set aside a dismissal for default. 23 B. 414.
- (h) This rule does not apply to execution proceedings. 15 A. 84; 18 B. 429; 10 C.W.N. 839; but see 5 N.W.P. 104; 18 W.R. 207; 10 B. 438. H
- (i) The rule has no application to orders under S. 244 of Act XIV of 1882 (=S. 44 of Act V of 1908). 28 C. 81; (15 A. 359, diss. and 23 C. 115 and 827, diss.).
- (j) Rules 8 and 9 apply to proceedings before the Court to which a reference is made under S. 18 of Act I of 1894 10 C.W.N. 991.
- (k) The rule applies to cases of dismissals for default of appearance on the date of hearing. 23 C. 991; 8 C.W.N. 97=31 C. 150; 5 C.L.J. 260=34
   C. 235; 7 M. 41.
- (1) The rule may be construed as permitting a representative to apply at one and the same time for the substitution of his name in place of that of the deceased and for an order to set aside the dismissal of the suit. 6 O.C. 34.
- (m) An order under the rule is not an order affecting the decision of a case, within the meaning of S. 591 of Act XIV of 1882. (=S. 105 of Act V of 1908). U.B.R. Vol. II (1897 to 1901), p. 297.

(2) Appeal.

- (a) A right of appeal is given against an order refusing to restore, but no right of appeal is given against an order of restoration. 5 C. 711; 17 M.L.J. 225=30 M. 274.
- (b) As to appeals on orders passed in execution proceedings, see 10 B. 483; 11 M. 319; 21 M. 417; 10 C. 433; 31 C. 207=8 C.W.N. 160; 10 O C. 353.0
- (c) The rule does not take away the remedy of appeal from a decree dismissing a suit under r. 8. 4 A. 387; 8 A. 354 = A.W.N. (1883), 171; 9 A. 427.P

(General)—(Concluded).

(d) No appeal lies from an order refusing to restore to the file of pending applications, an application under Ss. 310 and 311 of Act XIV of 1882 (=0. 21, rr. 88 and 90 of Act V of 1908) which had been dismissed for default of appearance. 29 A. 596. A.W.N. (1907), 186; 10 O.C. 353 (10 B. 433; 27 C. 414; 31 C. 207 and 11 M. 319, R).

(3) Limitation.

A plaintiff's application for restoration must be made within 30 days from dismissal. If vacation intervenes, it must be made on the day the Court re-opens, and not on the first motion day after vacation. 20 C. 899; 31 C. 150=8 C.W.N. 97.

I.—"The plaintiff shall be precluded.....same cause of action." Principle.

- (a) The operation of the rule is confined to those cases only, where a second suit is barred for the same object and cause of action as the suit which is dismissed. 9 C. 426; 12 C.L. R. 29.
- (b) The rule precludes a fresh suit in respect of the same cause of action referring, irrespectively of the defence or the relief prayed for, entirely to the grounds or alleged media, on which the plaintiff asks the Court to decide in his favour. 16 C. 98; 15 I.A. 156.
- (c) The difference in the mode of relicf claimed did not affect the identity of the causes of action. 15 C. 422; 15 I.A. 66.

EXAMPLES.

- (i) Suit for rent, dismissed for default, does not bar a subsequent suit for possession. 9 C. 426; 12 C.L.R. 29.
- (ii) Suit by purchaser of mortgaged land against mortgagee for redemption is dismissed. A subsequent suit by purchaser against vendor and mortgagee for possession is not barred. 10 B. 28.
  W
- (iii) The right to enforce a partition is a legal incident of joint tenancy and any of the joint tenants may apply to the Court for partition of the joint property. Where the first suit for partition was dismissed, a second suit for the same relief would lie. 8 A.L.J. 379=A.W.N. (1906), 142=28 A. 627; 13 A. 309, R.
- (iv) A previous suit for partition brought by the plaintiffs having been compromised, an Amin was appointed to effect a partition. Subsequently, the execution proceedings then pending were dismissed for default of appearance. A fresh suit for partition is not barred by the rule. 10 C.W.N. 839.
- (v) Suit for a claim of the under-proprietary right in virtue of a settlement is dismissed. Subsequent suit for the superior-proprietary right is 'harred. 15 C. 422; 15 I.A. 66.
  Z
- (vi) First suit for redemption by mortgagor is dismissed under r. 8. A fresh suit for redemption of the same mortgage is barred. 48 P.R. 1907=169 P.L.R. 1908. (15 C. 422; 117 P.R. 1891 and 32 P.R. 1905, F; 10 B. 28, D; 25 M. 30; 7 B. 467; 13 B. 567; 19 A. 202, Appr; 86 P.R. 1877; 14 P.R. 1881; 6 M. 119; 7 M. 432; 11 A. 386 and 15 M. 366, doubted).
- (vii) Rejection of plaint, under S. 13, Act III of 1876, by reason of failure of plaintiff to attend with his proofs on the day appointed, is a decision and will bar a fresh suit on the same cause of action. 6 Bom. 477. B

2 .- "If he satisfies .. sufficient cause for his non-appearance, hearing."

(1) General.

- (a) The words "prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing" should be read so as to include the case of the absence of the plaintiff's counsel or attorney, when such absence has been caused by a bona fide mistake. 2 B. 282, 2nd Ed., 267.
- (b) When appearance was prevented by a sufficient cause, the Court has no discretion in the matter under the Code and must restore the case to file, whatever may prima facie be the merits of the suit or defence thereto. But where there may be other just and reasonable cause for restoring a case to file, the merits of the applicant's case will form a very important element in the exercise by the Court of its judicial discretion. It is competent to, but not obligatory upon, the Court to restore the case to file even when no sufficient cause for non-appearance is shown.
- (c) The only ground on which an order of dismissal of a suit for default can be set aside, is that of the plaintiff's being prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the suit was called on for hearing. 4 L.B.R. 221.
- (d) As to the question of sufficient cause, a Court of revision ought not lightly to interfere with the discretion exercised by the lower Court. 17 M.L.J. 225=30 M. 274; 26 M. 599, R.
- (s) A Court will not order a restoration when the plaintiff's absence was wilful and contumacious and amounted to a refusal to submit himself to the jurisdiction of the Court. A Court may restore a suit on a suitable order as to costs, looking to the importance of the cause, to the high value of the property involved, and the persistence with which the litigation is conducted by the plaintiff, if the non-appearance was due only to some trifling neglect or to ignorance of the consequences of his action in not appearing. 46 P.R. 1905; 26 M. 599, R.
- (f) Counsel's appearance in Court on instruction, only to apply for an adjournment, is no appearance for the conduct of the suit. 28 B. 417; 31 C. 150=8 C.W.N. 97; 46 P.R. 1905.

(2) Held to be sufficient cause.

- (a) That a party had had no sufficient time to ascertain as to who were the legal representatives of a deceased defendant. 23 C. 991.
- (b) When the pleader engaged by the plaintiff could not attend owing to wife's illness, and another gentlemen, who had agreed to take up the case as his substitute, was unavoidably prevented from attending the Court, and there being three cases on the day's list above the case, the party himself did not anticipate that the case would be called at an early hour. 11 C.W.N. 430; 7 C.W.N. 249=30 C. 36; 25 A. 133, Appr. J

(3) Not sufficient cause.

- (a) Believing that a part heard case would be proceeded with and would occupy some time, the plaintiff left the Court house and went to assist his employer. The plaintiff returned in about half an hour when he found that the suit was dismissed. 13 B. 12.
- (b) When the suit was called on for hearing, neither of the plaintiff's counsel was present; but the plaintiff was present in person. After raising of the issues in the case, the Court gave half an hour's time for the plaintiff to appear; but the plaintiff's counsel did not turn up. 10 Bom. L.R. 904; 26 M. 599, not followed.

2.—"If he satisfies...sufficient cause for his non-appearance.... hearing."—(Concluded).

(4) Fraud of guardian.

Gross negligence on the part of a next friend in the conduct of a suit, brought on behalf of a person under a disability, prevents the effect of the bar contained in the rule to the institution of a fresh suit by such person when the disability has ceased. 22 C. 8; 19 B. 571; 24 B. 547.

(5) Power of Court to restore the application.

Where an application for revision is dismissed for default of the petitioner, such petition can be restored by the Court under this rule. 97 P.R. 1907 = 33 P.L.R. 1908=109 P.R. 1882, diss.; 76 P.R. 1903: 75 P.R. 1881; 54 P.R. 1901; 14 C. 177; 62 P.R. 1894, R. and D.

(6) Objection to restoration.

Where plaintiff applies for restoration, the defendant cannot contest it as one which cannot be entertained at all under r. 9, by showing that at the time of the dismissal, there was an appearance by the plaintiff in fact or in law; but as an answer to the application on the merits, the defendant can raise the contention that the plaintiff was not prevented from appearing because in fact he did appear. 28 A. 66.

Procedure in case of non-attendance of one or more plaintiffs than one, and one or more of them appear, and the others do not appear, the Court may, at the instance of the plaintiff or plaintiffs appearing, permit the suit to proceed in the same way as if all the plaintiffs bad appeared, or make such order as it thinks fit.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule corresponds to S. 105 of Act XIV of 1882.

For the words "if there be" and "pass," the words "where there are" and "make" are substituted.

Procedure in case of non-attendance of one or more of several defendants.

Procedure in case of non-attendance of one or more of several defendants.

Procedure in case of non-attendance of non-attendance of one or more of several defendants.

The more defendants than one, and one or more of them appear and the others do not appear, the suit shall proceed, and the Court shall, at the time of pronouncing judgment, make such order as it thinks fit with respect to the defendants who do not appear.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule corresponds to S. 106 of Act XIV of 1882.

For the words "if there be" and "passing," the words "where there are" and "pronouncing" are substituted.

O. IX, rr. 11 to 13] Act Y of 1908 (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE).

(General).

- (1) Where parties who had been made co-defendants did not appear and the Court dealt with the case under S. 116 of Act VIII of 1859, the decree given was held not to be an ex parte one even as against the absent defendants. 12 W.R. 376.
- (2) S. 13 of Act XIV of 1882 is no bar to a fresh suit when the previous suit is dismissed in the defendant's absence on the failure of plaintiff to adduce evidence. 10 C.W.N. 40.
- (3) R. 13 should be read with this rule and effect should be given to all the provisions contained in them. 6 C.L.J. 226.
- (4) Where a decree is set aside on the application of a defendant against whom it was passed ex parte, the case is not re-opened as against a co-defendant who had appeared and defended the suit. 18 B. 142.
- Consequence of non-attendance, without sufficient cause shown, of party ordered to appear in person.

12. Where a plaintiff or defendant, who has been ordered to appear in person, does not appear in person, or show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Court for failing so to appear, he shall be subject to all the provisions of the foregoing rules applicable to plaintiffs and defendants, respectively. who do not appear.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule corresponds to S. 107 of Act XIV of 1882.

Difference between the new and the old Acts.

The words "if" and "sections" are changed into "where" and "rules." The words "under the provisions of S. 66 or S. 436" are omitted.

(General).

- (1) The hearing of a suit in which a pleader was appointed, but without instructions and who alone was present when the defendant was ordered to appear in person was held to be ex parte. 4 Bom. H.C. 206; S.D.A. N.W.P. 1863 (37). T
- (2) But a decision after appearance is not ex parte. Cor. Rep. 3. U
- (3) Appeal.

There is an appeal under S. 588 (8) (= 0. 43, r. 1 (c) of Act V of 1908) against the order refusing to set aside rejection of application to set aside dismissal of suit for non-appearance of plaintiff ordered to appear in person. 8 A. 20.

Setting aside Decrees "ex parte."

13. In any case in which a decree is passed ex parte 1 against a defendant, he may apply 2 to the Court by Setting aside dewhich the decree was passed 3 for an order to set creeex parte against defendant. it aside: and if he satisfies the Court that the summons was not duly served 4, or that he was prevented by any sufficient cause 5 from appearing when the suit was called on for hearing, the Court shall make an order ⁶ setting aside the decree as against him upon such terms as to costs ⁷, payment into Court or otherwise as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit:

Provided that where the decree is of such a nature that it cannot be set aside as against such defendant only it may be set aside as against all or any of the other defendants also.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule corresponds to S. 108 of Act XIV of 1882.

Difference between the new and the old Acts.

- (1) For the words "made," "pass an order to set aside," the words "passed," "make an order setting aside" are substituted.
- (2) The words "as against him " are new.
- (3) The proviso is also new.
- (4) The Committee have inserted words to make it clear that a decree can only be set aside in favour of a defendant against whom the decree has been passed ex parts. There is some conflict of judicial authority upon this point, and the Committee think that the matter should be set at rest in this sense. (See Statement of Objects and Reasons).

  - (3) When a suit has been decreed ex parte, and an application under S. 108 of Act XIV of 1882 (=0.9, r. 13 of Act V of 1908) for setting aside such decree dismissed, an application cannot be made under S. 38 of the—for a new trial. 3 C.L.J. 199.
  - (4) The Court of Small Causes at Bombay has inherent power to deal with an application to set aside an order made ex parte, and to set it aside, upon a proper cause being substantiated. 31 B. 45=8 Bom. L.R. 80 (32 C. 253=9 C.W.N. 81, F).

(y) MINOR.

- (1) The simple fact that a guardian did not appear in a suit is not a good and sufficient cause, for setting aside an exparte decree passed against a minor. There are different considerations which bear upon the matter, the question always being whether, in what the guardian did, he acted in the best interest of his ward. 5 C.W.N. 58.
- (2) Where there has been no appointment of a person as guardian ad litem of the minor defendant in the manner prescribed by S. 443 of Act XIV of 1882 (=0.32, r.3 (1) and r. 4 (2) of Act V of 1908), the minors were entitled to have the decree set aside as against them. 14 C. 204; 6 C.L.R. 69; 1902 A.W.N. 76=24 A. 383.
- (s) LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES.
  - The representatives of a deceased defendant can apply to set aside an exparte decree, just as the defendant himself could have done. 5 W.R.
     11; 29 C. 33; 9 O.C. 35; but see 21 A. 274; 28 M. 361.

  - S. 169 of——does not apply to an ex parte decree. The term "rehearing" in that section means a rehearing in the nature of an appeal. 19 B. 208.B

(2) Limitation.

(a) The object of the rule was to make it imperative on a defendant, against whom an ex-parte decree had been passed, to apply to the Court as soon as possible, after he had notice of the passing of the decree, i.e., within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days from the first actual execution of process to enforce judgment. 7 W.R 375; 13 W.R. 436; 8 Bom. A.C. 44; 26 W.R. 99; 12 B. 257; 17 B. 507.

(General)—(Continued).

- (b) Process of enforcing a judgment has not been executed until the proceedings in execution have been brought to a termination by a sale of the property attached. 7 W.R. 198.
- (c) Process for enforcing judgment was executed when an attachment of the property of the defendant had taken place. B.L.R. Sup. Vol. 947; 9 W.R. 236.
- (d) The thirty days, "after any process for enforcing the judgment has been executed," meant thirty days after the execution of any process against the person or property of the defendant. 6 W.R. 51; 6 A. 14.
- (e) There need not be personal service of the process. 1 N.W.P. 133.
- (f) When an application was made more than thirty days from the date of attachment, but within thirty days of the service of the sale proclamation, held it was barred by limitation. 9 C. 869; 7 A. 345 [A.W.N. (1884), 322, R.].
- (g) Notice of execution of decree is not sufficient "process for enforcing" it. Such process means actual process by attachment in execution of the person or property of the debtor. 2 C. 123; 1869 P.R. 94.
- (h) Notice of the process on the debtor is not necessary, 13 W R. 436; because if the process has been duly executed the law presumes that the judgment-debtor had notice of it. 15 W.R. 315.
- (i) A plea that the judgment-debtor was not aware of the fact of attachment, because property attached was not in his possession, or because he was not in town, will be of no avail. 25 W.R. 72.
  K
- (j) A judgment-debtor is not debarred from coming more than thirty days after attachment, provided he shows the property attached is not his. 6 W. R. 51; 15 W.R. 210; B.L.R. Sup. Vol. 947; but see 25 W.R. 72, in which case the proof was held to be insufficient.
- (k) An application, to set aside an exparte decree after thirty days have expired, should not be entertained on the supposition that there has been collusion to defeat the defendant's rights. 26 W.R. 99; 1878 P.R. 32.M
- (I) Before a Judge can enter into an enquiry whether notice has or has not been served on the applicant, he must first determine if the application for rehearing has been made in proper time. 11 W.R. 310.
- (m) The time, during which the petitioner was prosecuting his application, should not be excluded in computing the period of limitation in appeals. 28 C. 325 (5 A. 591; 21 C. 269, R.).
- (n) Unsuccessful attempts to set aside an ex parte decree will not have the effect of extending the period prescribed by law for execution of the decree. 16 B. 123.
- (o) An infructuous application is not such a process as sets limitation running.
   2 C.W.N. ccc.
- (p) A notice served under S. 248 (=0.21, r. 22 of Act V of 1908) is an execution of a process for enforcing judgment. 110 P.L.R. 1905.
- (q) When an ex parte decree is passed against more defendants than one, and the decree is executed against one of them only, then that is not an execution of process for enforcing judgment against the others. 9 Bom. L.R. 323=31 B. 303. [(1888) P.J. 56, F.]

(3) Other remedies.

(a) A suit will lie to set aside a decree and a sale held in execution of such a decree when both the sale and the decree are impeached on the ground of fraud. 21 C. 605; 24 C. 546; 21 A. 289; 29 C. 395; but not otherwise, 28 C. 475.

(General)—(Continued.)

(b) Where there is an appeal against a decision, the effect of not appealing is that the decision holds good for what it is worth; so far as concerns any other modes of relief available, the person not appealing is in no worse position than it he had appealed and failed. 24 C. 546; 21 A. 289.

(4) Review.

- (a) It is competent, to a party against whom an ex parte decree has been made, to apply for——of judgment. 6 A. 65; 8 A. 140.
- (b) But the Court will not interfere under S. 622 of Act XIV of 1882 (= S. 115 of Act V of 1908), in applications for—of orders passed on applications under this rule. 8 C. 832.

- (g) A defendant against whom a decree has been passed ex parte, who has not adopted the remedy provided by the rule, cannot appeal from such decree. 4 A. 387; 8 C. 272; 10 C.L.R. 502; but see 9 M. 445; 1883 P.R. 60; 1886 P.R. 2.
- (h) Though a proper order under the rule is so far final, its propriety may be contested in appeal from the final decree. 25 W.R. 304; 22 W.R. 232.
- (i-j) The objection that the Munsiff ought not to have entertained an application, as it had not been presented in due time, will be too late in special appeal if it had not been raised in appeal. 8 B.L.R. 78; 15 W R. 315.F
- (k) The Court restoring a suit to file, setting aside an ex parts decree, should give the defendant an opportunity to cross-examine plaintiff's witnesses. 12 W.R. 130; sometimes the expenses of re-summoning plaintiff's witnesses may fall on him. 20 W.R. 3; an affidavit tendered as evidence in appeal was rejected. 17 W.R. 390.
- (1) No appeal will lie from an order made under S. 157 (= O. 17, r. 2 of Act V of 1908) read with S. 108 (= O. 9, r. 18 of Act V of 1908) of Act XIV of 1882, setting aside an exparte decree in default of appearance on the day of adjourned hearing. 19 A. 355.

(General)-(Concluded).

- (m) Where an ex parte decree was set aside by an order under the rule, and the suit heard upon the merits and dismissed, held that such an order was not an order affecting the decision of the case under S. 591 (=S 105 of Act V of 1908), and was not appealable under that section. 22 C. 981; i.e., such an order cannot be set forth as a ground of objection in the memo of appeal against the decree in the suit. 25 A. 280.
- (n) An order, setting aside the decree, in toto, as against all the defendants, is not appealable, but may be questioned in an appeal against the final decree. 13 M.L.J. 308; but see 25 A. 230.
- (e) No appeal hes to the Privy Council on any interlocutory order passed by the High Court. 11 M.L.J. 65; 28 I.A. 28; 28 C. 442; 5 C.W.N. 153; 3 Bom. L.R. 78; 23 A. 220.

- (2) An application by the judgment-debtor, under S. 258 of Act XIV of 1882, to certify an alleged adjustment of decree was granted. Thereupon the decree-holder applied to have the order set aside under this rule. On the rejection of the application and on the refusal of the Court to treat it as an application for review, he appealed. Held an appeal lay to the High Court. A.W.N. (1906), 58=3 A.L.J. 119.
- (q) The first Court had jurisdiction to hear the application for setting aside an ex parts decree during the pendency of the appeal. 12 C.W.N. 885. M.
- (r) An ex parte decree was set aside by the Munsiff. A rule to set aside this order was discharged by the High Court. The District Judge had no jurisdiction to consider the propriety of the order. 8 C.L.J. 308.

(6) Remand.

- (a) After the postponement of a suit on the application of the defendant's pleader, the application for adjournment on the adjourned day of hearing was refused. The suit was decreed ex parts. On appeal, the case was sent back for retrial. 3 B.L.R. 44; 15 W.R. 508.
  - (b) When the lower appellate Court admitted an application for retrial of a case decided ex parte by the Munsiff, it is right in sending for the record. 15 W.R. 481.
  - (c) Where an order of the lower Court dismissing an application under the rule was reversed, and the High Court remanded the case to be disposed of on the merits:—held that the proper construction of the order, alike in law and in the facts of the case, was that it was the application and not the suit that was remanded for disposal upon the merits. 5 C.W.N. 153; 11 M.L.J. 65; 28 C. 424; 28 I.A. 28.
  - (d) When a case is in fact tried on the merits, for example, the Munsiff rejecting an application holding there was neither fraud nor suppression, the District Judge had no jurisdiction to remand it, but should have come to a conclusion on the evidence. 7 C.L.J. 379.
  - (e) There is a power to remand a case when the appellate Court reverses an order refusing to set aside an ex parts decree. 30 M.54=1 M.L.T. 268 = 16 M.L.J. 479 (28 M. 445; 23 A. 167, F; 17 B. 733; 23 M. 260, not followed; 23 C. 738: 28 M. 447: 28 M. 487 and 12 A. 510, R.).

(7) Execution proceedings.

The rule applies to—and an appeal would lie, under S. 588, cl. 9 (=0.43, r. 1 (d) from an order dismissing an application under the rule, on the ground that it did not apply to execution proceedings. 3 C.L.J. 276.

- (b) The appearance of the defendant earlier than 15 days after service of process, his swearing that no summons had been served on him, and that the contract under which the case had been decreed against him had been broken by the plaintiff. 13 W.R. 237.
- (c) Fraud of the plaintiff which prevented the defendant from appearing on the last day of hearing. 18 W.R. 457.
- (d) Bona fide mistake of the party's counsel or attorney. 2 Bom. H.C. 267; but not necessarily because pleader was engaged elsewhere. 24 W.R. 141.F
- (e) Decree in the absence of one of the parties to whom no intimation had been given of the day when the case would be heard. 2 B. 381. G, H
- (f) Absence of parties owing to an understanding between them for an adjournment. Cor. Rep. 120; 2 Hyde 216.
- (g) Non-appearance of guardian, as also his negligence otherwise. 6 C.L.R. 69; 22 C. 8.
- (h) The party not aware of the case being transferred from one Court to another. 9 C.D. 1.
  K
- (i) Impeachment on the ground of fraud. 21 C. 605; 24 C. 546. (17 C. 769 and 19 C. 341, dist.); 11 C.W.N. 440.

(3) Burden of proof.

- (a) The onus of proving sufficient cause lies on the applicant. 24 W.R. 262. M
- (b) If the applicant has made out a prima facte case, the onus will shift on to the other side to rebut it. 22 W.R. 423.

6 .- "The Court shall make an order."

- (a) The precise effect of the order has occasioned much discussion. 25 C. 155; 5 C.W.N. 58; 18 B. 142; 13 M.L.J. 308; 6 C.W.N. 109. See also Statement of Objects and Reasons.
- (b) An application by one co-defendant was held to re-open the case, against all the defendants, where the objection was on a ground common to all; otherwise not. 15 W.R. 371; 24 A. 383; 25 A. 42; 26 M. 604.

7 .- "Setting aside the decree ..... upon such terms as to costs."

(1) General principles.

- (a) The Court had no power to impose terms in granting the order. 6 B.L.R. 688; 4 C. 318; 3 C.L.R. 482.
- (b) A Court has jurisdiction to set aside an exparte decree, on condition that the defendant should find surety who would be responsible for any amount that would subsequently be decreed against the defendant. 26 C. 222.

7,-" Setting aside the decree .... upon such terms as to costs." -- (Contd).

(c) Where the defendants failed to note the date of hearing fixed in the summons and did not appear, and an ex parte decree was passed, the application to set aside the decree can be granted, conditional on the applicant paying plaintiff's taxed costs by a certain day. 1904 A.W.N. 227; 27 A. 192.

(2) Effect of setting aside ex parte decree.

- (a) The effect of granting an application under the rule, is, to declare that there has not been yet a valid decree in the suit, and thereby any attachment that has issued in execution of the decree, which has been set aside, becomes invalid. 1 B.L.R. 17.
- (b) A party, who has not come in to take benefit of order of dismissal of suit after application for new trial under the rule, is entitled to the benefit. 11 W.R. 18.
- (c) Where a decree is set aside on the application of a defendant, against whom it was passed ex parte, the case is not re-opened as against a co-defendant who had appeared and defended the suit. 18 B. 142; 18 M.L.J. 308; but see 5 C.W.N. 58; 25 A. 280=1903 A.W.N. 39.
- (d) Where an ex parte decree is divisible, it is, though in form a single decree, equivalent to two decrees and when, on an application by one set of defendants who had a separate defence, it is set aside, it remains still a good and binding decree against the other set of defendants. 6 C.W.N. 109: but see 13 M.L.J. 308.
- (e) Where an order is made under the rule, the decree set aside is primarily the whole decree, though, where a decree passed against several defendants consists in reality of separate decrees against each, it may be that the decree can be set aside in part. 1902 A.W.N. 76=24 A. 383 (25 C 155; 5 C.W.N. 58, H; 18 B. 142, not foll.).
- (f) In a mortgage suit a decree for sale was passed against three persons, of whom one was ex parte. The only way of working out the decrees is, to allow the sale to proceed as against the mortgaged properties of the persons against whom there was a decree for a larger sum, and to allow the sale of the third man's properties only on default of the sale realising the lesser sum found due on the retrial. 1902 A.W.N. 189 = 25 A. 42.
- (g) The effect of an order passed under the rule was, to nullify the order made under r. 7, so as to allow the defendant to appear and defend the suit. 21 M. 324; 8 M.L.J. 58 (21 B. 223, R.).
- (h) When an ex parte decree against several defendants is set aside, at the instance of one of them, the order does not necessarily revive the whole suit to the benefit of other defendants whose prayer has been heard and rejected. 3 C.L.J. 160 (25 C. 155, D.).
- (i) It cannot be laid as an inflexible rule of law that, whenever an order is made under the rule, the effect is to set aside the whole decree. It is not obligatory upon the Court to set aside the whole decree and to re-open the entire suit under all circumstances. 6 C.L.J. 226 (4 C.W.N. 456; 8 W.R. 260, R.) and 25 C. 155, D.
- (j) When the question involved in a case is, whether the liability of the defendants is joint or several, and the ex parts decree is set aside on the application of some, the entire decree is set aside. 5 C.L.J. 202 (6 C.W.N. 109, D; 25 C. 155, F_s).

318Act Y of 1908 (CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE). [O. IX, rr. 13, 14-0. X, r. 1

- 7.—"Setting aside the decree....upon such terms as to costs."-(Concld).
  - (k) The ex parte decree as against the defendants, other than the one who had shown sufficient cause, could not be set aside. 4 M.L.T. 230 (26 M. 604; 18 B. 142, 8 W.B. 26: 25 C. 155; 4 C.W.N. 456; 24 A. 283, R. and Expl.).

No decree to be set aside without notice to opposite party.

14. No decree shall be set aside on any such application as aforesaid unless notice thereof has been served on the opposite party 1.

(Notes).

Old Act.

This rule exactly corresponds to S. 109 of Act XIV of 1882.

1.-" Opposite party."

An auction purchaser of property, sold in execution of an ex parte decree, is not a necessary party to an application made by a judgment-debtor to set aside the said decree, masmuch as the auction purchaser does not come under "opposite party" in this clause. 26 C. 267 = 3 C.W.N. 261.

ORDER X.

Examination of Parties by the Court.

1. At the first hearing of the suit the Court shall ascertain from Ascertainment whether allegations in pleadings are admitted or denied.

each party or his pleader whether he admits or denies such allegations of fact as are made in the plaint or written statement (if any) of the opposite party ¹, and as are not expressly or by necessary implication admitted or denied by the party against whom they are made. The Court shall record such admissions and denials.

(Notes).

This rule corresponds to S. 117 of the old Code.

Distinction.

The phrase, "shall ascertain from the defendant or his pleader whether he admits or denies the allegations of fact made in the plaint," is omitted in this rule.

i,---" Shall ascertain....party or pleader....admits or denies....opposite party."

(1) Admissions by pleader.

- (a) As to the effect of——, see page 62, C.—"PLEADER'S AUTHORITY TO BIND CLIENT." (Civil Procedure Code, Vol. I, Lawyer's Companion Series). E
- (b) The rule of law is that a judgment recording the admissions of a pleader must be taken as correct, unless it is contradicted by an affidavit or the Judge's own admission that the record he made was wrong. 16 W.B. 107.

I.—"Shill ascertain....party or pleader....admits or denies....opposite party."—(Concluded).

(2) Duty of Judge-Suggesting pleas.

It can never be the Judge's duty to suggest and invent pleas which the party himself has not hinted at; but it may be his duty to elicit the meaning of a party who is too ignorant to put his case clearly and to help him to state his case. (1880) Select case, Part X, No. 2.

(3) Examination of parties—Remand.

Where, the lower Court has tried a case without the examination of the parties according to this rule, and the written statements tendered by the parties are not in accordance with law, the appellate Court must remand the case for re-trial. 9 C.P.L.R. 11.

(4) Failure to prove averments-Relief.

A plaintiff, who fails to prove the averments on which his suit is based, is not entitled to any relief in respect of that portion of the property of which the defendant admits his possession as mortgagee. I A. 194.

(5) Inquiry under S. 117=0. X, r. 1 of the new Code—Allegation of possession—Finding of "no possession."

In a suit for partition, where the plaintiffs alleged joint possession with the defendants, it was not competent to a Court to make an inquiry under this rule, without framing issues and examining witnesses on the point, and find that the plaintiffs were not in possession, and make an order as to the payment of additional Court-fee. A.W.N. (1905), 170. J

- (6) Upper Burma Civil Justice Regulation, Ss. 47, 48=0 X, rr. 1 and 2 of the present Code.
  - (a) Where, upon examination of the parties, the defendant obstructed the Court by pretending that he did not understand the questions put and otherwise, it was not competent to the Court to dispose of the case summarily without framing the issues, but the Court was bound to frame the issues on the materials before it and to proceed with the provisions of Ss. 47 and 48 of the Civil Justice Regulation. U.B.R. (1832-1896), Vol. 11, Civil (245, 248).
  - (b) It is the duty of Courts to give reasonable time to the parties to get legal advice, and they must consider the circumstances under which alone such advice is obtainable in Upper Burma. (Ibid).
- 2. At the first hearing of the suit, or at any subsequent hearing, or all examination of party, or companion of party.

  Or his pleader is accompanied, may be examined orally by the Court 1: and the Court may, if it thinks fit, put in the course of such examination questions suggested by either party.

(N ot es).

Old Act

This rule corresponds to S. 118 of the old Code and also to S. 125 of the Code of 1859.

N.B.—The Code of 1859 contemplated the examination of the party, his pleader, or a companion of his rule as well as in S. 118 of the Code of 1882.

I,—"Any party appearing in person or present in Court....may be examined orally by the Court."

(1) Scope of the rule.

- (a) Rule 2 was a provision merely to enable the Court to ascertain the questions in controversy between the parties, and was not intended to be in substitution for the regular examination on oath. 2 A.L.J. 777.
- (b) Any statement made by a party, examined under rule 2, was binding only on the person who made the statement. (Ibid).
- .(c) The examination may be made by the Court without administering oath or affirmation to the party. Cf. Act of 1859.

(2) Appearance by pleader.

Ss. 118, 119 (1859, S. 125)=O. X, rules 2 and 3, contemplate a case in which a party who has appeared at the proper time, afterwards appears by pleader. 12 W.R. 207.

(3)] Ex parte trial-Written statement.

- (a) If the parties appear properly, the Court must examine them and frame the issues. A suit ought not to be tried ex parte, simply because a party does not put in a written statement. 2 M.H.C. 311.
- (b) It is only the Court that cangut questions, and the parties have no right to put questions to each other. (Ibid).

Substance of examination to be written.

3. The substance of the examination shall be reduced to writing by the Judge, and shall form part of the record.

Old Act.

This rule corresponds to S. 119 of the old Code.

- Consequence of refusal or inability of pleader to answer. any material question relating to the suit 2 which the Court is of opinion that the party whom he represents ought to answer, and is likely to be able to answer if interrogated in person, the Court may postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day and direct that such party shall appear in person on such day.
- (2) If such party fails without lawful excuse³ to appear in person on the day so appointed, the Court may pronounce judgment against him, or make such order in relation to the suit as it thinks fit⁴.

(Notes).

Sub-rule (1) of this rule corresponds to the first paragraph of S. 120 of the old Code, and sub-rule (2) to the second paragraph of the same section. The rule also corresponds to S. 127 of Act VIII of 1859.

O. X, r. 4]

The words "or any such person accompanying a pleader as is referred to in rule (2)" are newly added in sub-rule (1), and the words "pronounce judgment," are inserted instead of the words "pass a decree," in sub-rule (2).

(General).

(1) Act VIII, 1859, S. 170.

Under—, no case could be dismissed or decreed on default unless some evidence had been given by the other party. 12 W.R. 369; 9 B.L.R. 218, note; 9 B.L.R. 215; 17 W.R. 550; see also 12 W.R. 242; 15 W.R. 253; 17 W.R. 141; 20 W.R. 165; 22 W.R. 270.

- (2) Appeal—S. 588, clause 10 of the old Gode = Order XLIII, clause (e) of the new Gode.
  - (a) No appeal lies from an order passed under sub-rule (1) of this rule.
  - (b) The order under S. 120 of the old Code = O. X, r. 4 of the present Code, from which an appeal is allowed by S. 588, clause 10 of the old Code (=order XLIII, clause (e) of the present Code), is an order under sub-rule (2) of this rule. 3 O.C. 31.
- (3) Contumacious litigants.

The stringent provisions of this rule ought to be applied only in the case of——.
6.W.R. 247; 15 W.R. 253.

(4) Execution proceedings.

The rule applies to- 8 W.R. 64.

W

(5) Intention of the rule.

The——seems to be, to enable the Court not only to get obscure points cleared up by obtaining information from either of the parties, but also to get admissions so as to narrow down the issues. 5 Bom.L.R. 687.

(6) Object of the rule.

The—is, not to take evidence or to ascertain what is to be the evidence in the case, but to see what the matters in dispute are, and, if necessary, to allow the plaint to be amended. 15 I.A. 119=15 C. 538.

- (7) Powers granted under the rule.
  - (a) The—to a Court are discretionary. 5 Bom.L.R. 687; see also 5 W.R. 89; 6 W.R. Act X, 86.
